PROXY STATEMENT
for Annual Meeting of Stockholders to Be Held on June 4, 2008

GENERAL INFORMATION

Our Board of Directors (the Board) is furnishing you this proxy statement to solicit proxies on its behalf to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of iParty Corp. (iParty or the Company). The meeting will be held at the offices of Posternak Blankstein & Lund LLP, at the Prudential Tower, 33rd Floor, 800 Boylston Street, Boston MA, 02199, on June 4, 2008, at 11:00 a.m., local time. The proxies also may be voted at any adjournments or postponements of the meeting.

The mailing address of our principal executive offices is iParty Corp., 270 Bridge Street, Suite 301, Dedham, MA, 02026. We are first furnishing the proxy materials to stockholders on or about April 30, 2008.

All properly executed written proxies that are delivered pursuant to this solicitation will be voted at the meeting in accordance with the directions given in the proxy, unless the proxy is revoked prior to completion of voting at the meeting.

Only owners of record of shares of common stock, Series B convertible preferred stock (Series B Preferred Stock), Series C convertible preferred stock (Series C Preferred Stock), Series D convertible preferred stock (Series D Preferred Stock), Series E convertible preferred stock (Series E Preferred Stock) and Series F convertible preferred stock (Series F Preferred Stock) and together with the Series B Preferred Stock, Series C Preferred Stock, Series D Preferred Stock and Series E Preferred Stock, the Convertible Preferred Stock) of the Company at the close of business on April 14, 2008, the record date, are entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting, or at any adjournments or postponements of the meeting.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MEETING AND VOTING

What is this document? This is the Notice of our 2008 Annual Meeting of Stockholders of iParty Corp. (iParty or the Company), combined with our Proxy Statement which provides important information for your use in voting your shares of our common stock, or our various series of convertible preferred stock, at the annual meeting.

Who can vote? You can vote your shares of common stock or your shares of convertible preferred stock if our records show that you owned the shares at the close of business on April 14, 2008, which is the record date for the annual meeting. Shares representing a total of 37,660,753 votes are eligible to vote at the meeting.

Common Stock. You are permitted one vote for each share of common stock you owned at the close of business on April 14, 2008, including (i) shares held in your name as a stockholder of record, and (ii) shares held in street name for you as the beneficial owner through a broker, trustee, or other nominee, such as a bank. Thus, as of April 14, 2008, there were 22,717,400 votes eligible to vote at the meeting associated with 22,717,400 shares of common stock. The enclosed proxy card shows the number of shares you can vote.

Convertible Preferred Stock. Except as otherwise required by Delaware General Corporation Law, the Convertible Preferred Stock is entitled to vote together with the common stock on all matters to which the common stock is entitled to vote. When the Convertible Preferred Stock votes together with the Common Stock as one class, you are permitted one vote for each whole number of shares of our common stock into which the shares of Convertible Preferred Stock are convertible. Thus, as of April 14, 2008, the number of votes eligible to vote at the meeting were 6,033,833 votes associated with 464,151 shares of Series B Preferred Stock (you are permitted thirteen (13) votes for each share of Series B Preferred Stock), 1,300,000 votes associated with 100,000 shares of Series C Preferred Stock (you are permitted thirteen (13) votes for each share of Series C Preferred Stock), 3,500,000 votes associated with 250,000 shares of Series D Preferred Stock (you are permitted fourteen (14) votes for each share of Series D Preferred Stock), 2,966,660 votes associated with 296,666 shares of Series E Preferred Stock (you are permitted ten (10) votes for each share of Series E Preferred Stock), and 1,142,860 votes associated with 114,286 shares of Series F Preferred Stock (you are permitted ten (10) votes for each share of Series F Preferred Stock). In each such case, the number of votes is calculated based on the number of shares you owned at the close of business on April 14, 2008, including shares held in your name as a stockholder of record and shares held in street name for you as the beneficial owner through a broker, trustee, or other nominee, such as a bank. The enclosed proxy card shows the number of shares you can vote.

Special Voting Rights of Series C and Series D Preferred Stock with Respect to Election of Directors. So long as at least fifty percent (50%), of the initially issued shares of Series C Preferred Stock remains outstanding, the holders of the Series C Preferred Stock are entitled to vote alone for the election of a Series C Director. So long as at least fifty percent (50%), of the initially issued shares of Series D Preferred Stock remains outstanding, the holders of the Series D Preferred Stock are entitled to vote alone for the election of a Series D Director.

Special Voting Rights of the Convertible Preferred Stock. Under the various Certificates of Designations, each series of Convertible Preferred Stock has a separate class vote in the following instances:

- The creation and issuance of any series of preferred stock or other security which is senior as to liquidation and or dividend rights to such Convertible Preferred Stock; and
- An action that repeals, amends, or otherwise changes the Certificate of Designations or Certificate of Incorporation in a manner that would alter or change the powers, preferences, rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions of the particular class of Convertible Preferred Stock to adversely affect such class.

Unless otherwise specified in the Certificate of Designations, when voting as a separate class, you are permitted one vote for each share of Convertible Preferred Stock you owned at the close of business on April 14, 2008, including (i) shares held in your name as a stockholder of record, and (ii) shares held in street name for you as the beneficial owner through a broker, trustee, or other nominee, such as a bank. In the case of the second bullet point above, in addition to counting the votes previously described, each holder of Series B Preferred Stock, regardless of the number of shares of Series B Preferred Stock owned of record or beneficially, is also permitted one vote per holder when counting the number of holders.

How do I vote by proxy? Follow the instructions on the enclosed proxy card to vote on each proposal to be considered at the annual meeting. Sign and date the proxy card and mail it back in the enclosed envelope. The proxy holders named on the proxy card will vote your shares as you instruct. If you sign and return the proxy card but do not vote on a proposal, the proxy holders will vote for you on that proposal. Unless you instruct otherwise, the proxy holders will vote in accordance with the Board of Director's recommendation below.

How does the board of directors recommend that I vote on the proposals? The Board of Directors recommends that you vote:

FOR the election of all six nominees to serve as directors;

FOR the amendments to the Certificate of Designations-Series B to change the requisite number of shares or holders necessary to amend or waive certain provisions therein; and

FOR the ratification of the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 27, 2008.

What if other matters come up at the meeting? The matters described in this proxy statement are the only matters we know that will be voted on at the meeting. If other matters are properly presented at the meeting, the proxy holders will vote your shares in their discretion.

Can I change my vote after I return my proxy card? Yes. At any time before the annual meeting, you can change your vote either by sending our Chief Financial Officer and Secretary, David E. Robertson, a written notice revoking your proxy card or by signing, dating, and returning to us a new proxy card. We will honor the proxy card with the latest date.

Can I vote in person at the meeting rather than by completing the proxy card? Although we encourage you to complete and return the proxy card even if you plan to attend the meeting to ensure that your vote is counted, you can always vote your shares in person at the meeting.

Who will count the votes? The votes cast by holders of shares of our common stock and our various series of convertible preferred stock will be counted, tabulated and certified by the transfer agent and registrar of our common stock and Series B Preferred Stock, Continental Stock Transfer & Trust Co. David E. Robertson, our Chief Financial Officer, will serve as the inspector of elections at the annual meeting.

Will my vote be kept confidential? Yes, your vote will be kept confidential and we will not disclose your vote, unless (1) we are required to do so by law (including in connection with the pursuit or defense of a legal or administrative action or proceeding), (2) a stockholder makes a written comment on the proxy card or otherwise communicates his or her vote to management, (3) to allow the inspector of elections to certify the results of the vote, or (4) there is a contested election for the Board of Directors. The inspector of elections will forward any written comments that you make on the proxy card to our Board of Directors and Chief Executive Officer without providing your name, unless you expressly request disclosure on your proxy card.

What do I do if I am a beneficial owner and my shares are held in street name ? If your shares are held in the name of your broker, a bank, or other nominee, that party will give you instructions for voting your shares, which should be enclosed with this document.

What constitutes a quorum? In order for business to be conducted at the meeting, a quorum must be present. The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of all outstanding shares of each class of stock entitled to vote at the annual meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum at the annual meeting.

Shares of common stock and Convertible Preferred Stock represented in person or by proxy (including broker non-votes, if any, and shares that abstain or do not vote with respect to one or more of the matters to be voted upon) will be counted for the purpose of determining whether a quorum exists. Broker non-votes are those shares that are held in street name by a broker, bank, or other nominee that indicates on its proxy that it does not have discretionary authority to vote on a particular matter. Brokers, banks and other nominees may not be able to use their discretionary authority for the matters involving the amendments to the Certificate of Designations-Series B.

If a quorum is not present, the meeting will be adjourned until a quorum is obtained. Under our bylaws, notice need not be given of any such adjourned meeting if the time and place thereof are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken. At the adjourned meeting, our stockholders may transact any business that might have been transacted at the original meeting. If the adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days, or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, our by-laws require that a notice of the adjourned meeting be given to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at the meeting.

What is the voting requirement to approve each proposal? In the election of directors, the persons receiving the most number of FOR votes at the meeting will be elected. Holders of shares of Series C Preferred Stock alone are entitled to cast votes in respect of the election of the Series C Director.

The proposal to amend Section 4(c) and Section 7(c) of the Certificate of Designations-Series B will require: (i) the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock and Convertible Preferred Stock entitled to vote on the matter, voting together as a single class on an as converted basis, (ii) the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock entitled to vote on the matter, voting separately as a single class, and (iii) the affirmative vote of a majority in number of the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock entitled to vote on the matter, voting separately as a class, in the case of Section 4(c) and the affirmative vote of one-half in number of the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock entitled to vote on the matter, voting separately as a class, in the case of Section 7(c).

The proposal to ratify the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 27, 2008 requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the meeting by the holders of outstanding shares of all classes of our stock entitled to vote thereon who are present at the meeting either in person or by proxy.

Votes withheld for a particular director nominee and broker non-votes, if any, will have no effect on the outcome of the election of directors. Abstentions and broker non-votes, if any, will have the same effect as a no vote with respect to the approval of the amendments to the Certificate of Designations-Series B. Neither abstentions nor broker non-votes, if any, will have an effect on the voting of the ratification of the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm.

What are broker non-votes ? If you hold shares beneficially in street name and do not provide your broker with voting instructions, your shares may constitute broker non-votes. Generally, broker non-votes occur on a matter when a broker is not permitted to vote on that matter without instructions from you, as the beneficial owner. Brokers, banks and other nominees may not be able to use their discretionary authority for the matter involving the amendments to the Certificate of Designations-Series B; however, they may be able to use their discretionary authority for the matters involving the election of directors and the ratification of our independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ended December 27, 2008.

Where can I find the voting results? We will announce the results of the voting at the annual meeting and report the voting results in our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the second quarter of fiscal 2008, which we expect to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) in August 2008. The results will be contained in Part II, Item 4 of that Quarterly Report, which will be available via Internet on the Investor Relations page of our licensed website at www.iparty.com and on the SEC's website, www.sec.gov.

Who pays for this proxy solicitation? We do. In addition to sending you these materials, one of our officers, directors or employees may contact you by telephone, by mail, or in person. None of these persons will receive any extra compensation for doing this.

How and when may I submit a stockholder proposal for consideration at next year's annual meeting of stockholders or to recommend nominees to serve as directors? You may submit proposals, including director nominations, for consideration at future stockholder meetings.

Stockholder Proposals: If you are interested in submitting a proposal for inclusion in our proxy statement for next year's annual meeting, or would like to recommend a nominee for director, we must receive your written proposal at our principal executive offices no later than December 30, 2008, which is the 120th calendar day before the one-year anniversary of the proxy statement we are releasing to our stockholders for this year's annual meeting. If the date of next year's annual meeting (or special meeting in lieu of the annual meeting) is moved more than 30 days before or after the anniversary date of this year's meeting, the deadline for inclusion of proposals in our proxy statement will instead be a reasonable time before we begin to print and mail our proxy materials next year. ITEMS TO BE ACTED ON AT THE MEETING

Proposal 1. Election of Directors

Our entire Board of Directors, to consist of six (6) members, will be elected at the meeting. Each nominee for director currently serves on our Board of Directors. The directors elected will hold office until their successors are elected and qualified, which should occur at the next annual meeting or special meeting in lieu thereof, in accordance with our by-laws.

We have no reason to believe that any of the nominees will not be a candidate or will be unable to serve as a director. However, in the event any nominee is not a candidate or is unable or unwilling to serve as a director at the time of the election, the Board of Directors (on recommendation of the Nominating Committee) may either propose to reduce the number of directors or propose a substitute nominee.

Under the Certificate of Designations-Series C, for so long as at least 50% of the initially issued shares of Series C Preferred Stock remain outstanding, the holders of the Series C Preferred Stock have the exclusive right, voting separately as a class, to elect one director of the Company (the Series C Director). Robert W. Jevon is the designee of the holders of the Series C Preferred Stock.

Under the Certificate of Designations-Series D, for so long as at least 50% of the initially issued shares of Series D Preferred Stock remain outstanding, the holders of the Series D Preferred Stock have the exclusive right, voting separately as a class, to elect one director of the Company (the Series D Director). The holders of the Series D Preferred Stock have not elected to designate a Series D Director at the 2008 Annual Meeting.

The Board recommends that you vote FOR each of the following nominees:

- Sal V. Perisano

- Daniel I. De Wolf

- Frank W. Haydu III

- Eric Schindler

- Joseph S. Vassalluzzo

- Robert W. Jevon, Jr. (for Series C Director)

Biographical information about each of these nominees can be found on pages 15 through 17 of this proxy statement.

Unless you specify otherwise, the Board intends the accompanying proxy to be voted FOR these nominees. Thus, unless you withhold authority or your proxy contains contrary instructions, a properly signed and dated proxy will be voted FOR the election of these nominees. Votes withheld will not affect the outcome of the voting with respect to the election of any nominee.

Proposal 2. Proposal to amend the Certificate of Designations-Series B to change the requisite number of shares or holders necessary to amend or waive certain provisions therein

Our Board of Directors has approved and declared advisable the amendments to Section 4(c) and Section 7(c) of the Certificate of Designations-Series B that:

- Changes the waiver threshold in section 4(c) from the affirmative vote of a majority in number of the holders of the then outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock to the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the then outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock (Section 4(c));

- Changes the approval threshold in section 7(c) from the consent of one-half in number of the holders of the then outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock to the consent of the holders of a majority of the then outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock in the event that a vote is required due to an action that repeals, amends, or otherwise changes the Certificate of Designation or Certificate of Incorporation in a manner that would adversely alter or change the powers, preferences, rights, privileges, and restrictions of the Series B Preferred Stock (Section 7(c)); and

- Adds the ability of the holders of a majority of the then outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock to waive any of the rights, preferences, designations, or restrictions contained in the Series B Preferred Stock (Section 7(c)).

The full text of the proposed resolutions is contained in the proposed Certificate of Amendment to the Restated Certificate of Incorporation, which is attached to this proxy statement as Appendix A and incorporated herein by reference.

Summary of Rights of Series B Preferred Stock. As set forth more fully in the Certificate of Designations - Series B, which is included as an exhibit to our annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 29, 2007, the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock have certain defined rights and preferences. These rights and preferences include: (i) a liquidation preference senior to the holders of our common stock, as more fully described under Voting on Liquidation Events, (ii) an anti-dilution provision that protects the holders in the event we issue common stock or certain rights including option grants in excess of certain defined amounts, to purchase or convert into common stock, at a price below the then existing conversion price, (iii) the right to participate in dividends, when and if declared by the Board of Directors, and (iv) certain defined voting rights, which include the right to vote together with the common stock as one class on all matters to which the common stock is entitled to vote and a separate class vote as described below under Current Voting Standards of the Series B Preferred Stock. With respect to the right to participate in dividends noted above, as of April 14, 2008, the Company has never paid a cash dividend on its common stock.

Current Voting Standards of the Series B Preferred Stock. Except as otherwise required by Delaware General Corporation Law, the Series B Preferred Stock is entitled to vote together with the common stock and all of the other outstanding classes of Convertible Preferred Stock on all matters to which the common stock is entitled to vote. In addition, in certain circumstances, the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock have a separate class vote. Except as otherwise required by Delaware General Corporation Law, the holders of shares of the Series B Preferred Stock vote as a separate class in the following circumstances:

- The creation and issuance of any series of preferred stock or other security which is senior as to liquidation and or dividend rights to such Series B Preferred Stock; and
- An action that repeals, amends, or otherwise changes the Certificate of Designations - Series B or Certificate of Incorporation in a manner that would alter or change the powers, preferences, rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions of the Series B Preferred Stock to adversely affect such class.

The Series B Preferred Stock has four distinct approval standards. Depending on the matter to be acted on or waived, the necessary approval may require either: (i) the vote of a majority in number of the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock entitled to vote on the matter, (ii) the vote of one-half in number of the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock entitled to vote on the matter, (iii) the vote of the holders of one-half of the outstanding shares of the Series B Preferred Stock entitled to vote on the matter or (iv) the vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock entitled to vote on the matter. In addition, under Delaware General Corporation Law, the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock are entitled to vote as a class upon an amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation if the amendment, among other specified actions, would alter or change the powers, preferences, or special rights of the shares of such class that affects them adversely. In this case, the minimum required vote under Delaware Law is a majority of the outstanding shares of the Series B Preferred Stock. Thus, in addition to the standards noted above, Delaware General Corporation Law may require us to count the votes in two ways with respect to a proposed amendment before determining that a matter has been approved or defeated: first, count the number of stockholders voting, and second, count the number of votes cast on the matter.

Reasons for the Amendments. The proposed amendments to the Series B Preferred Stock seek to make consistent the necessary vote or consent among the various approval provisions contained in the Series B Preferred Stock by having one standard that follows the Delaware General Corporation Law standard for separate class voting on amendments, and makes the approval provisions of the Series B Preferred Stock more similar to the other outstanding series of Convertible Preferred Stock. By removing the provision requiring the Company to count stockholders rather than shares and making the approval standard essentially consistent throughout the terms of the Series B Preferred Stock, we believe that the approval of the amendments will have the following benefits:

- It will be easier to determine whether a particular vote is achievable;
- The approval provisions will be consistent and more understandable for our stockholders;
- The approval provisions will be consistent with the traditional concepts of majority voting and the minimum statutory requirements contained in the Delaware General Corporation law; and
- The Series B Preferred Stock approval power will be allocated according to the stockholder's relative economic stake in the Company rather than the arbitrary number of owners.

The Board is proposing to amend the voting provisions of only the Series B Preferred Stock. The voting provisions in the other series of preferred stock: 1) follow more closely the minimum statutory requirement of the Delaware General Corporation Law and 2) since they only have one or two stockholders, do not present the same issue in class voting as the Series B Preferred Stock. For those reasons, the Board is not proposing an amendment to the voting provisions of the other series of Convertible Preferred Stock.

We are not now considering any corporate action that would trigger one or more of the various special voting provisions of the Series B Preferred Stock or other series of Convertible Preferred Stock; however, we may be faced with such a vote in the future, and thus, we believe that, for the reasons expressed above, it is advisable to amend the voting terms of the Series B Preferred Stock at this time.

Voting on Liquidation Events. Under Section 4 of the Certificate of Designations-Series B, a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of iParty is considered a liquidation event. In the event of a liquidation event, a holder of shares of Series B Preferred Stock is entitled to receive a liquidation preference equal to $20 per share, equivalent to approximately $1.49 per common share on an as converted basis, or approximately $9.3 million in the aggregate at December 29, 2007. The liquidation preferences are payable to the holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock pari passu and pro rata with the other outstanding shares of series of Convertible Preferred Stock and prior to any distribution to common stock.

The Certificate of Designations-Series B deems a merger, consolidation, or sale of substantially all of our assets of the Company a liquidation event if the holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock do not receive securities in the surviving corporation that have substantially similar rights as the Series B Preferred Stock. The terms of the Certificate of Designations-Series B allow the majority in number of holders to waive this deemed liquidation event.

We believe that the affirmative consent of a majority in number of the holders to effect a waiver of the deemed liquidation event is not typical. Usually, the approval of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock would be used to effect the waiver. As of April 14, 2008, there were 100 holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock. To obtain the necessary approval to effect a waiver of a deemed liquidation event, we would need to obtain the consent of 51 individual holders and these 51 holders might not represent a majority of the outstanding shares of the Series B Preferred Stock.

Specific Class Vote and Waiver Provision. The proposed amendments also contain an amendment to Section 7(c) making it more consistent with the minimum statutory requirements of Delaware General Corporation Law and adds a provision allowing the holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock to waive any of the rights, powers, preferences and other terms of the Series B Preferred Stock set forth in the Certificate of Designations-Series B, or otherwise in the Restated Certificate of Incorporation on behalf of all holders of shares Series B Preferred Stock. As proposed, the waiver would require the affirmative written consent or vote of the holders of at least a majority of the shares of Series B Preferred Stock then outstanding. Absent the waiver provision, the Board might need to amend the Certificate of Designations-Series B to achieve the same results. An amendment is potentially a more costly and time-consuming process. We believe that the waiver would allow us more flexibility and certainty in acting on or responding to certain corporate actions, including an acquisition or a financing, which might trigger the anti-dilution provisions or liquidation provision in the Series B Preferred Stocks.

Potential Effects of the Amendment on Voting Concentrations. If the proposed amendments are approved, as of April 14, 2008, we could obtain the same waiver or vote with the approval of as few as two or more holders rather than the 51 holders currently required under Section 4(c), and the 50 holders currently required under Section 7(c). Additionally, we would have holders representing a majority of the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock, which may not have been the case under the previous standard. As of April 14, 2008, there were 465,151 outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock. Based on the Company's stockholder records as of April 14, 2008, Mr. Lessin, who beneficially owns 125,000 shares of Series B Preferred Stock, or approximately 27% of the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock, and Roccia Partners, L.P., who beneficially owns 179,610 shares of Series B Preferred Stock, or approximately 39% of the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred

Stock, acting together or separately with a number of holders, could approve or defeat a matter. Given the current ownership of the shares of Series B Preferred Stock, no one owner before the proposed amendments or, if approved, after the proposed amendments could approve or defeat a matter acting alone. See Ownership of iParty Stock for a discussion of Mr. Lessin's and Roccia Partners, L.P.'s stock holdings in the Company.

Approval Required and Recommendation. The proposal to amend Section 4(c) and Section 7(c) of the Certificate of Designations-Series B will require: (i) the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock and Convertible Preferred Stock entitled to vote on the matter, voting together as a single class on an as converted basis, (ii) the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock entitled to vote on the matter, voting separately as a single class, and (iii) the affirmative vote of a majority in number of the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock entitled to vote on the matter, voting separately as a class, in the case of Section 4(c) and the affirmative vote of one-half in number of the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock entitled to vote on the matter, voting separately as a class, in the case of Section 7(c).

The Board of Directors recommends that you vote FOR approval of the amendments to Section 4(c) and Section 7(c) of the Certificate of Designations-Series B.

Unless you specify otherwise, the Board intends the accompanying proxy to be voted for this proposal.

Proposal 3. Proposal to Ratify the Selection of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm.

Our Audit Committee has selected the independent registered public accounting firm of Ernst & Young LLP (E&Y) to examine and audit our financial statements for the year ending December 27, 2008. A resolution to ratify this selection will be presented at the meeting.

Stockholder ratification of the selection of E&Y is not required. Although not required to do so, the Board is submitting the selection of E&Y for ratification by iParty's stockholders for their views. However, if the stockholders do not ratify the selection, the Audit Committee will take that into account in future deliberations. The Audit Committee will retain the ultimate discretion to appoint or terminate the appointment of our independent registered public accounting firm, irrespective of the outcome of this proposal.

E&Y audited and reported upon our financial statements for fiscal 2007. In connection with that audit, E&Y also reviewed our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 29, 2007, quarterly financial statements for the fiscal quarters ended March 31, 2007, June 30, 2007 and September 29, 2007, and our filings with the SEC, and consulted with management as to the financial statement implications of matters under consideration.

We expect that one or more representatives of E&Y will be present at the annual meeting. They will be afforded an opportunity to make a statement at the annual meeting if they desire to do so and to respond to appropriate questions by stockholders.

Edgar Filing: IPARTY CORP - Form DEF 14A

E&Y has advised us that it has no direct, nor any indirect, financial interest in iParty or any of its subsidiaries.

The proposal to ratify the selection of E&Y as our independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal 2008 requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the meeting by the holders of outstanding shares of all classes of our stock entitled to vote thereon who are present at the meeting either in person or by proxy.

The Board recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to ratify the selection of Ernst & Young LLP.

Unless you specify otherwise, the Board intends the accompanying proxy to be voted for this proposal.

Information about the fees and services we paid to E&Y in 2006 and 2007 is contained on page 28 of this proxy statement.

Director Independence

Our Board of Directors has determined that each of our director-nominees is an independent director as defined under applicable rules of the SEC and American Stock Exchange, except for (1) Mr. Perisano, who serves as our Chief Executive Officer, and (2) Mr. Jevon, who is an employee of Boston Millennia Partners, LP, which beneficially owns all of the outstanding shares of our Series C Preferred Stock, which is entitled to designate the Series C Director. As a result, the Board of Directors has determined that a majority of the director-nominees are independent under applicable rules of the SEC and American Stock Exchange.

Attendance at Annual Meeting and at Meetings of the Board and Its Committees

Although we do not have a policy on our directors attending our annual meeting, we normally expect each of our directors to be present at the stockholders' meeting. At last year's annual meeting, all of our directors attended the meeting, with the exception of Ms. Vest, who was the Series D Director representative at that time. Our Board held a total of five meetings during 2007. Each director attended 75% or more of all board meetings and committee meetings on which he served during 2007.

Board Committee Matters

Our Board of Directors met five (5) times during 2007. Our Board of Directors has three principal committees: the Audit Committee, the Compensation Committee, and the Nominating Committee. All of the members of each of these committees are independent directors as defined under applicable American Stock Exchange rules and rules of the SEC, including, in the case of the Audit Committee, the additional independence criteria for determining eligibility for director service on audit committees under applicable American Stock Exchange and SEC rules.

In addition to the principal committees described above, our Board of Directors also has a Real Estate Committee, consisting of Messrs. Perisano and Vassalluzzo, which considers, from time to time, certain store location and store lease issues in conjunction with our senior management.

Our Board of Directors has adopted certain corporate governance guidelines which are available on the Investor Relations page on our licensed website at www.iparty.com.

The Audit Committee is solely responsible for the selection, compensation and oversight of the work of the independent registered public accounting firm for the purpose of preparing and issuing an audit report.

Management has primary responsibility for iParty's financial statements and the overall reporting process, including iParty's system of internal controls.

The independent auditors audit the annual financial statements prepared by management, express an opinion as to whether those financial statements fairly present the financial position, results of operations and cash flows of iParty in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles and discuss with us any issues they believe should be raised with us.

The Audit Committee oversees the financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors, reviews iParty's financial disclosures, and meets privately, outside the presence of management, with the independent auditors to discuss internal accounting control policies and procedures. These discussions address the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments and the clarity of disclosures in iParty's financial statements. The Audit Committee reports on these meetings to the Board of Directors.

Pursuant to applicable American Stock Exchange rules, the Audit Committee certifies that it has adopted a formal written Audit Committee Charter and that the Audit Committee has a policy in accordance with said rules of the American Stock Exchange of reviewing and reassessing the adequacy of the Audit Committee Charter on an annual basis.

During 2007, iParty paid no fees to Ernst & Young LLP for consulting work outside the review and audit of their financial statements and related tax research and compliance tax return preparation.

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

Section 3(b) of our Amended and Restated 1998 Incentive and Non-Qualified Stock Option Plan (the "Stock Option Plan") provides that each non-employee director shall be granted, on the effective date of the commencement of his term as director, an option to purchase 25,000 shares of our common stock. It further provides that each of our directors who is not an executive officer shall be granted, on an annual basis on the last trading date in August of each year, options to acquire 25,000 shares of common stock, at an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the underlying common stock on the date of grant.

Pursuant to Section 14(b) of the Stock Option Plan, beginning in 2004, our Board of Directors has voted that, in lieu of the stock option grants described in the preceding paragraph, only independent directors shall be eligible to receive stock options by virtue of their service as directors in amounts to be determined annually by the Board of Directors. Accordingly, at a meeting held on June 6, 2007 our Board of Directors (on recommendation of the Compensation Committee) voted that each independent director (determined to be each of Messrs. De Wolf, Haydu, Schindler and Vassalluzzo) would be granted an option on June 6, 2007 exercisable for the purchase of 25,000 shares of our common stock and be paid a $25,000 cash payment in respect of his service as a director and for serving on the committees of our Board of Directors. The Board of Directors approved the Compensation Committee's recommendation that each such option would vest quarterly over a one-year period and the $25,000 cash payment would be paid quarterly over a one-year period. As a result of these determinations, each of Messrs. De Wolf, Haydu, Schindler, and Vassalluzzo was granted an option exercisable for 25,000 shares. Each of these stock option grants was made pursuant to the Stock Option Plan, at an exercise price equal to the market price of our common stock at the close of business on the grant date.

At that same meeting held on June 6, 2007, the Board of Directors also voted to accept the Compensation Committee's recommendation that Mr. Haydu be paid a $10,000 cash payment for serving as Chairman of the Audit Committee. Mr. Haydu recused himself from this vote. In addition, the Compensation Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that it accept our management's proposal to engage Mr. Vassalluzzo as a part-time consultant to our company for a one-year period at an annual fee of $60,000. The Board of Directors voted in favor of the Compensation Committee's recommendation and our management's proposal in this regard. Pursuant to this arrangement, our Chairman and CEO, Mr. Perisano, consults with Mr. Vassalluzzo with respect to various retail, operational, strategic, real estate and store location issues, as may from time to time be necessary and appropriate. Such services on occasion require Mr. Vassalluzzo's presence at our corporate headquarters in Dedham, Massachusetts and/or current or proposed store location sites, principally in New England and Florida.

Edgar Filing: IPARTY CORP - Form DEF 14A

At a meeting held on September 26, 2007, the Board of Directors (on recommendation of the Compensation Committee) voted that, effective October 1, 2007, the annual cash payments to be paid to each independent director for serving on the committees of our Board of Directors be increased to the following amounts, which are in addition to the $25,000 cash payment described above for board service:

Director	Annual Committee Compensation
Frank W. Haydu III	$ 20,000
Eric Schindler	$ 10,000
Daniel I. De Wolf	$ 10,000
Joseph S. Vassalluzzo	$ 25,000

Sal V. Perisano (Chief Executive Officer). At the beginning of fiscal 2006, we paid Mr. Perisano at an annualized base salary rate of $287,500, which increased on March 31, 2006 to $300,000 pursuant to the terms of our then-current employment agreement with Mr. Perisano, dated May 14, 2004. Under the terms of our new three-year employment agreement with Mr. Perisano, dated March 22, 2007, we increased Mr. Perisano's annualized base salary rate to $312,500 effective April 1, 2007, and to $325,000 on April 1, 2008. The agreement further provides that Mr. Perisano's annualized base salary will increase to $337,500 for the period April 1, 2009 through March 31, 2010. The employment agreement provides that Mr. Perisano is also eligible to participate in bonus plans as the Compensation Committee of the Board may establish from time to time for our senior executive officers. Under the terms of his employment agreement, in the event of a termination not for cause (as defined in the agreement), Mr. Perisano would be entitled to receive a severance payment equal to 12 months salary at the base salary rate then in effect, payable in 12 equal monthly installments, as well as the continuation of his then current health, life and disability insurance benefits or, in the case of health insurance benefits, payment by us of applicable COBRA payments, for a period of 12 months. The agreement also provides for certain payments to Mr. Perisano in the event he terminates his employment with us for good reason (as defined in the agreement) and contains certain non-competition and non-solicitation provisions. Pursuant to our employment agreement with Mr. Perisano dated March 22, 2007, our Board of Directors granted Mr. Perisano a stock option on June 6, 2007 exercisable for 375,000 shares of our common stock, at an exercise price per share equal to the closing price of the common stock on that date.

Dorice P. Dionne (Senior Vice President, Merchandising and Marketing). At the beginning of fiscal 2006, we paid Dorice Dionne at an annualized base salary rate of $172,500, which increased on March 31, 2006 to $180,000 pursuant to the terms of our then-current employment agreement with Ms. Dionne, dated May 14, 2004. On March 22, 2007, we entered a new three-year employment agreement with Ms. Dionne pursuant to which Ms. Dionne's annualized base salary rate was further increased to $187,500 on April 1, 2007, and to $195,000 on April 1, 2008. The agreement further provides that Ms. Dionne's annualized base salary will increase to $202,500 for the period April 1, 2009 through March 31, 2010. The employment agreement provides that Ms. Dionne is also eligible to participate in bonus plans as the Compensation Committee of the Board may establish from time to time for our senior executive officers. Under the terms of her employment agreement, in the event of a termination not for cause (as defined in the agreement), Ms. Dionne would be entitled to receive a severance payment equal to 12 months salary at the base salary rate then in effect, payable in 12 equal monthly installments, as well as the continuation of her then current health, life and disability insurance benefits or, in the case of health insurance benefits, payment by us of applicable COBRA payments, for a period of 12 months. The agreement also provides that in the event of a termination not for cause that occurs within 13 months of a change in control (as defined in the agreement), Ms. Dionne would be entitled to receive a severance payment equal to eighteen (18) months of her base salary, payable in a lump sum, as well as the continuation of her then current health, life and disability insurance benefits or, in the case of health insurance benefits, payment by us of applicable COBRA payments, for a period of 12 months. The agreement also provides for certain payments to Ms. Dionne in the event she terminates her employment with us for good reason (as defined in the agreement) and contains certain non-competition and non-solicitation provisions. Pursuant to our employment agreement dated March 22, 2007, our Board of Directors granted Ms. Dionne a stock option on June 6, 2007 exercisable for 150,000 shares of our common stock, at an exercise price per share equal to the closing price of the common stock on that date.

David E. Robertson (Chief Financial Officer). On March 22, 2007, we entered into a letter agreement with David E. Robertson, pursuant to which Mr. Robertson commenced employment with us as our Chief Financial Officer effective April 2, 2007. Our letter agreement with Mr. Robertson provides that we shall pay him an annualized salary of $160,000. Pursuant to the letter agreement, our Board of Directors granted Mr. Robertson a stock option on June 6, 2007 exercisable for 125,000 shares of our common stock, at an exercise price per share equal to the closing price of the common stock on that date. Our letter agreement with Mr. Robertson also entitles him to participate in iParty's Executive Incentive Compensation Plan and various additional employee benefits, including health, dental and life insurance and participation in our 401(k) defined contribution retirement savings plan. Under the terms of the letter agreement, in the event of termination not for cause, as defined in the letter agreement, Mr. Robertson would be entitled to receive 6 months of severance pay, payable in accordance with the normal payroll policies and procedures of the Company, as well as the continuation of health, dental and life insurance benefits on the Company's plans for a period of 6 months.

Patrick Farrell (former President and Chief Financial Officer). At the beginning of fiscal 2006, we paid Mr. Farrell at an annualized base salary rate of $185,000, which increased on March 31, 2006 to $195,000 pursuant to the terms of our then-current employment agreement with Mr. Farrell, dated May 14, 2004. On January 8, 2007, we entered into a new employment agreement with Mr. Farrell for a term beginning January 8, 2007, at an annualized salary of $200,400 through November 15, 2007. Pursuant to the terms of our new agreement with Mr. Farrell, he continued to be employed by us on a full-time basis through May 15, 2007 and thereafter on a part-time basis through November 15, 2007. The agreement provided that his service to us after May 15, 2007 could be performed by telecommuting. The agreement with Mr. Farrell reflected the fact that he had informed us that personal, family reasons would require him to relocate from the Boston area to New York during 2007 and reflected his desire to assist us in effecting a smooth transition with our new Chief Financial Officer, David E. Robertson. The employment agreement provided that Mr. Farrell remained eligible to participate in bonus plans as the Compensation Committee of the Board might establish from time to time for our senior executive officers. Under the terms of his employment agreement, in the event of a termination not for cause (as defined in the agreement), Mr. Farrell would have been entitled to receive the amount of salary he would have been entitled to had he remained an iParty employee through November 15, 2007, payable in accordance with our regular payroll practices, as well as the continuation of his then current health, life and disability insurance benefits or, in the case of health insurance benefits, payment by us of applicable COBRA payments, for a similar period. At the time of the expiration of his employment agreement, Mr. Farrell held vested options to purchase an aggregate of 970,087 shares of our common stock. Under the terms of the option plan and agreements, these options would have expired on February 15, 2008, three months from the termination of Mr. Farrell's employment on November 15, 2007. However, the Board of Directors, at its regularly scheduled meeting on September 26, 2007, with the approval and upon the recommendation of the Compensation Committee, voted to extend the expiration date of Mr. Farrell's options for an additional six months, to August 15, 2008.

Indemnification of Directors and Executive Officers

Our certificate of incorporation, as amended, and by-laws provide that iParty shall indemnify all of its directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law. Under our certificate of incorporation, as amended, and by-laws, any director or officer, who in his or her capacity as such is made or threatened to be made, party to any suit or proceeding, will be indemnified. A director or officer will be indemnified if it is determined that the director or officer acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, iParty's best interests. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, may be permitted to directors, officers and persons controlling iParty pursuant to the foregoing provision, or otherwise, we have been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy and is, therefore, unenforceable.

We maintain a directors' and officers' liability insurance policy covering certain liabilities that may be incurred by directors and officers in connection with the performance of their duties. We pay the entire premium for the liability insurance. We have key-person life insurance policies on the lives of each of Mr. Perisano and Ms. Dionne in the amount of $2,000,000 each.

Related Party Transactions

Under SEC rules, we are required to disclose transactions in excess of $120,000 in which iParty was a participant in which related persons had or will have a direct or indirect material interest. Related persons include any of our directors, nominees for director, or executive officers, and any immediate family members of such persons and any person (including any group as such term is used in Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act) who is known to iParty as a beneficial owner of more than 5% of its voting common stock, and any immediate family member of a significant shareholder. The term transaction is broadly defined under SEC rules to include any financial transaction, arrangement or relationship, including any indebtedness transaction or guarantee of indebtedness. Based on information available to us and provided to us by our directors and executive officers, we do not believe that there were any such transactions in effect since December 29, 2006, or any such transactions proposed to be entered into during fiscal year 2008 except as follows:

- On September 15, 2006, we entered into a Securities Purchase Agreement pursuant to which we raised $2.5 million through a combination of subordinated debt and warrants issued on September 15, 2006 to Highbridge International LLC (Highbridge), an institutional accredited investor. Under the terms of the financing, we issued Highbridge a three-year subordinated note (the Highbridge Note) that bears interest at an interest rate of prime plus one percent. The note matures on September 15, 2009. Interest is payable quarterly in arrears and the entire principal is due at the maturity date. In addition, we issued Highbridge a warrant (the Highbridge Warrant) exercisable for 2,083,334 shares of iParty common stock at an exercise price of $0.475 per share, or 125% of the closing price of iParty s common stock on the day immediately prior to the closing of the transaction. The agreements entered into by iParty and Highbridge in connection with the financing provide for certain restrictions and covenants consistent with Highbridge s status as a subordinated lender, and also grant Highbridge resale registration rights with respect to the shares of common stock underlying the Highbridge Warrant. In connection with the foregoing financing, we also amended our Rights Agreement dated as of November 9, 2001, as amended September 15, 2006 (the Rights Agreement) to clarify that issuance of the Highbridge Warrant does not constitute a triggering event under our Rights Agreement.

- On July 13, 2007, HMTF Holdings, the sole holder of the Company s Series D Preferred Stock at that time, sold all of its shares of Series D Preferred Stock, or 250,000 shares, to Robert H. Lessin Venture Capital LLC, an affiliate of Robert H. Lessin, at a per share price of $8.00. The Company s Series D Preferred Stock is entitled to vote alone for the election of a Series D Director. As noted above, Mr. Lessin has informed the Company that as the new beneficial holder of all of the outstanding shares of Series D Preferred Stock he does not intend to exercise his right to designate a new Series D Director at this time, but will continue to avail himself from time to time of the Board s invitation to participate in its meetings as a non-voting observer. Pursuant to the terms of the Company s Rights Agreement, the Company s Board of Directors approved the private sale transaction by and between Robert H. Lessin Venture Capital LLC and HMTF Holdings involving all the outstanding shares of the Company s Series D Preferred Stock so that neither Robert H. Lessin Venture Capital LLC nor Robert H. Lessin would be, become, be deemed or considered to be, or be treated as an Acquiring Person under the Rights Agreement in connection with such transaction.

Audit Fees

These are fees related to professional services rendered in connection with the audit of our annual financial statements included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for fiscal 2006 and fiscal 2007, the audit of management's assessment of our internal control over financial reporting, the reviews of the financial statements included in each of our Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, and accounting consultations that relate to the audited financial statements and are necessary to comply with generally accepted auditing standards. E&Y expresses its views concerning, but does not audit, and is not required to audit, our internal control over financial reporting.

Audit-Related Fees

We did not pay E&Y for any audit-related fees in fiscal 2006 or fiscal 2007. Audit-related fees would be fees for things such as assurance and related services, such as audits of employee benefit plans.

Tax Fees

These are fees for professional services related to tax return preparation services and tax compliance services.

Audit Committee's Pre-approval Policy and Procedures

The Audit Committee of our Board of Directors has adopted policies and procedures for the pre-approval of audit and non-audit services for the purpose of maintaining the independence of our independent auditors. We may not engage our independent auditors to render any audit or non-audit service unless either the service is approved in advance by the Audit Committee or the engagement to render the service is entered into pursuant to the Audit Committee's pre-approval policies and procedures. The Audit Committee may pre-approve services that are expected to be provided to iParty by the independent auditors during the following 12 months. At the time such pre-approval is granted, the Audit Committee must (1) identify the particular pre-approved services in a sufficient level of detail so that management will not be called upon to make judgment as to whether a proposed service fits within the pre-approved services and (2) establish a monetary limit with respect to each particular pre-approved service, which limit may not be exceeded without obtaining further pre-approval under the policy. At regularly scheduled meetings of the Audit Committee, management or the independent auditors must report to the Audit Committee regarding each service actually provided to iParty.

During fiscal 2007, no services were provided to iParty by E&Y other than in accordance with the pre-approval policies and procedures described above.

SECTION 16(A) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Edgar Filing: IPARTY CORP - Form DEF 14A

No person who, during the fiscal year ended December 29, 2007, was a director, officer or beneficial owner of more than ten percent of our common stock (which is the only class of our securities registered under Section 12 of the Exchange Act), failed to file on a timely basis, reports required by Section 16 of the Exchange Act during the most recent fiscal year except as follows: Mr. Lessin filed a Form 4 late reporting the purchase of all of the Series D Preferred Stock by Robert H. Lessin Venture Capital LLC, an affiliate of Robert H. Lessin, from HMTF Holdings, who was the sole holder of the Company's Series D Preferred Stock. The foregoing is based solely upon our review of Forms 3 and 4 during the most recent fiscal year as furnished to us under Rule 16a-3(d) under the Exchange Act, and Forms 5 and amendments thereto furnished to us with respect to our most recent fiscal year.
