ITEM 8.01 OTHER EVENTS

North American Galvanizing & Coatings, Inc. (“the Company”) experienced a fire late Friday afternoon, November 20, 2009 at its St. Louis facility. There were no injuries, and there was no environmental contamination outside the plant. The cause of the fire is currently under investigation.

The Company plans to transport product to be galvanized from the St. Louis market to other North American Galvanizing Company plants in its eleven plant network. The Company is compiling an estimate of the loss and the time table to restart the facility. The Company expects that the majority of the loss will be covered by insurance.

This filing may contain “forward-looking statements” as defined under U.S. securities laws, including, but not limited to, statements concerning the Company’s beliefs and expectations of future performance. Forward-looking statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from such forward-looking statements and management's present expectations or projections. These risks and uncertainties include the risk factors described in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008 and the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended June 30, 2009. These forward-looking statements are made as of the date of this filing. The Company assumes no obligation to update or revise these statements or to provide reasons why actual results may differ.
