PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS

These materials are a proxy statement of Southern Bancorp, Inc. and a prospectus of United Community Banks, Inc. They are furnished to you in connection with the notice of special meeting of shareholders to be held on November 21, 2006 that they accompany. At the special meeting of Southern shareholders, you will be asked to vote on the merger of Southern with and into United described in more detail herein. As of October 19, 2006, the record date for the Southern shareholders meeting, there were 1,639,137 shares of common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at that meeting. Approval of the merger requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of those shares.

Unless reduced pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, in connection with the merger if approved and consummated, each share of Southern common stock will be converted into 1.179 shares of United common stock (the "Conversion Ratio"). Up to an aggregate of 2,180,133 shares of United common stock may be issued to Southern shareholders if the merger is approved and consummated, all warrants and options to purchase Southern common stock are exercised at or prior to the closing as required under the merger agreement and there is no conversion ratio adjustment. This document is a prospectus of United with respect to such offering and issuance of United common stock.

United common stock is traded on the Nasdaq Global Select Market under the symbol "UCBI". The closing sales price of United common stock as of September 5, 2006, the date the merger agreement was executed, was $31.59. Assuming the Conversion Ratio remains 1.179, if the merger had been completed on September 5, 2006 at such Conversion Ratio, the implied value of your Southern shares would have been $37.24 based on United's closing stock on that date. The closing sales price of United common stock as of October 19, 2006, the most recent date feasible for including in these materials, was $30.84. On October 19, 2006, the implied value of your Southern shares would have been $36.36 per share based on the 1.179 Conversion Ratio.

The accompanying materials contain information regarding the proposed merger and the companies participating in the merger, and the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization pursuant to which the merger would be consummated if approved. We encourage you to carefully read the entire document, and the related documents to which it refers. Investing in United common stock involves risks that you should consider that may affect the value of United common stock to be issued in the merger.

These materials also incorporate important business and financial information about United that is not included in or delivered with them. This business and financial information is available without charge to you upon written or oral request made to Investor Relations, United Community Banks, Inc., at P.O. Box 398, 63 Highway 515, Blairsville, Georgia 30512, telephone number (706) 745-2151. To obtain delivery of such business and financial information before the special meeting, your request must be received no later than November 14, 2006.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved these securities or passed upon the adequacy or accuracy of these materials. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense. Shares of common stock of United are not savings accounts, deposits or other obligations of any bank and are not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other governmental agency.

The date of these materials are October 20, 2006, and they are expected to be first mailed to shareholders on or about October 23, 2006.

Notice Of Special Meeting Of Shareholders
To Be Held On November 21, 2006

A special meeting of shareholders of Southern Bancorp, Inc. will be held on November 21, 2006, at 5:00 p.m., at the main office of Southern National Bank, 200 Cherokee Street, Marietta, Georgia, for the following purposes:

1. to consider and vote on an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization, under which Southern Bancorp, Inc. will merge with and into United Community Banks, Inc., as more particularly described in the accompanying materials; and
2. to transact such other business as may properly come before the special meeting or any adjournments of the special meeting.

If Southern shareholders approve the merger, Southern will be merged with and into United. Unless reduced pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, each share of Southern common stock will be converted into 1.179 shares of United common stock (the "Conversion Ratio") in connection with the merger, all as more fully explained under the heading "Details of the Proposed Merger-The Merger Consideration" (page 14).

Approval of the merger will require the approval of the holders of at least a majority of the Southern common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. Only shareholders of record of Southern common stock at the close of business on October 19, 2006 will be entitled to vote at the special meeting or any adjournments thereof. Southern's board of directors has adopted a resolution approving the merger and the merger agreement and unanimously recommends that you vote for the proposal to approve the merger.

If the merger is completed, Southern shareholders who dissent with respect to the merger will be entitled to receive a cash payment for their shares of Southern common stock if they comply with certain statutory provisions of Article 13 of the Georgia Business Corporation Code regarding the rights of dissenting shareholders, all as more fully explained under the heading "Details of the Proposed Merger-Rights of Dissenting Shareholders" (page 23) and in Appendix B to the accompanying materials.

A form of proxy for use by you is enclosed. To ensure representation at the special meeting, each Southern shareholder is requested to sign, date, and return the proxy card promptly in the enclosed, stamped envelope. A previously submitted proxy may be revoked by notifying Priscilla D. Gamwell, Secretary of Southern, in writing, or by submitting an executed, later-dated proxy prior to the special meeting to Priscilla D. Gamwell, Secretary, Southern Bancorp, Inc., 200 Cherokee Street, Marietta, Georgia 30060. A previously submitted proxy also may be revoked by attending the special meeting and requesting the right to vote in person. A properly signed and returned proxy card, if not revoked, will be voted at the special meeting in the manner specified by the duly submitted proxy.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

Q: What am I being asked to approve?

A: You are being asked to approve the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization by and between Southern and United, pursuant to which Southern will be merged with and into United. Approval of the merger requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of Southern common stock. The Southern board of directors has unanimously approved and adopted the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and recommends voting FOR approval of this merger agreement.

Q: When is the merger expected to be completed?

A: We plan to complete the merger during the fourth quarter of 2006.

Q: What will I receive in the merger?

A: Unless reduced pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, each share of Southern common stock will be converted into 1.179 shares of United common stock (the "Conversion Ratio") in connection with the merger. United will not issue fractional shares in the merger. Instead, you will receive a cash payment, without interest, for the value of any fraction of a share of United common stock that you would otherwise be entitled to receive based on the Conversion Ratio.

For example:

Assuming the Conversion Ratio remains 1.179, if you own 100 shares of Southern common stock, you will be entitled to receive 117 shares of United (100 x 1.179, rounded down to the nearest whole share). In addition, you will be entitled to receive cash for your .9 fractional share of United. If closing sales price of United common stock on the closing date of the merger was the same as it was on the date the merger agreement was executed, $31.59, you will be entitled to receive $28.43 cash for your .9 fractional share (.9 x $31.59).

To review what you will receive in the merger in greater detail, see "Details of the Proposed Merger-The Merger Consideration" beginning on page 14.

Q: What will happen to Southern options I hold?

A: Each of the options to purchase shares of Southern common stock will, upon the effectiveness of the merger, become fully vested and immediately exercisable but will be converted into an option to purchase shares of United common stock calculated based on the Conversion Ratio, 1.179. The aggregate exercise price of each Southern option will remain the same, but the per share price for United shares will reflect the Conversion Ratio.

In the merger agreement, Southern agreed to seek and cause all Southern options that are being converted into options to purchase United common stock to be exercised immediately after the merger becomes effective. United and Southern will contact each Southern option holder before the closing date to facilitate that exercise. See "Details of the Proposed Merger-Conversion and Exercise of Southern Options", beginning on page 15, and "Prospectus Delivery for Option Exercises", beginning on page 42.

Q: What should I do now?

A: Indicate on the enclosed proxy card how you want to vote with respect to the proposed merger, and sign and mail the proxy card in the enclosed envelope as soon as possible so that your shares will be represented at the meeting. If you sign and send in a proxy card but do not indicate how you want to vote, your proxy will be voted in favor of the proposal to approve the merger. A special shareholders meeting will take place on November 21, 2006, at 5:00 p.m. on at the main office of Southern National Bank, 200 Cherokee Street, Marietta, Georgia 30060, to vote on the merger proposal.

You may attend the special meeting and elect to vote your shares in person, rather than voting by proxy. In addition, you may withdraw your proxy up to and including the day of the special meeting by notifying Southern prior to the meeting, in writing, or by submitting an executed, later-dated proxy to: Priscilla D. Gamwell, Secretary, Southern Bancorp, Inc., 200 Cherokee Street, Marietta, Georgia 30060.

Q: What information should I consider?

A: We encourage you to read this entire document carefully. You should also review the factors considered by each company's board of directors discussed in "Details of the Proposed Merger-Background of and Reasons for the Merger" beginning on page 12.

Q: What are the tax consequences of the merger to me?

A: We expect that the exchange of shares of Southern common stock for United common stock by Southern shareholders generally will be tax-free to you for federal income tax purposes. However, you will have to pay taxes at either capital gains or ordinary income rates, depending upon individual circumstances, on cash received in lieu of fractional shares and on gain realized upon the exercise of Southern options. To review the tax consequences to Southern shareholders in greater detail, see "Details of the Proposed Merger-Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger and Opinion of Tax Counsel" beginning on page 25.

Your tax consequences will depend on your personal situation. You should consult your tax adviser for a full understanding of the tax consequences of the merger to you.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. After the merger is completed, you will receive written instructions from United for exchanging your Southern common stock certificates for United common stock certificates and cash.

Q: Who should I call with questions?

A: You should call Steven Holcomb, President of Southern at (770) 424-2000.

SUMMARY

This summary highlights selected information from these materials regarding the proposed merger. For a more complete description of the terms of the proposed merger, you should carefully read this entire document, and the related documents to which it refers. The Agreement and Plan of Reorganization, which is the legal document that governs the proposed merger, is included as Appendix A. In addition, the sections entitled "Where You Can Find More Information", on page 44, and "Incorporation of Certain Documents By Reference", on page 44, contain references to additional sources of information about United and Southern.

The Companies (see pages 34 and 39)

United Community Banks, Inc.

63 Highway 515

Blairsville, Georgia 30512

(706) 745-2151

United is the third largest bank holding company based in Georgia with assets of approximately $6.3 billion, loans of approximately $4.8 billion, deposits of approximately $5.0 billion, and stockholders' equity of approximately $496.3 million as of June 30, 2006. United conducts substantially all of its operations through 25 separate "community banks" with 96 locations in north Georgia, metro Atlanta, coastal Georgia, western North Carolina, and east Tennessee through two wholly-owned state chartered bank subsidiaries: United Community Bank, Blairsville, Georgia, and United Community Bank, Murphy, North Carolina. United's community banks offer a full range of retail and corporate banking services, including checking, savings and time deposit accounts, secured and unsecured loans, wire transfers, brokerage services and other financial services.

United also operates United Community Mortgage Services, a full-service retail mortgage lending operation approved as a seller/servicer for Fannie Mae and the Federal Home Mortgage Corporation, as a division of its Georgia bank subsidiary, and Brintech, Inc., a New Smyrna Beach, Florida based consulting firm for the financial services industry. Additionally, United provides retail brokerage services through a third party broker/dealer.

Southern Bancorp, Inc.

200 Cherokee Street

Marietta, Georgia 30060

(770) 424-2000

Southern is a bank holding company based in Marietta, Georgia with assets of approximately $328.8 million, loans of approximately $245.4 million, deposits of approximately $293.4 million, and shareholders' equity of approximately $18.7 million as of June 30, 2006. Southern is the parent company of Southern National Bank, a full service bank with its main office in Marietta, Georgia. Southern National Bank operates a branch location in Canton, Cherokee County, Georgia. The bank offers a full range of lending products and traditional banking products and services, including commercial, real estate, and consumer loans, cash management services, and savings and time deposit accounts.

The Terms of the Merger (see page 15)

If Southern shareholders approve the merger, Southern will be merged with and into United. Unless reduced pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, in connection with the merger each share of Southern common stock will be converted into 1.179 of United common stock, which is referred to herein as the Conversion Ratio.

You will also receive a cash payment, without interest, for the value of any fraction of a share of United common stock that you would otherwise be entitled to receive based on the Conversion Ratio.

Following the merger, Southern's subsidiary, Southern National Bank, will be merged with and into United Community Bank, a wholly-owned Georgia bank subsidiary of United, and United Community Bank will be the surviving bank.

The Reasons Management of Both Companies Support the Merger (see page 12)

The boards of directors of Southern and United support the merger and believe that it is in the best interests of both companies and their respective shareholders. The board of directors of Southern believes that the merger presents Southern with the chance to better service its market and that the merger will permit Southern shareholders to have an equity interest in a resulting financial institution that has greater financial resources with significant economies of scale and a larger shareholder base, which will increase liquidity and marketability of the equity investment of Southern shareholders. The board of directors of United believes that Southern provides United with an expansion opportunity in an attractive market area. Both boards of directors believe that the terms of the merger are fair and equitable and that following the merger the combined bank will maintain the competitive advantage of a community banking business model.

Shareholders' Meeting

The special meeting of shareholders of Southern will be held on November 21, 2006 at 5:00 p.m., at the main office of Southern National Bank, 200 Cherokee Street, Marietta, Georgia 30060, for the purpose of voting on approval of the merger.

Record Date

You are entitled to vote at the shareholders' meeting if you owned shares of Southern common stock on October 19, 2006.

Vote Required (see page 18)

Approval by holders of a majority of the Southern common stock outstanding on October 19, 2006, is required to approve the merger. As of such date, 1,639,137 shares of Southern common stock were issued and outstanding, each of which is entitled to one vote per share. All of the directors and executive officers of Southern have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the merger. There are 489,715 shares, or 35.6%, of Southern common stock beneficially owned (excluding warrants and options) by its directors and executive officers.

Conditions, Termination, and Effective Date (see page 15)

The merger will not occur unless certain conditions are met, and United or Southern can terminate the merger agreement if specified events occur or fail to occur. The merger must be approved by the Southern shareholders, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, and the Department of Banking and Finance of the State of Georgia. Following the merger, Southern's subsidiary, Southern National Bank, will be merged into United's Georgia bank subsidiary, United Community Bank. The bank merger must be approved by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the Department of Banking and Finance of the State of Georgia, and notice of the bank merger must be provided to the U.S. Office of the Comptroller of the Currency.

The closing of the merger will occur after the merger is approved by Southern shareholders and the foregoing regulators and after the certificate of merger is filed as required under Georgia law.

Rights of Dissenting Shareholders (see page 23)

You are entitled to dissent from the merger and to receive a cash payment for your Southern common stock if you follow certain statutory provisions regarding the rights of dissenting shareholders under Article 13 of the Georgia Business Corporation Code.

Federal Income Tax Consequences (see page 25)

Southern has received an opinion from Kilpatrick Stockton LLP stating that, assuming the merger is completed as currently anticipated, Southern will not recognize any gain or loss for federal income tax purposes, and shareholders of Southern to the extent they receive United stock will not recognize any gain or loss for federal income tax purposes. All cash you receive in lieu of fractional shares or as payment for exercising your right to dissent, will be treated as amounts distributed in redemption of your Southern common stock and that amount will be taxable under the Internal Revenue Code as either ordinary income or capital gain or loss, depending upon your particular circumstances. Neither United nor Southern has requested a ruling to this effect from the Internal Revenue Service.

Southern is a corporation that is taxed on a modified pass-through basis under Subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. In contrast, United is a corporation that is taxed at the corporate level under Subchapter C of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. As a result, United is subject to taxation on income realized from its operations. There is no "pass-through" of any items of income or loss to the shareholders of United.

Accounting Treatment (see page 22)

The merger will be accounted for as a purchase for financial reporting and accounting purposes.

Opinion of Southern's Financial Advisor (see page 26)

The Carson Medlin Company has rendered an opinion to Southern that based on and subject to the procedures, matters, and limitations described in its opinion and other matters it considered relevant, as of the date of its opinion, the merger consideration is fair from a financial point of view to the shareholders of Southern. A summary of Carson Medlin's opinion begins on page 26 and the full opinion is attached as Appendix C to these materials.

Markets for Common Stock

United's common stock trades on the Nasdaq Global Select Market under the symbol "UCBI". The following table sets forth, for the periods indicated, the high, low and closing sales prices per share of United's common stock as quoted on Nasdaq. Amounts have been restated to reflect the pro forma effect of United's three-for-two split effective April 28, 2004:

	High	Low	Close
2006
Fourth Quarter (through October 19)	$ 32.00	$ 29.03	$ 30.84
Third Quarter	33.10	27.51	30.05
Second Quarter	31.26	27.02	30.44
First Quarter	29.64	26.02	28.15
2005
Fourth Quarter	30.50	25.32	26.66
Third Quarter	29.36	25.75	28.50
Second Quarter	26.44	21.70	26.02
First Quarter	27.92	23.02	23.73
2004
Fourth Quarter	29.60	23.17	26.93
Third Quarter	25.45	21.75	24.27
Second Quarter	25.36	21.89	25.18
First Quarter	24.62	21.37	23.73

The closing sales price of United common stock as of September 5, 2006, the date the merger agreement was executed, was $31.59. The closing sales price of United common stock as of October 19, 2006, the most recent date feasible for including in these materials, was $30.84.

There has been no public trading market for Southern common stock. Since 2004, there are two transactions involving a total of 15,000 shares in which Southern common stock was transferred between third parties, and management of Southern has no knowledge of the price at which such transactions took place. The following table sets forth certain information regarding sales of Southern common stock by Southern in private offerings:

Edgar Filing: UNITED COMMUNITY BANKS INC - Form S-4/A

Year	Number of Trades	Aggregate Shares	Size of Trades (Shares)		Price of Trades
			Smallest	Largest	Lowest	Highest
2006	3	28,777	216	16,413	$20.25	$21.54
2005	50	148,550	86	22,144	$14.25	$21.54
2004	22	187,207	257	31,464	$10.50	$15.72

We believe the last sale of Southern common stock between shareholders in a private transaction occurred in May 2004 and involved the sale of 10,000 shares.

Assuming the Conversion Ratio remains 1.179, if the merger had been completed on September 5, 2006, the implied value of one share of Southern common stock would have been $37.24 based on United's closing sales price on that date, and, on October 19, 2006, the implied value of one share of Southern common stock would have been $36.36.

There were 62 shareholders of record of Southern common stock as of October 19, 2006.

Dividends (see page 21)

United has declared aggregate cash dividends of $.24 per share in 2006 and declared aggregate cash dividends of $.28 per share in 2005 and $.24 per share in 2004. United intends to continue paying cash dividends, but the amount and frequency of cash dividends, if any, will be determined by United's board of directors after consideration of earnings, capital requirements, and the financial condition of United, and will depend on cash dividends paid to it by its subsidiary banks. The ability of United's subsidiary banks to pay dividends to it is restricted by certain regulatory requirements.

Because of Southern's status as an "S corporation" under federal tax laws, Southern has regularly distributed 35% of its estimated taxable earnings to its shareholders to satisfy the quarterly tax liabilities of its shareholders. As a result, Southern has declared aggregate cash dividends of $.99 per share in 2006 and declared aggregate cash dividends of $1.02 per share in 2005 and $.28 per share in 2004. Southern has agreed pursuant to the merger agreement that it will not pay any cash dividends other than its regular distribution of 35% of estimated taxable earnings without the written consent of United.

Differences in Legal Rights Between Shareholders of Southern and United (see page 20)

Following the merger you will no longer be a Southern shareholder and, if you receive shares of United common stock following the merger, your rights as a shareholder will no longer be governed by Southern's articles of incorporation and bylaws. You will be a United shareholder, and your rights as a United shareholder will be governed by United's articles of incorporation and bylaws. Your former rights as a Southern shareholder and your new rights as a United shareholder are different in certain ways, including the following:

- Southern's bylaws provide for a board of directors consisting of between five and 25 members, while United's bylaws provide for a board of directors consisting of between eight and 14 members.
- The bylaws of Southern set forth different requirements for removal of directors than do the articles of incorporation and bylaws of United.
- Southern and United have different special procedures in their articles of incorporation requiring supermajority approval and disinterested shareholder approval of some business transactions.
- The articles of incorporation of United require a supermajority vote to amend most provisions of its articles of incorporation and bylaws. In some cases, Southern's articles of incorporation and bylaws do not.

·United is subject to filing requirements provided for under the Securities and Exchange Act. Southern is not subject to such requirements.

Interests of Management in the Merger (see page 19)

Some of the directors and officers of Southern have interests in the merger in addition to their interests as shareholders generally, including the following:

·As a condition to closing merger, Steven Holcomb, President and Chief Executive Officer of Southern, will terminate his change in control agreement with Southern for a payment of three times his annual salary and most recent bonus and twelve times his monthly automobile allowance as required by such agreement upon a change in control. Paul Kirtley, Chief Financial Officer of Southern, and Henley Vansant, Executive Vice President of Southern will each terminate their change in control agreements with Southern for a payment to each of one times their annual salary and most recent bonus and, in the case of Mr. Vansant, twelve times his monthly automobile allowance, as required by such agreements upon a change in control.

·As a condition to closing the merger, Steven Holcomb will be provided a change in control agreement by United that will provide him a payment approximately two times his annual salary and bonus in certain circumstances after a change in control of United Community Bank. United will also grant Mr. Holcomb options to purchase 6,000 shares of common stock of United. The options vest in four equal installments over four years beginning on the first anniversary of the closing of the merger and will have an exercise price equal to the fair market value of United common stock on the day the options are granted.

·As a condition to closing the merger, Henley Vansant will be provided a change in control agreement by United that will provide him a payment approximately equal to his annual salary and bonus in certain circumstances after a change in control of United Community Bank. United will also grant Mr. Vansant options to purchase 4,000 shares of common stock of United. The options vest in four equal installments over four years beginning on the first anniversary of the closing of the merger and will have an exercise price equal to the fair market value of United common Stock on the day the options are granted.

·United has agreed to provide J. Edward Mulkey, Jr., Chairman of the Board of Southern, with $100,000 per year for two years in exchange for Mr. Mulkey's consulting services. In addition, Mr. Mulkey will be provided with an automobile.

·United will generally indemnify and provide liability insurance to the present directors and officers of Southern for actions taken by such directors and officers in such capacities.

·In connection with the merger, United has agreed to provide to officers and employees of Southern who continue employment with United or its subsidiaries employee benefits under employee benefit plans, on terms and conditions substantially similar to those currently provided to similarly situated United officers and employees.

GAAP Reconciliation and Explanation

United's net operating income is determined by methods other than in accordance with GAAP and excludes merger-related and restructuring charges. For analysis purposes, United excludes these charges because its management believes that non-GAAP operating results provide a helpful measure for assessing United's financial performance because the excluded charges are non-recurring and operating income more closely reflects what United could expect to earn during periods of no acquisitions. United's net operating income should not be viewed as a substitute for net income determined in accordance with GAAP and is not necessarily comparable to non-GAAP performance measures that may be presented by other companies. The following is a reconciliation of United's net operating income to GAAP net income:

DETAILS OF THE PROPOSED MERGER

Background of and Reasons for the Merger

In exercising their fiduciary responsibilities to shareholders, Southern's management and board of directors regularly assess the local banking industry, including the regulatory and competitive environment for banking services. The board of directors has, over time, considered the possibility of a number of strategic options in evaluating ways to maximize the value of Southern common stock, to provide liquidity for the shareholders of Southern, and to diversify the Southern shareholders' exposure to a single market concentration. As a result of Southern's growth, during 2005 management and the board of directors began to consider the company's future strategic alternatives, including raising capital to adequately fund continuing growth, slowing the company's growth rather than raising capital, and pursuing a merger with a partner having adequate capital to fund Southern's expected growth.

In March 2006, Southern elected to engage an investment banking firm to advise it on general strategic financial matters including the potential sale of the company. After interviewing five different investment banking firms Southern decided to engage The Carson Medlin Company as its financial advisor based on its extensive merger advisory experience and other significant qualifications. Carson Medlin has detailed knowledge of Southern, is extremely familiar with the Southeastern U.S. banking market, and has significant knowledge of potential partners for a merger or sale of Southern.

In the following weeks, Carson Medlin obtained detailed reports regarding Southern including: company history, markets, management, past and current financial performance, projected financial performance, business plan, asset quality, and branch locations. Southern's executive officers regularly met with Carson Medlin and helped compile a confidential information memorandum on Southern to be used by Carson Medlin to provide to potential strategic partners. Carson Medlin also worked with the Southern's board to develop a list of potential strategic partners that Carson Medlin believed could have an interest in acquiring Southern.

In May and June 2006, Carson Medlin contacted five bank holding companies about potential interest in acquiring Southern. Four of these companies, including United, indicated an interest in learning more about Southern. Carson Medlin entered into confidentiality agreements on behalf of Southern with each of these companies and provided each with a confidential information memorandum.

Southern's executives met with the management teams of several of these interested parties, including United, in the second quarter of 2006 for the purpose of allowing Southern and the interested parties the opportunity to assess the merits of combining the respective organizations. During June and July 2006, Southern held multiple meetings with the management of United. Several members of Southern's management team have been acquainted with certain United executives for many years.

In late July 2006, Southern, United and Carson Medlin held a conference call in which the preliminary terms of an acquisition by United were discussed. United expressed its preliminary indication of interest as a range of values utilizing 100% stock. Carson Medlin and Southern considered the United offer as well as the timing and expectation of offers from the other interested parties. Southern discussed its obligations to give due consideration to all relevant factors, including the short-term and long-term interests of Southern's employees, customers, shareholders and other constituents. After extensive discussion, the parties agreed on a purchase price of $66.5 million, which equated to approximately 2.18 million shares of United common stock. The parties then scheduled their respective due diligence investigations of the other party, and counsel for each party began the preparation of a definitive merger agreement.

On September 5, 2006, the Southern board of directors met to evaluate and discuss the proposed Agreement and Plan of Reorganization between Southern and United. Carson Medlin rendered to the Southern board of directors its oral opinion (subsequently confirmed in writing) that, as of the date of its opinion and based upon and subject to the considerations described in its opinion and other matters that Carson Medlin considered relevant, the proposed merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to holders of Southern common stock. Powell Goldstein LLP, legal counsel to Southern, discussed with the Southern board of directors the legal standards applicable to its decisions and actions with respect to the proposed transactions and reviewed the legal terms of the proposed merger and the related agreements.

Following review and discussion among the members of the Southern board of directors, the Southern board of directors voted to approve the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization with United at the meeting held on September 5, 2006. Southern and United and their counsel finalized, executed, and delivered the definitive agreements for the transaction on that date.

Without assigning any relative or specific weights, the board of directors of Southern considered the following material factors in approving the merger:

- The value and form of the consideration to be received by Southern shareholders relative to the book value and earnings per share of the Southern common stock;
- Information concerning the financial condition, results of operations and business prospects of Southern and of United;
- The financial terms of recent business combinations in the financial services industry and a comparison of the multiples of selected combinations with the terms of the proposed transaction with United;
- A report and opinion presented by Carson Medlin as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be paid thereunder to the company's shareholders;
- The liquidity of the consideration to be received by the Southern's shareholders in the merger, particularly in view of United's status as a Nasdaq-listed company;
- The alternatives to the merger, including remaining an independent institution;
- The competitive and regulatory environment for financial institutions generally; and
- The fact that the merger is structured as a tax-free reorganization.

The board of directors of Southern believes the merger is in the best interests of its shareholders because the merger will permit them to exchange their ownership in Southern for an equity interest in United, which has greater financial resources and a larger shareholder base than Southern. The board of directors of Southern also believes that the terms of the merger, including the basis of exchange of United common stock for Southern common stock, which was determined through arms-length negotiations between United and Southern, are fair and equitable and take into account the relative earning power of United and Southern, historic and anticipated operations, the economies of scale to be achieved through the merger, the trading prices of the shares of the respective companies, and other pertinent factors.

The board of directors of Southern believes that in the current regulatory and competitive environment, larger organizations with greater economies of scale, including the ability to spread largely fixed costs over a larger revenue base and the ability to attract management talent able to compete in a more sophisticated financial services environment, will be more successful than smaller organizations. Management of United and Southern believe that there is a future for community banks in the banking industry, but that community banks will be required to achieve a critical size to maintain above-average economic performance.

The Merger Consideration

In connection with the merger, each share of Southern common stock will be converted into the number of shares of United common stock determined by dividing the final “purchase price”, as defined by the merger agreement, by $30.50 and then dividing that quotient by 1,849,137, the number of shares of Southern common stock that would be outstanding if all outstanding warrants and options to purchase Southern common stock were exercised. The resulting number is referred to in these materials as the “Conversion Ratio”.

The initial “purchase price” used to determine the Conversion Ratio under the merger agreement is $66.5 million. In connection with its due diligence when evaluating the transaction, United determined that there was $4,771,806 in other real estate owned by Southern that United would require that Southern sell as a condition to the closing of the merger. As a result, the merger agreement provides that if Southern is unable to sell all of such other real estate for at least $4,771,806, the $66.5 million purchase price used to determine the Conversion Ratio will be adjusted by an amount equal to (1) 1 times any loss up to $300,000, plus (2) 3.5 times the amount of the loss, if any, that exceeds $300,000. The loss is the dollar amount of any of such other real estate that is owned by Southern as of the closing date of the merger, plus the dollar amount of any difference between the value of the consideration received by Southern upon the sale of the other real estate and $4,771,806, the value assigned to such other real estate in the disclosure memorandum to the merger agreement.

United will not issue fractional shares in the merger. Instead, you will receive a cash payment, without interest, for the value of any fraction of a share of United common stock that you would otherwise be entitled to receive based on the Conversion Ratio.

Example 1: Assuming the Conversion Ratio remains 1.179, if you own 100 shares of Southern common stock, you will be entitled to receive 117 shares of United (100 x 1.179, rounded down to the nearest whole share). In addition, you will be entitled to receive cash for your .9 fractional share of United. If the closing sales price of United common stock on the closing date of the merger was the same as it was on the date the merger agreement was executed, $31.59, you will be entitled to receive $28.43 cash for your .9 fractional share (.9 x $31.59).

Example 2: Assume that all of Southern’s other real estate was sold for $3,771,806. In such case, the total loss for purposes of evaluating a Conversion Ratio adjustment would be $1,000,000 as a result of the $1,000,000 difference between the value attributed to the other real estate and the $3,771,806 sale price for the other real estate.

In the event of such a $1,000,000 loss, the $66.5 million purchase price used to determine the Conversion Ratio would be adjusted by $2,750,000 (1 times the first $300,000 of the loss plus 3.5 times the remaining $700,000 of the loss). The resulting purchase price would equal $63,750,000 ($66,500,000 minus $2,750,000).

In such case, the Conversion Ratio would be 1.130 ($($63,750,000/$30.50)/1,849,137$). If you owned 100 shares of Southern common stock, you would be entitled to receive 113 shares of United (100 x 1.130, rounded down to the nearest whole share). Although you would be entitled to receive cash for your any resulting fractional share of United, in this case, there would not be a resulting fraction.

Conversion and Exercise of Southern Options

Each of the options to purchase shares of Southern common stock will, upon the effectiveness of the merger, become fully vested and immediately exercisable but will be converted into an option to purchase shares of United common stock calculated based on the Conversion Ratio, 1.179. As a result, those converted options, which presently provide for the purchase of an aggregate of 45,000 shares of Southern common stock, will be converted into options to purchase of an aggregate of 53,055 shares of United common stock. The aggregate exercise price of each Southern option will remain the same, but the per share price for United shares will reflect the Conversion Ratio.

In the merger agreement, Southern agreed to seek and cause all converted Southern options to be exercised immediately after the merger becomes effective. United and Southern will contact each Southern option holder before the closing date to facilitate that exercise. This document is also a prospectus of United with respect to the issuance of United common stock upon the exercise of such converted Southern options. See "Prospectus Delivery for Option Exercises" beginning on page 42.

The Merger Agreement

The material features of the merger agreement are summarized below:

Effective Date

The merger agreement provides that the merger will be effective upon the approval of the merger agreement by shareholders and the filing of the Certificate of Merger reflecting the merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Georgia. The merger is subject to approval by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the Department of Banking and Finance of the State of Georgia and the approval of the subsidiary bank merger by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the Department of Banking and Finance of the State of Georgia. Notice of the bank merger must also be provided to the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency. Management of United and Southern anticipate that the merger will become effective during the fourth quarter of 2006.

Terms of the Merger

If Southern shareholders approve the merger, Southern will be merged with and into United. In connection with the merger, each share of Southern common stock will be converted into the number of whole shares of United common stock represented by the Conversion Ratio and the right to receive a cash payment, without interest, for the value of any fraction of a share of United common stock that you would otherwise be entitled to receive based on the Conversion Ratio.

United shareholders will continue to hold their existing shares of United common stock. If, prior to the merger closing, the outstanding shares of United common stock or Southern common stock are increased through a stock dividend, stock split, subdivision, recapitalization, or reclassification of shares, or are combined into a lesser number of shares by reclassification, reverse stock split, recapitalization, reduction of capital or other transaction, the number of shares of United common stock and cash to be delivered pursuant to the merger in exchange for a share of Southern common stock will be proportionately adjusted.

If the merger is completed, Southern will be merged with and into United. Following the merger, the articles of incorporation, bylaws, corporate identity, and existence of United will not be changed, and Southern will cease to exist as a separate entity. Following the merger, Southern's subsidiary, Southern National Bank, will be merged with and into United Community Bank, Blairsville, Georgia, a wholly-owned Georgia bank subsidiary of United, and United Community Bank will be the surviving bank.

Registration of United Common Stock

As a condition to the merger, United agreed to register with the Securities and Exchange Commission the shares of United common stock to be exchanged for shares of Southern common stock and to maintain the effectiveness of such registration through the issuance of such shares in connection with the closing of the merger. However, such registration will not cover resales of United common stock by any former holders of Southern common stock and United is under no obligation to maintain the effectiveness of such registration, or to prepare and file any post-effective amendments to such registration, after the issuance of such shares in connection with the closing of the merger.

Termination and Conditions of Closing

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time either before or after approval of the merger agreement by the shareholders of Southern, but not later than the effective date of the merger:

- by either party, if a material adverse change in the financial condition or business of the other party has occurred, which change would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the market price of such party's common stock; or if material loss or damage to the other party's properties or assets has occurred, which change, loss or damage materially affects or impairs such party's ability to conduct its business;
- by either party, if the other party has not substantially complied with, or substantially performed, the terms, covenants or conditions of the merger agreement, and such non-compliance has not otherwise been waived;
- by either party, in the event of a material breach by the other party of any covenant, agreement or obligation contained in the merger agreement which breach cannot be cured or which has not been cured within 20 days after the giving of written notice of the breach;
- by either party, if the terminating party learns of any facts or conditions not disclosed by the other party in the merger agreement or financial statements, or by United if it learns of any facts or conditions not disclosed by Southern in its disclosure memorandum, which facts or conditions were required to be disclosed, and which materially and adversely affects the terminating party;
- by either party, if any action, suit or proceeding is instituted or threatened against either party seeking to restrain, prohibit or obtain substantial damages in respect of the merger agreement or the consummation of the merger, which, in the good faith opinion of the terminating party makes consummation of the merger inadvisable;
- by either party, if the merger has not occurred on or before February 28, 2007;
- by United, if the holders of more than 5% of the outstanding shares of Southern common stock elect to exercise statutory dissenters' rights; or
- by either party, if the Southern shareholders do not approve the merger agreement.

Southern must pay to United a termination fee of $3.3 million, if, while a competing offer for Southern by a party other than United is outstanding or has been accepted by Southern:

- either party terminates the agreement because the Southern shareholders did not approve the merger,
- Southern terminates the agreement other than pursuant to one of the first five grounds for termination listed above; or
- United terminates the agreement pursuant to either the second, third or fourth grounds for termination listed above.

The following are some of the required conditions of closing:

- the accuracy of the representations and warranties of all parties contained in the merger agreement and related documents as of the date when made and the effective date;
 - the performance of all agreements and the satisfaction of all conditions required by the merger agreement;
- the delivery of officers' certificates, secretary's certificates, and legal opinions to Southern and United by the other;
 - approval of the merger by at least a majority of the shares held by Southern shareholders;
 - approvals of governmental authorities, and the expiration of any regulatory waiting periods;
 - effectiveness of the registration statement of United relating to the shares of United common stock to be issued to Southern shareholders in the merger, of which this document forms a part;
- the receipt by United of a letter from Mauldin & Jenkins Certified Public Accounts, LLC with respect to Southern's unaudited financial statements for 2006;
- all of the other real estate owned by Southern and listed on the disclosure memorandum to the merger agreement shall have been sold;
- all of the 165,000 outstanding warrants to purchase Southern common stock shall have been exercised at least 15 days prior to the closing date;
- all of the 45,000 outstanding options to purchase Southern common stock shall be exercised effective as of the closing date;
- the execution of a termination of the change in control agreements by and between Southern, Southern National Bank and Steven Holcomb, Henley Vasant and Paul Kirtley;
- and execution of a change in control agreement and stock option award agreement by and between United and Steven Holcomb and Henley Vasant; and
 - the issuance of certificate of merger by the Secretary of State of the State of Georgia.

Surrender of Certificates

After the effective date of the merger, each shareholder of Southern common stock (as of that date) will be required to deliver the certificates representing such holder's shares of Southern common stock to United's exchange agent, Computershare Ltd., in order to receive payment of the consideration from United in connection with the merger. After such shares of Southern common stock, the shareholder will receive a stock certificate for the number of United common stock for each share of Southern common stock that such shareholder owned on the effective date of the merger. In lieu of a fractional share, a cash payment, without interest, will be paid for any fractional interest in United common stock.

Until a shareholder delivers shares of Southern common stock to United, such shareholder will not receive payment of any dividends or other distributions on shares of United common stock into which the shares of Southern common stock have been converted, if any, and will not receive any notices sent by United to its shareholders with respect to, or to vote, those shares. After delivering the shares to United, the shareholder will then be entitled to receive any dividends or other distributions, without interest, which become payable after the merger and prior to the holder's delivery of the certificates to United.

Required Shareholder Approval

The holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Southern common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting must approve the merger agreement for the merger to be completed. Abstentions from voting and broker non-votes will be included in determining whether a quorum is present and will have the effect of a vote against the merger agreement.

As of October 19, 2006, the record date for determining the shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting, the outstanding voting securities of Southern consisted of 1,639,137 shares of Southern common stock, with each registered holder of Southern common stock being entitled to one vote per share. All of the directors and executive officers of Southern have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the merger. There are 489,715 shares, or 35.6%, of Southern common stock beneficially owned (excluding warrants and options) by its directors and executive officers.

Expenses

All expenses incurred by United in connection with the merger, including all fees and expenses of its agents, representatives, counsel and accountants and the fees and expenses related to filing these materials and all regulatory applications with state and federal authorities will be paid by United. All expenses incurred by Southern in connection with the merger agreement, including all fees and expenses of its agents, representatives, counsel and accountants for Southern will be paid by Southern. The cost of reproducing and mailing these materials will be shared by the parties, with each party paying 50%.

Conduct of Business of Southern Pending Closing

The merger agreement provides that, pending consummation of the merger, Southern will, except with the written consent of United:

- conduct its business in the ordinary course, without the creation of any indebtedness for borrowed money other than deposits and ordinary and customary accounts and credit arrangements;

- maintain its properties and assets in good operating condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted;
- maintain and keep in full force and effect all required insurance;
- preserve its capital structure and make no change in its authorized or issued capital stock or other securities, and grant no right or option to purchase or otherwise acquire any of its capital stock or securities;
- not pay cash dividends other than its regular distribution of 35% of estimated taxable earnings to satisfy the quarterly tax liabilities of its shareholders;
- make no amendment to its articles of incorporation or bylaws, and preserve its corporate existence and powers;
- acquire no business, corporation, partnership, association or other entity or division thereof, and no assets which are material, in the aggregate, to it;
- not sell, mortgage, lease, buy or otherwise acquire, transfer or dispose of any real property or interest therein, or any tangible or intangible asset (other than in the ordinary course of business);
- make no change in its banking and safe deposit arrangements;
- not enter into, renew or cancel any material contracts;
- maintain all books and records in the usual, regular and ordinary course;
- file all reports required to be filed with any regulatory or governmental agencies, and deliver copies of such reports to United promptly after they are filed;
- adopt no new severance plan and grant no severance or termination payments to any officer, director or employee, other than in accordance with existing agreements or the agreements that are conditions to the closing of the merger; and
- not enter into any loan participations or syndications.

In addition, the merger agreement provides that Southern will promptly advise United, orally and in writing, of any change or event having, or which the Southern management believes could have, a material adverse effect on the assets, liabilities, business, operations or financial condition of Southern.

Interest of Management in the Merger

Except as set forth below, no director or officer of Southern, or any of their associates, has any direct or indirect material interest in the merger other than owning shares of Southern common stock which will be converted in the merger into United common stock and cash. United and Southern do not anticipate that the merger will result in any material change in compensation to employees of Southern other than as set forth below.

As a condition to closing merger, Steven Holcomb, President and Chief Executive Officer of Southern, will terminate his change in control agreement with Southern for a payment of three times his annual salary and most recent bonus and twelve times his monthly automobile allowance as required by such agreement upon a change in control. Paul Kirtley, Chief Financial Officer of Southern, and Henley Vansant, Executive Vice President of Southern will each terminate their change in control agreements with Southern for a payment to each of one times their annual salary and most recent bonus and, in the case of Mr. Vansant, twelve times his monthly automobile allowance, as required by such agreements upon a change in control.

As a condition to closing the merger, Steven Holcomb will be provided a change in control agreement by United that will provide him a payment approximately two times his annual salary and bonus in certain circumstances after a change in control of United Community Bank. United will also grant Mr. Holcomb options to purchase 6,000 shares of common stock of United. The options vest in four equal installments over four years beginning on the first anniversary of the closing of the merger and will have an exercise price equal to the fair market value of United common stock on the day the options are granted.

As a condition to closing the merger, Henley Vansant will be provided a change in control agreement by United that will provide him a payment approximately equal to his annual salary and bonus in certain circumstances after a change in control of United Community Bank. United will also grant Mr. Vansant options to purchase 4,000 shares of common stock of United. The options vest in four equal installments over four years beginning on the first anniversary of the closing of the merger and will have an exercise price equal to the fair market value of United common Stock on the day the options are granted.

United has agreed to provide J. Edward Mulkey, Jr., Chairman of the Board of Southern, with $100,000 per year for two years in exchange for Mr. Mulkey's consulting services. In addition, Mr. Mulkey will be provided with an automobile.

United will generally indemnify and provide liability insurance to the present directors and officers of Southern for actions taken by such directors and officers in such capacities.

In connection with the merger, United has agreed to provide to officers and employees of Southern who continue employment with United or its subsidiaries employee benefits under employee benefit plans, on terms and conditions substantially similar to those currently provided to similarly situated United officers and employees.

Differences in Legal Rights Between Shareholders of Southern and United

Following the merger you will no longer be a Southern shareholder and, if you receive shares of United following the merger, your rights as a shareholder will no longer be governed by Southern's articles of incorporation and bylaws. You will be a United shareholder and your rights as a United shareholder will be governed by United's articles of incorporation and bylaws. Your former rights as a Southern shareholder and your new rights as a United shareholder are different in certain ways, including the following:

Composition of Board of Directors

The bylaws of Southern provide that its board of directors will consist of no fewer than five and no more than 25 members. The bylaws of United provide that its board of directors will consist of no fewer than eight and no more than 14 members.

Removal of Directors

The bylaws of Southern provide that directors may be removed with or without cause. If the director is removed for cause, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares is required for removal. If the director is removed without cause, the affirmative vote of the holders of 80% of the issued and outstanding shares is required for removal.

The articles of incorporation of United provide that directors may be removed only for cause and only upon the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the issued and outstanding shares entitled to vote on the removal.

Approval of Business Transactions

The articles of incorporation of Southern provide that a merger; share exchange; or sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of Southern must be approved by either (1) the affirmative vote of 80% of the directors and the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock of Southern, or (2) a majority of the directors and the holders of at least 70% of the outstanding shares of common stock.

Neither the articles of incorporation nor bylaws of United require any supermajority approval of business transaction generally. The articles of incorporation of United provide that in order to engage in a merger, consolidation, sale or transfer or disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of United, sale of $1 million or more in securities, a plan of liquidation, or any other transaction with any holder of 10% or more of the issued and outstanding shares of United that would increase the percentage ownership of such shareholder, such transaction must be approved by either a resolution adopted by at least three-fourths of the directors then in office, or the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 75% of the outstanding shares of common stock of United and the separate affirmative vote of at least 75% of the outstanding shares of common stock, excluding those shares held by such shareholder.

Amendments to Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws

Southern's articles of incorporation provide that certain substantive provisions of the articles of incorporation may only be amended by the affirmative vote of the holders of 70% of the issued and outstanding common stock of Southern unless the proposed amendment is approved by the affirmative vote of 80% of the directors then in office. If 80% of the directors then in office approve the proposed amendment, the Georgia Business Corporation Code provides that the amendment must be approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Southern. The bylaws of Southern may be amended by its shareholders by an affirmative vote of the majority of Southern's issued and outstanding shares or by its Board of Directors by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office.

The articles of incorporation of United provide that its articles of incorporation may be amended by a majority vote to increase its authorized shares. Otherwise, its articles of incorporation and bylaws may be amended only by the affirmative vote of holders of two-thirds of the shares of United capital stock then issued and outstanding and entitled to vote.

Dividends

United has declared aggregate cash dividends of $.24 per share in 2006 and declared aggregate cash dividends of $.28 per share in 2005 and $.24 per share in 2004. United intends to continue paying cash dividends, but the amount and frequency of cash dividends, if any, will be determined by United's board of directors after consideration of earnings, capital requirements, and the financial condition of United, and will depend on cash dividends paid to it by its subsidiary banks. The ability of United's subsidiary banks to pay dividends to it is restricted by certain regulatory requirements.

Because of Southern's status as an "S corporation" under federal tax laws, Southern has regularly distributed 35% of its estimated taxable earnings to its shareholders to satisfy the quarterly tax liabilities of its shareholders. As a result, Southern has declared aggregate cash dividends of $.99 per share in 2006 and declared aggregate cash dividends of $1.02 per share in 2005 and $.28 per share in 2004. Southern has agreed pursuant to the merger agreement that it will not pay any cash dividends other than its regular distribution of 35% of estimated taxable earnings without the written consent of United.

Southern's dividends have been larger than United's dividends largely due to the "S corporation" status of Southern and the need to make distributions to shareholders to pay taxes on earnings. Dividends would not have been as high if Southern had been required to pay income taxes directly.

Accounting Treatment

The merger will be accounted for as a purchase for financial reporting and accounting purposes. After the merger, the results of operations of Southern will be included in the consolidated financial statements of United. The Merger Consideration will be allocated based on the fair values of the assets acquired and the liabilities assumed. Any excess of cost over fair value of the net tangible and identified intangible assets of Southern acquired will be recorded as goodwill. Any identified intangible asset may be amortized by charges to operations under generally accepted accounting principles.

Resales of United Common Stock by Directors, Executive Officers and Shareholders of Southern

Although United, through these materials, will register the United common stock to be issued in the merger under the Securities Act of 1933, the former directors, executive officers, and 10% or greater shareholders of Southern and certain other affiliates of United (as defined in Rule 405 of the Securities Act) may not resell the United common stock received by them unless those sales are made pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act, or under Rules 144 and 145 of the Securities Act, or another exemption from registration under the Securities Act. Rules 144 and 145 limit the amount of United common stock or other equity securities of United that those persons may sell during any three-month period, and require that certain current public information with respect to United be available and that the United common stock be sold in a broker's transaction or directly to a market maker in United common stock.

Regulatory Approvals

The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System will be required to approve the merger. In determining whether to grant that approval, the Federal Reserve will consider the effect of the merger on the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of the companies and banks concerned and the convenience and needs of the communities to be served.

The Georgia Department of Banking and Finance must also approve the merger. The Department of Banking and Finance's review of the application will not include an evaluation of the proposed transaction from the financial perspective of the individual shareholders of Southern. Further, no shareholder should construe an approval of the application by the Department of Banking and Finance to be a recommendation that the shareholders vote to approve the proposal. Each shareholder entitled to vote should evaluate the proposal to determine the personal financial impact of the completion of the proposed transaction. Shareholders not fully knowledgeable in such matters are advised to obtain the assistance of competent professionals in evaluating all aspects of the proposal including any determination that the completion of the proposed transaction is in the best financial interest of the shareholder.

Rights of Dissenting Shareholders

Georgia law confers rights upon shareholders of corporations organized under Georgia law, such as Southern, in certain circumstances, to demand payment for the fair value of all or a portion of their shares, and it establishes procedures for the exercise of those rights. These shareholder rights are referred to within this document as “dissenters’ rights”.

In general, if the merger is completed, under Article 13 of the Georgia Business Corporation Code, a Southern shareholder who dissents from the merger, and who otherwise complies with the provisions of Article 13, is entitled to demand and receive payment in cash of an amount equal to the fair value of all, but not less than all, of such shareholder’s shares of Southern common stock.

For the purpose of determining the amount to be received in connection with the exercise of statutory dissenters’ rights under the Georgia Business Corporation Code, Georgia law provides that the fair value of a dissenting Southern shareholder’s common stock equals the value of the shares immediately before the effective date of the merger, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the merger.

A dissenting shareholder of Southern must exercise dissenters’ rights with respect to all of the shares owned of record by such shareholder, other than those shares registered in the dissenting shareholder’s name but beneficially owned by another person. Shares registered in the name of a dissenting shareholder but beneficially owned by another person, may be excluded from a dissenting shareholder’s dissent only if the dissenting shareholder notifies Southern in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf dissenters’ rights are being asserted and the number of shares owned beneficially by such person.

A Southern shareholder who choosing to dissent from the merger and to receive payment in cash of the fair value of shares of Southern common stock owned by such shareholder in accordance with the requirements of the Georgia Business Corporation Code must:

- deliver to Southern, prior to the time the shareholder vote on the merger agreement is taken, a written notice of such shareholder’s intent to demand payment for those shares registered in the dissenting shareholder’s name if the merger is completed; and
- not vote those shares in favor of the merger agreement.

Any filing of a written notice of intent to dissent with respect to the merger should be sent to: Priscilla D. Gamwell, Secretary, Southern Bancorp, Inc., 200 Cherokee Street, Marietta, Georgia 30060. A vote against the merger agreement alone will not satisfy the requirements for compliance with Article 13 of the Georgia Business Corporation Code. A shareholder who wishes to dissent from the merger must, as an initial matter, separately comply with all of applicable conditions listed above.

Within ten days after the vote of Southern shareholders is taken at the special meeting, Southern will provide to each shareholder who timely submitted a written notice of intent to dissent, and who did not vote in favor of the merger at the special meeting, a dissenters’ notice that:

- states where the dissenting shareholder must send a payment demand, and where and when the certificates for the dissenting shareholder’s shares, if any, are to be deposited;

informs holders of uncertificated shares of Southern common stock as to what extent transfer of the shares will be restricted after the payment demand is received;

- sets a date by which Southern must receive the dissenting shareholder's payment demand; and
- is accompanied by a copy of Article 13 of the Georgia Business Corporation Code.

Following receipt of the dissenters' notice from Southern, each dissenting Southern shareholder must deposit Southern share certificates representing the shares subject to the dissent with Southern, or its successor and demand payment from Southern in accordance with the terms of the dissenters' notice. A dissenting shareholder who does not deposit those share certificate(s) and demand payment from Southern by the date set forth in the dissenters' notice will forfeit any right to payment under Article 13 of the Georgia Business Corporation Code.

Within ten days after the later of the date that the vote of Southern shareholders is taken at the special meeting, or the date on which Southern receives a payment demand, Southern will send a written offer to each shareholder who complied with the provisions set forth in the dissenters' notice to pay each such shareholder an amount that Southern estimates to be the fair value of those shares, plus accrued interest. The offer of payment will be accompanied by:

- Southern's balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than 16 months before the date of making an offer, an income statement for that year, a statement of changes in shareholders' equity for that year, and the latest available interim financial statements, if any;
- an explanation of how any interest was calculated;
- a statement of the dissenting shareholder's right to demand payment of a different amount under Section 14-2-1327 of the Georgia Business Corporation Code; and
- a copy of Article 13 of the Georgia Business Corporation Code.

A dissenting shareholder choosing to accept Southern's offer of payment must do so by written notice to Southern within 30 days after receipt of Southern's offer of payment. A dissenting shareholder not responding to that offer within the 30-day period will be deemed to have accepted the offer of payment. Southern must make payment to each shareholder who responds to the offer of payment within 60 days after the making of the offer of payment, or the effective date of the merger, whichever is later. Upon payment, the dissenting shareholder will cease to have any interest in such shares of Southern common stock.

If a dissenting shareholder does not accept, within 30 days after Southern's offer, the estimate of fair value in payment for such shares and interest due thereon and demands payment of some other estimate of the fair value of the shares and interest due thereon, then Southern, within 60 days after receiving the payment demand of a different amount from a dissenting shareholder, must file an action in the Superior Court in Cobb County, Georgia, requesting that the fair value of those shares be determined. Southern must make all dissenting shareholders whose demands remain unsettled parties to the proceeding. If Southern does not commence the proceeding within that 60-day period, it will be required to pay each dissenting shareholder whose demand remains unsettled the amount demanded by the dissenting shareholder.

Southern urges its shareholders to read all of the dissenter's rights provisions of the Georgia Business Corporation Code, which are reproduced in full in Appendix B to these materials and which are incorporated herein by reference.

Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger and Opinion of Tax Counsel

Receipt of Merger Consideration

Southern has received an opinion from Kilpatrick Stockton, LLP to the effect that, assuming the merger is completed in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement:

- the merger and the issuance of shares of United common stock in connection with the merger, as described in the merger agreement, will constitute a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended;

- no gain or loss will be recognized by Southern as a result of the merger;

- no gain or loss will be recognized by holders of Southern common stock upon the exchange of Southern common stock for United common stock as a result of the merger;

- the receipt of cash in lieu of fractional shares by any Southern shareholders will be treated as if the fractional share were distributed as part of the exchange and then redeemed by United. Capital gain or loss will be recognized in an amount equal to the difference between the cash received and the basis of the fractional share of United common stock treated as surrendered;

- the aggregate tax basis of United common stock received by shareholders of Southern pursuant to the merger will be the same as the tax basis of the shares of Southern common stock exchanged, decreased by any portion of such tax basis allocated to fractional shares of United common stock that are treated as redeemed by United;

- the holding period of the shares of United common stock received by the shareholders of Southern will include the holding period of the shares of Southern common stock exchanged, provided that the common stock of Southern is held as a capital asset on the date of the consummation of the merger; and

- as a result of the subsidiary merger of Southern National Bank into United Community Bank, no gain or loss shall be recognized to any of Southern National Bank, United Community Bank, Southern, United or holders of Southern common stock.

No ruling will be requested from the Internal Revenue Service with respect to any Federal income tax consequences of the merger.

Southern is a corporation that is taxed on a modified pass-through basis under Subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Upon the consummation of the merger, Southern will be required to file a final short-period S corporation corporate income tax return for the period ending on the closing date of the merger. The former holders of Southern common stock will include in their individual returns, as appropriate, the items of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit realized from Southern's final short period.

In contrast, United is a corporation that is taxed at the corporate level under Subchapter C of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. As a result, United is subject to taxation on income realized from its operations. There is no "pass-through" of any items of income or loss to the shareholders of United. Shareholders of United are generally taxed on distributions received by United as ordinary dividend income. Under current law, dividends received from United are subject to U.S. federal income tax at ordinary income tax at graduated rates up to 15% if such a distribution occurs before January 1, 2011 and 35% if such a distribution occurs after December 31, 2010 unless current applicable rates on dividend income are changed. Each shareholder receiving United stock as a result of the merger will be required to retain records and file with the shareholder's federal income tax return a statement containing the facts relating to the merger.

Backup withholding at the rate of 28% may apply with respect to dividend or other payments from United to a shareholder unless the recipient (1) is a corporation or comes within certain other exempt categories and, when required, demonstrates this fact or (2) provides a correct taxpayer identification number, certifies as to no loss of exemption from backup withholding and otherwise complies with applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. A shareholder who does not provide United with its correct taxpayer identification number may have to pay penalties to the IRS. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be allowed as a refund or a credit against the shareholder's federal income tax liability provided that any required information is furnished to the IRS. United will report to its shareholders and to the IRS the amount of any "reportable payments" and any amount withheld with respect to the United common stock during each calendar year.

Conversion and Exercise of Southern Options

There will be no federal tax consequences upon the conversion of a Southern option as part of the merger, either to an option holder or to Southern or United. Upon the exercise of the converted Southern options, each of which is a non-qualified stock option for federal tax law purposes, the amount by which the fair market value of the United common stock received on the date of exercise exceeds the option exercise price will generally be taxable to the option holder as ordinary income and will generally be deductible for tax purposes by United. The option holder's tax basis in the United common stock received upon exercise of the non-qualified stock options will equal the fair market value of such stock on the exercise date.

The subsequent disposition of shares of United common stock acquired upon exercise of such options will generally result in a capital gain or loss (which may be long-term or short-term depending on the holding period) for the option holder calculated based on the difference between the disposition price and the tax basis of such shares.

The preceding discussion relates to the material federal income tax consequences of the merger to Southern shareholders generally. You are advised to consult your own tax advisors as to any state, local, or other tax consequences of the merger.

Opinion of Southern's Financial Advisor

Southern retained The Carson Medlin Company to act as its financial advisor in connection with a possible business merger. Carson Medlin is a nationally recognized investment banking firm that provides specialized corporate finance services to community financial institutions. In the ordinary course of its investment banking business, Carson Medlin is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions. Southern selected Carson Medlin as its financial advisor based upon Carson Medlin's qualifications, expertise and reputation in such capacity. Neither Carson Medlin nor any of its affiliates has a material relationship with Southern or United or any material financial interest in Southern or United.

Carson Medlin acted as financial advisor to Southern in connection with the proposed merger with United and participated in certain negotiations leading to the merger agreement. In connection with Carson Medlin's engagement, Southern asked Carson Medlin to evaluate the fairness of the merger consideration to Southern's shareholders from a financial point of view. At the September 5, 2006 meeting of the board to evaluate the merger, Carson Medlin delivered to the Southern board its oral and written opinion that, based upon and subject to various matters set forth in its opinion, the merger consideration was fair to Southern's shareholders from a financial point of view. At this meeting, the Southern board voted to approve the merger and subsequently executed the merger agreement on September 5, 2006.

You should consider the following when reading the discussion of Carson Medlin's opinion in this document:

- The summary of the opinion of Carson Medlin set forth in this proxy statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion that is attached as Appendix C to this document. You should read the opinion in its entirety for a full discussion to the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualification and limitation on the review undertaken by Carson Medlin in connection with its opinion.
- Carson Medlin's opinion does not address the merits of the merger relative to other business strategies, whether or not considered by Southern's board, nor does it address the decision by Southern's board to proceed with the merger.
- Carson Medlin's opinion to Southern's board of directors rendered in connection with the merger does not constitute a recommendation to any Southern shareholder as to how he or she should vote at the special meeting.

The preparation of a financial fairness opinion involves various determinations as to the most appropriate methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. It is therefore not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In connection with rendering its opinion, Carson Medlin performed a variety of financial analyses. Carson Medlin believes that its analyses must be considered together as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and the facts considered in its analyses, without considering all other factors and analyses, could create an incomplete or inaccurate view of the analyses and the process underlying the rendering of Carson Medlin's opinion.

In performing its analyses, Carson Medlin made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions, and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Southern and may not be realized. Any estimates contained in Carson Medlin's analyses are not necessarily predictive of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than the estimates. Estimates of values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which the companies or their securities may actually be sold. Except as described below, none of the analyses performed by Carson Medlin was assigned a greater significance by Carson Medlin than any other. The relative importance or weight given to these analyses by Carson Medlin is not necessarily reflected by the order of presentation of the analyses herein (and the corresponding results). The summaries of financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. The tables should be read together with the text of those summaries.

Carson Medlin has relied, without independent verification, upon the accuracy and completeness of the information it reviewed for the purpose of rendering its opinion. Carson Medlin did not undertake any independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities of Southern or United nor was it furnished with any appraisals.

Carson Medlin is not an expert in the evaluation of loan portfolios, including under-performing or non-performing assets, charge-offs or the allowance for loan losses; it has not reviewed any individual credit files of Southern or United; and it has assumed that the allowances of Southern and United are in the aggregate adequate to cover potential losses. Carson Medlin's opinion is necessarily based on economic, market and other conditions existing on the date of its opinion and on information as of various earlier dates made available to it which is not necessarily indicative of current market conditions.

In rendering its opinion, Carson Medlin made the following assumptions:

- that the merger will be accounted for as a purchase in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles;
- that all material governmental, regulatory and other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the merger would be obtained without any adverse effect on Southern, United or on the anticipated benefits of the merger;

The following is a summary of all material analyses performed by Carson Medlin in connection with its written opinion provided to the Southern board of directors dated September 5, 2006. The summary does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Carson Medlin.

Summary of the Proposed Merger

United proposed a purchase price of $66.5 million, which translated into the issuance of up to 2,180,328 shares of United common stock for all the outstanding common stock, warrants and stock options of Southern. As of September 5, 2006, Southern had 1,619,137 common shares outstanding, 185,000 warrants outstanding (at a weighted average strike price of $10.00), and 45,000 outstanding stock options (at a weighted average strike price of $16.52). All stock options and warrants are expected to be exercised or otherwise exchanged at or prior to closing. Therefore, based on Southern's fully diluted shares, the exchange ratio was 1.179 which indicated a transaction value of approximately $69.116 million or $37.38 per fully diluted Southern share. Carson Medlin calculated the transaction value and per share value based upon the terms of the merger agreement and $31.70, United's stock price at a point during the day of the announcement of the merger (and prior to the Southern board meeting) on September 5, 2006. Utilizing Southern's publicly available financial information on September 5, 2006, which was June 30, 2006 unaudited financial information, Carson Medlin calculated the following ratios:

Deal Value and Multiples:⁽¹⁾

Aggregate Price / Fully Diluted Share	$37.38
Transaction Value / LTM ⁽²⁾ Net Income	20.8x
Transaction Value / Book Value	3.69x
Transaction Value / FD ⁽³⁾ Book Value (including exercise of warrants)	3.36x
Core Deposit Premium	23.9%

(2) Last twelve months.

(3) Fully diluted.

Analysis of Comparable Merger Transactions

Southeastern Transactions

Carson Medlin selected a group of comparable Southeastern merger and acquisition transactions and compared the pricing multiples to the multiples implied by the merger consideration. Specifically, Carson Medlin selected bank merger and acquisition transactions according to the following criteria:

- Merger and acquisition transactions announced after January 1, 2003.
- Seller located within the Southeastern United States - AL, FL, GA, NC, SC, TN, & VA.
- Seller assets between $250 million and $400 million.

Carson Medlin selected 19 transactions fitting the criteria listed above as being comparable to the proposed merger. Carson Medlin reviewed the multiples of transaction value to Southern's book value, fully diluted book value, twelve months' earnings (fully-taxed), total assets, total deposits and core deposits and computed minimum, maximum and median multiples and premiums for the transactions. These median multiples and premiums were applied to Southern's financial information for the period ended June 30, 2006 and were used to impute a transaction price. As illustrated in the following table, Carson Medlin derived a range of values per fully diluted share of Southern's common stock of $26.27 to $44.63 based upon the median multiples of the selected Southeastern transactions.

	Median Multiple	Implied Value/Share	Southern Merger Consideration
Transaction Value / Book Value	2.60x	$26.27	3.69x
Transaction Value / FD Book Value	2.60x	28.86	3.36x
Transaction Value / LTM E.P.S.	24.4x	43.97	20.8x

Transaction Value / Total Deposits	27.3%	43.28	23.6%
Tangible Book Premium / Core Deposits	24.8%	38.40	23.9%
			Indicated Price 9/5/06
Average Valuation		$37.57	$37.38
Implied Range		$26.27	$44.63

The analysis showed that the merger consideration of $37.38 is within the range of values indicated by the median multiples of the comparable Southeastern transactions.

Atlanta Transactions

In addition to analyzing Southeast transactions Carson Medlin selected a group of comparable Atlanta area merger and acquisition transactions and compared the pricing multiples to the multiples implied by the merger consideration. Specifically, Carson Medlin selected bank merger and acquisition transactions according to the following criteria:

- Merger and acquisition transactions announced after August 1, 2003.
- Seller located within the Georgia counties of Cherokee, Cobb, Dawson, Fulton, Gwinnett, Hall, Henry, Lumpkin, Paulding, Rockdale and Union.

Carson Medlin selected 22 transactions fitting the criteria listed above as being comparable to the proposed merger. Carson Medlin reviewed the multiples of transaction value to Southern's book value, fully diluted book value, twelve months' earnings (fully taxed), total assets, total deposits and core deposits and computed minimum, maximum and median multiples and premiums for the transactions. These median multiples and premiums were applied to Southern's financial information for the period ended June 30, 2006 and were used to impute a transaction price. As illustrated in the following table, Carson Medlin derived a range of values per fully diluted share of Southern's common stock of $25.59 to $44.68 based upon the median multiples of the selected Southeastern transactions.

	Median Multiple	Implied Value/Share	Southern Merger Consideration

Carson Medlin computed the contribution of United and Southern to various elements of the pro forma entity's income statement (excluding estimated cost savings and operating synergies) and balance sheet. The following table compares the pro forma ownership in the combined company, based upon the exchange ratio, to each company's respective contribution to each element of the analysis.

The contribution analysis indicated that the pro forma ownership of United common stock issuable to Southern shareholders in the merger was greater than the loans, assets, equity and tangible equity contributed to United by Southern but slightly less than Southern's deposits contributed.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

Using a discounted cash flow analysis, Carson Medlin estimated the present value of the future stream of earnings and dividends that Southern could produce over the next five years based upon an internal earnings and balance sheet forecast for 2006 - 2010. Carson Medlin performed discounted cash flow analyses based upon terminal values to both earnings and tangible equity.

In order to derive the terminal value of Southern's earnings stream in 2010, Carson Medlin assumed terminal value multiples ranging from 18.0x to 22.0x of fiscal year 2010 net income. The dividend streams and terminal values were then discounted to present values using different estimated discount rates (ranging from 14.0% to 16.0%) chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding the required rates of return to holders or prospective buyers of Southern common stock. This discounted cash flow analysis indicated a value range between $31.51 and $42.01 per share of Southern common stock. Carson Medlin also applied terminal value multiples ranging from 2.50x to 3.50x fiscal year-end 2010 projected book value. The dividend streams and terminal values of equity were then discounted to present values using discount rates ranging from 14.0% to 16.0%.

The discounted cash flow analyses, based on terminal values of earnings and equity, yielded a range of $28.31 to $43.23 per share of Southern. The value of the consideration offered by United to Southern in the merger is $37.38 per share of United common stock, which is within the range of values indicated from the discounted cash flow analyses.

Trust Preferred Securities

United has four wholly owned statutory trusts, which issued guaranteed preferred interests in United's junior subordinated deferrable interest debentures. Certain Provisions of United's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws Regarding Change of Control

Ability to Consider Other Constituencies

United's articles of incorporation permit its board of directors, in determining what is believed to be in the best interest of United and its shareholders, to consider the interests of its employees, customers, suppliers and creditors, the communities in which its offices and establishments are located and all other factors that they consider pertinent, in addition to considering the effects of any actions on United and its shareholders. This provision permits United's board of directors to consider numerous judgmental or subjective factors affecting a proposal, including some non-financial matters, and on the basis of these considerations may oppose a business combination or some other transaction which, viewed exclusively from a financial perspective, might be attractive to some, or even a majority, of its shareholders.

Amendments to Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws

United's articles of incorporation specifically provide that neither the articles of incorporation nor the bylaws of United may be amended without the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereon, except for provisions relating to increasing the number of authorized shares of common and preferred stock of United. This provision could allow the holders of 33.4% of the outstanding capital stock of United to exercise an effective veto over a proposed amendment to the articles or bylaws, despite the fact that the holders of 66.6% of the shares favor the proposal. This provision protects, among other things, the defensive measures included in United's articles of incorporation and bylaws by making more difficult future amendments to the articles of incorporation and bylaws that could result in the deletion or revision of such defensive measures.

Supermajority Approval of Interested Business Combinations

United's articles of incorporation provide that if a proposed business combination between United and any interested shareholder is not approved by three-fourths of all directors of United then in office, the business combination must be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 75% of the outstanding shares of United's common stock, including the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 75% of the outstanding shares of common stock held by shareholders other than the interested shareholder. This provision may discourage attempts by other corporations or groups to acquire control of United, without negotiation with management, through the acquisition of a substantial number of shares of United's stock followed by a forced merger. This provision may also enable a minority of the shareholders of United to prevent a transaction favored by a majority of the shareholders, and may discourage tender offers or other non-open market acquisitions of United's common stock because of the potentially higher vote requirements for shareholder approval of any subsequent business combination. Additionally, in some circumstances, United's board of directors could, by withholding its consent to such a transaction, cause the 75%/75% shareholder vote to be required to approve a business combination, thereby enabling management to retain control over the affairs of United and their present positions with United.

Removal of Directors

United's articles of incorporation provide that a member of United's board of directors may only be removed for cause, and only upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of capital stock of United entitled to vote thereon. This provision may prevent a significant shareholder from avoiding board scrutiny of a proposed business combination by merely removing directors with conflicting views, and may encourage individuals or groups who desire to propose takeover bids or similar transactions to negotiate with the board of directors. However, outside of the context of an acquisition attempt, it may serve as an impediment to a more legitimate need to remove a director.

Southern National believes it responds to its customers credit requests more quickly and is more flexible in approving complex loans because of the bank's personal knowledge of its customers.

Southern's principal business is to accept deposits from the public and to make loans and other investments. The principal sources of funds for the bank's loans and investments are demand, time, savings and other deposits, repayment of loans and borrowings. The principal source of income for the bank is interest collected on loans and other investments. The principal expenses of the bank are interest paid on deposits, transaction processing costs, employee compensation, office expenses and other overhead expenses.

Lending Services

Southern National's primary lending activity is making real estate loans, particularly construction loans for new residential and commercial properties. Southern's loan portfolio consists primarily of construction and development loans, commercial real estate loans and residential real estate loans primarily in and around Cobb and Cherokee Counties. Southern National also makes non-real estate related commercial loans and consumer loans to individuals in and around Cobb and Cherokee Counties. These loans include certain commercial loans where the bank takes a security interest in real estate as supplemental, but not principal, collateral. Home equity loans and lines of credit are classified as consumer loans. The composition of Southern National's loan portfolio at June 30, 2006 was as follows:

Commercial Lending	5.1%

Deposit Services

Southern National seeks to establish core deposits, including checking accounts, money market accounts, and a variety of certificates of deposit and IRA accounts. The primary sources of core deposits are residents of, and businesses and their employees located in, Southern's primary market area. Southern National also obtains deposits through personal solicitation by the bank's officers and directors, direct mail solicitations, and local advertising. Southern National makes deposit services accessible to customers by offering direct deposit, wire transfer, internet banking, night depository, and banking by mail.

Other Banking Services

Given client demand for increased convenience and account access, Southern National offers a range of products and services, including 24-hour telephone and internet banking, direct deposit, traveler's checks, and automatic account transfers. Southern National also participates in a shared network of automated teller machines and a debit card system that the bank's customers may use throughout Georgia and in other states.

Competition

Southern National competes with national and state banks, financial institutions, brokerage firms and credit unions for loans and deposits primarily in Cobb and Cherokee Counties and the northern metropolitan Atlanta area.

Southern National encounters competition in its market area from 36 other commercial banks with 239 branches. These competitors offer a full range of banking services and vigorously compete for all types of services, especially deposits. In addition, in certain aspects of its banking business, Southern National also competes with credit unions, small loan companies, consumer finance companies, brokerage firms, insurance companies, money market funds and other financial institutions. Many of Southern National's competitors enjoy competitive advantages, including greater financial resources, a wider geographic presence, more accessible branch office locations, the ability to offer additional services, more favorable pricing alternatives and lower origination and operating costs. Some of Southern National's competitors have been in business for many years and have an established customer base and name recognition. Southern National's competitors include larger national, super-regional and regional banks such as Bank of America, SunTrust, Wachovia, Synovus, BB&T and Regions. In addition, Southern National's competitors that are not depository institutions are generally not subject to the extensive regulations that apply to banks. However, Southern National believes that its competitive pricing, personalized service and community involvement enable it to effectively compete in the Cherokee/Cobb County area.

INTEREST OF CERTAIN PERSONS IN THE MERGER

Interests of executive officers and directors of Southern in the proposed merger are discussed above under the heading "Details of the Proposed Merger-Interest of Management in the Merger", at page 19.

PROSPECTUS DELIVERY FOR OPTION EXERCISES

This document is also a prospectus of United with respect to the issuance of United common stock upon the exercise of such Southern options following their conversion into options to purchase United common stock. It is being delivered (and may be redelivered) to current holders of Southern options for use in connection with their contemplated exercise of those options immediately after the merger becomes effective

As discussed above under "Details of the Proposed Merger-Conversion and Exercise of Southern Options", each of the options to purchase shares of Southern common stock will, upon the effectiveness of the merger, become fully vested and immediately exercisable but will be converted into an option to purchase shares of United common stock calculated based on the Conversion Ratio, 1.179. The aggregate exercise price of each Southern option will remain the same, but the per share price for United shares will reflect the Conversion Ratio. For example, if you have an option to purchase 1,000 shares of Southern common stock at an exercise price of $19.58 per share (for an aggregate exercise price, if fully exercised, of $19,580), such option will be converted into an option to purchase 1,179 shares of United common stock at an exercise price of $16.61 per share (with the same approximate aggregate exercise price, if fully exercised, of $19,583).

In the merger agreement, Southern agreed to seek and cause all converted Southern options to be exercised immediately after the merger becomes effective. United and Southern will contact each Southern option holder before the closing date to facilitate that exercise. In order to exercise his or her converted Southern option, each option holder must:

- complete and sign the "Notice of Exercise" attached as Exhibit 1 to each Southern Non-Qualified Stock Option Agreement,
- provide the Notice of Exercise and acknowledgment, along with the applicable exercise price amount, either in cash directly or through a broker-assisted cashless exercise, to United, and
- acknowledge the receipt of this prospectus in writing.

Once an option holder has exercised his or her converted Southern option, he or she will be issued a United common stock certificate representing the shares he or she is entitled to as a result of such exercise. He or she will be deemed the owner of the shares received upon exercise as of the date of exercise.

The net proceeds received by United upon exercise of the options will be used for general corporate purposes. United's management will retain broad discretion in the allocation of the net proceeds of the options.

There will be no federal tax consequences upon the conversion of a Southern option as part of the merger, either to an option holder or to Southern or United. Upon the exercise of the converted Southern options, each of which is a non-qualified stock option for federal tax law purposes, the amount by which the fair market value of the United common stock received on the date of exercise exceeds the option exercise price will generally be taxable to the option holder as ordinary income and will generally be deductible for tax purposes by United. The option holder's tax basis in the United common stock received upon exercise of the non-qualified stock options will equal the fair market value of such stock on the exercise date.

The subsequent disposition of shares of United common stock acquired upon exercise of such options will generally result in a capital gain or loss (which may be long-term or short-term depending on the holding period) for the option holder calculated based on the difference between the disposition price and the tax basis of such shares.

The accompanying materials contain information regarding United, the proposed merger of Southern and United, and the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization pursuant to which the merger would be consummated if approved. Such information is directly relevant to an investment decision about whether to exercise a converted Southern option. We encourage you to carefully read the entire document, and the related documents to which it refers, if you are an option holder. Investing in United common stock involves risks that you should consider that may affect the value of United common stock to be issued upon the exercise of converted Southern options.

Kilpatrick Stockton LLP, counsel to United, has provided an opinion as to the legality of the United common stock to be issued in connection with the merger and the income tax consequences of the merger. APPENDIX A

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF REORGANIZATION

THIS AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF REORGANIZATION (the “Agreement”) is made and entered into as of this 5th day of September, 2006, by and between SOUTHERN BANCORP, INC., a Georgia business corporation (hereinafter “SBI” and, unless the context otherwise requires, the term “SBI” shall include SBI and its wholly-owned subsidiary bank, SOUTHERN NATIONAL BANK, a bank chartered under the laws of the United States with its main office in Marietta, Georgia (the “Bank”), and UNITED COMMUNITY BANKS, INC., a Georgia business corporation (hereinafter “United”).

WHEREAS, the respective boards of directors of SBI and United deem it advisable and in the best interests of each such entity and their respective shareholders that SBI merge with United (the “Merger”), with United being the surviving corporation, for $66,500,000 of common stock, $1.00 par value per share, of United (“United Stock”), all upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth (including, without limitation, the purchase price adjustment provisions of Article II) and as set forth in the Agreement and Plan of Merger attached hereto as Exhibit A and incorporated herein by reference (the “Merger Agreement”); and

WHEREAS, the respective boards of directors of SBI and United deem it advisable and in the best interests of each such entity and their respective shareholders that the Bank merge with United’s Georgia banking subsidiary, United Community Bank (“UCB Georgia”), with UCB Georgia being the surviving bank (the “Bank Merger”), all upon the terms hereinafter set forth and as set forth in the Agreement and Plan of Merger attached hereto as Exhibit B and incorporated herein by reference (the “Bank Merger Agreement”); and

WHEREAS, the boards of directors of the respective entities believe that the merger of SBI and United and their subsidiary banks and the operating effectiveness and synergies produced thereby will enhance and strengthen the franchises and future prospects of both companies and each of the banks;

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the premises and the mutual covenants and agreements herein contained, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which as legally sufficient consideration are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

CLOSING

The transactions contemplated herein shall be consummated (the “Closing”) at the offices of Kilpatrick Stockton LLP, Suite 2800, 1100 Peachtree Street, Atlanta, Georgia, on the first business day following receipt of all approvals from any governmental authorities having jurisdiction over the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, the Merger Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement, and the expiration of any waiting or similar period required by applicable law (the “Closing Date”), or at such other time and place as may be mutually satisfactory to the parties hereto.

ARTICLE II

MERGER

2.1 The Merger. Pursuant to the terms and conditions provided herein or otherwise in the Merger Agreement, on the Closing Date SBI shall be merged with and into United. The surviving corporation following the Merger will operate under the articles of incorporation of United. The Bank shall be merged with and into UCB Georgia in accordance with and in the manner set forth in the Bank Merger Agreement.

2.2 Purchase Price and Related Definitions. As used in this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

2.2.1 “Listed OREO” shall mean the other real estate owned that is described in the SBI Disclosure Memorandum.

2.2.2 “Loss” shall mean (1) the dollar amount of any Listed OREO owned by SBI as of the Closing Date plus (2) the dollar amount of any difference between the value of the consideration received by SBI upon the sale of any such Listed OREO and the value assigned to such Listed OREO in the SBI Disclosure Memorandum.

2.2.3 “Purchase Price” shall mean (1) $66,500,000 minus (2) any Purchase Price Adjustment.

2.2.4 “Purchase Price Adjustment” shall mean (1) 1 times any Loss up to $300,000 plus (2) 3.5 times any Loss greater than $300,000.

For example, if the total amount of Listed OREO owned by SBI as of the Closing Date is $800,000 and all other Listed OreO was sold for $3,600,000, then the Loss would be $1,000,000. Thus, the Purchase Price Adjustment would be $2,750,000 (1 times $300,000 of Loss plus 3.5 times $700,000 of Loss), and the Purchase Price would equal $63,750,000 ($66,500,000 minus $2,750,000).

2.3 Payment of Purchase Price. Pursuant to the terms and conditions provided herein or otherwise in the Merger Agreement, United shall make available on or before the Closing Date for delivery to the holders of issued and outstanding shares of common stock, $1.00 par value per share, of SBI (“SBI Stock”) and outstanding options to acquire SBI Stock (the “SBI Stock Options”): (a) a sufficient number of shares of United Stock to be issued upon conversion of the shares of SBI Stock in the Merger, (b) a sufficient number of shares of United Stock to be issued upon the exercise of all SBI Stock Options at Closing, and (c) sufficient funds to make cash payments in lieu of the issuance of fractional shares. If any SBI Stock certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, United may, in its reasonable discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance of any United Stock or cash payment, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed SBI Stock certificate to provide a bond and an appropriate affidavit and indemnity agreement (reasonably satisfactory to United) as indemnification against any claim that may be made against United with respect to such SBI Stock certificate.

ARTICLE III

OTHER AGREEMENTS

3.1 Registration and Listing of United Stock. (a) United agrees to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) as soon as reasonably practicable a registration statement (the “United Registration Statement”) under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “1933 Act”), on Form S-4 or some other appropriate form covering the issuance of the shares of United Stock to the shareholders of SBI pursuant to this Agreement and the Merger Agreement and to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the United Registration Statement to become effective and to remain effective through the Closing Date. United agrees to take any action required to be taken under the applicable state securities laws in connection with the issuance of shares of United Stock upon consummation of the Merger. SBI agrees to provide United reasonable assistance as necessary in the preparation of the United Registration Statement, including, without limitation, providing United with all material facts regarding the operations, business, assets, liabilities and personnel of SBI, together with the audited financial statements of SBI, all as and to the extent required by the 1933 Act and the rules, regulations and practices of the SEC, for inclusion in the United Registration Statement. The United Registration Statement shall not cover resales of United Stock by any of the shareholders of SBI, and United shall have no obligation to cause the United Registration Statement to continue to be effective after the Closing or to prepare or file any post-effective amendments to the United Registration Statement after the Closing.

(b) United agrees to list on the Nasdaq Global Select Market, by the Closing Date, the shares of United Stock to be issued to the shareholders of SBI pursuant to this Agreement and the Merger Agreement.

3.2 Meeting of SBI Shareholders. 3.3 Absence of Brokers. Except for The Carson Medlin Company, which has provided financial advisory services to SBI, SBI represents and warrants to United that no broker, finder or other financial consultant has acted on its behalf in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby. Each party agrees to indemnify the other and hold and save it harmless from any claim or demand for commissions or other compensation by any broker, finder, financial consultant or similar agent claiming to have been employed by or on behalf of such party.

3.4 Access to Properties, Books, Etc. SBI shall allow the United and its authorized representatives full access during normal business hours from and after the date hereof and prior to the Closing Date to all of SBI’s properties, books, contracts, commitments and records and those of its subsidiaries and shall furnish the United and its authorized representatives such information concerning its affairs and the affairs of its subsidiaries as United may reasonably request provided that such request shall be reasonably related to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and shall not interfere unreasonably with normal operations. SBI shall cause its and its subsidiaries' personnel, employees and other representatives to assist United in making any such investigation. During such investigation, United and its authorized representatives shall have the right to make copies of such records, files, tax returns and other materials as it may deem advisable and shall advise SBI of those items of which copies are made. No investigation made heretofore or hereafter by either party and its authorized representatives shall affect the representations and warranties of either such party hereunder.

3.5 Confidentiality. Prior to consummation of the Merger, the parties to this Agreement will provide one another with information which may be deemed by the party providing the information to be confidential. Each party agrees that it will hold confidential and protect all information provided to it by the other party to this Agreement or such party's affiliates, except that the obligations contained in this Section 3.5 shall not in any way restrict the rights of any party or person to use information that: (a) was known to such party prior to the disclosure by the other party; (b) is or becomes generally available to the public other than by breach of this Agreement; (c) is provided by one party for disclosure concerning such party in the United Registration Statement; or (d) otherwise becomes lawfully available to a party to this Agreement on a non-confidential basis from a third party who is not under an obligation of confidence to the other party to this Agreement. If this Agreement is terminated prior to the Closing, each party hereto agrees to return all documents, statements and other written materials, whether or not confidential, and all copies thereof, provided to it by or on behalf of the other party to this Agreement. The provisions of this Section 3.5 shall survive termination, for any reason whatsoever, of this Agreement, and, without limiting the remedies of the parties hereto in the event of any breach of this Section 3.5, the parties hereto will be entitled to seek injunctive relief against the other party in the event of a breach or threatened breach of this Section 3.5.

3.6 Full Cooperation. The parties shall cooperate fully with each other in connection with any acts or actions required to be taken as part of their respective obligations under this Agreement.

3.7 Expenses. All of the expenses incurred by United in connection with the authorization, preparation, execution and performance of this Agreement and the Merger Agreement including, without limitation, all fees and expenses of its agents, representatives, counsel and accountants and the fees and expenses related to filing the United Registration Statement and all regulatory applications with state and federal authorities in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, (the "United Expenses") shall be paid by United. All expenses incurred by SBI in connection with the authorization, preparation, execution and performance of this Agreement, the Merger Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement, including, without limitation, all fees and expenses of its agents, representatives, counsel and accountants (the "SBI Expenses"), shall be paid by SBI. The cost of reproducing and mailing the SBI Proxy Materials shall be shared by the parties, with each party paying 50 percent (50%).

Each party hereto shall use its best efforts to preserve its business organization and the business organization of its subsidiaries, to keep available the services of its present employees and of the present employees of its subsidiaries, and to preserve the goodwill of customers and others having business relations with such party or its subsidiaries.

3.9 Approvals and Consents. Each party hereto represents and warrants to and covenants with the other that it will use its best efforts, and will cause its officers, directors, employees and agents and its subsidiaries and any subsidiary's officers, directors, employees and agents to use their best efforts, to obtain as soon as is reasonably practicable all approvals and consents of state and federal departments or agencies required or deemed necessary for consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Merger Agreement.

3.10 Agreement by SBI Executive Officers and Directors. (b) The copies of the SBI Leases heretofore or hereafter furnished or made available by SBI to United are true, correct and complete, and the SBI Leases have not been modified in any respect other than pursuant to amendments, copies of which have been concurrently delivered or made available to United, and are in full force and effect in accordance with their terms.

(a) Except as set forth in the Disclosure Memorandum, (i) SBI does not provide and is not obligated to provide, directly or indirectly, any benefits for employees, including, without limitation, any pension, profit sharing, stock option, retirement, bonus, hospitalization, medical, insurance, vacation or other employee benefits under any practice, agreement or understanding, and (ii) SBI does not have any employment, severance, change in control or similar agreements with any of its employees.

(b) The Disclosure Memorandum lists separately any employee benefit plan within the meaning of Section 3(3) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (“ERISA”), sponsored, maintained or contributed to by SBI (collectively, “ERISA Plans”). True, correct and complete copies of all ERISA Plans and, to the extent applicable, all related trust agreements, insurance contracts, summary plan descriptions, Internal Revenue Service determination letters and filings, the past three (3) years of actuarial reports and valuations, annual reports and Form 5500 filings (including attachments), and any other related documents requested by United or its counsel have been, or prior to the Closing Date will be, made available to United.

(d) Each ERISA Plan has been operated and administered in accordance with, and has been amended to comply in all material respects with (unless such amendment is not yet required), all applicable laws, rules and regulations, including, without limitation, ERISA, the Code, and the regulations issued under ERISA and the Code. With respect to each ERISA Plan, other than routine claims for benefits submitted in the ordinary course of the benefits process, no litigation or administrative or other proceeding is pending or, to the knowledge of SBI, threatened involving such ERISA Plan or any of its fiduciaries. With respect to each ERISA Plan, neither SBI nor any of its directors, officers, employees or agents, nor any “party in interest” or “disqualified person” (as such terms are defined in Section 3(14) of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code) has been engaged in or been a party to any transaction relating to the ERISA Plan which would constitute a breach of fiduciary duty under ERISA or a “prohibited transaction” (as such term is defined in Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code), unless such transaction is specifically permitted under Sections 407 or 408 of ERISA, Section 4975 of the Code or a class or administrative exemption issued by the Department of Labor. With respect to the SBI ESOP, except as set forth on the Disclosure Memorandum: (i) the SBI ESOP constitutes a qualified plan within the meaning of Section 401(a) of the Code and the trust is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(a) of the Code; (ii) the SBI ESOP has been maintained and operated in compliance in all material respects with all applicable provisions of Sections 409 and 4975 of the Code and the regulations and rulings thereunder, including the provisions relating to employee stock ownership plans maintained by S corporations as defined in Section 1361(a)(1) of the Code; (iii) all contributions required by such plan have been made or will be made on a timely basis; and (iv) no termination, partial termination or discontinuance of contributions has occurred without a determination by the IRS that such action does not affect the tax-qualified status of such plan.

(f) As of the Closing Date, with respect to each ERISA Plan, SBI will have provided adequate reserves, or insurance or qualified trust funds, to provide for all payments and contributions required, or reasonably expected to be required, to be made under the provisions of such ERISA Plan or required to be made under applicable laws, rules and regulations, with respect to any period prior to the Closing Date to the extent reserves are required under GAAP, based on an actuarial valuation satisfactory to the actuaries of SBI representing a projection of claims expected to be incurred under such ERISA Plan.

(g) Except as disclosed on the Disclosure Memorandum, SBI does not provide and has no obligation to provide benefits, including, without limitation, death, health or medical benefits (whether or not insured) with respect to current or former employees of SBI beyond their retirement or other termination of service with SBI other than: (i) coverage mandated by applicable Law; (ii) benefits under the Employee Pension Benefit Plans; or (iii) benefits the full cost of which is borne by the current or former employee or his beneficiary.

4.5.3 Labor-Related Matters. Except as described in the Disclosure Memorandum, SBI is not, and has not been, a party to any collective bargaining agreement or agreement of any kind with any union or labor organization or to any agreement with any of its employees which is not terminable at will or upon ninety (90) days notice at the election of, and without cost or penalty to, SBI. SBI has not received at any time in the past five (5) years, any demand for recognition from any union, and no attempt has been made, or will have been made as of the Closing Date, to organize any of its employees. SBI has complied in all material respects with all obligations under the National Labor Relations Act, as amended, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, as amended, and all other federal, state and local labor laws and regulations applicable to employees. Except as described in the Disclosure Memorandum, there are no unfair labor practice charges pending or threatened against SBI, and there are, and in the past three (3) years there have been, no charges, complaints, claims or proceedings, no slowdowns or strikes pending or threatened against, or involving, as the case may be, SBI with respect to any alleged violation of any legal duty (including but not limited to any wage and hour claims, employment discrimination claims or claims arising out of any employment relationship) by SBI as to any of its employees or as to any person seeking employment therefrom, and no such violations exist.

4.5.4 Related Party Transactions. Except for: (a) loans and extensions of credit made on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions by SBI with other persons who are not affiliated with SBI, and which do not involve more than the normal risk of repayment or present other unfavorable features; (b) deposits, all of which are on terms and conditions identical to those made available to all customers of SBI at the time such deposits were entered into; and (c) transactions specifically described in the Disclosure Memorandum, there are no contracts with or commitments to present or former five percent (5%) or greater shareholders, directors, officers, or employees involving the expenditure of more than $60,000 as to any one individual, including with respect to any business directly or indirectly controlled by any such person, or $100,000 for all such contracts or commitments in the aggregate for all such individuals (other than contracts or commitments relating to services to be performed by any officer, director or employee as a currently-employed employee of SBI).

4.6 Other Matters.

4.6.1 Approvals, Consents and Filings. Except for the Federal Reserve, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (the “FDIC”) and the Georgia Department, the notice filing to be made with the OCC, or as set forth in the Disclosure Memorandum, neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby will: (a) require any consent, approval, authorization or permit of, or filing with or notification to, any governmental or regulatory authority; or (b) violate any order, writ, injunction, decree, statute, rule or regulation applicable to SBI, or any of SBI’s assets.

4.6.2 Default. (a) Except for those consents described in or set forth pursuant to Section 4.6.1 above and as described in the Disclosure Memorandum, neither the execution of this Agreement nor consummation of the transactions contemplated herein:

(i) constitutes a breach of or default under any contract or commitment to which SBI is a party or by which any of SBI’s properties or assets are bound;

(ii) does or will result in the creation or imposition of any security interest, lien, encumbrance, charge, equity or restriction of any nature whatsoever in favor of any third party upon any assets of SBI; or

(iii) constitutes an event permitting termination of any agreement or the acceleration of any indebtedness of SBI.

(b) SBI is not in violation of its charter documents or bylaws or in default under any term or provision of any material security deed, mortgage, indenture or security agreement, or of any other material contract or instrument to which SBI is a party or by which it or any of its material properties is bound.

4.6.3 Representations and Warranties. No representation or warranty contained in this Article IV or in any written statement delivered by or at the direction of SBI pursuant hereto or in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby contains or will contain any untrue statement, nor will such representations and warranties taken as a whole omit any statement necessary in order to make any statement not misleading. Copies of all documents that have been or will be furnished to United in connection with this Agreement or pursuant hereto are or shall be true, correct and complete.

ARTICLE XI

TERMINATION

(a) By United, if, after the date hereof, a material adverse change in the financial condition or business of SBI shall have occurred, or if SBI shall have suffered a material loss or damage to any of its properties or assets, which change, loss or damage materially affects or impairs its ability to conduct its business.

(b) By SBI, if, after the date hereof, a material adverse change in the financial condition or business of United shall have occurred which change would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the market price of United Stock, or if United shall have suffered a material loss or damage to any its properties or assets, which change, loss or damage materially affects or impairs its ability to conduct its business.

11.2 Noncompliance.

(a) By United, (i) if the terms, covenants or conditions of this Agreement to be complied with or performed by SBI before the Closing shall not have been substantially complied with or substantially performed at or before the Closing Date and such noncompliance or nonperformance shall not have been waived by United; or (ii) in the event of a material breach by SBI of any covenant, agreement, or obligation contained in this Agreement which breach not been cured within twenty (20) days after the giving of written notice to United of such breach or, if such breach is not capable of being cured within twenty (20) days, SBI has not begun to cure such breach within twenty (20) days after such written notice.

(b) By SBI, (i) if the terms, covenants or conditions of this Agreement to be complied with or performed by United before the Closing shall not have been substantially complied with or substantially performed at or before the Closing Date and such noncompliance or nonperformance shall not have been waived by SBI; or (ii) in the event of a material breach by United of any covenant, agreement, or obligation contained in this Agreement which breach has not been cured within twenty (20) days after the giving of written notice to SBI of such breach or, if such breach is not capable of being cured within twenty (20) days, United has not begun to cure such breach within twenty (20) days after such written notice..

By either party, if any action, suit or proceeding shall have been instituted or threatened against either party to this Agreement to restrain or prohibit, or to obtain substantial damages in respect of, this Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated herein, which, in the good faith opinion of the terminating party makes consummation of the transactions herein contemplated inadvisable.

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER

(Merger Agreement)

THIS AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER (the “Agreement”) is made and entered into as of this ___ day of September, 2006, by and between UNITED COMMUNITY BANKS, INC., a Georgia corporation (“United”) and SOUTHERN BANCORP, INC., a Georgia corporation (“SBI”, and together with United, the “Constituent Corporations”).

WHEREAS, the authorized capital stock of United consists of 100,000,000 shares of Common Stock, $1.00 par value per share (the “United Stock”), of which 40,245,123 shares are issued and outstanding and 10,000,000 shares of Preferred Stock, $1.00 par value per share, of which 32,200 shares are issued and outstanding; and

WHEREAS, the authorized capital stock of SBI consists of 9,000,000 shares of Common Stock, $1.00 par value per share, of which 1,619,137 shares are issued and outstanding (the “SBI Stock”); and

WHEREAS, the respective Boards of Directors of the Constituent Corporations deem it advisable and in the best interests of each such corporation and its shareholders that SBI merge with and into United, with United being the surviving corporation; and

WHEREAS, the respective Boards of Directors of the Constituent Corporations, by resolutions duly adopted, have unanimously approved and adopted this Agreement, and the Board of Directors of SBI, by resolution duly adopted, has directed that this Agreement be submitted to the shareholders of SBI for their approval; and

WHEREAS, United has agreed to issue shares of United Stock which shareholders of SBI will be entitled to receive, according to the terms and conditions contained herein, on or after the Effective Date (as defined herein) of the merger provided for herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the premises and the mutual agreements herein contained, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which as legally sufficient consideration are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto have agreed and do hereby agree, as follows:

1. Merger.

Pursuant to and with the effects provided in the applicable provisions of Article 11 of the Georgia Business Corporation Code, as amended (Chapter 2 of Title 14 of the Official Code of Georgia), SBI (hereinafter sometimes referred to as the “Merged Corporation”) shall be merged with and into United (the “Merger”). United shall be the surviving corporation (the “Surviving Corporation”) and shall continue under the name “United Community Banks, Inc.” On the Effective Date (as defined herein) of the Merger, the individual existence of the Merged Corporation shall cease and terminate.

2. Actions to be Taken.

The acts and things required to be done by the Georgia Business Corporation Code in order to make this Agreement effective, including the submission of this Agreement to the shareholders of the Merged Corporation and the filing of the certificate of merger in Georgia, relating hereto in the manner provided in said laws, shall be attended to and done by the proper officers of the Constituent Corporations with the assistance of counsel as soon as practicable.

3. Effective Date.

The Merger shall be effective upon the approval of this Agreement by the shareholders of the Merged Corporation and the filing of the certificate of merger in Georgia, relating hereto in the manner provided in the Georgia Business Corporation Code (the “Effective Date”).

4. Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation.

(a) The Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation of United, as heretofore amended, shall on the Effective Date be the Articles of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation.

(b) Until altered, amended or repealed, as therein provided, the Amended and Restated Bylaws of United as in effect on the Effective Date shall be the Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation.

5. Manner and Basis of Converting Shares of Capital Stock; Capital Structure of the Surviving Corporation.

The manner and basis of converting the shares of capital stock of each of the Constituent Corporations into shares of the Surviving Corporation shall be as follows:

(a) In the Merger, the shares of SBI Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Date shall, by virtue of the Merger, be converted on the Effective Date, into the number of fully paid and nonassessable shares of United Stock determined by dividing the Purchase Price (as defined in that certain Agreement and Plan of Reorganization of even date herewith by and between SBI and United (the “Acquisition Agreement”)) by 1,849,137 subject to any adjustments occurring after the date hereof as contemplated by Section 5(b) below, and then dividing that quotient by $30.50. The number that results from dividing the Purchase Price by 1,849,137 and then dividing that quotient by $30.50 under this Section 5(a) shall hereinafter be referred to as the “Conversion Ratio”.

(b) If either party should change the number of its outstanding shares as a result of a stock split, stock dividend, or similar recapitalization with respect to such shares prior to the Effective Date then the shares to be issued hereunder to holders of SBI Stock shall be proportionately adjusted.

(c) Upon the Effective Date, all rights with respect to SBI Stock pursuant to stock options (the “SBI Stock Options”) granted by SBI which are outstanding at the Effective Date, whether or not exercisable, shall be converted into and become rights with respect to United Stock, and United shall assume each SBI Stock Option in accordance with the terms of the stock option plan and the stock option agreement by which it is evidenced. From and after the Effective Date, (i) each SBI Stock Option assumed by United may be exercised solely for shares of United Stock, and (ii) the number of shares of United Stock subject to such SBI Stock Option shall be equal to the product of the number of shares of SBI Stock subject to such SBC Stock Option immediately prior to the Effective Date multiplied by the Conversion Ratio. The per share exercise price under each such SBI Stock Option shall remain the same as it was before the Effective Date. Upon the Effective Date, any other option, warrant, call, right, exchangeable or convertible security, commitment or agreement, written or oral, to which SBI is a party or by which it is bound obligating SBI to issue, deliver, sell or cause to be issued, delivered or sold any SBI Stock, regardless of whether such security is then exercisable or vested, and which is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Date shall be canceled and extinguished.

(d) No scrip or fractional share certificates of United Stock shall be issued in connection with the Merger and an outstanding fractional share interest will not entitle the owner thereof to vote, to receive dividends or to have any of the rights of a shareholder with respect to such fractional interest. In lieu of any fractional interest, there shall be paid in cash, without interest, an amount (computed to the nearest cent) equal to such fraction multiplied by the purchase price per share of SBI Stock as determined by multiplying the Conversion Ratio by the closing price for United Stock on the Nasdaq Global Market trading day immediately preceding the Effective Date.

(e) As soon as practicable after the Effective Date, each holder as of the Effective Date of any of the shares of SBI Stock to be converted by such holder as above provided, upon presentation and surrender of the certificates representing such shares to United, shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor a certificate representing the number of shares of United Stock, and cash, to which such shareholder shall be entitled according to the terms of this Agreement. Until such surrender, each such outstanding certificate which prior to the Effective Date represented SBI Stock shall be deemed for all corporate purposes to evidence ownership of the number of shares of United Stock into which the same shall have been converted by such holder as above provided, the right to receive cash by such holder as above provided, and the right to receive payment for fractional shares.

(f) Upon the Effective Date, each share of United Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Date shall continue unchanged and shall continue to evidence a share of common stock of the Surviving Corporation.

(g) Subject to Section 5(b) above, in no event shall the total number of shares of United Stock issued in connection with the Merger or under Section 5(c) above exceed 2,180,043.

6. Termination of Separate Existence.

Upon the Effective Date, the separate existence of the Merged Corporation shall cease and the Surviving Corporation shall possess all of the rights, privileges, immunities, powers and franchises, as well of a public nature as of a private nature, of each of the Constituent Corporations; and all property, real, personal and mixed, and all debts due on whatever account, and all other choses in action, and all and every other interest of or belonging to or due to each of the Constituent Corporations shall be taken and deemed to be transferred to and vested in the Surviving Corporation without further act or deed, and the title to any real estate or any interest therein, vested in either of the Constituent Corporations shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of the Merger. The Surviving Corporation shall thenceforth be responsible and liable for all the liabilities, obligations and penalties of each of the Constituent Corporations; and any claim existing or action or proceeding, civil or criminal, pending by or against either of said Constituent Corporations may be prosecuted as if the Merger had not taken place, or the Surviving Corporation may be substituted in its place, and any judgment rendered against either of the Constituent Corporations may thenceforth be enforced against the Surviving Corporation; and neither the rights of creditors nor any liens upon the property of either of the Constituent Corporations shall be impaired by the Merger.

7. Further Assignments.

If at any time the Surviving Corporation shall consider or be advised that any further assignments or assurances in law or any other things are necessary or desirable to vest in said corporation, according to the terms hereof, the title to any property or rights of the Merged Corporation, the proper officers and directors of the Merged Corporation shall and will execute and make all such proper assignments and assurances and do all things necessary and proper to vest title in such property or rights in the Surviving Corporation, and otherwise to carry out the purposes of this Agreement.

8. Conditions Precedent to Consummation of the Merger.

This Agreement is subject to, and consummation of the Merger is conditioned upon, the fulfillment as of the Effective Date of each of the following conditions:

(a) Approval of this Agreement by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding voting shares of SBI Stock; and

(b) All the terms, covenants, agreements, obligations and conditions of the Acquisition Agreement to be complied with, satisfied and performed on or prior to the Closing Date (as defined therein), shall have been complied with, satisfied and performed in all material respects unless accomplishment of such covenants, agreements, obligations and conditions has been waived by the party benefited thereby.

9. Termination.

This Agreement may be terminated and the Merger abandoned in accordance with the terms of the Acquisition Agreement, at any time before or after adoption of this Agreement by the directors of either of the Constituent Corporations, notwithstanding favorable action on the Merger by the shareholders of the Merged Corporation, but not later than the issuance of the certificate of merger by the Secretary of State of the State of Georgia with respect to the Merger in accordance with the provisions of the Georgia Business Corporation Code.

10. Counterparts; Title; Headings.

This Agreement may be executed simultaneously in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which shall constitute one and the same instrument. The title of this Agreement and the headings herein set out are for the convenience of reference only and shall not be deemed a part of this Agreement.

11. Amendments; Additional Agreements.

At any time before or after approval and adoption by the shareholders of SBI, this Agreement may be modified, amended or supplemented by additional agreements, articles or certificates as may be determined in the judgment of the respective Boards of Directors of the Constituent Corporations to be necessary, desirable or expedient to further the purposes of this Agreement, to clarify the intention of the parties, to add to or modify the covenants, terms or conditions contained herein or to effectuate or facilitate any governmental approval of the Merger or this Agreement, or otherwise to effectuate or facilitate the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby; provided, however, that no such modification, amendment or supplement shall reduce to any extent the consideration into which shares of SBI Stock shall be converted in the Merger pursuant to Section 5 hereof.

A-40

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Constituent Corporations have each caused this Agreement to be executed on their respective behalfs and their respective corporate seals to be affixed hereto as of the day and year first above written.

of Shares (from Grant Date)

THIS OPTION AGREEMENT (the "Agreement") is entered into as of the ____ day of _____, _____, by and between UNITED COMMUNITY BANKS, INC., a Georgia corporation (the "Company"), and the individual designated above (the "Optionee").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the United Community Banks, Inc. 2000 Key Employee Stock Option Plan (the "Plan") was adopted by the Company, effective December 8, 1999;

WHEREAS, the Optionee performs valuable services for the Company, a subsidiary or one of their affiliates; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors of the Company or the committee responsible for the administration of the Plan has determined to grant the Option to the Optionee as provided herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Grant of the Option.

1.1 Option. An option to purchase shares of the Company's Common Stock, par value $1.00 per share (the "Shares"), is hereby granted to the Optionee (the "Option").

1.2 Number of Shares. The number of Shares that the Optionee can purchase upon exercise of the Option is set forth above.

1.3 Option Exercise Price. The price the Optionee must pay to exercise the Option (the “Option Exercise Price”) is set forth above.

1.4 Date of Grant. The date that the Option is granted (the “Date of Grant”) is set forth above.

1.5 Type of Option. The Option is intended to be a Nonqualified Stock Option. It is not intended to qualify as an Incentive Stock Option within the meaning of Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time, or any successor provision thereto.

1.6 Construction. This Agreement shall be construed in accordance and consistent with, and subject to, the provisions of the Plan (the provisions of which are incorporated herein by reference) and, except as otherwise expressly set forth herein, the capitalized terms used in this Agreement shall have the same definitions as set forth in the Plan.

1.7 Execution of Agreement. The Option is evidenced by this Agreement. If the Optionee does not execute this Agreement within thirty (30) days of receiving the Agreement, the Committee may in its discretion cancel the Option and this Agreement.

2. Duration.

The Option shall be exercisable to the extent and in the manner provided herein for a period of ten (10) years from the Date of Grant (the “Exercise Term”); provided, however, that the Exercise Term may end earlier as provided in Sections 5 and 13 hereof.

3. Vesting.

The Option shall vest and become exercisable in accordance with the vesting schedule specified above. The Optionee may exercise the Option to the extent it is vested during the Exercise Term, subject to any limitations on exercise contained in Section 7 hereof.

4. Manner of Exercise and Payment.

4.1 Delivery. To exercise the Option, the Optionee must deliver a completed copy of the Option Exercise Form, attached hereto as Exhibit A and incorporated herein by reference, to the address indicated on such Form or such other address designated by the Company from time to time. The Committee may establish a minimum number of Shares (e.g., 100) for which the Option may be exercised at a particular time. Contemporaneously with the delivery of the Option Exercise Form, the Optionee shall tender to the Company the aggregate Option Exercise Price for the Shares as to which the Optionee is exercising the Option by (i) cash, check, or wire transfer, (ii) delivering or properly attesting to ownership of Shares with a Fair Market Value at the date of exercise equal to the aggregate Option Exercise Price for the Shares as to which the Optionee is exercising the Option, (iii) a broker-assisted cashless exercise transaction through a brokerage firm designated by the Optionee, or (iv) or by such other method of payment as may be acceptable to the Committee pursuant to the Plan. The Company shall deliver to the Optionee certificates evidencing the Shares as to which the Option was exercised within thirty (30) days of the date on which the Optionee delivers the Option Exercise Form and makes payment of the aggregate Option Exercise Price to the Company or shall make such Shares available for electronic delivery in the U.S. to an account the Optionee designates in writing within three (3) business days after the date on which the Optionee delivers the Option Exercise Form and makes payment of the aggregate Option Exercise Price to the Company, and in either case such Shares shall be free and clear of all liens, security interests, pledges or other claims or charges, except those provided in this Agreement or the Plan, or any other agreement affecting the Shares. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Optionee is a non-exempt employee for purposes of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, the Optionee may not exercise any Option prior to the date that is six (6) months after the Date of Grant unless the Optionee's employment has terminated due to death, Disability, or Retirement or unless a Change in Control has occurred after the Date of Grant.

4.2 No Rights as Shareholder. The Optionee shall not be deemed to be the holder of, or to have any of the rights of a holder with respect to any Shares subject to the Option until (i) the Option shall have been exercised pursuant to the terms of this Agreement and the Optionee shall have paid the full purchase price for the number of Shares in respect of which the Option was exercised, (ii) the Company shall have issued and delivered the Shares to the Optionee, and (iii) the Optionee's name shall have been entered as a shareholder of record on the books of the Company, whereupon the Optionee shall have full voting and other ownership rights with respect to such Shares, subject to divestment pursuant to Section 13.

5. Termination of Employment.

5.1 Termination by Death. In the event the Optionee dies while actively employed, the outstanding unvested portion of the Option shall immediately vest, and thereafter the Option shall remain exercisable at any time prior to its expiration date, or for one (1) year after the date of death, whichever period is shorter, (i) by such person(s) who have acquired the Optionee's rights by will or the laws of descent and distribution, or (ii) if no such person in (i) exists, by the executor or representative of the Optionee's estate.

5.2 Termination by Disability. In the event the employment of the Optionee is terminated by reason of Disability, the outstanding unvested portion of the Option shall expire as of the date the Committee determines the definition of Disability to have been satisfied by the Optionee, and the outstanding vested portion of the Option as of that date shall remain exercisable at any time prior to its expiration date, or for one (1) year after the Committee's determination of Disability, whichever period is shorter.

5.3 Termination for Cause. If the Optionee's employment is terminated by the Company for Cause or the Optionee voluntarily terminates his employment (other than upon Retirement), the outstanding Option shall expire immediately, and the Optionee's right to exercise the outstanding Option (whether or not vested) shall terminate immediately, upon the date of the Optionee's termination of employment.

5.4 Termination of Employment for Other Reasons. If the Optionee's employment is terminated by the Company without Cause or upon the Retirement of the Optionee, the outstanding unvested portion of the Option shall expire, and the outstanding vested portion of the Option as of the date of his termination of employment shall remain exercisable at any time prior to its expiration date or for three (3) months (one (1) year in the case of Retirement) after the date of his termination of employment, whichever period is shorter.

5.5 Employment by Subsidiary. For purposes of this Section and Sections 8 and 13, employment with the Company includes employment with any Subsidiary and service as a Director of the Company or any Subsidiary shall be considered employment with the Company. A change of employment between the Company and any Subsidiary or between Subsidiaries or a change in the nature of the Optionee's service relationship with the Company and the Subsidiaries (e.g., from employee to Director) without any interruption in the Optionee's provision of services is not a termination of employment under this Agreement.

5.6 Change In Control. In the event a Change in Control occurs while the Optionee is employed by the Company, the outstanding unvested portion of the Option shall immediately vest and become immediately exercisable. The Option shall remain exercisable in accordance with the other provisions of this Agreement, provided that, notwithstanding the other provisions of this Agreement, the Option shall remain exercisable for a period of one (1) year after the date of the Change in Control.

6. Nontransferability.

The Option shall not be transferable other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution and during the lifetime of the Optionee. The Option shall be exercisable only by the Optionee except as provided in Section 5.1.

7. Securities Laws Restrictions.

The Option may not be exercised at any time unless, in the opinion of counsel for the Company, the issuance and sale of the Shares issued upon such exercise is exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or any other applicable federal or state securities law, rule or regulation, or the Shares have been duly registered under such laws. The Company intends to register the Shares issuable upon the exercise of the Option; however, until the Shares have been registered under all applicable laws, the Optionee shall represent, warrant and agree, as a condition to the exercise of any Option, that the Shares are being purchased for investment only and without a view to any sale or distribution of such Shares and that such Shares shall not be transferred or disposed of in any manner without registration under such laws, unless it is the opinion of counsel for the Company that such a disposition is exempt from such registration. The Optionee acknowledges that an appropriate legend giving notice of the foregoing restrictions may appear conspicuously on all certificates evidencing the Shares issued upon the exercise of the Option.

8. No Right to Continued Employment.

Nothing in this Agreement or the Plan shall be interpreted or construed to confer upon the Optionee any right with respect to continuance of employment by the Company or any Subsidiary, nor shall this Agreement or the Plan interfere in any way with the right of the Company or a Subsidiary to terminate the Optionee's employment at any time.

9. Adjustments.

In the event of a change in capitalization, the Committee shall make appropriate adjustments in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.3 of the Plan. The adjustment shall be effective and final, binding and conclusive for all purposes of the Plan and this Agreement.

10. Withholding of Taxes.

Prior to the issuance of Shares to the Optionee upon exercise of the Option, the Optionee shall pay the federal, state, local income taxes and other amounts as may be required by law to be withheld (the "Withholding Taxes") (if any) to the Company in cash or by check or wire transfer. In satisfaction of the Withholding Taxes, the Optionee may make a written election (the "Tax Election") to satisfy such withholding obligation by a broker-assisted cashless exercise transaction through a brokerage firm designated by the Optionee, by delivering Shares (that have been owned by the Optionee for at least six (6) months or such other period as may be required by the Committee) or by having the Company retain from the Shares to be delivered a number of Shares having an aggregate Fair Market Value equal to the Withholding Taxes, provided that, if the Optionee may be subject to liability under Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act, the election must comply with the requirements applicable to Share transactions by the Optionee. The Company shall have the right to deduct from any amounts payable to the Optionee for salary, bonuses or otherwise an amount equal to Withholding Taxes with respect to the Option.

11. Optionee Bound by the Plan.

The Optionee hereby acknowledges receipt of a copy of the Plan and agrees to be bound by all the terms and provisions thereof.

12. Modification of Agreement.

Except as expressly otherwise provided herein, this Agreement may not be modified, amended, suspended or terminated, and any terms or conditions may not be waived, except by a written instrument executed by the parties hereto.

13. Cancellation and Rescission of Awards; Return of Profits.

13.1 If, during his employment with the Company or at any time during the period of six (6) months after the Date of Termination, the Optionee engages in any "Detrimental Activity" (as defined in the Plan), the Committee shall, notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement to the contrary, (i) cancel any outstanding portion of the Option that is not yet vested, (ii) repurchase any Shares issued to the Optionee pursuant to exercise of the Option at a per Share repurchase price equal to the Option Exercise Price, and/or (iii) require the Optionee to pay to the Company any gain realized from Shares issued to the Optionee pursuant to exercise of the Option.

13.2 If, during his employment with the Company or at any time during the period of one (1) year after the Date of Termination, the Optionee violates the restrictive covenants set forth in Section 13.3 below, then the Committee shall, notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement to the contrary, (i) cancel any outstanding portion of the Option that is not yet vested, (ii) repurchase any Shares issued to the Optionee pursuant to exercise of the Option at a per Share repurchase price equal to the Option Exercise Price, and/or (iii) require the Optionee to pay to the Company any gain realized from Shares issued to the Optionee pursuant to exercise of the Option.

13.3 The Optionee will not directly or indirectly, individually, or on behalf of any Person other than the Company or a Subsidiary:

- (i) solicit any Customers for the purpose of providing services identical to or reasonably substitutable for the Company's Business;
- (ii) solicit or induce, or in any manner attempt to solicit or induce, any Person employed by the Company to leave such employment, whether or not such employment is pursuant to a written contract with the Company or any Subsidiary or is at will;
- (iii) engage in the Company's Business within the Territory or accept employment or engagement within the Territory as a director, officer, executive, manager, or business consultant for any Person engaging in the Company's Business; or
- (iv) knowingly or intentionally damage or destroy the goodwill and esteem of the Company, any Subsidiary, the Company's Business or the Company's or any Subsidiary's suppliers, employees, patrons, customers, and others who may at any time have or have had relations with the Company or any Subsidiary.

The Optionee further agrees that he or she will not, except as necessary to carry out his duties as an employee of the Company, disclose or use Confidential Information. The Optionee further agrees that, upon termination or expiration of employment with the Company for any reason whatsoever or at any time, the Optionee will upon request by the Company deliver promptly to the Company all materials (including electronically-stored materials), documents, plans, records, notes, or other papers, and any copies in the Optionee's possession or control, relating in any way to the Company's Business, which at all times shall be the property of the Company.

The payment to the Executive shall be made not later than fifteen (15) days after his termination of employment.

(d) For the purposes of this Paragraph 1, the following terms shall have the meanings set forth below:

(i) The term “Change in Control” shall mean (1) the acquisition, directly or indirectly, by any “person” as such term is used in Sections 13(d) and 14(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, (excluding any “person” who on the date hereof owns or controls 10% or more of the voting power of the Company’s Common Stock), of securities of the Company representing an aggregate of twenty-five percent (25%) or more of the combined voting power of the Company’s then outstanding securities within any twelve (12) month period; provided, that for purposes of this definition, “acquisition” shall not include shares which are received by a person through gift, inheritance, under a will or otherwise through the laws of descent and distribution; (2) during any period of two consecutive years, individuals who at the beginning of such period constitute the Company’s Board, cease for any reason to constitute at least a majority thereof, unless the election of each new director was approved in advance by a vote of at least a majority of the directors then still in office who were directors at the beginning of the period; or, (3) the occurrence of any other event or circumstance which is not covered by (1) or (2) above which the Company’s Board determines affects control of the Company and adopts a resolution that such event or circumstance constitutes a Change in Control for the purposes of this Agreement.

(ii) The term “Cause” shall mean and be limited to any act that constitutes, on the part of the Executive, fraud, dishonesty, a felony or gross malfeasance of duty and that directly results in material injury to the Bank.

(iii) The term “Disability” shall mean the Executive’s inability as a result of physical or mental incapacity to substantially perform his duties for the Bank on a full-time basis for a period of six (6) months.

(iv) The term “Involuntary Termination” shall mean termination of employment that is involuntary on the part of the Executive and that occurs for reasons other than for Cause, Disability, voluntary retirement (including early retirement) within the meaning of the Bank’s then current retirement plan, or death.

(v) The term “Voluntary Termination” shall mean termination of employment that is voluntary on the part of the Executive, and, in the judgment of the Executive, is due to (1) a reduction of the Executive’s responsibilities resulting solely from the assignment to the Executive of any duties inconsistent with his positions, duties or responsibilities as in effect immediately prior to the Change in Control; (2) a reduction in the Executive’s compensation (other than a reduction resulting from performance related bonuses, so long as such bonuses are paid under plans reasonably designed to avoid any such reduction except as the result of relatively poor performance results) or the failure to provide substantially equivalent benefits, or (3) a forced relocation outside of Cobb or Cherokee Counties, Georgia or any adjacent county to either Cobb or Cherokee County (or Executive's principal assigned location prior to such change in control). A termination shall not be considered voluntary within the meaning of this Agreement if such termination is a result of Cause, Disability, voluntary retirement (including early retirement) within the meaning of the Bank's retirement plan, or death of the Executive.

2. LIMITATION OF BENEFITS.

(a) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, if any of the compensation or benefits payable, or to be provided, to the Executive by the Bank under this Agreement are treated as Excess Severance Payments (whether alone or in conjunction with payments or benefits outside of this Agreement), the compensation and benefits provided under this Agreement shall be modified or reduced in the manner provided in subparagraph (b) below to the extent necessary so that the compensation and benefits payable or to be provided to Executive under this Agreement that are treated as Severance Payments, as well as any compensation or benefits provided outside of this Agreement that are so treated, shall not cause the Bank to have paid an Excess Severance Payment. In computing such amount, the parties shall take into account all provisions of Code Section 280G, and the regulations thereunder, including making appropriate adjustments to such calculation for amounts established to be Reasonable Compensation.

(b) In the event that the amount of any Severance Payments which would be payable to or for the benefit of the Executive under this Agreement must be modified or reduced to comply with this Paragraph, the Executive shall direct which Severance Payments are to be modified or reduced; provided, however, that no increase in the amount of any payment shall be made without the consent of the Bank.

(c) This Paragraph shall be interpreted so as to avoid the imposition of excise taxes on the Executive under Section 4999 of the Code or the disallowance of a deduction to the Bank pursuant to Section 280G(a) of Code with respect to amounts payable under this Agreement. In connection with any Internal Revenue Service examination, audit or other inquiry, the Bank and Executive agree to take action to provide, and to cooperate in providing, evidence to the Internal Revenue Service (and, if applicable, the state revenue department) that the compensation and benefits provided under this Agreement do not result in the payment of Excess Severance Payments.

(d) In addition to the limits otherwise provided in this Article, to the extent permitted by law the Executive may in his sole discretion elect to reduce (or change the timing of) any payments he may be eligible to receive under this Agreement to prevent the imposition of excise taxes on the Executive under Section 4999 of the Code or otherwise reduce or delay liability for taxes owed under the Code.

(e) For the purposes of this Paragraph 2, the following terms shall have the meanings set forth below:

(i) The term “Excess Severance Payment” shall have the same meaning as the term “excess parachute payment” defined in Section 280G(b)(1) of the Code.

(ii) The term “Severance Payment” shall have the same meaning as the term “parachute payment” defined in Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code.

(iii) The term “Reasonable Compensation” shall have the same meaning as provided in Section 280G(b)(4) of the Code.

3. COVENANTS OF EXECUTIVE.

Executive further agrees that, upon termination or expiration of employment with the Bank for any reason whatsoever or at any time, Executive will upon request by the Bank deliver promptly to the Bank all materials (including electronically-stored materials), documents, plans, records, notes, or other papers, and any copies in Executive’s possession or control, relating in any way to the Bank’s Business, which at all times shall be the property of the Bank.

(c) For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings specified below:

(ii) “Confidential Information” means information, without regard to form, relating to the Bank’s or the Company’s customers, operation, finances, and business that derives economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to other Persons, including, but not limited to, technical or non-technical data (including personnel data), formulas, patterns, compilations (including compilations of customer information), programs, devices, methods, techniques, processes, financial data or lists of actual or potential customers (including identifying information about customers), whether or not in writing. Confidential Information includes information disclosed to the Bank or the Company by third parties that the Bank or the Company is obligated to maintain as confidential. Confidential Information subject to this Agreement may include information that is not a trade secret under applicable law, but information not constituting a trade secret only shall be treated as Confidential Information under this Agreement for a two (2) year period after the Date of Termination.

(iii) “Customers” means all Persons that (1) Executive serviced or solicited on behalf of the Bank, (2) whose dealings with the Bank were coordinated or supervised, in whole or in part, by Executive, or (3) about whom Executive obtained Confidential Information, in each case during the term of this Agreement or while otherwise employed by the Bank.

(iv) “Date of Termination” means the date upon which the Executive’s employment with the Bank ceases for any reason.

(v) “Person” means any individual, corporation, bank, partnership, joint venture, association, joint-stock company, trust, unincorporated organization or other entity.

(vi) “Territory” means Cobb and Cherokee Counties, Georgia and any adjacent county to either Cobb County or Cherokee County.

4. MISCELLANEOUS.

(a) This Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the Executive and his executors, representatives and assigns, and the Bank and its successors and assigns.

(b) This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed and enforced in accordance with, the laws of the State of Georgia.

(c) This Agreement shall not be construed as giving to the Executive the right to be retained in the employ of the Bank or any of its affiliates.

(d) This Agreement may only be amended by an instrument in writing executed by both of the parties.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned have executed this Agreement as of the date first above written.

14-2-1302. Right to dissent.

- (a) A record shareholder of the corporation is entitled to dissent from, and obtain payment of the fair value of his or her shares in the event of, any of the following corporate actions:
 - (1) Consummation of a plan of merger to which the corporation is a party:
 - (A) If approval of the shareholders of the corporation is required for the merger by Code Section 14-2-1103 or the articles of incorporation and the shareholder is entitled to vote on the merger, unless:

(iii) The number and kind of shares of the surviving corporation outstanding immediately following the effective time of the merger, plus the number and kind of shares issuable as a result of the merger and by conversion of securities issued pursuant to the merger, shall not exceed the total number and kind of shares of the corporation authorized by its articles of incorporation immediately prior to the effective time of the merger; or

(B) If the corporation is a subsidiary that is merged with its parent under Code Section 14-2-1104;

(5) Any corporate action taken pursuant to a shareholder vote to the extent that Article 9 of this chapter, the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors provides that voting or nonvoting shareholders are entitled to dissent and obtain payment for their shares.

(b) A shareholder entitled to dissent and obtain payment for his shares under this article may not challenge the corporate action creating his or her entitlement unless the corporate action fails to comply with procedural requirements of this chapter or the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the corporation or the vote required to obtain approval of the corporate action was obtained by fraudulent and deceptive means, regardless of whether the shareholder has exercised dissenter's rights.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, there shall be no right of dissent in favor of the holder of shares of any class or series which, at the record date fixed to determine the shareholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at a meeting at which a plan of merger or share exchange or a sale or exchange of property or an amendment of the articles of incorporation is to be acted on, were either listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than 2,000 shareholders, unless:

(1) In the case of a plan of merger or share exchange, any holders of shares of the class or series are required under the plan of merger or share exchange to accept for their shares:

(A) Anything except shares of the surviving corporation or another publicly held corporation which at the effective date of the merger or share exchange are either listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than 2,000 shareholders, except for scrip or cash payments in lieu of fractional shares; or

(B) Any shares of the surviving corporation or another publicly held corporation which at the effective date of the merger or share exchange are either listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than 2,000 shareholders that are different, in type or exchange ratio per share, from the shares to be provided or offered to any other holder of shares of the same class or series of shares in exchange for such shares; or

(2) The articles of incorporation or a resolution of the board of directors approving the transaction provides otherwise. (Code 1981, § 14-2-1302, enacted by Ga. L. 1988, p. 1070, § 1; Ga. L. 1989, p. 946, § 58; Ga. L. 1999, p. 405, § 11; Ga. L. 2003, p. 897, § 11.)

14-2-1303. Dissent by nominees and beneficial owners.

A record shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all the shares registered in his name only if he dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one beneficial shareholder and notifies the corporation in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf he asserts dissenters' rights. The rights of a partial dissenter under this Code section are determined as if the shares as to which he dissents and his other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders. 14-2-1321. Notice of intent to demand payment.

(a) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under Code Section 14-2-1302 is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, a record shareholder who wishes to assert dissenters' rights:

(1) State where the payment demand must be sent and where and when certificates for certificated shares must be deposited;

(2) Inform holders of uncertificated shares to what extent transfer of the shares will be restricted after the payment demand is received;

B-3

- (3) Set a date by which the corporation must receive the payment demand, which date may not be fewer than 30 nor more than 60 days after the date the notice required in subsection (a) of this Code section is delivered; and
- (4) Be accompanied by a copy of this article. (Code 1981, § 14-2-1322, enacted by Ga. L. 1988, p. 1070, § 1.)

- (a) A record shareholder sent a dissenters' notice described in Code Section 14-2-1322 must demand payment and deposit his certificates in accordance with the terms of the notice.
- (b) A record shareholder who demands payment and deposits his shares under subsection (a) of this Code section retains all other rights of a shareholder until these rights are canceled or modified by the taking of the proposed corporate action.
- (c) A record shareholder who does not demand payment or deposit his share certificates where required, each by the date set in the dissenters' notice, is not entitled to payment for his shares under this article. (Code 1981, § 14-2-1323, enacted by Ga. L. 1988, p. 1070, § 1.)

14-2-1324. Share restrictions.

- (a) The corporation may restrict the transfer of uncertificated shares from the date the demand for their payment is received until the proposed corporate action is taken or the restrictions released under Code Section 14-2-1326.

- (b) The offer of payment must be accompanied by:
 - (1) The corporation's balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than 16 months before the date of payment, an income statement for that year, a statement of changes in shareholders' equity for that year, and the latest available interim financial statements, if any;
 - (2) A statement of the corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares;
 - (3) An explanation of how the interest was calculated;
 - (4) A statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment under Code Section 14-2-1327; and
 - (5) A copy of this article.

(c) If the shareholder accepts the corporation's offer by written notice to the corporation within 30 days after the corporation's offer or is deemed to have accepted such offer by failure to respond within said 30 days, payment for his or her shares shall be made within 60 days after the making of the offer or the taking of the proposed corporate action, whichever is later. (Code 1981, § 14-2-1325, enacted by Ga. L. 1988, p. 1070, § 1; Ga. L. 1989, p. 946, § 59; Ga. L. 1993, p. 1231, § 18.)

B-4

14-2-1326. Failure to take action.

(a) If the corporation does not take the proposed action within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment and depositing share certificates, the corporation shall return the deposited certificates and release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares.

(b) If, after returning deposited certificates and releasing transfer restrictions, the corporation takes the proposed action, it must send a new dissenters' notice under Code Section 14-2-1322 and repeat the payment demand procedure. (Code 1981, § 14-2-1326, enacted by Ga. L. 1988, p. 1070, § 1; Ga. L. 1990, p. 257, § 20.)

14-2-1327. Procedure if shareholder dissatisfied with payment or offer.

(a) A dissenter may notify the corporation in writing of his own estimate of the fair value of his shares and amount of interest due, and demand payment of his estimate of the fair value of his shares and interest due, if:

(1) The dissenter believes that the amount offered under Code Section 14-2-1325 is less than the fair value of his shares or that the interest due is incorrectly calculated; or

(2) The corporation, having failed to take the proposed action, does not return the deposited certificates or release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment.

(b) A dissenter waives his or her right to demand payment under this Code section and is deemed to have accepted the corporation's offer unless he or she notifies the corporation of his or her demand in writing under subsection (a) of this Code section within 30 days after the corporation offered payment for his or her shares, as provided in Code Section 14-2-1325.

(c) If the corporation does not offer payment within the time set forth in subsection (a) of Code Section 14-2-1325:

(1) The shareholder may demand the information required under subsection (b) of Code Section 14-2-1325, and the corporation shall provide the information to the shareholder within ten days after receipt of a written demand for the information; and

(2) The shareholder may at any time, subject to the limitations period of Code Section 14-2-1332, notify the corporation of his own estimate of the fair value of his shares and the amount of interest due and demand payment of his estimate of the fair value of his shares and interest due. (Code 1981, § 14-2-1327, enacted by Ga. L. 1988, p. 1070, § 1; Ga. L. 1989, p. 946, § 60; Ga. L. 1990, p. 257, § 21; Ga. L. 1993, p. 1231, § 19.)

14-2-1330. Court action.

(a) If a demand for payment under Code Section 14-2-1327 remains unsettled, the corporation shall commence a proceeding within 60 days after receiving the payment demand and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If the corporation does not commence the proceeding within the 60 day period, it shall pay each dissenter whose demand remains unsettled the amount demanded.

(b) The corporation shall commence the proceeding, which shall be a nonjury equitable valuation proceeding, in the superior court of the county where a corporation's registered office is located. If the surviving corporation is a foreign corporation without a registered office in this state, it shall commence the proceeding in the county in this state where the registered office of the domestic corporation merged with or whose shares were acquired by the foreign corporation was located.

(c) The corporation shall make all dissenters, whether or not residents of this state, whose demands remain unsettled parties to the proceeding, which shall have the effect of an action quasi in rem against their shares. The corporation shall serve a copy of the petition in the proceeding upon each dissenting shareholder who is a resident of this state in the manner provided by law for the service of a summons and complaint, and upon each nonresident dissenting shareholder either by registered or certified mail or statutory overnight delivery or by publication, or in any other manner permitted by law.

(d) The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced under subsection (b) of this Code section is plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers have the powers described in the order appointing them or in any amendment to it. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, Chapter 11 of Title 9, known as the "Georgia Civil Practice Act," applies to any proceeding with respect to dissenters' rights under this chapter.

(e) Each dissenter made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment for the amount which the court finds to be the fair value of his shares, plus interest to the date of judgment. (Code 1981, § 14-2-1330, enacted by Ga. L. 1988, p. 1070, § 1; Ga. L. 1989, p. 946, § 61; Ga. L. 1993, p. 1231, § 20; Ga. L. 2000, p. 1589, § 3.)

(a) The court in an appraisal proceeding commenced under Code Section 14- 2-1330 shall determine all costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court, but not including fees and expenses of attorneys and experts for the respective parties. The court shall assess the costs against the corporation, except that the court may assess the costs against all or some of the dissenters, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds the dissenters acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith in demanding payment under Code Section 14-2-1327.

(b) The court may also assess the fees and expenses of attorneys and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable:

(1) Against the corporation and in favor of any or all dissenters if the court finds the corporation did not substantially comply with the requirements of Code Sections 14-2-1320 through 14-2-1327; or

(2) Against either the corporation or a dissenter, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by this article.

(c) If the court finds that the services of attorneys for any dissenter were of substantial benefit to other dissenters similarly situated, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against the corporation, the court may award to these attorneys reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded the dissenters who were benefited. (Code 1981, § 14-2-1331, enacted by Ga. L. 1988, p. 1070, § 1.)

14-2-1332. Limitation of actions.

No action by any dissenter to enforce dissenters' rights shall be brought more than three years after the corporate action was taken, regardless of whether notice of the corporate action and of the right to dissent was given by the corporation in compliance with the provisions of Code Section 14-2-1320 and Code Section 14-2-1322. (Code 1981, § 14-2-1332, enacted by Ga. L. 1988, p. 1070, § 1.)

PART II.

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

United's Articles of Incorporation, as amended, provide that no director of United shall be personally liable to United or its shareholders for breach of his or her duty of care or other duty as a director, but only to the extent permitted from time to time by the Georgia Business Corporation Code.

United's Bylaws require it to indemnify its directors, officers, employees, and agents against judgments, fines, penalties, amounts paid in settlement, and expenses, including attorney's fees, resulting from various types of legal actions or proceedings instituted by third parties if the actions of the director, officer, employee, or agent being indemnified meet the standards of conduct specified therein.

In addition, United's Bylaws require it to indemnify its directors, officers, employees, and agents for expenses actually and reasonably incurred in connection with legal actions or proceedings instituted by or in the right of United to procure a judgment in its favor, if the actions of the director, officer, employee, or agent being indemnified meet the standards of conduct set forth therein. However, United will not indemnify a director, officer, employee, or agent for such expenses if such person is adjudged liable to United, unless so ordered by the court in which the legal action or proceeding is brought.

A determination concerning whether or not the applicable standard of conduct has been met by a director, officer, employee, or agent seeking indemnification must be made by (1) a disinterested majority of the board of directors, (2) United's legal counsel, if a quorum of disinterested directors is not obtainable or if the disinterested directors so order, or (3) an affirmative vote of a majority of shares held by the shareholders. No indemnification may be made to or on behalf of a director, officer, employee or agent in connection with any other proceeding in which such person was adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by him or her.

As provided under Georgia law, the liability of a director may not be eliminated or limited (1) for any appropriation, in violation of his duties, of any business opportunity of United, (2) for acts or omissions which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (3) for unlawful corporate distributions, or (4) for any transaction from which the director received an improper benefit.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to United's directors, officers and controlling persons pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, United has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable.

United's directors and officers are insured against losses arising from any claim against them as such for wrongful acts or omissions, subject to certain limitations.

Item 22. Undertakings

- (a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at the time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to deliver or cause to be delivered with the prospectus, to each person to whom the prospectus is sent or given, the latest annual report to security holders that is incorporated by reference in the prospectus and furnished pursuant to and meeting the requirements of Rule 14a-3 or Rule 14c-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; and, where interim financial information required to be presented by Article 3 of Regulation S-X is not set forth in the prospectus, to deliver, or cause to be delivered to each person to whom the prospectus is sent or given, the latest quarterly report that is specifically incorporated by reference in the prospectus to provide such interim financial information.
- (c) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.
- (d) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (a) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (e) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11, or 13 of this Form S-4, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.
- (f) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.

(g) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
