Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On August 11, 2011, Mannatech, Incorporated (the “Company”) received a letter from the NASDAQ Stock Market (the “Notice”) notifying the Company that the closing bid price of the Company’s common stock was below the $1.00 minimum bid price requirement for 30 consecutive business days and, as a result, the Company no longer complies with the minimum bid price requirement under Listing Rule 5450(a)(1) for continued listing on the NASDAQ Global Select Market.

The Notice also stated that the Company has been provided an initial compliance period of 180 calendar days, or until February 7, 2012, to regain compliance with the minimum bid price requirement. To regain compliance, the closing bid price of the Company’s common stock must be at least $1.00 per share for a minimum of 10 consecutive business days prior to February 7, 2012. The Notice has no immediate effect on the listing of the Company’s common stock at this time, which will continue to trade on the NASDAQ Global Select Market. If the Company does not regain compliance by February 7, 2012, NASDAQ will provide notice to the Company that its securities are subject to delisting.

The Company intends to monitor the bid price of its common stock and is considering actions that it may take in order to regain compliance with the continued listing requirements by February 7, 2012, which may include applying for an extension of the compliance period or an appeal to a NASDAQ Hearings Panel, but no decisions have been made at this time.
