AGENDA OF SPECIAL GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS
June 5, 2003

Explanatory notes to the agenda of a Special General Meeting of Shareholders of ARCADIS N.V., to be held on Thursday, June 5, 2003.

Agenda item 2: Approval of an amendment of the Company's Articles of Association

Pursuant to Article 28, Paragraph 1, of the Articles, an amendment of the Articles requires the affirmative vote of seventy-five percent of the Shares represented at the General Meeting of Shareholders at which a quorum of seventy-five percent of the Outstanding Capital is represented. Because no such quorum was achieved at the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders of May 14, 2003, no resolution could be adopted at that meeting regarding the proposed amendment. Consistent with the requirements of Article 28, Paragraph 2, of the Articles, a new general meeting of shareholders is being called for June 5, 2003 (the "Subsequent Meeting"). At the Subsequent Meeting decisions with respect to an amendment of the Articles may be validly adopted regardless of the Outstanding Capital represented at such Meeting, provided such decisions are adopted by the affirmative vote of seventy-five percent of the Shares represented.

The Executive Board, with the approval of the Supervisory Board and the holder of the Priority Shares, proposes to amend the Company's articles of association to abolish the structure regime of the Company. The Central Works Council has already issued its positive advice regarding this matter.

Generally

The Company is considered an international holding company under the current Dutch regulation of large public limited companies ("structuurvennootschappen") because less than 50% of the total number of employees of the subsidiary companies of ARCADIS N.V. are employed in the Netherlands, and as such, qualifies for a complete exemption from the so-called structuurregime (structure regime). As a consequence, this regime is no longer mandatorily applicable and can be abolished at the Company. A more limited version of the structure regime will be implemented at ARCADIS Nederland B.V. which is the holding company of the Dutch operating companies. The reason for the proposal to abolish the structure regime at the Company lies in the fact that the limitations which result from such regime with respect to the influence of shareholders on the Company are no longer compatible with the current philosophy regarding the management of an internationally-operating and publicly-listed company like ARCADIS N.V.

Following the proposed amendment of the Company's articles of association the structure regime will no longer apply to the Company as she will qualify as a "normal" company. This entails a number of amendments to the articles of association.

Appointment, suspension and dismissal of members of the Executive Board

The members of the Executive Board will be appointed by the General Meeting of Shareholders from a nomination to be prepared by the Supervisory Board. Article 12 will be amended conform thereto. New Paragraph 6 of Article 12 requires that the Supervisory Board prepare a nomination within 6 months from the occurrence of a vacancy on the Executive Board. The General Meeting of Shareholders may appoint an Executive Director if the Supervisory Board has not prepared a nomination (binding or non-binding) within the prescribed time period. In such event, the general meeting may adopt a resolution by simple majority of the votes cast.

If the Supervisory Board has prepared a binding nomination, the General Meeting of Shareholders may nevertheless void the binding character of the nomination by a resolution adopted by at least a two-thirds majority of the votes cast provided they represent more than half of the issued share capital of the Company. If a non-binding nomination has been prepared then the General Meeting of Shareholders may set aside such nomination by a resolution adopted by at least a two-thirds majority of the votes cast provided they represent more than half of the issued share capital of the Company. If the non-binding nomination is accepted by the General Meeting of Shareholders, then the resolution effecting the appointment requires a simple majority of the votes cast.

Article 12 is being amended to provide that the members of the Executive Board can be suspended by the Supervisory Board and can be dismissed by the General Meeting of Shareholders. Unless proposed by the Supervisory Board, a resolution by the General Meeting of Shareholders to suspend or dismiss a member of the Executive Board will require a two-thirds majority of the votes cast provided they represent more than half of the issued share capital of the Company. This is the same requirement as for an appointment by the general meeting which is non-conform to a binding nomination prepared by the Supervisory Board.

Appointment, suspension and dismissal of members of the Supervisory Board

The members of the Supervisory Board will be appointed by the General Meeting of Shareholders from a nomination to be prepared by the Supervisory Board. Article 15 will be amended conform thereto. New Paragraph 6 of Article 15 requires that the Supervisory Board prepare a nomination within 6 months following the occurrence of a vacancy. The General Meeting of Shareholders may appoint an Supervisory Director if the Supervisory Board has not prepared a nomination within the prescribed time period. In such event, the general meeting may adopt a resolution by simple majority of the votes cast.

If the Supervisory Board has prepared a binding nomination, the General Meeting of Shareholders may nevertheless void the binding character of the nomination by a resolution adopted by at least a two-thirds majority of the votes cast provided they represent more than one-third of the issued share capital of the Company. If a non-binding nomination has been prepared then the General Meeting of Shareholders may set aside such nomination by a resolution adopted by a similar majority of the votes cast. If the non-binding nomination is accepted by the General Meeting of Shareholders, then the resolution effecting the appointment requires a simple majority of the votes cast.

Article 15 is being amended to provide that the members of the Supervisory Board can be suspended and dismissed by the General Meeting of Shareholders and no longer by the Supervisory Board. Unless proposed by the Supervisory Board, a resolution by the General Meeting of Shareholders to suspend or dismiss a member of the Executive Board will require a two-thirds majority of the votes cast provided they represent more than one-third of the issued share capital of the Company. This is the same requirement as for an appointment by the general meeting which is non-conform to a binding nomination prepared by the Supervisory Board.

Financial Statements

Article 19 will be amended to provide that the General Meeting of Shareholders adopts the annual financial statements of the Company. The annual financial statements will be prepared by the Executive Board. The profit appropriation will be adopted by the Executive Board conform Article 27, Paragraph 8, subject to the approval of the Supervisory Board.

Authorization to effect amendment of the Company's articles of association

The proposal also includes the granting of authorization to each member of the Executive Board, the Company secretary and each candidate-notary and notarial associate employed by the firm of De Brauw Blackstone Westbroek in Amsterdam to apply for the required ministerial declaration of non-objection and to deliver the notarial deed effecting the amendment of the Company's articles of association.

The complete text of the proposed amendment is available for inspection at the offices of the Company, Utrechtseweg 68 in Arnhem and at the ABN AMRO Service Desk, tel. 011-31-76-579-9455, and will be delivered upon request.

PROXY STATEMENT
For the Special General Meeting of Shareholders to be held on June 5, 2003

INTRODUCTION

This Proxy Statement is being provided by and on behalf of the Executive Board of ARCADIS N.V., a company organized and existing under the laws of the Kingdom of The Netherlands ("ARCADIS" or the "Company"), in connection with the solicitation of proxies for use at the Special General Meeting of Shareholders of the Company to be held on Thursday, June 5, 2003 at 10:00 a.m. local time, at the offices of the Company, Bellevue, Utrechtseweg 68 in Arnhem, The Netherlands, and at any and all adjournments or postponements thereof (the "Special Meeting"). This Proxy Statement and the enclosed proxy card will be first mailed on or about May 15, 2003.

The Special Meeting will be held for the sole purpose of approving an amendment of the Company's Articles of Association.

Shareholders Entitled to Notice and Vote

Shareholders of the Company of record at the close of business on April 29, 2003 (the "Notice Record Date") will be entitled to notice of the Special Meeting. Pursuant to the Company's Articles of Association (the "Articles") and Netherlands law, anyone who is a shareholder on the date of the meeting is entitled to attend and vote at a shareholders meeting. Accordingly, the Notice Record Date serves only as a reference date for determining which persons are to receive notice of the Special Meeting, and not which persons are entitled to attend and vote at the Special Meeting. On April 22, 2003, one week prior to the Notice Record Date, there were 20,299,506 shares of the Company's common stock, €0.05 nominal value each (the "Common Stock") and 200 Priority Shares, €0.05 nominal value each (the "Priority Shares"), issued and outstanding. On the Notice Record Date, no shares of the Company's preferred stock, €0.05 nominal value each (the "Preferred Stock"), and no shares of the Company's financing cumulative preferred stock, €0.05 nominal value each (the "Financing Preferred Stock"), were issued and outstanding (the Common Stock, the Priority Shares, the Preferred Stock and the Financing Preferred Stock, collectively, are hereinafter referred to as the "Shares"). Notwithstanding the Notice Record Date specified above, the Company's transfer books will not be closed and Shares may be transferred subsequent to the Notice Record Date. However, if the ownership of Shares that have been voted by proxy is transferred prior to the Special Meeting, then the votes cast by proxy for such Shares will be disregarded as invalid under Netherlands law.

Votes and Quorum

Pursuant to the Articles, shareholders will be entitled to one vote for each voting Share held, and shareholders may vote in person or by proxy. The Articles do not impose a quorum of shareholders to be present and represented at the Special Meeting but because the shares of Common Stock are quoted on the National Market of the National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotation System, pursuant to the requirements set forth in the Bylaws of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., no shareholder decision taken at the Special Meeting will be deemed to be validly taken unless 33¹/₃ percent of the outstanding shares of the Common Stock shall have been present or represented at the Special Meeting at the time such shareholder decision was taken. Pursuant to the Articles, only votes cast by Shares represented and entitled to vote at the Special Meeting determine the adoption or rejection of a proposal by the Special Meeting and, accordingly, abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the actual voting.

Pursuant to Article 28, Paragraph 1, of the Company's Articles of Association (the "Articles"), an amendment of the Articles requires the affirmative vote of the General Meeting of Shareholders at which a quorum of seventy-five percent of all issued and outstanding shares of the Company's capital stock (the "Outstanding Capital") are represented. Because no such quorum was achieved at the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders of May 14, 2003, no resolution could be adopted at that meeting regarding the proposed amendment. Consistent with the requirements of Article 28, Paragraph 2, of the Articles a new general meeting of shareholders is being called for June 5, 2003 (the "Subsequent Meeting"). At the Subsequent Meeting decisions with respect to an amendment of the Articles may be validly adopted regardless of the number of Shares represented at such Meeting, provided such decisions are adopted by the affirmative vote of seventy-five percent of the Outstanding Capital represented.

Proxies

If the enclosed proxy card ("Proxy") is fully and properly executed, returned in time and not revoked prior to or at the Special Meeting and the ownership of the Shares so voted has not been transferred prior to the Special Meeting, the Shares represented thereby will be voted in accordance with the instructions indicated on such Proxy. If no instructions are indicated on such Proxy, the Shares represented thereby will be voted "FOR" the proposed amendment of the Company's Articles of Association. All persons named as proxies on the enclosed Proxy are members of the Company's Executive Board. Any shareholder giving a Proxy has the right to withhold authority to vote for the sole proposal to be voted upon by so indicating in the box "ABSTAIN" on the enclosed Proxy. A shareholder who has returned a Proxy may revoke it at any time prior to its exercise at the Special Meeting by either (i) giving written notice of revocation to the Chairman of the Executive Board of the Company; (ii) properly submitting to the Company a duly executed Proxy bearing a later date; or (iii) appearing at the Special Meeting and voting in person. Shareholders who wish to attend the Special Meeting in person will be required to present proper identification and proof that they are a shareholder on the day of the Special Meeting. All written notices of revocation of a Proxy should be addressed as follows: ARCADIS N.V., Utrechtseweg 68, 6812 AH Arnhem, The Netherlands, Attention: Harrie L.J. Noy, Chairman of the Executive Board.

PROPOSAL 1

APPROVAL OF AN AMENDMENT OF THE COMPANY'S ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

Pursuant to Article 28, Paragraph 1, of the Articles, an amendment of the Articles requires the affirmative vote of seventy-five percent of the Shares represented at the General Meeting of Shareholders at which a quorum of seventy-five percent of the Outstanding Capital is represented. Because no such quorum was achieved at the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders of May 14, 2003, no resolution could be adopted at that meeting regarding the proposed amendment. Consistent with the requirements of Article 28, Paragraph 2, of the Articles, a new general meeting of shareholders is being called for June 5, 2003 (the "Subsequent Meeting"). At the Subsequent Meeting decisions with respect to an amendment of the Articles may be validly adopted regardless of the Outstanding Capital represented at such Meeting, provided such decisions are adopted by the affirmative vote of seventy-five percent of the Shares represented.

The Executive Board, with the approval of the Supervisory Board and the holder of the Priority Shares, proposes to amend the Articles to abolish the structure regime of the Company. The Central Works Council has already issued its positive advice regarding this matter.

Generally

The Company is considered an international holding company under the current Dutch regulation of large public limited companies ("structuurvennootschappen") because less than 50% of the total number of employees of the subsidiary companies of ARCADIS N.V. are employed in the Netherlands, and as such, qualifies for a complete exemption from the so-called structuurregime (structure regime). As a consequence, this regime is no longer mandatorily applicable and can be abolished at the Company. A more limited version of the structure regime will be implemented at ARCADIS Nederland B.V. which is the holding company of the Dutch operating companies. The reason for the proposal to abolish the structure regime at the Company lies in the fact that the limitations which result from such regime with respect to the influence of shareholders on the Company are no longer compatible with the current philosophy regarding the management of an internationally-operating and publicly-listed company like ARCADIS N.V.

Following the proposed amendment of the Articles the structure regime will no longer apply to the Company as she will qualify as a "normal" company. This entails a number of amendments to the Articles.

Appointment, suspension and dismissal of members of the Executive Board

The members of the Executive Board will be appointed by the General Meeting of Shareholders from a nomination to be prepared by the Supervisory Board. Article 12 will be amended conform thereto. New Paragraph 6 of Article 12 requires that the Supervisory Board prepare a nomination within 6 months from the occurrence of a vacancy on the Executive Board. The General Meeting of Shareholders may appoint an Executive Director if the Supervisory Board has not prepared a nomination (binding or non-binding) within the prescribed time period. In such event, the general meeting may adopt a resolution by simple majority of the votes cast.

If the Supervisory Board has prepared a binding nomination, then the General Meeting of Shareholders may nevertheless void the binding character of the nomination by a resolution adopted by at least a two-thirds majority of the votes cast provided they represent more than half of the issued share capital of the Company. If a non-binding nomination has been prepared then the General Meeting of Shareholders may set aside such nomination by a resolution adopted by at least a two-thirds majority of the votes cast provided they represent more than half of the issued share capital of the Company. If the non-binding nomination is accepted by the General Meeting of Shareholders, then the resolution effecting the appointment requires a simple majority of the votes cast.

Article 12 is being amended to provide that the members of the Executive Board can be suspended by the Supervisory Board and can be dismissed by the General Meeting of Shareholders. Unless proposed by the Supervisory Board, a resolution by the General Meeting of Shareholders to suspend or dismiss a member of the Executive Board will require a two-thirds majority of the votes cast provided they represent more than half of the issued share capital of the Company. This is the same requirement as for an appointment by the general meeting which is non-conform to a binding nomination prepared by the Supervisory Board.

Appointment, suspension and dismissal of members of the Supervisory Board

The members of the Supervisory Board will be appointed by the General Meeting of Shareholders from a nomination to be prepared by the Supervisory Board. Article 15 will be amended conform thereto. New Paragraph 6 of Article 15 requires that the Supervisory Board prepare a nomination within 6 months following the occurrence of a vacancy. The General Meeting of Shareholders may appoint an Supervisory Director if the Supervisory Board has not prepared a nomination within the prescribed time period. In such event, the general meeting may adopt a resolution by simple majority of the votes cast.

If the Supervisory Board has prepared a binding nomination, then the General Meeting of Shareholders may nevertheless void the binding character of the nomination by a resolution adopted by at least a two-thirds majority of the votes cast provided they represent more than one-third of the issued share capital of the Company. If a non-binding nomination has been prepared then the General Meeting of Shareholders may set aside such nomination by a resolution adopted by a similar majority of the votes cast. If the non-binding nomination is accepted by the General Meeting of Shareholders, then the resolution effecting the appointment requires a simple majority of the votes cast.

Article 15 is being amended to provide that the members of the Supervisory Board can be suspended and dismissed by the General Meeting of Shareholders and no longer by the Supervisory Board. Unless proposed by the Supervisory Board, a resolution by the General Meeting of Shareholders to suspend or dismiss a member of the Executive Board will require a two-thirds majority of the votes cast provided they represent more than one-third of the issued share capital of the Company. This is the same requirement as for an appointment by the general meeting which is non-conform to a binding nomination prepared by the Supervisory Board.

Edgar Filing: ARCADIS N V - Form 6-K

The annual financial statements will be prepared by the Executive Board. The profit appropriation will be adopted by the Executive Board conform Article 27, Paragraph 8, subject to the approval of the Supervisory Board.

Authorization to effect amendment of the Company's articles of association

The proposal also includes the granting of authorization to each member of the Executive Board, the Company secretary and each candidate-notary and notarial associate employed by the firm of De Brauw Blackstone Westbroek in Amsterdam to apply for the required ministerial declaration of non-objection and to deliver the notarial deed effecting the amendment of the Articles.
