Milan (Italy), January 19, 2015 - The Board of Directors of Luxottica Group S.p.A. (MTA: LUX; NYSE: LUX), a leader in the design, manufacture, distribution and sale of fashion, luxury and sports eyewear, met today to review the consolidated net sales and preliminary results for the fourth quarter of 2014 and the full fiscal year 2014 in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IAS/IFRS).

The Board of Directors appointed Adil Mehboob-Khan as CEO for Markets and Massimo Vian as CEO for Product & Operations.

The appointment of Adil Mehboob-Khan and Massimo Vian, entrusting them with all executive responsibilities, marks the completion, according to plan, of the Group's organizational change process aimed at providing it with governance that is better aligned to the global competitive landscape and able to fully grasp all growth opportunities. It also aligns the Group's organizational model with its strategic vision.

The new leadership is highly focused on specific areas of expertise that will promote decisional speed and operating effectiveness, leading to accelerated revenue and profitability growth over the long term.

Net sales performance for the full year and the fourth quarter of 2014

Fiscal year 2014

(In millions of Euros)	FY 2014	FY 2013	Change at constant exchange rates²	Change at current exchange rates
Group net sales	7,652.3	7,312.6	+6.1%	+4.6%
Adjusted^{3,5}	7,698.9	7,312.6	+6.7%	+5.3%
Wholesale Division	3,193.8	2,991.3	+8.6%	+6.8%
Retail Division	4,458.6	4,321.3	+4.3%	+3.2%
Adjusted^{3,5}	4,505.1	4,321.3	+5.4%	+4.3%

Fourth quarter of 2014¹

(In millions of Euros)	4Q 2014	4Q 2013	Change at constant exchange rates ²	Change at current exchange rates
Group net sales	1,867.0	1,645.9	+7.9%	+13.4%
Adjusted^{3,5}	1,890.9	1,645.9	+9.3%	+14.9%
Wholesale Division	704.2	644.2	+6.5%	+9.3%
Retail Division	1,162.8	1,001.7	+8.7%	+16.1%
Adjusted^{3,5}	1,186.7	1,001.7	+11.1%	+18.5%

Luxottica closed fiscal 2014 with an increase in adjusted^{3,5} net sales of 5.3% (+6.7% at constant exchange rates²), to over Euro 7.6 billion, a particularly satisfactory result in a globally more uncertain economic environment, thereby confirming the Company's unaltered ability to continue to pursue growth while making proper strategic and organizational decisions in a timely manner.

The Wholesale and Retail divisions both contributed to the Company's strong results, growing by 8.6% and adjusted^{3,5} 5.4%, respectively, at constant exchange rates². Once again, the proprietary and licensed brands portfolio has proven a key success factor. Ray-Ban, in particular, continued to record double-digit growth. These results were also driven by the performance of Luxottica's major retail chains, especially Sunglass Hut's sustained growth worldwide (total sales +13.5% at constant exchange rates²) and LensCrafters' progressive quarterly sales improvement.

In the fourth quarter of 2014, adjusted^{3,5} net sales grew by 14.9% (+9.3% at constant exchange rates²) reaching Euro 1.9 billion, benefitting from a favorable exchange rate effect.

We are proud of the results for 2014, which show increased sales in all the geographic areas in which we operate, and a further improvement in the profitability of the Group and of both divisions. Also in 2014, careful management of working capital generated exceptional cash flow, considerably exceeding the amount generated in 2013, remarked Massimo Vian, CEO for Product & Operations.

Based on these results, we look forward to 2015 and the following years with enthusiasm and renewed energy to capture all the available opportunities, with the aim of doubling net sales in the next 10 years. We warmly welcome Adil Khan, who joined our team in early January.

My congratulations to the team for what has been achieved in 2014 added Adil Khan, CEO for Markets. Luxottica has confirmed the robustness of its business model beating the overall market trends and continuing its track record of growth, both with wholesale partners as well as with its retail network. We have many great opportunities to further leverage the brand portfolio, our technology edge, our integrated supply chain, in 2015 and beyond. I look forward to partnering with Massimo and the impressive team at Luxottica.

The main growth driver for the Group's net sales in 2014 was North America, which recorded an increase in total adjusted^{3,5} net sales in US dollars of 5.3% (+12.2% in the fourth quarter). This result in North America was driven by an increase of 4% on an adjusted^{3,5} basis in the Retail

Division and 11.2% in the Wholesale Division (+11% for the Retail Division on an adjusted^{3,5} basis and +18.6% for the Wholesale Division, respectively, for the fourth quarter of 2014). This performance can be attributed to the continuing appreciation of American consumers in Luxottica's eyewear collections and confirms the strength of the business in both traditional and newer channels for this category, such as department stores and e-commerce.

Concerning the fourth quarter results, the impact of the 53rd week on the retail business generated net sales of approximately Euro 60 million.

Throughout 2014, total comparable store sales⁴ in North America grew by 3.3% (+5% during the fourth quarter). LensCrafters confirmed a progressive improvement in comparable store sales⁴, which increased by 1.8% in 2014 (+6.3% in the fourth quarter). Sunglass Hut showed the strength of its business model in the holiday season as well, reporting a +7.4% increase in comparable store sales⁴ in 2014 (+5.9% in the fourth quarter).

The performance in Europe was positive overall, with increased net sales in Euro of 4.3% for the full year, which reflects market share growth in major European markets. The Wholesale Division grew by 1.6% in 2014 as the optical business performed well in Europe but the sun business fell short of expectations in the second half of the year, negatively affected by bad weather over the summer months. The Wholesale Division's negative performance in the fourth quarter was primarily attributed to a change in the distribution model, particularly impacting the Mediterranean area, with a further shift from the traditional approach to the STARS program which allows for lower inventories in the stores and more integrated commercial relationship with wholesale customers. In contrast, Sunglass Hut generated once again a strong increase in comparable store sales⁴, up by 10.1% in 2014.

Emerging markets⁶ continued to yield excellent results, with net sales increasing at constant exchange rates² by 17.6% for the full year and by 14.7% in the fourth quarter. China and Brazil⁶, over the year, increased by 19.3% and 19.9% respectively at constant exchange rates², despite a challenging macroeconomic environment. In particular, comparable store sales⁴ of LensCrafters in China (including Hong Kong) reported growth of 12% during the year and 8.2% in the fourth quarter of 2014. Furthermore, comparable store sales⁴ of Sunglass Hut in Latin America and South Africa grew respectively by 18.9% and 16.3% during the year.

In 2014, the Retail Division in Australia experienced dual speed performance from Sunglass Hut and OPSM. On the one hand, Sunglass Hut's comparable store sales⁴ grew by 8.5%, with the fourth quarter in line with the previous quarters. On the other hand, OPSM was negatively affected by an increasingly competitive environment, recording an increase in comparable store sales⁴ of 1.7% for the full year, reflecting a slowdown in the second half of the year.

Luxottica also announces that a tax audit by the Italian tax authorities in respect of the 2008 tax year has ended with a tax audit report based on the same claim made with reference to the 2007 tax year regarding transfer pricing policies, which claims the Company accepted in December 2013. As a result, Luxottica has agreed to pay approximately Euro 29 million to settle the 2008 tax year claim.

The audit relates to ordinary transactions involving the export of finished products from Italy to the Group's foreign subsidiaries, located in countries that do not have a privileged tax regime.

Consequently, the audit only concerns income that has been regularly taxed at the foreign subsidiary level.

Luxottica has agreed to accept the findings in the tax audit report and pay the sums claimed for the 2008 tax year. This conclusion was reached despite the fact that the Company remains firmly convinced that its conduct was appropriate for the reasons illustrated in detail in the documents submitted by the Company in connection with the tax audit. The Company notes that the subject matter of the dispute is largely subjective in as much as it pertains to an evaluation of the arm's length nature of the prices applied to foreign subsidiaries. Thus, the matter lends itself to divergent positions that are not easy to resolve in litigation, except at the cost of long and expensive defense proceedings with an uncertain outcome.

Notes on the press release

1 All comparisons, including percentage changes, are between the three-month and twelve-month periods ended December 31, 2013 and December 31, 2014, respectively. The fiscal year and fourth quarter of 2014 for the Retail Division included 53 and 14 weeks, respectively, compared to 52 and 13 weeks in fiscal 2013.

2 Figures at constant exchange rates have been calculated using the average exchange rates in effect for the corresponding period in the previous year. For further information, please refer to the attached tables.

Edgar Filing: LUXOTTICA GROUP SPA - Form 6-K

3 Adjusted net sales is not a measure in accordance with IAS/IFRS.

4 Comparable store sales reflect the change in sales from one period to another that, for comparison purposes, includes in the calculation only stores open in the more recent period that also were open during the comparable prior period, and applies to both periods the average exchange rate for the prior period and the same geographic area.

5 Effective July 1, 2014, adjusted net sales were impacted by the modification of terms of an EyeMed reinsurance agreement with an existing underwriter whereby the Company now assumes less reinsurance revenue and less claims expense. The impact of this new contract, for the three-month and twelve-month periods ended December 31, are Euro 23.9 million and Euro 46.6 million respectively.

6 At current exchange rates (i) net sales in emerging markets grew by 11.8% and 14.9% in the fourth quarter and in 2014, respectively and (ii) net sales in China and Brazil grew by 19% and 10.2% in 2014.
