Yes No

This Form 6-K contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 as amended, and information that is based on management's beliefs as well as assumptions made by and information currently available to management. When used in this Form 6-K, the words anticipate, approach, begin, believe, continue, expect, forecast, going forward, improved, likely, look for, outlook, plans, potential, proposal, should and would and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements necessarily make assumptions, some of which are inherently subject to uncertainties and contingencies that are beyond the Company's control. Should one or more of these uncertainties materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those anticipated, expected, estimated or projected. Specifically, the ability of the Company to realize its ongoing commitment to increasing shareholder value through its ongoing restructuring, asset dispositions, strategic review and implementation, and cost cutting initiatives, may be affected by many factors including: uncertainties and contingencies such as economic conditions both in the world and in those areas where the Company has or will have substantial operations; foreign currency exchange rates; pricing pressures on products produced by its subsidiaries; growth prospects; positioning of its business segments; future production output capacity; and the success of the Company's business strategies, including further structural and operational changes, business dispositions, internal reorganizations, cost cutting, and consolidations.

ANSELL UPDATES MARKET ON UNIMIL BID

On 4 July 2006 Ansell Limited (ASX:ANN) announced it had made a tender offer for all the shares of the Polish listed company Unimil S.A., subject to receiving 80% acceptance. Ansell's tender offer expired on 11 August 2006 and the 80% acceptance condition was not met. Therefore, Ansell has not concluded the proposed transaction.

Ansell remains vigilant in its pursuit of value creating acquisition opportunities said Doug Tough, Ansell's CEO. We are disappointed that our tender offer, which we considered to represent a fair valuation of the business and a credible offer of positive value to all Unimil shareholders, did not reach our targeted acceptance level. We will continue to pursue other opportunities around the globe on behalf of Ansell's shareholders.
