

Item 2.02 Results of Operations and Financial Condition.

On October 23, 2008, The New York Times Company (the “Company”) issued a press release announcing the Company’s earnings for the quarter ended September 28, 2008. On October 23, 2008, the Company also issued a press release announcing the Company’s revenues for September 2008. Copies of these press releases are furnished as exhibits to this Form 8-K.

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) On October 22, 2008, the Company adopted amendments to a number of its retirement plans for non-union employees, including:

- (i) a reduction in the benefit accrual formula under The New York Times Companies Pension Plan, a defined benefit pension plan (the “Pension Plan”), effective January 1, 2009,
- (ii) increased contributions under The New York Times Companies Supplemental Retirement Investment Plan, a 401(k) plan, also effective January 1, 2009, and
- (iii) the elimination of post-age 65 retiree medical benefits for all employees who terminate employment on or after March 1, 2009, under The New York Times Company Retiree Medical Plan.

The Company expects the pension and retiree medical plan changes to result in net savings of approximately $15 million and to reduce its pension benefits obligation by approximately $70 million and its post-retirement benefits obligation by approximately $20 million.

Concurrently, the Company amended The New York Times Company Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan (the “SERP”), a non-qualified defined benefit plan that provides enhanced retirement benefits to select members of management. The amendments reduce annual SERP retirement benefits from 2.5% of final average earnings up to 20 years of service minus benefits under the Pension Plan to (a) 2.5% of final average earnings for each year of service as of December 31, 2008, plus (b) 2.2% of final average earnings for each year of service after December 31, 2008, provided that the aggregate years of service shall not exceed 20 years of service, minus (c) benefits under the Pension Plan. Participants with at least 20 years of service will be unaffected by the change. James M. Follo, chief financial officer, is the only named executive officer with less than 20 years of service, and accordingly will accrue future benefits at the reduced rate.

Technical amendments to the SERP were also made to comply with final regulations issued under Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

The foregoing description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the SERP, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.
