Item 4.01 Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

(a) Resignation of Independent Accountant.

On March 3, 2017, A Chan and Company LLP resigned as the Registrant's independent registered public accounting firm at the request of the Company. The Company's Board of Directors subsequently ratified and approved the resignation of A Chan and Company LLP as its independent registered public accounting firm.

The reports of A Chan and Company LLP on the Company's financial statements as of and for the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2015 contained no adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles except to indicate that there was substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

During the Company's two most recent fiscal years and through to March 3, 2017, the Company has not had any disagreements with A Chan and Company LLP on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure.

(b) Engagement of Independent Accountant.

Effective March 3, 2017, the Registrant's Board of Directors appointed Saturna Group Chartered Professional Accountants LLP ("Saturna Group") as our new independent registered public accounting firm.

During the Company's two most recent fiscal years and through to March 3, 2017, the Company did not consult with Saturna Group regarding the application of accounting principles to a specific completed or contemplated transaction or regarding the type of audit opinion that might be rendered by Saturna Group on the Company's financial statements. Further, Saturna Group did not provide any written or oral advice that was an important factor considered by the Company in reaching a decision as to any such accounting, auditing or financial reporting or any matter being the subject of disagreement or "reportable event" or any other matter as defined in Regulation S-K, Item 304 (a)(1)(iv) or (a)(1)(v).
