ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

To Be Held May 5, 2006

This proxy statement is being furnished to stockholders by the Board of Directors (the Board) of Hudson Highland Group, Inc. (the Company) beginning on or about April 3, 2006, in connection with a solicitation of proxies by the Board for use at the annual meeting of stockholders to be held on Friday, May 5, 2006, at 8:00 A.M., local time, at the Hudson Highland Group, Inc. Corporate Headquarters, 622 Third Avenue, between 40th and 41st Street, 38th Floor, New York, New York 10017, and all adjournments or postponements thereof (the Annual Meeting) for the purposes set forth in the attached Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

Execution of a proxy given in response to this solicitation will not affect a stockholder's right to attend the Annual Meeting and to vote in person. Presence at the Annual Meeting of a stockholder who has signed a proxy does not in itself revoke a proxy. Any stockholder giving a proxy may revoke it at any time before it is exercised by giving notice thereof to the Company in writing or in open meeting.

A proxy, in the enclosed form, which is properly executed, duly returned to the Company and not revoked, will be voted in accordance with the instructions contained therein. The shares represented by executed, but unmarked, proxies will be voted FOR the two nominees for election as directors referred to in this proxy statement and FOR the ratification of the appointment of BDO Seidman, LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2006. The Company's management knows of no matters other than those set forth in the Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be brought before the Annual Meeting. However, if any other business or matters properly shall come before the Annual Meeting, then the persons named as proxies in the enclosed form of proxy will vote the shares represented by each such proxy in accordance with their judgment on such matters.

Only holders of record of the Company's common stock (the Common Stock) at the close of business on March 15, 2006 are entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Company's Certificate of Incorporation and By-Laws provide that the Company's directors are divided into three classes, with staggered terms of three years each. At the Annual Meeting, the stockholders will elect two directors to hold office until the 2009 annual meeting of stockholders and until their successors are duly elected and qualified. Unless stockholders otherwise specify, the shares represented by the proxies received will be voted in favor of the election as directors of the persons named as nominees herein. The Board has no reason to believe that the listed nominees will be unable or unwilling to serve as directors if elected. However, in the event that any nominee should be unable to serve or will not serve, the shares represented by proxies received will be voted for another nominee selected by the Board. Each director will be elected by a plurality of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting (assuming a quorum is present). Consequently, any shares not voted at the Annual Meeting, whether due to abstentions, broker non-votes or otherwise, will have no impact on the election of the directors.

Listed below are the nominees of the Board of Directors for election at the Annual Meeting and each director of the Company whose term will continue after the Annual Meeting. The following sets forth certain information about each nominee and continuing director as of March 15, 2006. Nicholas G. Moore, currently a director of the Company, will be resigning as a director effective as of the Annual Meeting.

Table of Contents

The Compensation Committee's basic responsibility is to assure that the non-employee members of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, other executive officers and key management of the Company are compensated effectively in a manner consistent with the stated compensation strategy of the Company, internal equity considerations, competitive practices, and the requirements of the appropriate regulatory bodies. In looking at the qualifications of each candidate to determine if their election would further the goals described above, the Nominating and Governance Committee takes into account all factors it considers appropriate, which may include strength of character, mature judgment, career specialization, relevant technical skills or financial acumen, diversity of viewpoint and industry knowledge. At a minimum, each director nominee must have displayed the highest personal and professional ethics, integrity and values, and sound business judgment. A director must have sufficient time available to devote to activities of the Board of Directors and to enhance his or her knowledge of the Company's business.

The Nominating and Governance Committee will consider persons recommended by stockholders to become nominees for election as directors in accordance with the foregoing and other criteria set forth in the Company's Nominating and Governance Committee Charter. Recommendations for consideration by the Nominating and Governance Committee should be sent to the Corporate Secretary of the Company in writing together with appropriate biographical information concerning each proposed nominee. With respect to an election of directors to be held at an annual meeting, a stockholder must, among other things, give notice of an intent to make such a nomination to the Corporate Secretary of the Company in advance of the meeting in compliance with the terms and within the time period specified in the By-Laws. The Executive Committee presently consists of Jon F. Chait (Chairperson), Robert B. Dubner and David G. Offensend. The Executive Committee held no meetings in 2005.

Table of Contents

Agreements with Named Executive Officers

The Company has Executive Employment Agreements (the Employment Agreements) with each of the Company's executive officers, including the named executive officers (other than Mr. Chait and Mr. Pehlke). Pursuant to the Employment Agreements, the Company agrees to employ each of the executives for one-year terms, with automatic, annual extensions of additional one-year terms. Under the Employment Agreements, the executives are entitled to (i) an annual base salary ($350,000 for Ms. Raymond, $275,000 for Ms. Noonan, $265,000 for Mr. Williams, $250,000 for Mr. Harris and $275,000 for Mr. Bielinski); (ii) eligibility to receive an annual bonus as provided in the Company's senior management bonus plan; (iii) other benefits of employment comparable to other senior management; and (iv) four weeks of vacation per year. entitled to a signing bonus of $150,000, which was paid in early 2006 on the same date as the Company paid bonuses for 2005 to other executives, and is entitled to an allowance for housing in New York. The Company has the right to terminate the executive's employment at any time. If the Company terminates the executive's employment without cause (as defined in the Employment Agreements) or, in the case of Ms. Raymond only, does not renew Ms. Raymond's employment, then, subject to the executive executing the Company's then current form of separation agreement and general release, the executive will be entitled to receive a severance payment equal to one year of his or her then current base salary, plus the Company's portion of the premiums for providing continued health and dental insurance benefits to the executive for twelve months after termination (with only the executive's portion of such premiums deducted from the executive's severance payment). After a change in control of the Company (as defined in the Employment Agreements), if the executive's employment is terminated by the Company other than by reason of death, disability or for cause (as defined in the Employment Agreements) or by the executive for good reason (as defined in the Employment Agreements), then the executive is entitled to a cash termination payment equal to the executive's annual base salary immediately prior to termination and the executive's target annual bonus under the Company's senior management bonus plan for the year in which the termination occurs, plus health and dental insurance benefits for a period of up to twelve months after termination. The Employment Agreements provide that, subject to limited exceptions, if the payments under the Employment Agreements or under any other agreement with or plan of the Company are excess parachute payments for purposes of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code), then the Company will pay the executive the amount necessary to offset the 20% excise tax imposed by the Code and any additional taxes on this payment. In connection with entering into the Employment Agreements, the executives also executed confidentiality, non-solicitation and work product assignment agreements with the Company.

The Company has an Executive Excise Tax Gross-Up Agreement (the Gross-Up Agreement) with Mr. Chait. The Gross-Up Agreement provides that, after a change in control of the Company (as defined in the Gross-Up Agreement), if Mr. Chait's employment is terminated by the Company other than by reason of death, disability or for cause (as defined in the Gross-Up Agreement) or by Mr. Chait for good reason (as defined in the Gross-Up Agreement), subject to limited exceptions, and the payments under the Gross-Up Agreement or under any other agreement with or plan of the Company are excess parachute payments for purposes of the Code, then the Company will pay Mr. Chait the amount necessary to offset the 20% excise tax imposed by the Code and any additional taxes on this payment.

On June 14, 2005, the Company entered into an Executive Agreement (the Executive Agreement) with Mr. Pehlke pursuant to which he resigned as Chief Financial Officer effective December 1, 2005 and as Executive Vice President effective December 31, 2005 (the Departure Date). Under the Executive Agreement, Mr. Pehlke was entitled to the same compensation and benefits in effect prior to the date of the Executive Agreement while he was employed by the Company during 2005. Pursuant to the Executive Agreement, on the Departure Date, the Company paid to Mr. Pehlke $500,000 and any unused balance of Mr. Pehlke's $25,000 financial planning allowance. After the Departure Date, the Agreement provides that Mr. Pehlke will be a consulting employee until the earliest of (i) December 31, 2006, (ii) Mr. Pehlke's death, (iii) Mr. Pehlke's resignation or (iv) Mr. Pehlke's termination by the Company for cause (as defined in the Executive Agreement). During such consulting period, Mr. Pehlke will provide long-range and strategic planning services for the Company and will be eligible for participation in the Company's standard employee benefit plans and fringe benefits and receive $20,000 in compensation per month. After such consulting period, Mr. Pehlke will be eligible for COBRA continuation for his medical and dental plans, and if he elects COBRA continuation, the Company will pay for this coverage for up to 18 months. After such 18-month period, the Company will make comparable medical and dental coverage available to Mr. Pehlke at no cost for an additional six months. Under the Agreement, Mr. Pehlke agreed that for 12 months after the consulting period he will not work on any business combination proposals involving the Company or solicit Company employees for employment and will keep confidential information regarding the Company. Pursuant to the Agreement, Mr. Pehlke provided the Company and its affiliates a general liability release.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation Committee of the Board is composed solely of non-employee directors who meet the independence requirements of Nasdaq and qualify as outside directors under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. The Compensation Committee is responsible for all aspects of the compensation arrangements for the Company's executive officers, including the named executive officers. The Compensation Committee works with independent compensation consultants it retains, and management, to develop the Company's overall compensation philosophy and the specific program provided for the Company's executive officers.

Compensation Philosophy

The central objective of the Compensation Committee's compensation philosophy is to attract and retain the talented individuals needed to achieve long-term success, and to incent them to achieve goals expected to enhance long-term shareholder value. The Committee believes these goals can best be accomplished with a relatively simple and easy-to-understand mix of components. The key executive compensation policies that underpin the philosophy are as follows:

Base salaries, equity grants and benefit programs are targeted at median market levels for comparable companies.

Cash incentives (bonuses) are designed to provide awards above median market levels for comparable companies for above median performance.

Consequently, the Company's executive officers should have the opportunity to earn above median compensation for outstanding performance both from above median bonuses and from above median appreciation of equity grants resulting from above median company performance.

Application for 2005

In 2005, the Committee continued to apply its compensation policies consistent with past practice. As in the past, cash bonuses were awarded based on the Company's financial performance relative to targets set at the beginning of the year. Bonuses for corporate officers were a function of the Company's actual Earnings Before Interest, Taxes, Depreciation and Amortization (EBITDA) relative to target EBITDA. Bonuses for executives with regional responsibilities were a function of EBITDA both for their respective region and for the Company as a whole, in each case relative to target. For 2005, the Company exceeded performance targets and therefore awarded above their target bonus amounts. Mr. Chait, the Company's Chief Executive Officer, received a bonus of $592,000 for the same reason. For the 2006 bonus formula, the target measurement will be changed from EBITDA to EBIT. This change is intended to provide more direct accountability by the heads of the business units for their own capital spending leading to depreciation and amortization.

During 2005, the Committee, with the assistance of the independent compensation consultants it retains, reviewed the market positioning of cash compensation (both salary and bonus) for all executive officers. Based on a review of this market research, the Committee concluded that all executive officers (with one exception who, accordingly, received a salary increase) are receiving appropriate cash compensation in accordance with our stated philosophy. There was no change to the base salary for Mr. Chait. Of the other named executive officers, only Ms. Noonan received a base salary adjustment due to her promotion at the beginning of the year to the Company's Chief Administrative Officer.

As discussed in last year's Committee report, in January 2005, the Committee, with the assistance of its independent compensation consultant, reviewed the market positioning of the equity incentives for all executive officers and determined that the Company's equity incentives were significantly below those of most comparable companies. Accordingly, in January 2005, the Committee granted options to purchase 627,000 shares of

Common Stock to the Company's executive officers, including a grant of 280,000 shares of Common Stock to Mr. Chait. Several of the Company's most senior executive officers who received these grants, including Mr. Chait and all of the named executive officers at that time understood that the Committee did not expect (at that time) to grant additional equity awards to them over the three following years. Additionally, the Committee anticipated (at that time) that total equity grants for all employees would be limited to approximately 2% annually of total shares outstanding over this three-year period. Accordingly, with the exception of Ms. Raymond and Mr. Bielinski who became executive officers after January 2005, none of Mr. Chait or the other named executive officers have received any equity awards since January 2005.

In addition to base salary, bonuses and equity awards, the Company has an objective to provide its employees, including its executive officers, with benefits comparable to those provided by comparable companies. The company provides its employees with customary health care benefits and offers a defined contribution plan in lieu of a pension plan. In addition, the Company has a deferred compensation plan which enables the Company's executive officers to defer up to 25% of their base salaries and up to 100% of cash bonuses. In addition to benefits provided to all company executives, Mr. Chait receives a per diem stipend when staying over night on business in New York City (where he owns a residence) in lieu of staying in a hotel, and he is entitled to travel first class on commercial airlines while traveling on Company business. Ms. Raymond is also entitled to a housing allowance in New York.

In connection with the Long Term Incentive Plan, the Company endorses the policy that stock ownership by management is an important factor in aligning the interests of management and stockholders. The Company has adopted stock ownership guidelines that are intended to encourage stock ownership by management. Under these guidelines, executive management personnel are expected to own shares of Common Stock with a specified value equal to 100% of their respective base salaries. These share ownership requirements may be met over a period of five years. The Committee will consider an individual's compliance with the stock ownership guidelines in determining the size of future equity-based grants. As of March 15, 2006, Mr. Chait owned in excess of 200,000 shares of Common Stock, thereby exceeding these share ownership requirements.

Under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, the tax deduction by corporate taxpayers, such as the Company, is limited with respect to the compensation of certain executive officers unless such compensation is based upon the performance objectives meeting certain regulatory criteria or is otherwise excluded from the limitation. The Compensation Committee currently intends, in all appropriate circumstances, to qualify compensation paid to the Company's executive officers for deductibility by the Company under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The Committee's function is more fully described in its written charter, which the Board has adopted and which the Committee reviews on an annual basis. The Company's independent registered public accounting firm, BDO Seidman, LLP, is responsible for performing an independent audit of the consolidated financial statements and management's assessment of internal control over financial reporting. BDO Seidman, LLP is also responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles and management's assessment of internal control over financial reporting and the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting.

The Committee has reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements of the Company for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005 and management's assessment of internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2005, with the Company's management and has discussed with BDO Seidman, LLP the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards Board Standard No. 61, as amended, Communication with Audit Committees. In addition, BDO Seidman, LLP has provided the Audit Committee with the written disclosures and the letter required by the Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, and the Audit Committee has discussed with BDO Seidman, LLP their independence.

Based on these reviews and discussions, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements and management's report on its assessment of internal control over financial reporting be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Vote Required

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares having voting power present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting (assuming a quorum is present) is required for approval of the ratification of the resolution appointing BDO Seidman, LLP, as independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year 2006. Consequently, broker non-votes will have no impact on the approval of ratification of the resolution, but abstentions will act as a vote against approval of the ratification of the resolution. Unless otherwise specified, the proxies solicited hereby will be voted in favor of the above proposal. If the appointment is not ratified by a majority of the votes cast, the adverse vote will be considered as an indication to the Audit Committee that it should consider selecting another independent registered public accounting firm for the following fiscal year. Even if the selection is ratified, the Audit Committee, in its discretion, may select a new independent registered public accounting firm at any time during the year if it feels that such a change would be in the best interest of the Company.

THE BOARD RECOMMENDS EACH STOCKHOLDER VOTE FOR THE RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF BDO SEIDMAN, LLP AS INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM TO AUDIT THE COMPANY'S FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND MANAGEMENT'S ASSESSMENT OF INTERNAL CONTROLS OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING FOR THE FISCAL YEAR 2006.
