Item 4. Description of Securities.

Not applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

The validity of the securities registered hereby is being passed upon for MEMSIC, Inc. by Foley Hoag LLP, Boston, Massachusetts.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law authorizes a Delaware corporation to indemnify its present and former directors and officers under certain conditions. Article V of the Registrant's certificate of incorporation provides that it shall indemnify each person who at any time is, or shall have been, one of its directors or officers and was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was one of the Registrant's directors or officers, or is or was serving at the Registrant's request as a director, officer, trustee of, or in similar capacity with, another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement incurred in connection with any such action, suit or proceeding, to the maximum extent permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law, as currently in effect or amended in the future. No amendment to or repeal of the provisions of Article V of the Registrant's certificate of incorporation shall deprive a director or officer of the benefit of those Articles with respect to any act or failure occurring prior to such amendment or repeal.

Section 102(b)(7) of the Delaware General Corporation Law authorizes a Delaware corporation to adopt a charter provision eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors to the corporation or its stockholders for breach of fiduciary duty as directors, provided that the provision may not eliminate or limit the liability of directors for:

any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders;

any acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;

any payment of a dividend or approval of a stock purchase that is illegal under Section 174 of the Delaware General Corporation Law; or any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Article EIGHTH of the Registrant's certificate of incorporation provides that, to the maximum extent permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law, none of its directors shall be personally liable to it or to any of its stockholders for monetary damages arising out of that director's breach of fiduciary duty as one of its directors. No amendment to or repeal of the provisions of Article EIGHTH shall apply to or have any effect on the liability or the alleged liability of any of the Registrant's directors with respect to any act or failure to act of that director occurring before the amendment or repeal. A principal effect of Article EIGHTH is to limit or eliminate the potential liability of the Registrant's directors for monetary damages arising from breaches of their duty of care, unless the breach involves one of the four exceptions described above.

The directors and officers of the Registrant are insured under a policy of directors' and officers' liability insurance.

Item 9. Undertakings.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(a)(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

- (i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;
- (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement; and
- (iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (i) and (ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement;

2. That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof;

3. To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering; and

4. For purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

5. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, the registrant certifies that it has reasonable grounds to believe that it meets all of the requirements for filing on Form S-8 and has duly caused this registration statement to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized, in the Town of Andover, Massachusetts as of April 9, 2010.
