Held through "contrats de capitalization," a form of life insurance program for the benefit of the reporting person's three minor children,
(1) where the reporting person maintains investment control over the Microsoft shares held in the program. The reporting person disclaims beneficial ownership of these securities, except to the extent of his pecuniary interest therein.

The reporting person is the Settlor of the Trust and not a Trustee or beneficiary of the Trust. The reporting person therefore disclaims

Held through "contrats d'assurance vie," a form of life insurance program, where the reporting person maintains investment control over
(3) the Microsoft shares held in the program. Beneficiaries of the program include the reporting person's minor children. The reporting person disclaims beneficial ownership of these securities, except to the extent of his pecuniary interest therein.

On November 10, 2004, the Trust entered into an equity swap agreement with a securities broker covering 722,912 Microsoft shares (the "Shares") under which, on the expiration date of the agreement (May 16, 2005), one of the following will occur: (i) if the market price of Microsoft stock on the expiration date is above $29.72, the broker will pay the Trust an amount equal to the difference between the market price and $29.72 multiplied by the number of Shares; (ii) if the market price of Microsoft stock on the expiration date is below
(4) $29.72, the Trust will pay the broker an amount equal to the difference between $29.72 and the market price multiplied by the number of Shares; or (iii) if the market price on the expiration date equals $29.72, no payment will be made by either party. An amount equal to any dividends payable on the Shares during the term of the agreement will be paid in cash by the broker to the Trust, less applicable withholding taxes.

(5) During the term of the agreement, the Trust will pay the broker a fee equal to the 3-month USD LIBOR rate plus 10 basis points multiplied by the value of the Shares.
