NHC settles lawsuits

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. -- National HealthCare Corporation (AMEX: NHC), one of the nation's oldest long-term health care companies, announced today that it has settled 28 of the 32 lawsuits filed against the company as a result of the September 25, 2003 fire at one of its subsidiaries. No additional lawsuits are expected related to this event.

Consistent with generally accepted accounting principles, the company will continue its policy to accrue for probable and estimated losses related to the Nashville fire and to include its estimates of these losses in accrued risk reserves in the consolidated balance sheet. NHC believes that it is adequately reserved to cover the settlements and future claims related to the Nashville fire.

NHC operates for itself and third parties 74 long-term health care centers with 9,214 beds. NHC also operates 32 homecare programs, six independent living centers and assisted living centers at 20 locations. NHC's other services include managed care specialty medical units, Alzheimer's units and a rehabilitation services company. Other information about the company can be found on our web site at www.NHCcare.com.

Statements in this press release that are not historical facts are forward-looking statements. NHC cautions investors that any forward-looking statements made involve risks and uncertainties and are not guarantees of future performance. All forward-looking statements represent NHC's best judgment as of the date of this release.
