DEFINITIONS:

144A 144A Securites are registered pursuant to Rule 144A of the Securites Act of 1933. These securities are deemed to be liquid for purposes of compliance limitations on holdings of illiquid securities and may be resold as transactions exempt from registration, normally to qualified institutional buyers. At December 31, 2004, these securities aggregated $15,592 or 10.4% of the net assets of the Fund.

Item 2. Controls and Procedures.

(a) Based on their evaluation of registrant's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in rule 30a-3(c) under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as of December 31, 2004, registrant's principal executive officer and principal financial officer found registrant's disclosure controls and procedures to be appropriately designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by registrant in the reports that it files on Form N-Q (a) is accumulated and communicated to registrant's management, including its principal executive officer and principal financial officer, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure, and (b) is recorded, processed, summarized and reported, within the time periods specified in the rules and forms adopted by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

(b) Effective September 14, 2004, Transamerica Fund Services, Inc., the registrant's administrator, entered into an agreement with Investors Bank & Trust Company (IBT) for IBT to provide certain administrative services on behalf of the registrant, which may be deemed to be a change that has materially affected, or is likely to materially affect, registrant's internal control over financial reporting.

Item 3. Exhibits.

A certification for registrant's principal executive officer and principal financial officer, as required by Rule 30a-2(a) under the 1940 Act, is attached.
