ITEM 8.01 OTHER EVENTS

On March 7, 2017, Innoviva, Inc. ( Innoviva or the Company ) issued a press release (the Press Release ) in response to the notice of nomination made by Sarissa Capital Domestic Fund LP and certain of its affiliates (together, Sarissa ) regarding its intention to nominate four director candidates for election to Innoviva s Board of Directors (the Board of Directors ) at the Company s 2017 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the Annual Meeting ) described in this Current Report on Form 8-K. A copy of this press release is filed hereto as Exhibit 99.1. The Company also posted to the Company s website an infographic which contains information on the Company s fiscal year 2016 financial results. A copy of this infographic is filed as Exhibit 99.2. The Company s stockholders are not required to take any action at this time.

In light of Sarissa s intention to nominate four director candidates for election to Innoviva s Board of Directors at the Annual Meeting, the Company is updating the risk factors that appear under the heading Risks Related to Ownership of Our Common Stock in all quarterly and annual reports filed under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act ), subsequent to the Company s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016. The following risk factor shall be incorporated by reference into all of the Company s registration statements under the Securities Act. Investors in our common stock should carefully consider this risk factor below as well as all other risk factors disclosed in our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K, subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and the other information disclosed by us before making an investment decision.

Our business could be negatively affected as a result of the actions of activist stockholders, including a potential proxy contest at our 2017 annual meeting of stockholders (the Annual Meeting ).

Proxy contests have been waged against many companies in the biopharmaceutical industry over the last several years. We have been the subject of actions taken by activist stockholders. On February 8, 2017, Sarissa Capital Domestic Fund LP and certain of its affiliates (together, Sarissa ), which on that date reported beneficial ownership of approximately 3.9% of our outstanding common stock, delivered a notice (the Notice ), dated February 7, 2017, to the Company indicating Sarissa s intent to nominate four candidates to stand for election as directors at the Annual Meeting. In the Notice, Sarissa also notified us that it would present for a vote of stockholders a proposal calling for repeal of any provision of our amended and restated bylaws in effect at the time of the Annual Meeting that was not included in our amended and restated bylaws publicly filed with the SEC on or prior to February 6, 2017.

Following a thorough review of Sarissa s nominees by our Board of Directors and the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee of our Board of Directors, our Board of Directors unanimously recommends that you vote for all of the Board of Directors nominees and against all of Sarissa s nominees. As a result of Sarissa s Notice, or if other activist activities ensue, the Company may be engaged in a proxy contest at the Annual Meeting. Responding to a proxy contest or other similar actions by activist stockholders would require us to incur significant professional fees (including, but not limited to, legal fees, fees for financial advisors, fees for investor relations advisors, and proxy solicitation expenses) and the time-consuming nature of any such response may significantly divert the attention of management, the Board of Directors and our employees. Further, any perceived uncertainties as to our future direction and control resulting from any proxy contest or similar actions by activist stockholders could result in the loss of potential business opportunities and may make it more difficult to attract and retain qualified personnel and business partners, any of which could adversely affect our business and operating results.

Even if we are successful in any proxy contest, including the potential proxy contest against Sarissa, our business could be adversely affected by any such proxy contest because:

- responding to proxy contests and other actions by activist stockholders can be costly (resulting in significant professional fees and proxy solicitation expenses) and time-consuming, disrupting operations and diverting the attention of our Board of Directors, management and employees;

- perceived uncertainties as to future direction may result in the loss of potential acquisitions, collaborations or other strategic opportunities, and may make it more difficult to attract and retain qualified personnel and business partners;
- if individuals are elected to our Board of Directors with a specific agenda, it may adversely affect our ability to effectively and timely implement our strategic plan and create additional value for our stockholders; and
- if individuals are elected to our Board of Directors who do not agree with our strategic plan, the ability of our Board of Directors to function effectively could be adversely affected, which could in turn adversely affect our business, operating results and financial condition.

Uncertainties related to, or the results of, such actions could cause our stock price to experience periods of volatility.

In addition, under certain circumstances arising out of or related to a proxy contest or threatened proxy contest or the nomination of directors by an activist stockholder, a change in the composition of our Board of Directors may (1) trigger the requirement that we make an offer to repurchase all of our outstanding 2.125% Convertible Subordinated Notes due 2023 (the Notes) at a price equal to 100% of the principal and unpaid interest on such Notes, (2) constitute a change in control under the terms of our severance plans, which provide for payment of severance if a covered executive officer is subject to an involuntary termination within 3 months prior to or 24 months after a change in control of the Company and (3) constitute a change in control under the terms of certain of the Company's equity award grants and equity plans for its employees, and depending on the terms of the award or plan, may result in the accelerated vesting of such award. In the event we were required to offer to repurchase all of the Notes, which as of December 31, 2016 had an aggregate outstanding principal of approximately $241.0 million, we would be required to obtain additional financing. As of December 31, 2016, we had cash, cash equivalents, and marketable securities of $150.4 million. We cannot assure stockholders that we would be able to timely obtain such financing on commercially reasonable terms, if at all. To the extent that additional capital is raised through the sale of equity or equity-linked securities, the issuance of those securities could result in substantial dilution for our current stockholders and the terms may include liquidation or other preferences that adversely affect the rights of our current stockholders. Furthermore, the issuance of additional securities, whether equity or debt, by us, or the possibility of such issuance, may cause the market price of our common stock to decline and existing stockholders may not agree with our financing plans or the terms of such financings. We also could be required to seek funds through arrangements with partners or otherwise that may require us to relinquish rights to our intellectual property, our product candidates or otherwise agree to terms unfavorable to us. The occurrence of any of the foregoing events could materially adversely affect our business
