RiskMetrics recommends CF stockholders tender their shares into

Agrium's best and final offer

Report criticizes CF board's accountability

November 16, 2009 ALL AMOUNTS ARE STATED IN U.S. $

CALGARY, Alberta Agrium Inc. (TSX and NYSE: AGU) today announced that the independent proxy advisory firm, RiskMetrics Group, has recommended CF Industries Holdings, Inc. (NYSE: CF) stockholders tender their shares into Agrium's best and final offer of $45.00 in cash and one common share of Agrium for each CF share, equivalent to $98.78 per CF share or a total consideration of approximately $4.9 billion, based on Agrium's closing stock price of $53.78 on November 16, 2009.

Agrium's offer represents a 109% premium to CF's January 15, 2009 price of $47.23, and a premium of 78% to CF's closing price of $55.58 on February 24, 2009, the day before Agrium announced its initial proposal.

Mike Wilson, Agrium President and CEO said, "We are pleased that RiskMetrics has recommended that CF stockholders tender their shares into our compelling offer and are gratified that the independent advisory service has taken the CF board to task. Despite CF's assurance to RiskMetrics that it would engage with Agrium in light of the strong support of CF stockholders for an Agrium/CF transaction, the CF board has continuously stonewalled Agrium's efforts and ignored its own stockholders for nearly 9 months.

Wilson added, "Our offer is CF stockholders' final opportunity to make it clear to the CF board that they want to receive a premium rather than pay one. We urge CF stockholders to tender their shares by the offer's expiration at midnight on November 18, 2009, to send an unambiguous message that they want this deal with Agrium at this price. With support for an Agrium/CF combination from a resounding majority of CF stockholders, we expect the CF board will do the right thing and move forward with Agrium's offer. If CF refuses to act, Agrium will consider all options, including nominating a slate of directors to the CF board and pursuing litigation.

In its report, RiskMetrics noted the following:

Edgar Filing: CF Industries Holdings, Inc. - Form 425

Given the extraordinary nature of the CF board's end run around its own shareholders, we remain concerned about the accountability of the CF board going forward and here we frankly cannot confirm that due consideration was given to the June tender results by the CF board.

one thing is not open to debate: a majority of CF shareholders sent a strong message to the CF board that the status quo should be abandoned for a new strategy. However, over the subsequent five months, it does not appear that the CF board has changed from its pre-referendum strategy in any meaningful way. CF continues to stonewall Agrium and pursue its acquisition of Terra (a transaction on which CF shareholders will have no say)

Agrium's offer, which is fully financed, expires at midnight New York City time on November 18, 2009.
