Mr. Levine earned his J.D. from Case Western Reserve University School of Law and B.A. from the University of Pennsylvania.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

The federal securities laws require the Company's directors, executive officers, and persons who own more than 10% of the common stock of the Company, to file initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Based solely upon a review of filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Company believes that, with the exception of one report on Form 4 for each of David Kreilein, Emil Vogel and Robert G. Walters that was inadvertently filed late, all of its directors, executive officers and 10% owners complied during fiscal year 2009, with all applicable Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to them.

Code of Ethics for Senior Financial Officers

The Company's Code of Ethics for Senior Financial Officers of the Company is designed to deter wrongdoing and to promote honest and ethical conduct, full and accurate disclosure in periodic reports, and compliance with laws and regulations by the Company's senior officers who have financial responsibilities. Specifically, the Code of Ethics applies to the Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Financial Officer, the Controller, and each of the Finance Directors or their equivalents of the Company's subsidiaries. The Company will provide a copy of the Code of Ethics in print without charge to any Company stockholder who makes a written request to: Corporate Secretary, Q.E.P. Co., Inc., 1001 Broken Sound Parkway NW, Suite A, Boca Raton, Florida 33487. The Company has also posted the Code of Ethics on its website at www.qep.com under the corporate governance section.

Board Committees

Nominating Committee: During fiscal year 2009, there were no material changes to the procedures by which stockholders may recommend nominees to the Company's Board.

Audit Committee: During fiscal 2009, the Audit Committee consisted of David L. Kreilein, Emil Vogel and Robert G. Walters, each of whom is a non-employee director of the Company and each of whom is independent under NASDAQ listing standards. The Board has determined that David L. Kreilein, Chairman of the Audit Committee, is an audit committee financial expert as defined in the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

- (1) The amounts set forth in stock awards and option awards represent the aggregate amount recognized for financial statement reporting purposes for the Named Executive Officers in fiscal 2009 and fiscal 2008. This is computed in accordance with the Statement of Financial Accounting Standard (SFAS) No. 123, as amended by SFAS No. 123(R), "Share-Based Payment". In fiscal 2009, Lewis Gould, Leonard Gould and James Brower forfeited 10,000, 5,000 and 12,000, respectively, of stock appreciation rights that cliff vested and were out-of-the-money. In fiscal 2008, Lewis Gould and Leonard Gould forfeited 10,000 and 5,000, respectively, of stock appreciation rights that cliff vested and were out-of-the-money.
- (2) On November 1, 2007, the Company approved the award of 1,000 shares of restricted stock to Leonard Gould. These restricted stock units fully vested on their one-year anniversary. Upon commencement of his employment with the Company in 2006, Mr. Fleischer was issued an option to purchase shares of Company common stock; the options were cancelled following the termination on August 7, 2008 of Mr. Fleischer's employment with the Company.
- (3) The amounts include the earnings (loss) on the contributions to the Company's Executive Deferred Compensation Plan. Named Executive Officers may elect to defer a portion of their annual base salary and incentive cash bonus. The Company directs the trustees to invest these funds which are held in an irrevocable rabbi trust. The participants in the plan must make an election regarding the payment of their deferred contributions based on the stipulations of the plan.
- (4) The amounts include in fiscal 2009 and fiscal 2008, respectively, $12,411 and $12,286 for Lewis Gould, $17,984 and $17,839 for Leonard Gould, $18,132 and $17,622 for Mr. Brower, and $7,845 and $15,806 for Mr. Fleischer for the Company's contribution under its 401(k) and profit sharing plan and the Company payment for life and health insurance benefits; in each of fiscal 2009 and fiscal 2008 an automobile allowance of $18,000 for Lewis Gould and $9,300 for Leonard Gould; in fiscal 2009 and fiscal 2008, respectively, an automobile allowance of $8,000 and $6,000 for Mr. Brower, and $4,500 and $9,000 for Mr. Fleischer; and in fiscal 2009 $199,746 earned under the termination provisions, net of 401(k) forfeitures, of Mr. Fleischer's employment contract.

(5) The amount of Lewis Gould's 2008 bonus includes $160,875 paid in restricted stock.

Narrative Disclosure to Summary Compensation Table

Employment Agreement

Effective May 1, 2002, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Lewis Gould. The agreement provides that Mr. Gould shall devote his business time, attention, skill and best efforts to the business of the Company, and that Mr. Gould would receive an annual base salary subject to adjustment for cost of living increases and other factors. Mr. Gould's annual base salary at the end of fiscal 2009 was $580,000. The agreement provides that Mr. Gould may receive stock options and an annual bonus at the discretion of the Board. The agreement also provides Mr. Gould with an automobile allowance. The agreement currently automatically renews for successive one-year terms unless either party gives the other party six months written notice of their intent not to renew. The agreement was amended solely for 409(a) purposes on December 31, 2008.

The agreement provides that Mr. Gould may be terminated for cause (as defined in the agreement) in which case he is entitled to the amount of any compensation through the date of termination and provides that Mr. Gould may terminate the agreement for cause, after the Company is given 30 days to cure, in which case he would receive compensation for the term of the agreement. If the Company terminates the agreement without cause, Mr. Gould is entitled to compensation and benefits for the term of the agreement and if Mr. Gould terminates the agreement without cause, he is entitled to compensation for a 90 day period during which he is required to continue providing services to the Company unless waived by the Board. If a triggering event occurs, as defined below, and Mr. Gould's employment is terminated within one year following the triggering event, Mr. Gould is entitled to (i) lump sum compensation equal to 2.99 times his annual salary and bonus for a five year period, (ii) all insurance and other benefits for the longer of the term of the agreement or three years, except that Mr. Gould and his spouse, if any, will receive medical insurance benefits for the remainder of each of their respective lives, (iii) the vesting of securities and options, and (iv) retention by the Company as a consultant at a fee of not less than 80% of his compensation for a period of not less than two years. A triggering event includes the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company, a less than 20% stockholder becoming the beneficial owner of more than 25% of the Company's common stock, a transaction in which the stockholders immediately prior to a transaction cease to own more than 70% of the issued and outstanding shares of the surviving or new company, or three or more directors nominated by the Board fail to be elected in a contested election.

401(k) Plan

The Company has a 401(k) plan to provide retirement income to employees of the Company. The 401(k) Plan is qualified under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The 401(k) Plan covers all employees who are at least age 21 and have completed three months of service to the Company. It is funded monthly by the following contributions: (i) voluntary pre-tax ( salary reduction ) contributions from employees up to a maximum dollar limit set by law, (ii) discretionary matching contributions by the Company equal to a percentage of the amount of the employee's salary reduction contribution, which percentage is to be determined periodically by the Company (and may be zero; in the 2008 and 2009 fiscal years the contribution rate was 25% of each dollar contributed by the employee up to 6% of the employee's salary), and (iii) a profit sharing contribution, the amount of which, if any, is determined by the Company in its sole discretion. Upon leaving the Company, each participant is 100% vested with respect to the participant's contributions and is vested based on years of service with respect to the Company's matching contributions. Contributions are invested as directed by the participant in investment funds available under the 401(k) Plan. Full retirement benefits are payable to each participant in a single cash payment upon the participant's retirement, termination of employment, death or disability.

Table of ContentsStock Option Plan*

The Company's Omnibus Stock Plan of 1996 permits the Company to grant stock options to employees, consultants and directors of the Company. The aggregate number of shares which may be issued under the Plan, as amended, may not exceed 1,000,000 shares of common stock. Stock options are granted at prices not less than 85% of the fair market value on the date of the grant. Option terms, vesting and exercise periods vary, except that the term of an option may not exceed ten years. As of the current date, however, no options have been issued at a discount to market price on the date of the grant. No stock options were granted during fiscal 2009.

Robert G. Walters	43,500	9,623					53,123

- (1) The dollar amount of stock awards reflected in the table represents the amount recognized in fiscal 2009 for financial statement reporting purposes in accordance with FAS 123R. As of February 28, 2009, Messrs. Kreilein, Vogel and Walters each had 1,000 stock units outstanding pursuant to stock awards.
- (2) The dollar amount of option awards reflected in the table represents the amount recognized in fiscal 2009 for financial statement reporting purposes in accordance with FAS 123R. As of February 28, 2009, Messrs. Kreilein and Vogel had 10,000 and 63,000 options outstanding, respectively.

During fiscal 2009 each non-employee director was paid a retainer fee of $25,000, $2,000 (after August 1, 2008 increased to $2,500) for attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors, $3,000 for attendance at each Audit Committee meeting, $2,500 for attendance at each Compensation Committee meeting and $3,000 for attendance at each Governance Committee meeting. No fees are received for attending the Nominating Committee meetings. After December 31, 2008, in consideration of cost savings measured implemented by the Company, Board meeting fees were reduced by ten percent. The non-employee chairs of the Audit Committee and the Governance Committee received an additional $5,000 (after August 1, 2008 increased to $7,500) in annual compensation and beginning August 1, 2008 the non-employee chair of the Compensation Committee received an additional $7,500. In addition, all non-employee directors are granted 1,000 shares of restricted stock on the date of the Annual Meeting of Stockholders, which fully vest one year after the grant date. Although the directors have the option to receive their fees in cash or an amount of shares of Company common stock based on the fair value of such stock on the date of each meeting, during fiscal 2009, the directors received only cash. The directors are also reimbursed for reasonable travel or other out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with attending such meetings. No employee of the Company, including Lewis Gould and Leonard Gould, received any additional compensation for his service as a director.
