Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On September 8, 2015, Calgon Carbon Corporation (the “Company”) and Richard D. Rose, Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary of the Company, entered into that certain Confidential Separation and General Release Agreement (the “Agreement”), which delineates the terms of Mr. Rose’s separation from the Company effective September 30, 2015 (the “Effective Date”). The Agreement provides that Mr. Rose will receive a lump sum payment in the amount of $261,777.08, less required withholding and deductions together with accrued salary and vacation pay earned through the Effective Date. The Company also agrees to pay Mr. Rose’s paid portion of continued health coverage until the earlier of (i) the end of the 12th month following the Resignation Date (as defined in the Agreement), or (ii) the day on which Mr. Rose becomes eligible to obtain medical coverage from another source. If a Short Term Incentive payment for the fiscal year 2015 is made by the Company, the Company agrees to pay Mr. Rose an amount equal to 75% of such STI payment less any component related to the Individual Goal portion. Pursuant to the Agreement, Mr. Rose releases the Company from claims and causes of action as of the date of the Agreement, reaffirms his obligations of confidentiality, non-compete and related covenants.

The foregoing description of the Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full and complete copy of the Agreement which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
