Item 4.01 Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

(a) On May 21, 2009 (the "Notice Date"), the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of Prudential Bancorp, Inc. of Pennsylvania (the "Company") notified Deloitte & Touche LLP ("Deloitte") that it has been dismissed as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, effective immediately. The dismissal of Deloitte was effected by the Audit Committee.

Deloitte performed audits of the Company's consolidated financial statements for the years ended September 30, 2008 and 2007. Deloitte's reports did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles.

During the two years ended September 30, 2008, and from September 30, 2008 through the Notice Date, there have been no disagreements between the Company and Deloitte on any matter of accounting principles or practice, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements would have caused Deloitte to make reference to the subject matter of such disagreements in connection with its report. None of the "reportable events" described in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 have occurred during the two years ended September 30, 2008, or through the Notice Date.

The Company provided Deloitte with a copy of the foregoing disclosures and requested that it furnish a letter addressed to the SEC, stating whether it agrees with the statements made by the Company set forth above, and if not, stating the respects in which it does not agree. Attached as Exhibit 16 to this Report is Deloitte's response letter.

(b) On the Notice Date, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of Prudential Bancorp, Inc. of Pennsylvania (the "Company") notified S.R. Snodgrass, A.C. ("Snodgrass") that it had been engaged to serve as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. The appointment of Snodgrass was effected by the Audit Committee.

During the two years ended September 30, 2008 and from September 30, 2008 through the engagement of Snodgrass as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, neither the Company nor anyone on its behalf had consulted Snodgrass with respect to the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the financial statements, or any matter that was either the subject of a disagreement with Deloitte & Touche LLP ("Deloitte") on accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedures, which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Deloitte, would have caused Deloitte to make reference to the matter in its report, or a "reportable event" as described in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K promulgated by the SEC.

During the two years ended September 30, 2008 and from September 30, 2008 through the engagement of Snodgrass as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, Snodgrass had been engaged by the Company to provide the Company with tax services, including assisting the Company with the preparation of its federal and state tax returns. Such services included utilizing a trial balance prepared by the Company to assist with the preparation of the quarterly and annual analysis of the Company's accounting for income taxes as governed by Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109.

Snodgrass, in its role as a tax specialist, assisted the Company in preliminary determination, subject to the Company's review and modification as necessary, of the quarterly tax payments, quarterly and annual tax provision and related assessment of deferred tax asset and liability position, as well as consideration of uncertain tax position (if any), based on the financial data derived from the Company's internal books and records furnished by the Company. The Company used the quarterly analysis to establish the tax entries for accounting purposes. Preparation of the Company's consolidated financial statements (annual and quarterly), including related tax entries and related tax footnotes, has been solely the Company's responsibility. The determination of the final tax entries for accounting purposes was always within the final control of the Company. The Audit Committee considered Snodgrass' involvement in such process and concluded that the provision of such services did not adversely affect the independence of Snodgrass. As a result of the appointment of Snodgrass as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, Snodgrass will no longer provide any assistance to the Company with respect to the preparation of the quarterly and annual tax analysis.
