DESCRIPTION OF SECURITIES

Not applicable.

INTERESTS OF NAMED EXPERTS AND COUNSEL

The validity of the issuance of the common shares of the Registrant covered by this Registration Statement is being passed upon by Farris, Vaughan, Wills & Murphy, LLP, Vancouver, British Columbia. As of the date of this Registration Statement, R. Hector MacKay-Dunn, Q.C., a partner of Farris, Vaughan, Wills & Murphy, LLP, is the Assistant Corporate Secretary of the Registrant.

INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Canada Business Corporations Act

Under the Canada Business Corporations Act (the "CBCA"), which governs the Registrant, the Registrant may indemnify a present or former director or officer of the Registrant or a person who acts or acted at the Registrant's request as a director or officer, or an individual acting in a similar capacity, of another entity (the "Individual"), against all costs, charges and expenses, including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment, reasonably incurred by the Individual in respect of any civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other proceeding in which the Individual is involved because of that association with the Registrant or other entity. The Registrant may advance monies to the Individual for the costs, charges and expenses of a proceeding referred to in the preceding sentence.

However, the indemnification referred to in the preceding paragraph is prohibited under the CBCA, and all moneys advanced to the Individual pursuant to the preceding paragraph must be repaid, unless the Individual:

acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Registrant, or, as the case may be, to the best interests of the other entity for which the Individual acted as director or officer or in a similar capacity at the Registrant's request; and in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, had reasonable grounds for believing that the Individual's conduct was lawful.

In addition, such indemnification or the advance of monies may only be made in respect of an action by or on behalf of the Registrant or other entity to procure a judgment in its favour with the prior approval of the court.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the CBCA provides that an Individual is entitled to indemnity from the Registrant in respect of all costs, charges and expenses reasonably incurred by the Individual in connection with the defence of any civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other proceeding to which the Individual is subject because of the Individual's association with the Registrant or other entity, if the Individual was not judged by the court or other competent authority to have committed any fault or omitted to do anything that the individual ought to have done and has fulfilled the conditions set forth in (a) and (b) of the preceding paragraph.

Bylaws of the Registrants

The bylaws of the Registrant provide that, subject to the limitations contained in the CBCA, but without limiting the right of the Registrant to indemnify any individual under the CBCA or otherwise to the full extent permitted by law, the Registrant:

shall indemnify each director or officer or former director or officer and each other individual who acts or has acted at the Registrant's request as a director or officer, or in a similar capacity, of another entity (and each such individual's respective heirs and personal representatives), against all costs, charges and expenses, including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment, reasonably incurred in respect of any civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other proceeding in which the individual is involved because of that association with the Registrant or other entity, provided:

(i)

the individual acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Registrant or, as the case may be, to the best interests of the other entity for which the individual acted as a director or officer or in a similar capacity at the Registrant's request; and

(ii)

in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, the individual had reasonable grounds for believing that the individual's conduct was lawful; and

shall advance monies to a director, officer or other individual for the costs, charges and expenses of a proceeding referred to in subparagraph (a) above in accordance with and subject to the CBCA.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the bylaws of the Registrant provide that any such indemnity or advance of monies in respect of an action referred to in (a) of the preceding paragraph by or on behalf of the Registrant or other entity in respect of which an individual has acted as director or officer or in a similar capacity at the request of the Registrant to procure judgment in its favour shall be subject to approval of a court.

Indemnification Agreements

The Registrant has entered into an indemnification agreement with each of its directors and officers which provides, among other things, that the Registrant will, to the fullest extent not prohibited by law, indemnify such person against costs, charges and expenses reasonably incurred by such person in respect of any civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other proceeding in which such person is involved because of his or her association as a present or former director or officer of the Registrant, or an individual who acts or acted at the Registrant's request as a director or officer, or an individual acting in a similar capacity, of another entity, whether brought by or on behalf of the Registrant or otherwise. The indemnification agreements also provide that, to the fullest extent not prohibited by law, or by a finding of an arbitrator or a court of first instance, the Registrant will advance, as they are incurred in advance of the final disposition of an eligible proceeding, the litigation expenses actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the eligible proceeding, and upon it being ultimately determined whether or not indemnification of such person for all or part of the advanced litigation expenses is prohibited by the CBCA:

to the extent that indemnification for the advanced litigation expenses is not prohibited, the Registrant will indemnify such person against them, and such person will not be required to repay them; or to the extent that indemnification for the advanced litigation expenses is prohibited, such person will repay them to the Registrant.

Directors and Officers Insurance

The Registrant maintains a directors and officers insurance and registrant reimbursement policy. The policy: (a) insures directors and officers against losses for which the Registrant does not indemnify and which losses arise from certain wrongful acts in the indemnified parties' capacities as directors and officers; and, (b) reimburses the Registrant for those losses for which the Registrant has lawfully indemnified the directors and officers.

Securities Act Limitation on Indemnification

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, the Registrant has been informed that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

to file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i)

to include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii)

to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective Registration Statement; to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement;

(iii)

provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(i) and (a)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the issuer pursuant to section 13 or section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference herein.

(b)

That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered herein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c)

To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(d)

To file a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement to include any financial statements required by Item 8.A of Form 20-F at the start of any delayed offering or throughout a continuous offering.

The Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered herein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
