ITEM 1.01. ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT

On May 30, 2008, Force Protection, Inc. was awarded through its wholly-owned subsidiary, Force Protection Industries, Inc., a contract modification order for the service and support of its Mine Resistant Ambush Protected Vehicles from the U.S. Marine Corps Systems Command, Quantico, Virginia. The total consideration under this contract modification is approximately $28 million. The award was made pursuant to a letter contract between Force Protection, Inc. and the U.S. Marine Corps Systems Command dated as of April 23, 2007.

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties, including, without limitation, statements concerning our business and possible or assumed future results of operations. Certain words, such as believe, may, could, will, intend, expect, anticipate, plan, and similar expressions are used to identify forward-looking statements. Undue reliance should not be placed on these forward-looking statements. Force Protection's actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in the forward-looking statements for many reasons including: its ability to raise capital when necessary; availability of parts and raw materials for its products; continued customer acceptance of its products; ongoing success of its research and development efforts; greater than expected costs; and other risks and uncertainties as may be detailed from time to time in Force Protection's public announcements and SEC filings. Although Force Protection believes the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements are reasonable, they relate only to events as of the date on which the statements are made, and Force Protection's future results, levels of activity, performance or achievements may not meet these expectations. Force Protection does not intend to update any of the forward-looking statements after the date of this document to conform these statements to actual results or to changes in its expectations, except as required by law.
