PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

On August 7, 2012, Chimera Investment Corporation (the "Company", "our" or "we") disclosed in a Current Report on Form 8-K (the "Item 4.02 Form 8-K") that we were completing an evaluation of our accounting policy related to the application of generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") to our non-Agency residential mortgage-backed securities portfolio. Our evaluation related to the accounting for our non-Agency residential mortgage-backed securities portfolio under Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Subtopic 320-10, Investments – Debt and Equity Securities, ASC Subtopic 325-40, Investments – Other – Beneficial Interests in Securitized Financial Assets, and ASC Subtopic 310-30, Receivables – Loans and Debt Securities Acquired with Deteriorated Credit Quality.

As disclosed in the Item 4.02 Form 8-K, on August 1, 2012, our Audit Committee concluded, after discussions with management and Deloitte & Touche, LLP ("Deloitte"), our independent registered public accounting firm since our inception and up to and including for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2011, that each of our previously issued (i) consolidated financial statements included in our Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the years ended December 31, 2010, 2009 and 2008, and (ii) interim consolidated financial statements included in our Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2008 and for all subsequent quarters through the quarter ended September 30, 2011, needed to be restated (the "Restatement"). In this Form 12b-25, the years and interim periods included in the Restatement are collectively referred to as the "Restatement Period." We completed our evaluation and filed our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2011 (the "2011 10-K") on March 8, 2013.

Subsequently, in our Form 10-Q for the period ending June 30, 2012 ("Second Quarter 2012 Form 10-Q") we corrected amounts previously reported in total other-than-temporary impairment ("OTTI") losses and the non-credit portion of loss recognized in other comprehensive income (loss) in the Consolidated Statements of Operations and comprehensive income as the previous presentation was reported on a cumulative basis. The presentation in our Second Quarter 2012 Form 10-Q reflects only that portion of total OTTI loss that is incremental for the reporting period by giving consideration to OTTI reported and recognized in prior periods. Furthermore, in our Form 10-Q for the period ending March 31, 2012, we did not present total OTTI correctly when total cumulative credit losses are greater than total OTTI in the Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Income. Total OTTI losses should be reported net of unrealized gains on a security when they occur in the same period as a credit loss. Additionally, we noted an error in the presentation of reclassification items within comprehensive income in the Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Income for the three months ended March 31, 2012.

The errors noted related to March 31, 2012 will be corrected in our future filings that presents such information. For a full explanation of these corrections, please see “Special Note Regarding this Form 10-Q” in our Second Quarter 2012 Form 10-Q, filed on October 31, 2013.

We experienced significant delays in the preparation and filing of our Second Quarter 2012 Form 10-Q. These delays were unexpected and resulted in significantly longer time periods to complete the filings than originally anticipated. The delays are primarily due to the transition by us from Deloitte to Ernst & Young LLP (“E&Y”), our independent registered public accounting firm since the fiscal year ended December 31, 2011. The transition resulted in additional work that Deloitte needed to complete in order to consent to the reissuance of its opinion related to the consolidated financial position of the Company at December 31, 2011, and the consolidated results of its operations, its comprehensive (loss)/income, and its cash flows presented in our Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2012 (the “2012 Form 10-K”) filed on December 31, 2013. This additional work also resulted in delays in the reviews by Deloitte and E&Y of our Second Quarter 2012 Form 10-Q, which has resulted in the significantly longer time periods to complete the filings than originally anticipated by us.

In light of the Restatement as well as the additional reasons set forth above, we will not be able to file our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013 within the extension period provided under Rule 12b-25.

We refer you to the 2011 10-K for more information related to the Restatement, including, without limitation, the nature of the accounting error giving rise to the Restatement and the estimate of the cumulative anticipated impact of the Restatement on our previously issued consolidated financial statements for the Restatement Period.

We expect to file our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013 as soon as practicable.

The above statements and the anticipated timing of our SEC filings constitute forward-looking statements that are based on our current expectations.
