Section 12(j) Proceeding to Revoke the Registration of the Company's Securities

As previously reported, the Commission instituted an administrative proceeding (Administrative Proceeding File No. 3-13967, In the Matter of The Colonial BancGroup, Inc., Respondent) to revoke the registration of the Company's securities registered under Section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, pursuant to an Order Instituting Administrative Proceedings and Notice of Hearing Pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, dated July 14, 2010, Commission Release No. 62497. On September 20, 2010, the Company submitted to the Staff of the Commission an Offer of Settlement of The Colonial BancGroup, Inc. together with the Certificate of Corporate Resolution and form of Order Making Findings and Revoking Registration of Securities Pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (collectively, the Offer of Settlement) setting forth proposed terms of settlement of the administrative proceeding and the revocation of the registration of the Company's securities. The Offer of Settlement was not approved by the Commission and the administrative proceeding is ongoing, though it remains likely that the registration of the Company's securities will be revoked. Generally, when the registration of a registrant's securities is revoked, all trading of such securities will cease, the registrant's periodic reporting obligations under Section 13(a) of the Exchange Act will terminate, and no member of a national securities exchange, broker or dealer will be permitted to use the mails or other means of interstate commerce to effect any transaction in or to induce the purchase or sale of any securities for which registration is revoked.
