Item 3.03

Material Modification to Rights of Security Holders

Altair Nanotechnologies Inc. (the “Company”) has determined to effect a one-for-four (1:4) consolidation (a/k/a reverse split) of its common shares following the close of business on November 15, 2010. The consolidation was approved by the shareholders at the Company’s annual and special meeting of shareholders on May 24, 2010 and has been authorized by the Company’s Board of Directors. The consolidated common shares are expected to begin trading on a post-consolidation basis on November 16, 2010 on the Nasdaq Capital Market.

This action is being taken in order to preserve the Company's listing on the NASDAQ Capital Market which requires, among other things, a minimum bid price exceeding $1.00 per share. Compliance with minimum bid price per share is required by December 20, 2010 and in the event the Company has not regained compliance by such date, the shares will be delisted from NASDAQ.

In the consolidation, each four issued and common shares will be converted automatically into one common share. The number of outstanding common shares will be reduced from approximately 108,062,300 million shares pre-consolidation to approximately 27,015,570 million shares post consolidation. No fractional shares or scrip certificates shall be issued to the holders of presently issued and outstanding shares of the common stock. Rather, any fractional share that remains after all shares beneficially held by a holder of the common shares have been consolidated will be rounded up to a whole common share.

Shareholders of record as of closing on November 15, 2010 will receive instructions explaining the process for obtaining post-consolidation stock certificates.
