Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 29, 2013, PennyMac Mortgage Investment Trust (the Company), through three of its wholly-owned subsidiaries, PennyMac Operating Partnership, L.P. (the Operating Partnership), PennyMac Corp. (PMC) and PennyMac Mortgage Investment Trust Holdings I, LLC (PMITH), entered into amendments to (i) its master repurchase agreement, dated as of September 28, 2012, by and among Credit Suisse First Boston Mortgage Capital LLC (CSFB), the Operating Partnership and the Company (the Re-warehouse Agreement), (ii) its amended and restated master repurchase agreement, dated as of August 25, 2011, by and among CSFB, PMC, PMITH and the Company (the NPL Repurchase Agreement), (iii) its amended and restated master repurchase agreement, dated as of June 1, 2013, by and among CSFB, PMC, the Company and the Operating Partnership (the PMC Repurchase Agreement), and (iv) its master repurchase agreement, dated as of March 29, 2012, by and among CSFB, PMITH, the Company and the Operating Partnership (the PMITH Repurchase Agreement and, together with the Re-warehouse Agreement, the NPL Repurchase Agreement and the PMC Repurchase Agreement, the Repurchase Agreements). Pursuant to the terms of the Repurchase Agreements, the Operating Partnership, PMC or PMITH, as applicable, may sell, and later repurchase, residential mortgage loans.

The Re-warehouse Agreement is used to provide financing to third party mortgage loan originators as part of the Company's warehouse lending business, which it runs through the Operating Partnership. The obligations of the Operating Partnership are fully guaranteed by the Company, and the mortgage loans are serviced by PennyMac Loan Services, LLC (PLS), an affiliate of the Company, pursuant to the terms of the Re-warehouse Agreement.

The NPL Repurchase Agreement is used to fund the Company's purchase, through PMC and PMITH, of distressed mortgage loans and real estate acquired upon settlement of mortgage loans. The obligations of PMC and PMITH are fully guaranteed by the Company, and the mortgage loans are serviced by PLS pursuant to the terms of the NPL Repurchase Agreement.

The PMC Repurchase Agreement is used to fund newly originated mortgage loans that PMC purchases from correspondent lenders and holds pending sale and/or securitization. The PMITH Repurchase Agreement is used to fund newly originated mortgage loans that have been purchased by PMC from correspondent lenders and pledged by PMC to PMITH pending sale and/or securitization by PMC. The obligations of PMC and PMITH under the PMC Repurchase Agreement and the PMITH Repurchase Agreement, respectively, are fully guaranteed by the Company and the Operating Partnership, and the mortgage loans are serviced by PLS pursuant to the terms of the PMC Repurchase Agreement or the PMITH Repurchase Agreement, as applicable.

Under the terms of the amendments, the maximum credit limit set forth in each Repurchase Agreement was amended in order to temporarily increase the maximum aggregate purchase price under the NPL Repurchase Agreement from $200 million to $263 million. No new purchases are permitted under the NPL Repurchase Agreement until the aggregate outstanding purchase price is reduced to an amount less than $200 million, at which time the maximum aggregate purchase price will be reset to $200 million. Of the $63 million temporary increase under the NPL Repurchase Agreement and during the period that the aggregate outstanding purchase price thereunder exceeds $200 million, the amount outstanding in excess of $250 million will be applied against the combined credit limit under the PMC Repurchase Agreement and the PMITH Agreement, and the amount outstanding in excess of $200 million up to and including $250 million will be applied against the credit limit under the Re-warehouse Agreement.

The Company, through the Operating Partnership, PMC and PMITH, is required to pay CSFB a fee for the structuring of the amendments, as well as certain other costs and expenses associated with the ongoing administration of the Repurchase Agreements. All other terms and conditions of the Repurchase Agreements and the related guaranties remain the same in all material respects.
