Current Unreviewed, Unaudited Cash Flows

Taro Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. (the "Company") is supplementing its press release of July 28, 2008, which provided certain financial information for the six months ended June 30, 2008, by providing information on cash flows for the six months ended June 30, 2008, including an increase in net cash from operations of approximately $23.1 million.

Net income for the first half of 2008 was approximately $20.6 million. Non-cash charges for the period, primarily depreciation and amortization, were approximately $11.7 million. This was partially offset by a net increase of approximately $9.2 million in other working capital items, primarily inventory and foreign exchange effect on intercompany balances. The resulting increase in net cash from operations was approximately $23.1 million.

Capital expenditures, primarily additions to property, plant and equipment, amounted to approximately $1.8 million. Financing activities for the period, primarily scheduled debt payments, were approximately $15.3 million.

The above-mentioned activities in the aggregate resulted in an increase in cash balances of approximately $6.0 million.

The financial information herein does not constitute complete financial information, has not been reviewed by the Company's independent auditors and is subject to possible change.

SAFE HARBOR STATEMENT

Certain statements in this Form 6-K are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements include, but are not limited to, statements that do not describe historical facts and statements that refer or relate to events or circumstances the Company "estimates," "believes," or "expects" to happen, "should" happen, or similar language, and statements with respect to the Company's financial performance, including income and cash flow. Although Taro Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. ("Taro" or the "Company") believes the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements to be based on reasonable assumptions, it can give no assurances that its expectations will be attained. Factors that could cause actual results to differ include the possible unavailability of financial information, completion of the audits of 2006, 2007 and/or 2008, actions of the Company's lenders, creditors and Sun Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. ("Sun"), including but not limited to the outcome of the litigation with Sun, general domestic and international economic conditions, industry and market conditions, changes in the Company's financial position, litigation brought by any party in any court in Israel, the United States, or any country in which Taro operates, regulatory actions and legislative actions in the countries in which Taro operates, and other risks detailed from time to time in the Company's SEC reports, including its Annual Reports on Form 20-F. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date on which they are made. The Company undertakes no obligations to update, change or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, additional or subsequent developments or otherwise.
