- 9.10 Quorum. A quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of shareholders shall, irrespective of the number of persons actually present at the meeting, be twenty (20%) percent of the outstanding shares of the Corporation entitled to vote at any such meeting, whether such shares are represented in person or by duly appointed proxy. If a quorum is present at the opening of any meeting of the shareholders, the shareholders present may proceed with the business of the meeting, notwithstanding that a quorum is not present throughout the meeting. If a quorum is not present at the opening of a meeting of the shareholders, the shareholders present may adjourn the meeting to a fixed time and place but may not transact any other business.

- 9.11 Adjournments. If a meeting of shareholders is adjourned for less than thirty (30) days, it shall not be necessary to give notice of the adjourned meeting, other than by announcement at the time of the adjournment. If the meeting of shareholders is adjourned by one or more adjournments for an aggregate of thirty (30) days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as for the original meeting.
- 9.12 Right to Vote. Subject to the Act, the Articles and any pooling agreement, every person who is named in the list referred to in paragraph 9.06 as a shareholder entitled to vote shall be entitled to vote the shares shown opposite his name. This rule will apply except where there has been a transfer of shares after the record date fixed pursuant to paragraph 9.07. In such a case, the transferee shall be entitled to vote the transferred shares at the meeting if:
- a) he produces properly endorsed certificates evidencing such transfer of shares, or
 - b) having otherwise established that he owns the transferred shares, he has demanded not later than ten (10) days before the meeting, that his name be included in the list before the meeting, in which case the transferee is entitled to vote his shares at the meeting.
- 9.13 Corporate Shareholders. If a body corporate or an association is a shareholder of the Corporation, the Corporation shall recognize any individual duly authorized in writing by the body corporate or association to represent it at meetings of the shareholders of the Corporation and such individual may exercise all the powers of an individual shareholder.
- 9.14 Joint Shareholders. If two or more persons hold shares jointly, any of such holders may, in the absence of the other or others, vote the shares; but if two or more of those persons who are present, in person or by proxy, vote, they shall vote as one on the shares jointly held by them.
- 9.15 Proxy Holders and Representatives. Every shareholder entitled to vote at a meeting of shareholders may appoint a proxy holder, or one or more alternate proxy holders, to attend and act as his representative at the meeting or meetings in the manner, to the extent authorized and with the authority conferred by the proxy. A proxy shall be in writing executed by the shareholder or his attorney and shall conform with the requirements of the Act.

A shareholder may revoke a proxy:

- a) by depositing an instrument in writing executed by him or by his attorney in writing:
 - (i) at the registered office of the Corporation at any time up to and including the last business day preceding the day of the meeting, or an adjournment of that meeting, at which the proxy is to be used, or
 - (ii) with the chairman of the meeting on the day of the meeting or of an adjournment of the meeting;
- b) in any other manner permitted by law.

9.16 Time for Deposit of Proxies. The board may specify in a notice calling a meeting of shareholders a time, preceding the time of such meeting by 48 hours exclusive of non-business days, before which time a proxy to be used at such meeting must be deposited. A proxy shall be acted upon only if, prior to the time so specified, it shall have been deposited with the Corporation or an agent thereof specified in such notice or, if no such time is specified in such notice, if it has been received by the secretary of the Corporation or by the chairman of the meeting or any adjournment thereof prior to the time of voting.

9.17 Show of Hands. Subject to the provisions of the Act, any question at a meeting of shareholders shall be decided by a show of hands unless a ballot thereon is required or demanded as hereinafter provided. Upon a show of hands, every person who is present and entitled to vote shall have one vote. Whenever a vote by show of hands shall have been taken upon a question, unless a ballot thereon is required or demanded, a declaration by the chairman of the meeting that the vote upon the question has been carried or carried by a particular majority or not carried and an entry to that effect made in the Minutes of the meeting shall be prima facie evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against any resolution or other proceeding in respect of the said question, and the result of the vote so taken shall be the decision of the shareholders upon the said question.

9.18 Ballots. On any question proposed for consideration at a meeting of shareholders, and whether or not a show of hands has been taken thereon, any shareholder or proxy holder entitled to vote at the meeting may require or demand a ballot. A ballot so required or demanded shall be taken in such manner as the chairman shall direct. A requirement or demand for a ballot may be withdrawn at any time prior to the taking of the ballot. If a ballot is taken, each person present shall be entitled, in respect of the shares which he is entitled to vote at the meeting upon the question, to that number of votes provided by the Act of the Articles, and the result of that ballot so taken shall be the decision of the shareholders upon the said question.

- 9.19 Votes to Govern. At any meeting of the shareholders, every question shall, unless otherwise required by the Act or the Articles, be determined by a majority of the votes cast on the question. In the case of an equality of votes either upon a show of hands or upon a poll or ballot, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.
- 9.20 Chairman, Secretary and Scrutineers. The chairman of any meeting of shareholders shall be the first mentioned of such following officers as have been appointed and who is present at the meeting: chairman of the board, president, the most senior vice-president in office who is a shareholder.
- If no such officer is present within fifteen minutes from the time fixed for holding the meeting, the persons present and entitled to vote shall choose one of their number to be chairman. If the secretary of the Corporation is absent, the chairman shall appoint some person, who need not be a shareholder to act as secretary at the meeting. If desired, one or more scrutineers, who need not be shareholders, may be appointed by a resolution or by the chairman with the consent of the meeting.
- 9.21 Resolution in Writing. A resolution in writing signed by all the shareholders entitled to vote on that resolution at a meeting of shareholders is as valid as if it had been passed at a meeting of the shareholders.
- 9.22 Meetings by Telephone. A shareholder or any other person entitled to attend a meeting of shareholders may participate in a meeting by means of telephone or other communication facility that permits all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other. A person participating in such a meeting by such means is deemed to be present at that meeting.
- 9.23 Shareholder's Proposal. A shareholder entitled to vote at an annual meeting of shareholders may submit to the Corporation notice of any matter that he proposes to raise at a meeting which falls within the ambit of proposal as that term is used in the Act, and may discuss at the meeting any matter in respect of which he would have been entitled to submit a proposal.
- 9.24 Proxy Solicitation. The management of the Corporation shall, concurrently with giving notice of a meeting of shareholders, send a form of proxy to each shareholder who is entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the meeting.

- 11.01 Method of Giving Notices. Any notice (which term includes any communication or document) to be given (which term includes sent, delivered or served) pursuant to the Act, the regulations thereunder, the Articles, the by-laws or otherwise to a shareholder, director, officer, auditor or member of a committee of the board shall be sufficiently given if delivered to his recorded address or if mailed to him at his recorded address by prepaid ordinary or air mail or if sent to him at his recorded address by any means of prepaid transmitted or recorded communication, including telex, telecopier or other similar methods of communication. - 11.04 Omissions and Errors. The accidental omission to give any notice to any shareholder, director, officer, auditor or member of a committee of the board or the non-receipt of any notice by any such person or any error in any notice not affecting the substance thereof shall not invalidate any action taken at any meeting held pursuant to such notice or otherwise founded thereon.
- 11.05 Persons Entitled by Death or Operation of Law. Every person who, by operation of law, transfer, death of a shareholder or any other means whatsoever, shall become entitled to any share, shall be bound by every notice in respect of such share which shall have been duly given to the shareholder from whom he derives his title to such share prior to his name and address being entered on the securities register (whether such notice was given before or after the happening of the event upon which he became so entitled) and prior to his furnishing to the Corporation the proof of authority or evidence of his entitlement prescribed by the Act.
- 11.06 Waiver of Notice. Any such waiver or abridgement shall be in writing except a waiver of notice of a meeting of shareholders or of the board or a committee of the board which may be given in any manner authorized by the Act or the By-laws.
