Employment Agreements. The Company entered into employment agreements with Ms. Sherman and Messrs. McQueen, Rietheimer and DeRentis in December 2000, and with Ms. Simmons in September 2004, which provide that during the term of the contract, their base salary will not be reduced and they will remain eligible for participation in the Company's executive compensation and benefit programs.

Ms. Sherman's agreement provides for a three-year term, which automatically renews for successive three-year terms on each successive one-year anniversary unless either party has given the other party written notice of election not to extend the term at least 90 days prior to any anniversary date. In the event Ms. Sherman's employment is terminated by the Company without cause or Ms. Sherman terminates her employment for Good Reason, the Company must pay her a lump sum severance payment equal to 2.99 times the sum of (i) her annual base salary as in effect at the time of termination and (ii) an amount equal to the average executive cash bonus earned by Ms. Sherman in the two full fiscal years immediately preceding the year in which termination occurs, and continue to pay for all medical and life insurance coverage for 36 months. Ms. Sherman is also allowed continued use of the automobile provided to her in her agreement (with an option to purchase). In addition, any options which are exercisable on the date of termination shall not terminate until the earlier of their expiration or three years after the date of termination. Good Reason is defined in Ms. Sherman's agreement as (i) a significant reduction in the nature or scope of her duties, responsibilities, authority and powers; (ii) any requirement that she perform her duties at a location more than 50 miles from where she currently performs her duties; or (iii) failure of the Company either to renew the agreement or enter into a new agreement on terms not less favorable than those existing immediately prior to such nonrenewal (other than a reduction of fringe benefits required by law or applicable to all employees generally).

In the event of a Terminating Event within one year of a Change in Control, Ms. Sherman is entitled to receive as severance an amount equal to 2.99 times the sum of (i) her annual base salary in effect at the time of the Change in Control plus (ii) the amount of the largest annual bonus paid to Ms. Sherman in the three years preceding the Change in Control, payable in a lump sum. In addition, Ms. Sherman is entitled to receive continuing medical and life insurance benefits and use of the automobile provided to her in the agreement (with an option to purchase), for three years. All options vest upon a Change in Control and remain exercisable for such three-year period. A Terminating Event for this purpose means either (a) termination of employment for any reason other than for cause or (b) resignation, death or disability following (i) a Takeover Transaction or (ii) a Change in Control resulting from a new Board supermajority, in either case, prior to the first anniversary of the Takeover Transaction or Change in Control.

The agreements with Messrs. McQueen, Riethermer and DeRentis and Ms. Simmons provide for a two-year term, which automatically renews for successive two-year terms on each successive one year anniversary unless either party has given the other party written notice of election not to renew at least 90 days prior to any anniversary date. According the agreements with Messrs. McQueen, Riethermer and DeRentis, if the Company terminates the employment relationship without cause or the executive terminates their employment for Good Reason, the executive would be entitled to continuance of his base salary and all medical and life insurance coverage for 18 months following the date of termination. Under the terms of the agreement with Ms. Simmons, the term of such continuance of base salary and medical and life insurance coverage is nine months following the date of termination. Messrs. DeRentis and McQueen forfeit their severance payments in the event that within one year of the date of termination they accept certain types of positions as specified in their agreements. In the event Ms. Simmons commences other full-time employment within her severance period, her severance will be reduced by the amount of compensation she receives from such employment, and she will forfeit all medical and life insurance coverage. Good Reason is defined in the agreements of Messrs. Riethermer, McQueen, DeRentis and Ms. Sherman as the Company's failure to renew the agreement on any anniversary date or enter into a new employment agreement on substantially similar terms.

The agreements with Messrs. McQueen, Riethermer, DeRentis and Ms. Simmons provide that in the event of a Terminating Event within one year of a Change in Control, the executive is entitled to receive a severance benefit equal to two times the sum of (i) his annual base salary in effect at the time of the Change in Control, and (ii) an amount equal to the largest executive cash bonus earned by the executive in the two years preceding the Change in Control, payable in a lump sum. In addition, each executive shall continue to receive medical and life insurance coverage for the 24 months commencing on the date of the Terminating Event. A Terminating Event means for this purpose either (a) termination of employment for any reason other than death, disability or for cause or (b) resignation following (i) a significant reduction in the nature or scope of the executive's duties, responsibilities, authority and powers from those exercised prior to the Change in Control, (ii) a greater than 10% reduction in the executive's annual base salary or fringe benefits (other than across-the-board salary reductions or changes in fringe benefit plans), (iii) a requirement that the executive perform duties at a location more than 50 miles from the location where such duties were performed prior to the Change in Control, or (iv) failure of any successor of the Company to continue the executive's employment on substantially similar employment terms.

If payments under the employment agreements following a Change in Control are subject to the golden parachute excise tax, the Company will make a gross-up payment sufficient to ensure that the net after-tax amount retained by the executive (taking into account all taxes, including those on the gross-up payment) is the same as if such excise tax had not applied.

For purposes of all of the agreements, a Change in Control will be deemed to have occurred if: (1) the Company effectuates a Takeover Transaction; or (2) the Company commences substantive negotiations with a third party with respect to a Takeover Transaction, if within 12 months of the commencement of such negotiations, the Company enters into a definitive agreement with respect to a Takeover Transaction with any party with which negotiations were originally commenced; or (3) any election of directors of the Company (whether by the directors then in office or by the shareholders at a meeting or by written consent) where a majority of the directors in office following such election are individuals who were not nominated by a vote of two-thirds of the members of the Board of Directors immediately preceding such election; or

(4) the Company effectuates a complete liquidation of the Company or the Bank.

A Takeover Transaction for this purpose means a (i) reorganization, merger, acquisition or consolidation of the Company or the Bank with, or an acquisition of the Company or the Bank or all or substantially all of the Company's or the Bank's assets by, any other bank or corporation, in which the individuals and entities who were the beneficial owners (as defined in Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act) immediately prior to such reorganization, merger, acquisition or consolidation, do not, following such reorganization, merger, acquisition or consolidation, beneficially own more than 50% of the voting power of the corporation resulting from the reorganization, merger, acquisition or consolidation, (ii) the issuance of additional shares of the Company or the Bank if the individuals or entities who were the beneficial owners of the outstanding voting securities of the Company or the Bank immediately prior to such issuance do not, following such issuance, beneficially own securities representing more than 50% of the voting power of the Company or the Bank or (iii) when any person or entity or group of persons or entities (other than the Company or any trustee or other fiduciary holding securities under an employee benefit plan of the Company) either related or acting in concert becomes the beneficial owner of securities of the Company representing more than 30% of the voting power of all outstanding shares of voting securities of the Company, other than a person who was already a 30% beneficial owner as of the date on which the executive's employment with the Company commenced.

401(k) Retirement Plan. The Company maintains a 401(k) Plan which qualifies as a tax-exempt plan and trust under sections 401 and 501 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Generally, Company employees who are at least 21 years of age and have completed at least one year of service with the Company, are eligible to participate in the 401(k) Plan. Under the 401(k) Plan the Company will make matching contributions of up to 4% of an employee's compensation, subject to qualified plan limitations. These contributions are vested monthly.

Nonqualified Deferred Compensation Plan. The Company maintains a nonqualified deferred compensation plan under which certain participants may contribute the amounts they are precluded from contributing to the Company's 401(k) Plan because of the qualified plan limitations, and additional compensation deferrals which may be advantageous for personal income tax or other planning reasons. In addition, under the deferred compensation plan participants receive an amount of employer matching contributions that they have lost under the Company's 401(k) Plan as a result of the nondiscrimination rules applicable to qualified plans. All amounts contributed by the participant and by the Company under the plan are immediately vested. Any excess contributions which cannot be contributed under the 401(k) Plan and which would otherwise be returned to the participant at the end of the year, plus the amount of any supplemental deferrals the participant may choose to make, and any matching contributions provided for under the plan are credited to a deferred compensation account (a bookkeeping account) which is credited with interest at a rate equal to the greater of the Baa1 30-year corporate bond index, or the Company's projected rate of return on average earning assets as reflected in its budget for such year.

Participants are entitled to receive a distribution of their account upon retirement, death, disability or termination of employment except that any amounts attributable to employer contributions under the nonqualified plan are subject to forfeiture if the participant is terminated for fraud, dishonesty or willful violation of any law that is committed in connection with the participant's employment. A participant is eligible to withdraw amounts credited to the deferred compensation account in the event of unforeseeable financial hardship.

The amount deferred under the plan is not includible in the income of the participant until paid and, correspondingly, the Company is not entitled to a deduction for any liabilities established under the plan until the amount credited to the participant's deferred compensation account is paid to him or her.

The amount credited to the deferred compensation account is not funded or otherwise set aside or secure from the creditors of the Company and the participant is subject to the risk that deferred compensation may not be paid in the event of the Company's insolvency or the Company is otherwise unable to satisfy the obligation. The plan permits (but does not require) the Company to establish a grantor trust for the purpose of funding the plan. If such a trust were created, the corpus of the trust would, under current federal income tax regulations, have to be available to creditors of the Company in the event of insolvency or bankruptcy in order to prevent adverse income tax consequences to the participant.

Supplemental Executive Retirement Plans. The Company has adopted two Supplemental Executive Retirement Plans (each a SERP) for certain of its senior executives under which participants designated by the Board are entitled to an annual retirement benefit. Currently, Ms. Sherman and Messrs. Rietheimer, McQueen and DeRentis (collectively, the 2000 SERP Participants) are the only participants in the 2000 SERP. The annual retirement benefit under the 2000 SERP is $250,000 for Ms. Sherman, $50,000 for Messrs. Rietheimer and McQueen and $35,000 for Mr. DeRentis and is payable upon the later of the executive attaining age 65 or the executive's retirement. Under the 2002 SERP, effective November 1, 2002, the 2000 SERP Participants are entitled to a supplemental retirement benefit which, when added to the annual retirement benefit provided under the 2000 SERP, would provide an aggregate annual retirement benefit equal to 70% of compensation, reduced by the employer contribution under the 401(k) plan and any social security offset. Under the SERPs, the Company will also provide a pre-retirement death benefit equal to the projected age 65 accrual balance and a post-retirement death benefit for the participant equal to the accrual balance at the date of the SERP participant's death, provided that Ms. Sherman's additional pre-retirement death benefit under the 2002 SERP is limited to her accrual balance at date of death under the 2002 SERP. On January 20, 2005, the 2002 SERP was amended to provide Ms. Simmons a $50,000 annual retirement benefit with a pre-retirement death benefit equal to the projected age 65 accrual balance and a post-retirement death benefit equal to the accrual balance at the date of the her death. The pre-retirement and post-retirement death benefits (other than Ms. Sherman's additional death benefit under the 2002 SERP) are funded through life insurance policies on the lives of the SERP participants purchased and owned by the Bank, which contain a split dollar endorsement in favor of the SERP participants.

The benefit for each current 2000 SERP Participants is fully vested. The benefits under the 2002 SERP vest beginning on November 1, 2005 in the case of Ms. Sherman, November 1, 2008 for Messrs. Rietheimer, McQueen and DeRentis and November 1, 2010 for Ms. Simmons. Benefits under the 2002 SERP vest in 20% increments such that the accrual balance would be fully vested on the fourth anniversary of the first vesting date. Thus, if an executive left at end of the vesting period, he or she would be 100% vested in their 2002 SERP accrual balance (i.e., the amount the Company has accrued to reflect the liability), but not the full benefit, resulting in a reduced retirement benefit in the event of early retirement. The executive is required to remain employed at the Company until age 65 to get the full 2002 SERP benefit. The full benefit will vest immediately upon death. In addition, in the event of a Change of Control, Ms. Sherman and Messrs. Rietheimer, McQueen and DeRentis become fully vested in the greater of (i) the retirement benefit calculated in accordance with the 70% formula described above or (ii) a specific annual Change of Control Benefit Amount, which is intended to approximate the formula amount. The current Change of Control Benefit Amount is $131,034 for Ms. Sherman, $190,850 for Mr. DeRentis, $193,953 for Mr. McQueen, and $168,179 for Mr. Rietheimer. In the case of Ms. Simmons, in the event of a Change of Control, she will become fully vested in the $50,000 annual benefit.

The SERPs are unfunded but provide that upon a Change in Control, the Company must deposit funds in a trust equal to the present value of all accrued benefits provided under both SERPs and thereafter make annual additional deposits to reflect any increases in the accrued benefits. All benefits are forfeited in the event that the participant's employment is terminated on account of a criminal act of fraud, misappropriation, embezzlement or a felony that involves property of the Company.
