Gary's Newslines: AirTran, Spirit Week, and More

Podcast By: Gary Kelly on Oct 04, 2010 at 9:58am

Thanks for calling the Employee Newslines. This is Gary Kelly on Monday, October 4th. Well, last week was one of those Wow weeks. It was big, it was exciting. Of course, a week ago today we broke the news to you all that we plan to acquire AirTran Airways, and I am very pleased with your collective excitement and enthusiasm around our plans. The feedback from our Employees has been overwhelmingly positive, as it should be, as I believe this deal is very good for Southwest Airlines and our future.

If approved by certain regulatory agencies and AirTran stockholders, the acquisition of AirTran allows us to grow, and provides a unique opportunity to boost profits and to bring more aircraft, more flights, more destinations, and more jobs. We've developed a web site, www.lowfaresfarther.com, that is solely dedicated for communicating ongoing news and developments around the deal, and I encourage you all to visit the web site often and use it as a resource for any questions that you might have about the acquisition. Regulatory approvals would take several months, and until we close, we'll continue to operate separately as we do today. We are hosting a Town Hall here at Headquarters later today to talk about the acquisition and answer any questions that you all may have, and I am making time in my schedule in the months ahead to visit with as many of you as possible at your respective locations. Last week I was in San Antonio visiting our CS&C Center and our Station Employees, and I'll continue to communicate to you all in the weeks and months ahead.

Along with the AirTran news last week, we announced our plans to hire additional Flight Crews for the first time since 2008. As I mentioned, a successful acquisition would bring more planes and more flights, and therefore we would need additional Pilots and Flight Attendants to support the growth. We are tentatively planning to add 150-200 new Pilots and 250-300 new Flight Attendants next year. Since we haven't hired Flight Crews since 2008, our hiring Teams will soon begin an aggressive schedule to interview and process qualified candidates. We expect to have 100 Pilots begin New Hire training in first quarter 2011, and start rolling into our system in March. Additional Pilot classes will follow as required. Flight Attendant classes also will begin in first quarter 2011, and will include three classes of approximately 100 each. They will start rolling into our system in April. I know many of you have been eagerly anticipating growth for our Company, and I'm looking forward to adding to our Family.

At last week's press conference, I also shared an update on our plans to change our reservations system. A new reservations system will allow us to fully realize our intent to sell international itineraries and to fly our metal to international destinations. I am very excited about the possibilities this change could bring to our Company. While we are still at least a couple years away from flying our own international routes, we have narrowed our search to two vendors, and will proceed with our diligence process to select the best vendor. Until we make a final selection, I don't have a lot of additional information or a timeline, but we will keep you updated and informed throughout the process.
