2 Analysis and Opinion of the Sponsor with respect to the Consideration(1) Average Consideration on the Market

Based on statistics from WIND, as at the end of November 2007, the consideration paid in form of bonus shares by companies with Circulating A Shares that had completed their share reforms is on an average of 2.87 shares for every 10 shares.

As at the end of November 2007, those companies listed in the Shanghai-Shenzhen 300 Index that had completed their share reforms by paying consideration in form of bonus shares paid an average consideration of 2.61 shares for every 10 shares.

As at the end of November 2007, those listed oil refining and coking companies that had completed their share reforms had paid an average consideration of 2.56 shares for every 10 shares.

(2) Determination of the Proposal

Being one of the blue chips with considerable market capitalization in China, the Company has made reference to the overall average consideration paid by companies that had completed share reforms, particularly the average consideration paid by the large-scale blue chip companies and the listed oil refining and coking companies, prior to making an ultimate determination that all Holders of Circulating A Shares will receive from Sinopec Corporation 3.2 shares for every 10 shares in their possession under the Proposal.

Table of Contents

(3) Analysis on the Value of the Consideration

The Sponsor is of the opinion that:

- (i) If the Proposal is adopted at the Relevant Shareholders Meeting, and on the condition that the Holders of Circulating A Shares whose names appear on the registry of SD&C on the Registration Date for the Implementation of the Proposal are not required to pay, whether in cash or otherwise, for the Consideration, the number of Circulating A Shares held by them in Sinopec Shanghai will be increased by 32%.
- (ii) After the implementation of the Proposal, the Consideration effectively received by Holders of Circulating A Shares is reasonable and the interests of the Holders of Circulating A Shares will be protected.
- (iii) The fundamental aspects of the Company together with both the current and long-term interests of all the shareholders of the Company have been taken into account when determining the Consideration. The Consideration is beneficial to facilitate the development of the Company and to maintain the market stability and can fully protect the interests of the Holders of Circulating A Shares before and after the share reform.

II. UNDERTAKINGS OF THE HOLDERS OF NON-CIRCULATING SHARES AND WARRANTIES RELATING TO THE FULFILMENT OF THE UNDERTAKEN OBLIGATIONS

1. Undertakings

All Holders of Non-circulating Shares of the Company will observe the laws, rules and regulations and will perform their legal defined obligations.

2. Warranties relating to the Fulfillment of the Obligations under the Undertakings

All the aforementioned warranties have been made by the Holders of Non-circulating Shares based on the their particular situation and in consideration of the interests of the Holders of Circulating A Shares and the prospect of the Company, and thus the Holders of Non-circulating Shares have the full capacity to fulfill their duties thereof. Upon the execution of the Consideration, the undertaking party will engage SD&C to lock up the shares in the Company that are subject to sales restrictions.

3. Statement of the Undertaking Party

Sinopec Corporation will fulfill its undertakings faithfully and honestly and assume the corresponding legal liability. Unless a transferee agrees and is capable to assume the liability under the undertakings, Sinopec Corporation will not transfer the shares in its possession during the lock-up period.

Table of Contents

III. DESCRIPTION OF WHETHER OR NOT SHARES OF THE COMPANY HELD BY HOLDERS OF NON-CIRCULATING SHARES ARE SUBJECT TO ANY TITLE DISPUTE OR HAVE BEEN PLEDGED OR FROZEN

As of the date of execution of this Summary, none of the shares of the Company held by Sinopec Corporation, i.e., the Non-Circulating Share Holder which made the Proposal, is subject to any dispute relating to the title thereof, has been pledged or frozen, or is otherwise incumbent.

IV. POTENTIAL RISKS EXPOSED DURING THE COURSE OF THE SHARE REFORM AND THE SOLUTIONS

1. Unable to timely obtain approval from SASAC

Shares held by the Holders of Non-circulating Shares of the Company consist of the State-owned legal person shares. Pursuant to relevant national laws and regulations, as the implementation of the Proposal will result in a change in the shareholding by the State, the approval of SASAC is required before convening the Relevant Shareholders Meeting. There is a possibility that such approval may not be obtained in time.

Solution: The Board will use its best efforts to assist the holders of the State-owned Non-circulating Shares to obtain the approval from SASAC. If no approval is given by SASAC prior to the commencement of the Internet voting for the Relevant Shareholders Meeting, the Company will postpone the Relevant Shareholders Meeting in accordance with relevant regulations. If the Proposal fails to obtain SASAC's approval eventually, the implementation of the Proposal will not be carried out.

2. Unable to obtain approval at the Relevant Shareholders Meeting

The Proposal shall only become effective upon approval by at least two-thirds of the voting rights held by the shareholders who attend the Relevant Shareholders Meeting and at least two-thirds of the voting rights held by the Holders of Circulating A Shares who attend the Relevant Shareholders Meeting. There is a possibility that such resolution may not be adopted at the Relevant Shareholders Meeting.

Solution: With assistance of the Sponsor, the Company will have sufficient discussions and consultation with the Holders of Circulating A Shares by means of holding investors forums, online roadshows, interview with the institutional investors and individual investors with substantial stake and via other measures. At the same time, the Company will also open and publish a hotline number, fax number and email address so as to solicit opinions from holders of circulating shares on an extensive scale and to further improve the Proposal concurrently so that the Proposal is generally recognized by the Holders of Circulating A Shares.

Table of Contents

3. Fluctuation in the share price of the Company

Due to uncertainty involved in the share price movement, the share reform is likely to trigger fluctuation in the share price which may affect the interests of the Holders of Circulating A Shares of the Company.

Solution: The Company will cause the Holders of Non-circulating Shares to fulfill their undertakings as well as to timely perform their obligations with respect to information disclosure so as to protect, to the fullest extent as possible, the interests of the Holders of Circulating A Shares. In the meantime, the investors are advised that although the Proposal is beneficial to the ongoing development of the Company, the implementation of the Proposal may not necessarily bring immediate growth to both the earnings and investment values of the Company. Investors should be aware of the risks involved in the investment and shall make rational investment decisions based on the information disclosed by the Company.

V. INTERMEDIARIES RETAINED BY THE COMPANY

1. Concluding Opinions of the Sponsor

To the extent that the relevant information and materials provided by the Company and its Holders of Non-circulating Shares are true, accurate and complete, the Sponsor is of the opinion that the implementation of the Proposal will be in compliance with the Several Opinions Concerning Promoting the Reform and Opening as well as the Stable Development of the Equity Capital Market issued by the State Council, the Guiding Opinions Concerning the Share Reform of Listed Companies jointly promulgated by CSRC, SASAC, the Ministry of Finance, the People's Bank of China and the Ministry of Commerce, Measures on Administration of Share Reform of Listed Companies promulgated by CSRC (Zheng Jian Fa [2005] No. 86) together with other relevant laws and regulations, and follows the principles of openness, fair, justice, good faith and voluntariness, and that the Consideration payable by the Holders of Non-circulating Shares to the Holders of Circulating A Shares for acquiring the trading rights of such shares is reasonable. Due to the reasons set forth above, the Sponsor is willing to recommend the Company to carry out the share reform.

2. Concluding Opinions of the Legal Adviser

The Legal Adviser is of the opinion that both Sinopec Shanghai and Sinopec Corporation are qualified to formulate and implement the Proposal and the substance of the Proposal is in compliance with relevant provisions under the Guidelines on the Share Reform by Listed Companies, Regulations on the Administration of the Share Reform by Listed Companies, and Operational Guidelines for the Share Reform of Listed Companies. Nothing contained in the Proposal is in violation of the mandatory provisions of the relevant laws and regulations. The Proposal may be implemented in accordance with the law after adoption by the Relevant Shareholders Meeting and upon completion of other relevant approval procedures.

Amendment to the Share Reform Proposal

The Company and all members of the Board of Directors warrant that the information contained in this announcement is truthful, accurate and complete, jointly accept full responsibility for any false representations or misleading statements contained in, or material omissions from, this announcement.

This announcement is issued pursuant to Rule 13.09(2) of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited.

IMPORTANT NOTES

This Announcement is made by the Board of Directors of Sinopec Shanghai Petrochemical Company Limited (the Company) as authorized by holders of non-circulating shares of the Company.

After thorough consultation with the holders of circulating A shares of the Company, the holders of non-circulating shares of the Company propose to amend certain portions of the Company's share reform proposal that was previously announced on December 17, 2007. Trading of the Company's A shares will be resumed on December 27, 2007.

I. Adjustment of the Share Reform Proposal

Since the share reform proposal was announced on December 17, 2007, China Petroleum & Chemical Corporation (Sinopec), a holder of non-circulating shares of the Company, has, with the assistance of the Company and the Sponsor, conducted extensive consultations with investors by various means, including interviews, online road-shows and by setting up a hotline. Based on the feedback from such consultations, the holder of non-circulating shares of the Company hereby proposes to amend the portion of the Company's share reform proposal relating to the obligations of the holders of non-circulating shares in the following manner:

1. The Original Obligations:

All holders of non-circulating shares of the Company will observe the laws, rules and regulations and will perform their legally defined obligations.

2. The Obligations as now Revised:

- (1) All holders of non-circulating shares of the Company will observe the laws, rules and regulations and will perform their legally defined obligations.

Edgar Filing: SINOPEC SHANGHAI PETROCHEMICAL CO LTD - Form 6-K

- (2) In addition to warranting compliance with the minimum legal requirements, the Company's controlling shareholder, Sinopec, makes the following special covenant: Sinopec shall not offer the non-circulating shares held by it in the Company for sale on the Shanghai Stock Exchange (SSE) for 72 months after the date on which such shares are approved to be circulated on such market.

II. Supplementary Opinions of the Independent Directors

Regarding the amendment to the Company's share reform proposal, each of the Company's independent directors gives his/her supplementary opinion as follows:

I have carefully reviewed the Amended Share Reform Statement of Sinopec Shanghai Petrochemical Company Limited. It is my opinion that the amended share reform proposal accurately reflects the results of consultations among the holders of non-circulating shares of the Company and the holders of circulating A shares of the Company, that the holders of non-circulating shares of the Company have given due respect therein to the rights and interests of the holders of circulating A shares of the Company, that such Amendment will be effective in protecting the interests of the holders of circulating A shares of the Company, and that it will be instrumental in accomplishing the successful reform of the Company's shares.

As an independent director of the Company, I certify that the amendment to the share reform proposal meets the procedural requirements of the relevant regulations. This supplementary opinion in no way affects my previously issued opinions.

III. Supplementary Opinions of the Sponsor

Regarding the amendment to the Company's share reform proposal, the Company's Sponsor for this share reform, CITIC Securities Co., Ltd., gives its supplementary opinion as follows:

The implementation of the share reform proposal complies with the Several Opinions Concerning Promoting the Reform, Opening and Stable Development of the Equity Capital Market issued by the State Council, the Guiding Opinions Concerning the Share Reform of Listed Companies jointly promulgated by the China Securities Regulatory Commission, the State Owned Assets Supervision and Administration Commission, the Ministry of Finance, the People's Bank of China and the Ministry of Commerce the Measures on Administration of the Share Reform of Listed Companies promulgated by the China Securities Regulatory Commission (Zheng Jian Fa [2005] No. 86) together with other relevant laws and regulations, it embodies the principles of openness, fairness and justice, and the Consideration to be paid by the holders of non-circulating shares of the Company in exchange for the trading rights of such shares is reasonable.

As the sponsoring organization and for the reasons set forth above, we are willing to recommend that the Company carry out such share reform.

IV. Supplementary Opinion of the Legal Advisor

With regard to the amendment to the Company's share reform proposal, the Company's legal advisor for this share reform, Haiwen & Partners, gives its supplementary opinion as follows:

After reviewing the Amended Share Reform Statement of Sinopec Shanghai Petrochemical Company Limited, we find that the obligations of the holders of non-circulating shares in the share reform proposal have been amended.

It is our opinion that the substance of the amendment to the share reform proposal is in compliance with the Guidelines on the Share Reform of Listed Companies, the Regulations on the Administration of the Share Reform of Listed Companies, and the Operational Guidelines for the Share Reform of Listed Companies; that nothing contained in the share reform proposal is in a violation of the mandatory provisions of relevant laws and regulations; and that the amended share reform proposal does not damage the interests of the Company or the interests of the Company's H shareholders.

Table of Contents

V. Other Matters Relating to the Revision of the Share Reform Proposal

The amendment to the Company's share reform proposal is based on the suggestions and opinions of the holders of circulating A shares. Such revision does not constitute a change in the basic principles and assumptions underlying the Company's share reform, and does not substantially change the basis of calculating the related consideration or the process of implementing the share reform proposal. The corresponding parts of the share reform proposal have been amended respectively in the Share Reform Statement of Sinopec Shanghai Petrochemical Company Limited and in the summary thereof.

Investors are requested to carefully read the Share Reform Statement of Sinopec Shanghai Petrochemical Company Limited (Amendment) posted on the Shanghai Stock Exchange's website on December 27, 2007.
