INFORMATION STATEMENT

GENERAL INFORMATION

This Information Statement is being furnished by M/I Homes, Inc. in connection with the special meeting of the holders of its 9.75% Series A Preferred Shares, $0.01 par value per share (the Preferred Shares), as represented by the Company s depository shares (the Depository Shares), to be held on Tuesday, January 12, 2010, at 9:00 a.m., local time, at our corporate offices at 3 Easton Oval, Columbus, Ohio (the Special Meeting). The purpose of this Special Meeting is set forth in the Notice of Special Meeting of Preferred Shareholders to which this Information Statement is attached. All references in this Information Statement to M/I Homes, the Company, we, our or us refer to M/I Homes, Inc.

We anticipate that this Information Statement will be first sent or given to holders of the Depository Shares on or about December 23, 2009.

WE ARE NOT ASKING YOU FOR A PROXY AND YOU ARE REQUESTED NOT TO SEND US A PROXY.

THE PREFERRED SHARES

The following description of the Preferred Shares does not purport to be a complete description of the terms of the Preferred Shares and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Company s Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation, as amended (the Articles of Incorporation).

Description of the Preferred Shares

In March 2007, we issued 4,000,000 Depository Shares, with each Depository Share representing 1/1000th of a Preferred Share. The holders of the Depository Shares are entitled to all of the rights and preferences of the Preferred Shares in proportion to the applicable fraction of a Preferred Share represented by such Depository Shares. As discussed further below under the heading Description of the Preferred Share Voting Rights, in certain circumstances, holders of Preferred Shares will be entitled to vote for the nomination of two persons to serve, without compensation, on the Board of Directors of the Company (the Board of Directors). This means that holders of the Preferred Shares will be entitled to one vote per Preferred Share and holders of Depository Shares will be entitled to 1/1000th of such vote per Depository Share.

Description of the Preferred Share Voting Rights

The Articles of Incorporation provide the holders of the Preferred Shares with voting rights upon the occurrence of certain events. The Articles of Incorporation require that, in the event dividends on the Preferred

Shares are not paid in an aggregate amount equal to at least six full quarterly dividend payments (whether or not consecutive), the Company shall call a meeting of the holders of the Preferred Shares (and, therefore, the Depositary Shares) for the purpose of nominating, by majority vote, two persons to serve on the Board of Directors (the Preferred Directors). In accordance with the Articles of Incorporation, the Company will appoint as directors the persons nominated as Preferred Directors by the holders of the Preferred Shares.

During such time as the Preferred Directors are appointed and serving, such Preferred Directors will be members of the Board of Directors and have the same rights, duties and obligations as all other members of the Board of Directors, except the Preferred Directors will not receive the compensation paid to non-employee directors of the Company. The term of each Preferred Director, once appointed, will continue until the earliest of (i) the first date as of which full dividends on the Preferred Shares have been paid for at least four consecutive quarterly dividend periods (but subject always to the same provisions in the case of future missed six full quarterly dividend payments), (ii) the date on which such Preferred Director resigns, dies or is removed by the holders of the Preferred Shares, by majority vote, either in writing or at a meeting duly called for such purpose, and (iii) the redemption of all of the Preferred Shares. The holders of Preferred Shares, by majority vote, will have the right to remove the Preferred Directors and to fill vacancies.

ABOUT THE MEETING

As a result of restrictions set forth in the indenture governing our outstanding 6.875% senior notes, we have been (and continue to be) prohibited from paying dividends on the Preferred Shares and the dividend payment date of December 15, 2009 was the sixth dividend payment date for which dividends on the Preferred Shares have not been paid. Accordingly, the holders of the Preferred Shares are entitled to nominate, as discussed above, two Preferred Directors. In connection with such requirement, the Board of Directors has called this Special Meeting of the holders of the Preferred Shares.

Who May Vote

Holders of Preferred Shares as represented by Depositary Shares of record at the close of business on December 15, 2009 (the Record Date), may vote at the Special Meeting. As of the Record Date, there were 4,000 Preferred Shares outstanding and 4,000,000 Depositary Shares outstanding.

Quorum

A quorum for the Special Meeting is a majority of the outstanding Preferred Shares on the Record Date. This means that a majority of the outstanding Depositary Shares must be present in person or represented by proxy at the Special Meeting for a quorum to be obtained. Abstentions and broker non-votes are counted as present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining a quorum. In the event of an absence of a quorum at the Special Meeting, no action may be conducted at the Special Meeting and the Company will have no requirement to call an additional Special Meeting to nominate the Preferred Directors.

Nominations

Nominees for election as a Preferred Director shall be made at the Special Meeting, in person or by proxy. The Board of Directors does not take any position with respect to the election of any potential nominees for election as Preferred Directors, is not soliciting any proxies in connection with the Special Meeting and does not make any recommendation For or Against the nomination of any person as a Preferred Director. As of December 21, 2009, the Company has not received any nomination for Preferred Directors, nor does the Company know of any person's intent to make such nomination.

Applicable rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission may require that, if proxies are solicited from the holders of Preferred Shares in support of or in opposition to the nomination of a Preferred Director for election, the person soliciting such holders must provide them with a proxy statement containing certain prescribed information, including information concerning the nominees. The Company assumes no responsibility for the accuracy or completeness of any information contained in any proxy material furnished to any holder of Preferred Shares concerning the nomination of any Preferred Director.

Meeting

The Special Meeting will be conducted by a representative of the Company in accordance with such rules and procedures as the Company shall determine in its sole discretion.

Interests of Officers and Directors

Certain of our directors and executive officers own Depositary Shares. To the extent they own Depositary Shares, their interests may be different from other holders of the Depositary Shares by virtue of the fact that they are directors and/or employees of the Company.

Votes Needed

To be nominated at the Special Meeting, the Preferred Director nominees must each receive a majority vote of the Preferred Shares present in person or represented by proxy at the Special Meeting. Broker non-votes will not be able to vote at the Special Meeting and, therefore, effectively will be a vote against the nomination of any person as a Preferred Director. In addition, abstentions from voting will have the same effect and effectively will be a vote against the nomination of any person as a Preferred Director.

General

Holders of Depositary Shares may instruct the Depositary, Computershare Trust Company, N.A., the registered holder of the Preferred Shares, as to the exercise of the voting rights pertaining to the amount of the Preferred Shares represented by such holders' Depositary Shares by writing the Depositary at Computershare Trust Company, N.A., c/o Computershare Shareholder Services, Inc., 250 Royall Street, Canton, Massachusetts 02021, Attention: General Counsel. Holders of Depositary Shares must enclose evidence of their ownership (such as a letter from the bank, broker or other nominee confirming their ownership or a bank or brokerage firm account statement, in each case, which must include the number of Depositary Shares that the holders own).

Only holders of the Preferred Shares as represented by the Depositary Shares and their proxy holders and our invited guests may attend the Special Meeting. If you want to attend the Special Meeting in person but you hold your shares through someone else, such as a stockbroker, please send written notice of your desire to attend the Special Meeting to M/I Homes, Inc., 3 Easton Oval, Columbus, Ohio 43219, Attention: J. Thomas Mason, Secretary, and you must enclose evidence of your ownership (such as a letter from the bank, broker or other nominee confirming your ownership or a bank or brokerage firm account statement, in each case, which must include the number of Depositary Shares you own). The names of all those planning to attend will be placed on an admission list held at the registration desk at the entrance to the meeting.
