As previously reported by the Company, it believes it has meritorious defenses to the allegations and has vigorously defended against the litigation. The case is set for mediation on August 10, 2010. The Company's Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2010 and Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2009 contained a disclosure regarding a complaint filed in California Superior Court by Plaintiff Don Tran, on behalf of himself and a putative class of salaried Consultants and Senior Consultants, and a sub-class of terminated salaried Consultants and Senior Consultants, naming Protiviti Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company ( Protiviti ), as Defendant. As previously reported by the Company, Protiviti believes it has meritorious defenses to the allegations and has vigorously defended against the litigation. On July 13, 2010, the parties to this action entered into a Memorandum of Agreement, which is expected to settle and resolve the claims included in the complaint. Based on the settlement terms contained in the Memorandum of Agreement, the Company has determined that this litigation is not currently a material pending legal proceeding. Accordingly, the Company does not presently intend to make disclosures regarding this case in its Securities and Exchange Commission filings filed subsequent to its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2010.
