(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed?

Yes  No

If the answer is no, identify report(s)

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes  No

If so: attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

It is anticipated that the results of operations for the year ended December 31, 2003 as compared to the year ended December 31, 2002 will reflect changes in the estimates of litigation accruals recorded during the year ended December 31, 2002. One lawsuit has been settled and a judgment was entered on another lawsuit. The changes in the litigation accruals have been disclosed in the Company's filings on Forms 10-QSB during the year 2003 and are currently being audited. During 2003, the Company had no operations and incurred expenses primarily for accounting, administration and legal fees. The Company has no cash, no assets, and a significant stockholders' deficit.
