PETROCHINA IMPROVES OPERATIONS IN THE FIRST QUARTER OF 2005

15 April 2005, Beijing - PetroChina Company Limited ("PetroChina" or the "Company", SEHK: 0857; NYSE: PTR) announced today that its key operational indicators recorded healthy growth in the first quarter of 2005, compared to the same period last year. By leveraging the opportunities of high oil prices and strong domestic demand, the Company has continued to optimize and enhance its production and operations.

In the first quarter of 2005, the Company accelerated the crude oil and natural gas production, with total oil and gas output reaching 243 million barrels of oil equivalent, increasing 14.3 million barrels of oil equivalent or 6.2% from a year ago. Of which, crude oil stood at 199 million barrels (including overseas equity oil production of 1.68 million barrels), increasing 7.0 million barrels or 3.6% from the same period last year.

The Company also produced marketable natural gas of 260.9 billion cubic feet (including overseas equity gas production of 3.97 billion cubic feet) in the January to March period, representing an increase of 43.4 billion cubic feet or 20% from the first quarter of 2004.

During the first three months of 2005, the Company's refining and chemical business as well as major products continued to record steady growth with key facilities running at their full capacity. The Company processed 187 million barrels of crude oil, increasing 13.1 million barrels or 7.5% from the first quarter of 2004. The Company produced 5.285 million tons of gasoline in the first three months of 2005, rising 99,000 tons or 1.9% from a year ago. 10.404 million tons of diesel were produced in the same period, increasing 1.085 million tons or 11.6% from the first quarter of 2004.

In the first three months of this year, the Company produced 671,000 tons of synthetic resin and 69,000 tons of synthetic rubber, representing an increase of 1.5% and 4.5%, respectively, from the same period of 2004.

The Company has made further progress in its key pipeline projects in the first quarter of 2005. The construction of oil pipeline between the Alashankou Pass and the Dushanzi oil refinery in Xinjiang has been proceeding smoothly. The Company also accelerated the construction of the Second Shaanxi-Beijing Pipeline and Hunan Xiangtan branch of the Zhongxian-Wuhan Pipeline. Both gas pipelines are expected to be put into operation by July 2005.

Looking forward, PetroChina will continue to capitalize on the market potentials, both at home and abroad, with an aim to achieve sustainable, effective and rapid growth. The Company will also continue to implement its full-year work plans while proactively adapting to market changes, enhancing operations and profitability, as well as taking efforts to reach its full-year operational targets.
