NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Six Months Ended January 31, 2012

(Unaudited)

(In thousands, except share and per share amounts)

NOTE A Basis of Presentation

The condensed consolidated financial statements included herein have been prepared by Brady Corporation and subsidiaries (the Company or Brady) without audit, pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. In the opinion of the Company, the foregoing statements contain all adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring adjustments necessary to present fairly the financial position of the Company as of January 31, 2012 and July 31, 2011, its results of operations for the three and six months ended January 31, 2012 and 2011, and its cash flows for the six months ended January 31, 2012 and 2011. The condensed consolidated balance sheet as of July 31, 2011 has been derived from the audited consolidated financial statements of that date. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts therein. Due to the inherent uncertainty involved in making estimates, actual results in future periods may differ from the estimates.

Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with GAAP have been omitted pursuant to rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Accordingly, the condensed consolidated financial statements do not include all of the information and footnotes required by GAAP for complete financial statement presentation. It is suggested that these condensed consolidated financial statements be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto included in the Company's latest annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended July 31, 2011.

NOTE B Goodwill and Intangible Assets

The Company has identified seven reporting units within its three reporting segments for purposes of the annual goodwill impairment analysis: Brady Americas, Direct Marketing Americas, Brady Europe, Direct Marketing Europe, Emerging Platforms Europe, North/South Asia, and Australia. The Company's goodwill is tested for impairment annually, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that goodwill might be impaired. The Company performs impairment reviews for its reporting units using the discounted cash flow model and market multiples model, as these methods provide a reasonable and meaningful fair value estimate based on the reporting units' projections of future operating results and cash flows and replicates how market participants would value the Company's reporting units. The projections of future operating results are based on both past performance and the projections and assumptions used in the Company's current and long-range operating plans. The Company's estimates can be materially impacted by factors such as significant negative industry or economic trends, disruptions to the Company's business, competitive forces, or changes in significant customers.

In the quarter ended January 31, 2012, the North/South Asia reporting unit experienced a sales decline and margin erosion due in large part to a major customer's loss of market share within the mobile handset industry. The impact of this sales decline was partially offset by additional opportunities within the mobile handset and other computing devices markets, but these sales were achieved at a lower gross margin percentage.

The Company's plans to fill capacity and absorb overhead with these additional opportunities was partially successful; however, increased competition from local competitors drove down unit prices. While the Company continues to capture similar dollar value of sales, the gross margins are less than what was anticipated. The Company placed increased focus on cost reduction and material procurement strategies to reduce cost of goods sold; however, these efforts were not enough to return the reporting unit to previous levels of profitability. Based upon the current economic environment within the mobile handset market, management determined that the events are not temporary and gross margins in the mobile handset market are not likely to improve materially in the near term.

Due to the convergence of these events, in connection with a reforecast of expected fiscal 2012 financial results completed during the quarter ended January 31, 2012, the Company determined the foregoing circumstances to be indicators of potential impairment under the guidance of ASC 350, Intangibles—Goodwill and Other. The Company completed the required initial (Step One) impairment test for the North/South Asia reporting unit by preparing a discounted cash flow model taking into account updated projections, estimates and assumptions. These estimates and assumptions primarily include, but are not limited to, projections of revenue growth, operating earnings, discount rates, terminal growth rates, and required capital for the reporting unit. Due to the inherent uncertainty involved in making these estimates, actual results could differ materially from the estimates. The Company evaluated the significant assumptions used to determine the fair value of the reporting unit with the assistance of a third party valuation firm, and concluded that they are reasonable.

Table of Contents

The estimated fair value of the reporting unit was compared to the carrying amount including goodwill, and the results of the analysis indicated that the North/South Asia reporting unit was potentially impaired. Therefore, the Company proceeded to measure the amount of the potential impairment (Step Two) with the assistance of a third party valuation firm. In Step Two of the goodwill impairment test, the Company determined the implied fair value of the goodwill and compared it to the carrying value of the goodwill. The Company allocated the current fair value of the North/South Asia reporting unit to all of its assets and liabilities as if the reporting unit had presently been acquired in a business combination. The excess fair value of the reporting unit over the fair value of its identifiable assets and liabilities is the implied fair value of goodwill. Upon completion of the assessment, the Company recognized a goodwill impairment charge of $115,688 during the quarter ended January 31, 2012.

The changes in the carrying amount of goodwill by reportable segment for the year ended July 31, 2011, and six months ended January 31, 2012, are as follows:

	September 30, Americas	September 30, Europe	September 30, Asia-Pacific	September 30, Total
Balance as of July 31, 2011	$ 425,578	$ 171,238	$ 203,527	$ 800,343
Translation adjustments	(3,652)	(12,055)	(2,041)	(17,748)
Impairment charge			(115,688)	(115,688)
Balance as of January 31, 2012	$ 421,926	$ 159,183	$ 85,798	$ 666,907

Goodwill decreased $133,436 during the six months ended January 31, 2012. Of the $133,436 decrease, $115,688 was due to the goodwill impairment charge recognized on the North/South Asia reporting unit, and $17,748 was due to foreign currency translation.

Other intangible assets include patents, trademarks, customer relationships, non-compete agreements and other intangible assets with finite lives being amortized in accordance with accounting guidance for goodwill and other intangible assets. The net book value of these assets was as follows:

	January 31, 2012				July 31, 2011
	Weighted Average Amortization	Gross		Net	Weighted Average Amortization	Gross		Net
	Period (Years)	Carrying Amount	Accumulated Amortization	Book Value	Period (Years)	Carrying Amount	Accumulated Amortization	Book Value

Total		$ 234,442	$ (155,352)	$ 79,090		$ 240,853	$ (150,892)	$ 89,961

The value of goodwill and other intangible assets in the Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet at January 31, 2012, differs from the value assigned to them in the allocation of purchase price due to impairment charges and the effect of fluctuations in the exchange rates used to translate financial statements into the United States Dollar between the date of acquisition and January 31, 2012.

Edgar Filing: BRADY CORP - Form 10-Q

Amortization expense on intangible assets was $4,075 and $5,123 for the three-month periods ended January 31, 2012 and 2011, respectively and $8,155 and $10,270 for the six-month periods ended January 31, 2012 and 2011, respectively. Annual amortization expense is projected to be $16,132, $10,320, $5,438, $5,102 and $4,040 for the years ending July 31, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015 and 2016, respectively.

Diluted	$	(1.72)	$	0.46	$	(1.11)	$	0.94

For the three and six-month periods ended January 31, 2012, the Company was in a net loss position. In accordance with ASC 260, Earnings per Share, no additional shares were included in the computation of diluted net loss per common share since to do so would reduce the calculated loss per share. Therefore, options to purchase approximately 4,365,000 and 4,788,000 shares of Class A Nonvoting Common Stock for the three and six months ended January 31, 2012, respectively, were not included in the computation of diluted net loss per share because the impact of the inclusion of the options would have been anti-dilutive.

Options to purchase approximately 4,281,000 and 3,959,000 shares of Class A Nonvoting Common Stock for the three and six months ended January 31, 2011, respectively, were not included in the computations of diluted net income per share because the impact of the inclusion of the options would have been anti-dilutive.

NOTE E Segment Information

The Company evaluates short-term segment performance based on segment profit or loss and customer sales. Segment profit or loss does not include certain administrative costs, such as the cost of finance, information technology and human resources, which are managed as global functions. Restructuring charges, impairment charges, stock options, interest, investment and other income and income taxes are also excluded when evaluating performance.

The Company is organized and managed on a geographic basis by region. Each of these regions, Americas, Europe and Asia-Pacific, has a President that reports directly to the Company's chief operating decision maker, its Chief Executive Officer. Each region has its own distinct operations, is managed by its own management team, maintains its own financial reports and is evaluated based on regional segment profit. The Company has determined that these regions comprise its operating and reportable segments based on the information used by the Chief Executive Officer to allocate resources and assess performance.

Intersegment sales and transfers are recorded at cost plus a standard percentage markup. Intercompany profit is eliminated in consolidation. It is impracticable to disclose enterprise-wide revenue from external customers on the basis of product or service.

Following is a summary of segment information for the three and six months ended January 31, 2012 and 2011:

NOTE F Stock-Based Compensation

The Company has an incentive stock plan under which the Board of Directors may grant nonqualified stock options to purchase shares of Class A Nonvoting Common Stock or grant restricted shares of Class A Nonvoting Common Stock to employees and non-employee directors. The stock options have an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the underlying stock at the date of grant and generally vest ratably over a three-year period, with one-third becoming exercisable one year after the grant date and one-third additional in each of the succeeding two years. Stock options issued under these plans, referred to herein as service-based stock options, generally expire 10 years from the date of grant. The Company also grants stock options to certain executives and key management employees that vest upon meeting certain financial performance conditions over the vesting schedule described above; these options are referred to herein as performance-based stock options. Performance-based stock options expire 10 years from the date of grant. The Company granted restricted shares in fiscal 2008 and fiscal 2011 that have an issuance price equal to the fair market value of the underlying stock at the date of grant. The restricted shares granted in fiscal 2008 were amended in fiscal 2011 to allow for vesting after a seven-year period upon meeting both performance and service conditions. The restricted shares granted in fiscal 2011 vest ratably at the end of years three, four and five upon meeting certain performance and service conditions. The restricted shares granted in fiscal 2008 and 2011 are referred to herein as performance-based restricted shares.

As of January 31, 2012, the Company has reserved 6,746,849 shares of Class A Nonvoting Common Stock for outstanding stock options and restricted shares and 5,020,700 shares of Class A Nonvoting Common Stock remain for future issuance of stock options and restricted shares under the various plans. The Company uses treasury stock or will issue new Class A Nonvoting Common Stock to deliver shares under these plans.

The Company recognizes the compensation cost of all share-based awards on a straight-line basis over the vesting period of the award. Compensation expense for performance-based stock options is recorded over the remaining vesting period when the Company determines that it is probable that the performance criteria will be met. Total stock compensation expense recognized by the Company during the three months ended January 31, 2012 and 2011 was $1,939 ($1,183 net of taxes) and $2,800 ($1,708 net of taxes), respectively, and expense recognized during the six months ended January 31, 2012 and 2011 was $5,506 ($3,359 net of taxes), and $6,869 ($4,190 net of taxes), respectively. As of January 31, 2012, total unrecognized compensation cost related to share-based compensation awards was $18,066 pre-tax, net of estimated forfeitures, which the Company expects to recognize over a weighted-average period of 2.2 years.

The Company has estimated the fair value of its service-based and performance-based option awards granted during the six months ended January 31, 2012 and 2011 using the Black-Scholes option valuation model. The weighted-average assumptions used in the Black-Scholes valuation model are reflected in the following table:

	September 30, Six Months Ended January 31, 2012		September 30, Six Months Ended January 31, 2011
Black-Scholes Option Valuation Assumptions	Service-Based Option Awards	Performance- Based Option Awards	Service-Based Option Awards	Performance- Based Option Awards
Expected term (in years)	5.89	6.57	5.92	6.57
Expected volatility	39.40%	39.21%	40.22%	39.39%

Risk-free interest rate	1.16%	2.05%	1.65%	2.35%
Weighted-average market value of underlying stock at grant date	$ 27.00	$ 29.55	$ 29.09	$ 28.43
Weighted-average exercise price	27.00	29.55	29.09	28.35
Weighted-average fair value of options granted during the period	8.37	10.01	9.58	9.87

The Company uses historical data regarding stock option exercise behaviors to estimate the expected term of options granted based on the period of time that options granted are expected to be outstanding. Expected volatilities are based on the historical volatility of the Company's stock. The expected dividend yield is based on the Company's historical dividend payments and historical yield. The risk-free interest rate is based on the U.S. Treasury yield curve in effect on the grant date for the length of time corresponding to the expected term of the option. The market value is calculated as the average of the high and the low stock price on the date of the grant.

The Company granted 100,000 shares of performance-based restricted stock to Frank M. Jaehnert, the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer, in August of 2010, with a grant price and fair value of $28.35. The Company also granted 210,000 shares of performance-based restricted stock during fiscal 2008, with a grant price and fair value of $32.83. As of January 31, 2012, 310,000 performance-based restricted shares were outstanding.

There have been no changes to the components of net periodic benefit cost or the amount that the Company expects to fund in fiscal 2012 from those reported in Note 3 to the consolidated financial statements included in the Company's latest annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended July 31, 2011.

NOTE I Fair Value Measurements

In accordance with fair value accounting guidance, the Company's assets and liabilities measured at fair market value are classified in one of the following categories:

Level 1 Assets or liabilities for which fair value is based on quoted market prices in active markets for identical instruments as of the reporting date.

Level 2 Assets or liabilities for which fair value is based on valuation models for which pricing inputs were either directly or indirectly observable.

Level 3 Assets or liabilities for which fair value is based on valuation models with significant unobservable pricing inputs and which result in the use of management estimates.

The following tables set forth by level within the fair value hierarchy, the Company's financial assets and liabilities that were accounted for at fair value on a recurring basis at January 31, 2012, and July 31, 2011, according to the valuation techniques the Company used to determine their fair values:

The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair value of each class of financial instrument:

Trading Securities: The Company's deferred compensation investments consist of investments in mutual funds. These investments were classified as Level 1 as the shares of these investments trade with sufficient frequency and volume to enable us to obtain pricing information on an ongoing basis.

Table of Contents

Foreign currency exchange contracts: The Company's foreign currency exchange contracts were classified as Level 2, as the fair value was based on the present value of the future cash flows using external models that use observable inputs, such as interest rates, yield curves and foreign currency exchange rates. See Note K, Derivatives and Hedging Activities for additional information.

Foreign currency denominated debt - net investment hedge: The Company's foreign currency denominated debt designated as a net investment hedge was classified as Level 2, as the fair value was based on the present value of the future cash flows using external models that use observable inputs, such as interest rates, yield curves and foreign currency exchange rates. See Note K, Derivatives and Hedging Activities for additional information.

There have been no transfers of assets or liabilities between the fair value hierarchy levels, outlined above, during the six months ended January 31, 2012.

The Company's financial instruments, other than those presented in the disclosures above could include cash, notes receivable, accounts receivable, accounts payable, accrued liabilities and short-term and long-term debt. The fair values of cash, accounts receivable, accounts payable, accrued liabilities and short-term debt approximated carrying values because of the short-term nature of these instruments.

The estimated fair value of the Company's long-term obligations, based on the quoted market prices for similar issues and on the current rates offered for debt of similar maturities, was $408,431 and $416,694 at January 31, 2012 and July 31, 2011, respectively, as compared to the carrying value of $384,335 and $393,178 at January 31, 2012 and July 31, 2011, respectively.

During the three months ended January 31, 2012, goodwill with a carrying amount of $163,702 in the North/South Asia reporting unit was written down to its estimated implied fair value of $48,014, resulting in a non-cash impairment charge of $115,688. The implied fair value of goodwill of $48,014 represents a Level 3 asset measured at fair value on a nonrecurring basis subsequent to its original recognition. Refer to Note B, Goodwill and Intangible Assets for further information regarding the valuation inputs.

NOTE J Restructuring

In fiscal 2009, in response to the global economic downturn, the Company took several measures to address its cost structure. In addition to a company-wide salary freeze and decreased discretionary spending, the Company reduced its workforce by 25%. The Company reduced its workforce through voluntary and involuntary separation programs, voluntary retirement programs, and facility consolidations. The Company continued the execution of its restructuring actions during fiscal 2011. These actions included a reduction in its contract labor and decreased discretionary spending. As a result of these actions, the Company recorded restructuring charges of $2,134 and $5,775 during the three and six months ended January 31, 2011. The restructuring charges of $5,775 during the six months ended January 31, 2011 consisted of $3,878 of employee separation costs, $1,714 of fixed asset write-offs, and $183 of other facility closure related costs and contract termination costs. Of the $5,775 of restructuring charges recorded during the six months ended January 31, 2011, $3,575 was incurred in the Americas, $2,128 was incurred in Europe, and $72 was incurred in Asia-Pacific.

A reconciliation of the Company's restructuring activity during the six months ended January 31, 2012 is as follows:

	September 30, Employee Related	September 30, Asset Write-offs	September 30, Other	September 30, Total

NOTE K Derivatives and Hedging Activities

The Company utilizes forward foreign exchange currency contracts to reduce the exchange rate risk of specific foreign currency denominated transactions and net investments. These contracts typically require the exchange of a foreign currency for U.S. dollars at a fixed rate at a future date, with maturities of 12 months or less, which qualify as either cash flow hedges or net investment hedges under the accounting guidance for derivative instruments and hedging activities. The primary objectives of the Company's foreign currency exchange risk management are to minimize the impact of currency movements due to products purchased in other than the respective subsidiaries' functional currency and to minimize the impact of currency movements on the Company's net investment denominated in a currency other than the U.S. dollar. To achieve this objective, the Company hedges a portion of known exposures using forward foreign exchange currency contracts. As of January 31, 2012 and July 31, 2011, the notional amount of outstanding forward exchange contracts was $39,278 and $80,807, respectively.

Hedge effectiveness is determined by how closely the changes in the fair value of the hedging instrument offset the changes in the fair value or cash flows of the hedged item. Hedge accounting is permitted only if the hedging relationship is expected to be highly effective at the inception of the hedge and on an on-going basis. Gains or losses on the derivative related to hedge ineffectiveness are recognized in current earnings. The amount of hedge ineffectiveness was not significant for the three-month or six-month periods ended January 31, 2012 and 2011.

The Company hedges a portion of known exposure using forward exchange contracts. Main exposures are related to transactions denominated in the British Pound, the Euro, Canadian Dollar, Australian Dollar, Singapore Dollar, Swedish Krona, Japanese Yen, Swiss Franc, and the Korean Won. Generally, these risk management transactions will involve the use of foreign currency derivatives to protect against exposure resulting from sales and identified inventory or other asset purchases.

The Company has designated a portion of its foreign exchange contracts as cash flow hedges and recorded these contracts at fair value on the Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets. For these instruments, the effective portion of the gain or loss on the derivative is reported as a component of other comprehensive income (OCI) and reclassified into earnings in the same period or periods during which the hedged transaction affects earnings. At January 31, 2012 and July 31, 2011, unrealized gains of $807 and unrealized losses of $1,535 have been included in OCI, respectively. All balances are expected to be reclassified from OCI to earnings during the next twelve months when the hedged transactions impact earnings.

At January 31, 2012 and July 31, 2011, the Company had $665 and $16 of forward exchange contracts designated as cash flow hedges included in Prepaid expenses and other current assets on the accompanying Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets. At January 31, 2012 and July 31, 2011, the Company had $132 and $830, respectively, of forward exchange contracts designated as cash flow hedges included in Other current liabilities on the accompanying Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets. At January 31, 2012 and July 31, 2011, the U.S. dollar equivalent of these outstanding forward foreign exchange contracts totaled $18,462 and $30,519, respectively, including contracts to sell Euros, Canadian Dollars, Australian Dollars, British Pounds, U.S. Dollars, and Swiss Franc.

The Company has also designated intercompany and third party foreign currency denominated debt instruments as net investment hedges. During the six months ended January 31, 2012, the Company designated 4,581 of intercompany loans as net investment hedges to hedge portions of its net investment in European foreign operations. No intercompany loans were designated as net investment hedges as of July 31, 2011. On May 13, 2010, the Company completed the private placement of 75.0 million aggregate principal amount of senior unsecured notes to accredited institutional investors. This Euro-denominated debt obligation was designated as a net investment hedge to hedge portions of the Company's net investment in Euro-denominated foreign operations. As net investment hedges, the currency effects of the debt obligations are reflected in the foreign currency translation adjustments component of accumulated other comprehensive income where they offset gains and losses recorded on the Company's net investment in Euro-denominated operations. The Company's foreign denominated debt obligations are valued under a market approach using publicized spot prices.

Additionally, the Company utilizes forward foreign exchange currency contracts designated as hedge instruments to hedge portions of the Company's net investments in foreign operations. For hedges that meet the effectiveness requirements, the net gains or losses attributable to changes in spot exchange rates are recorded in cumulative translation within other comprehensive income. Any ineffective portions are to be recognized in earnings. Recognition in earnings of amounts previously recorded in cumulative translation is limited to circumstances such as complete or substantially complete liquidation of the net investment in the hedged foreign operation. At January 31, 2012 and July 31, 2011, the Company had $1 and $0, respectively, of forward exchange currency contracts designated as net investment hedges included in Prepaid expenses and other current assets on the Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets. At January 31, 2012 and July 31, 2011, the Company had $0 and $5,295, respectively, of forward foreign exchange currency contracts designated as net investment hedges included in Other current liabilities on the Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet. At January 31, 2012 and July 31, 2011, the U.S. dollar equivalent of these outstanding forward foreign exchange contracts totaled $10,000 and $50,000, respectively, including contracts to sell Euros and Singapore Dollars.

The business is included in the Company's Asia Pacific segment.

The comparability of the operating results for the three and six months ended January 31, 2012, to the three and six months ended January 31, 2011, have been impacted by the prior year divestiture of Teklynx. In December 2010, the Company sold its Teklynx business, a barcode software company. The Teklynx business had operations primarily in the Company's Americas and Europe segments. The Company received proceeds of $12,979, net of cash retained in the business. The transaction resulted in a pre-tax gain of $4,394, which was accounted for in Selling, general, and administrative expenses (SG&A) on the Condensed Consolidated Statement of Income for the three and six month periods ended January 31, 2011. The divestiture of Teklynx was part of the Company's continued long-term growth strategy to focus the Company's

The net loss was a result of a $115.7 million non-cash goodwill impairment charge recorded during the quarter ended January 31, 2012, related to the North/South Asia reporting unit within the Asia-Pacific reporting segment. Refer to Note B, "Goodwill and Intangible Assets" in the Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for further discussion regarding the goodwill impairment charge.

Organic sales increased 0.9%, divestitures net of acquisitions reduced sales 0.3%, and the effects of fluctuations in the exchange rates used to translate financial results into the United States dollar increased sales 1.1%. Refer to Note B, "Goodwill and Intangible Assets" in the Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for further discussion regarding the goodwill impairment charge.

Results of Operations

The comparability of the operating results for the three and six months ended January 31, 2012, to the three and six months ended January 31, 2011, have been impacted by the following acquisition and divestiture completed in fiscal 2011:

Fiscal 2011

	Segment	Date Completed
Acquisition
ID Warehouse	Asia Pacific	November 2010
Divestiture
Teklynx	Americas Europe	December 2010

Gross margin as a percentage of sales decreased to 47.8% from 48.3% for the quarter and decreased to 47.9% from 49.1% for the six months ended January 31, 2012, compared to the same periods of the previous year. This decrease in gross margin percentage was primarily due to the Asia-Pacific region compared to the prior year.

Edgar Filing: BRADY CORP - Form 10-Q

Research and development (R&D) expenses decreased 15.0% to $10.0 million for the three months ended January 31, 2012, compared to $11.7 million for the same period in the prior year, and decreased 8.7% to $19.8 million for the six months ended January 31, 2012, compared to $21.7 million for the same period in the prior year. As a percentage of sales, R&D expenses decreased to 3.1% from 3.6% for the quarter and decreased to 3.0% from 3.3% for the six months ended January 31, 2012, compared to the same periods of the previous year, respectively. The moderate decline in R&D expenses was primarily due to the timing of R&D project expenditures.

Table of Contents

Selling, general and administrative (SG&A) expenses decreased 3.0% to $104.8 million for the three months ended January 31, 2012, compared to $108.1 million for the same period in the prior year, and decreased 1.7% to $213.8 million for the six months ended January 31, 2012, compared to $217.4 million for the same period in the prior year. As a percentage of sales, SG&A expenses decreased to 32.7% from 32.8% for the second quarter, and decreased to 31.9% from 33.0% for the six months ended January 31, 2012, compared to the same periods in the prior year. The Company has continued to focus on reducing its SG&A expenses as a percentage of sales through ongoing productivity initiatives, which was achieved during both the three and six months ended January 31, 2012, despite the $4.4 million pre-tax gain on the divestiture of Teklynx recognized during the three months ended January 31, 2011.

Restructuring charges were $2.1 million and $5.8 million for the three and six months ended January 31, 2011, respectively.

Other income decreased slightly to $0.8 million from $1.2 million for the three months ended January 31, 2012, compared to the same period in the prior year, and decreased to $0.6 million from $1.5 million for the six months ended January 31, 2012 compared to the same period in the prior year. The decrease was primarily due to foreign exchange losses, partially offset by an increase in interest income.

Interest expense decreased to $4.9 million from $5.9 million for the quarter and to $10.0 million from $11.5 million for the six months ended January 31, 2012, compared to the same periods in the prior year. The decrease was due to the Company's lower principal balance under its outstanding debt agreements.

The Company's effective tax rate decreased to (10.6%) from 25.3% for the quarter and to (52.7%) from 26.4% for the six months ended January 31, 2012, compared to the same periods in the prior year. The effective tax rate was significantly impacted by the non-deductible North/South Asia goodwill impairment charge of $115.7 million recognized during the three months ended January 31, 2012. Refer to Note B, Goodwill and Intangible Assets in the Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for further discussion. Excluding the goodwill impairment charge, the effective tax rate was 25.1% for the quarter and 25.2% for the six months ended January 31, 2012. The Company expects the full year income tax rate for fiscal 2012 to be in the mid 20% range.

The Company's net loss was $90.0 million for the quarter and $57.2 million for the six months ended January 31, 2012, compared to net income of $24.2 million for the quarter and $50.5 million for the six months ended January 31, 2011. The net loss is a result of the goodwill impairment charge of $115.7 million recorded during the three months ended January 31, 2012. Refer to Note B, Goodwill and Intangible Assets in the Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for further discussion. Net income before the current period impairment charge was $25.7 million for the quarter and $58.5 million for the six months ended January 31, 2012. Net income before restructuring-related expenses was $25.7 million for the quarter and $54.6 million for the six months ended January 31, 2011.

Americas:

Americas sales increased 1.8% to $138.4 million for the quarter and 3.7% to $292.3 million for the six months ended January 31, 2012, compared to $136.0 million and $282.0 million for the same periods in the prior year. Organic sales increased 2.9% and 4.4% during the quarter and year-to-date, respectively, as compared to the same periods in the prior year. Fluctuations in the exchange rates used to translate financial results into the United States dollar resulted in a negative impact on sales of 0.7% in the quarter, and 0.2% in the six-month period. The decrease in sales resulting from the fiscal year 2011 divestiture of Teklynx was 0.4% in the quarter and 0.5% in the six-month period.

The increases in organic sales of 2.9% for the quarter and 4.4% for the six-month period were driven primarily by the Brady business through new product launches, price increases, and strong demand for custom OEM products in Brazil. In addition, the direct marketing business demonstrated modest growth, mainly driven by regulatory publishing products.

Segment profit increased 15.4% to $35.8 million from $31.0 million for the quarter and increased 12.3% to $79.0 million from $70.4 million for the six months ended January 31, 2012, compared to the same periods in the prior year. As a percentage of sales, segment profit increased to 25.9% from 22.8% for the quarter and increased to 27.0% from 25.0% for the six months ended January 31, 2012, compared to the same periods in the prior year.

The profit improvement for the quarter and six-month periods was mainly driven by the Brady business, which experienced double digit percentage profit improvement for the quarter and six months ended January 31, 2012, compared to the same periods in the prior year. The profit improvement was due to increased volumes, price increases implemented at the beginning of fiscal year 2012, and leveraging the Company's sales structure. In the direct marketing business, the profit improvement for the quarter ended January 31, 2012, was partially offset by investments in initiatives to drive customer growth.

Europe:

Europe sales decreased 8.1% to $95.6 million for the quarter and 1.6% to $192.9 million for the six months ended January 31, 2012, compared to $104.0 million and $196.1 million for the same periods in the prior year. Organic sales decreased 5.7% and 1.3% for the quarter and six-month period, respectively, compared to the same periods in the prior year. Fluctuations in the exchange rates used to translate financial results into the United States dollar resulted in a negative impact on sales of 1.5% in the quarter, and a positive impact on sales of 1.0% in the six-month period. The decrease in sales resulting from the fiscal year 2011 divestiture of Teklynx was 0.9% in the quarter, and 1.3% in the six-month period.

The decrease in organic sales of 5.7% in the quarter was primarily due to the difficult comparable to the quarter ended January 31, 2011, which included $5.0 million of winter product sales within the direct marketing business attributable to the unusually harsh winter in Western Europe. During the quarter ended January 31, 2012, sales decline between the Brady and direct marketing businesses were similar. The Brady business experienced a mid-single digit percentage decline in organic sales, which was primarily driven by the depressed economic conditions within the region, specifically southern Europe and the Sweden die-cut business. Excluding the strong winter product sales within the direct marketing business for the prior year's quarter ended January 31, 2011, the Company would have experienced a mid-single digit percentage increase in organic sales growth within southern Europe and Germany, the Company's two largest direct marketing businesses. The decrease in organic sales of 1.3% for the six months ended January 31, 2012 was a result of strong growth within all businesses for the first quarter ended October 31, 2011, and a moderate decline in organic sales for the second quarter ended January 31, 2012. Organic sales growth for the first quarter ended October 31, 2011 was 3.7%, and the organic sales decline for the second quarter ended January 31, 2012 was 5.7%, as discussed above.

Segment profit decreased 8.9% to $26.6 million from $29.2 million for the quarter, and decreased 0.7% to $52.9 million from $53.2 million for the six months ended January 31, 2012, compared to the same periods in the prior year. As a percentage of sales, segment profit decreased to 27.8% from 28.0% for the quarter and increased to 27.4% from 27.1% for the six months ended January 31, 2012, compared to the same periods in the prior year.

The decrease in segment profit for the quarter was primarily attributable to the difficult comparable to the quarter ended January 31, 2011, which included an incremental $5.0 million of winter product sales in the direct marketing business, as discussed above. Within the Brady business, the level of segment profit as a percentage of sales for the quarter ended January 31, 2012, was consistent with the same period in the prior year, because the sales decline was partially offset by the benefits from the prior year reorganization.

Asia-Pacific:

Edgar Filing: BRADY CORP - Form 10-Q

Asia-Pacific sales decreased 2.7% to $86.6 million from $89.0 million for the quarter, and increased 2.4% to $184.9 million from $180.5 million for the six months ended January 31, 2012, compared to the same periods in the prior year. Organic sales decreased 4.4% in the quarter and decreased 2.3% for the six-month period, compared to the same periods in the prior year. Fluctuations in the exchange rates used to translate financial results into the U.S. dollar increased sales within the segment by 1.7% for the quarter and 3.6% for the six-month period ended January 31, 2012. Segment sales increased 1.1% during the six months ended January 31, 2012, due to the fiscal 2011 acquisition of ID Warehouse, which had no effect on sales for the quarter ended January 31, 2012.

Table of Contents

The decrease in organic sales for both the quarter and six-month period ended January 31, 2012 was primarily a result of the flooding in Thailand, which caused a significant disruption to the hard disk drive supply chain, as well as the impact from the typically slow period associated with the Chinese New Year, which occurred in the second quarter this year. These sales declines were partially offset by increased sales within the mobile handset market.

Segment profit decreased 32.9% to $7.7 million from $11.5 million for the quarter, and decreased 25.8% to $21.0 million from $28.4 million for the six months ended January 31, 2012, compared to the same periods in the prior year. As a percentage of sales, segment profit decreased to 8.9% from 13.0% in the quarter and decreased to 11.4% from 15.7% for the six-month period, compared to the same periods in the prior year.

The decrease in segment profit for the quarter and six-month periods ended January 31, 2012, was primarily due to a lower margin sales mix within the mobile handset and other computing devices markets. The primary contributing factor to the lower margin sales mix was the loss of market share by one of the Company's largest mobile handset customers. In an effort to refill plant capacity, the Company aggressively pursued other opportunities and while the Company continues to capture similar dollar value sales, it has been unable to capture opportunities at the same margin level as those sales that were lost. The reasons for this are as follows: increased competition from local companies who are driving down unit prices; the increased complexity of the product which results in longer run times and higher labor costs; and decreased product lifecycle which results in a shorter period to recoup tooling investments. The Company continues to focus on cost reduction and material procurement strategies to reduce cost of goods sold to mitigate the impact on profitability. These decreases were partially offset by margin improvement and mix impact from the growing and more profitable Australia businesses.

In addition to the factors described above, the quarter ended January 31, 2012, was negatively impacted by the Thailand flood, which resulted in lower absorption of fixed costs within this business. The Thailand flood reduced earnings per share on a diluted basis by approximately $0.04 in the quarter ended January 31, 2012. Losses caused by the flooding are expected to be partially covered by property and business interruption insurance. The timing of the insurance recoveries could fall into subsequent periods beyond fiscal year 2012.

Financial Condition

Cash and cash equivalents were $380.3 million at January 31, 2012 and $390.0 million at July 31, 2011, a decline of $9.6 million as summarized below:

(Dollars in thousands)	September 30, Six months ended: January 31, 2012	September 30, Six months ended: January 31, 2011
Net cash flow provided by (used in):
Operating activities	$ 43,301	$ 57,609

Net (decrease) increase in cash and cash equivalents	$ (9,640)	$ 47,462

Net cash provided by operating activities was $43.3 million for the six months ended January 31, 2012, a decrease of $14.3 million from cash provided by operating activities of $57.6 million for the six months ended January 31, 2011. Cash flows from operating activities are generated primarily from operating income and managing the components of working capital. The decrease in cash flows from operating activities during the six months ended January 31, 2012 compared to the same period of the prior year was primarily due to an unfavorable change in trade accounts payable and accrued liabilities.

Net cash used in investing activities was $14.6 million for the six months ended January 31, 2012, an increase of $9.1 million from cash used in investing activities of $5.5 million for the six months ended January 31, 2011. The increase in cash used in investing activities for the six months ended January 31, 2012, was primarily a result of the cash received from the divestiture of Teklynx business during the six months ended January 31, 2011. Capital expenditures were $11.1 million for the six months ended January 31, 2012, compared to $9.0 million in the same period last year and $20.5 million during the twelve months ended July 31, 2011. The Company expects capital expenditures of approximately $25.0 million for the year ending July 31, 2012.

The shelf registration statement became effective upon filing with the SEC. The Company plans to use the proceeds from any future offerings under the shelf registration for general corporate purposes, including, but not limited to, acquisitions, capital expenditures, and refinancing of debt.

During fiscal 2004 through fiscal 2007, the Company completed three private placement note issuances totaling $500 million in ten-year fixed rate notes with varying maturity dates to institutional investors at interest rates varying from 5.14% to 5.33%. The notes must be repaid equally over seven years, with initial payment due dates ranging from 2008 to 2011, with interest payable on the notes due semiannually on various dates throughout the year, which began in December 2004. The private placements were exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933. The notes were not registered for resale and may not be resold absent such registration or an applicable exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933 and applicable state securities laws. The notes have certain prepayment penalties for repaying them prior to the maturity date.

On May 13, 2010, the Company completed a private placement of 75.0 million aggregate principal amount of senior unsecured notes to accredited institutional investors. The 75.0 million of senior notes consists of 30.0 million aggregate principal amount of 3.71% Series 2010-A Senior Notes, due May 13, 2017, and 45.0 million aggregate principal amount of 4.24% Series 2010-A Senior Notes, due May 13, 2020, with interest payable on the notes semiannually. The notes have certain prepayment penalties for prepaying them prior to maturity. The notes have been fully and unconditionally guaranteed on an unsecured basis by the Company's domestic subsidiaries. These unsecured notes were issued pursuant to a note purchase agreement, dated May 13, 2010.

On October 5, 2006, the Company entered into a $200 million multi-currency revolving loan agreement with a group of five banks, which was replaced on February 1, 2012 by the new credit facility described below. At the Company's option, and subject to certain conditions, the available amount under the previous credit facility was able to be increased from $200 million up to $300 million. Under the previous credit agreement, the Company had the option to select either a base interest rate (based upon the higher of the federal funds rate plus one-half of 1% or the prime rate of Bank of America) or a Eurocurrency interest rate (at the LIBOR rate plus a margin based on the Company's consolidated leverage ratio). The previous credit agreement restricted the amount of certain types of payments, including dividends, which could be made annually to $50 million plus an amount equal to 75% of consolidated net income for the prior fiscal year of the Company. On March 18, 2008, the Company entered into an amendment to the revolving loan agreement which extended the maturity date from October 5, 2011 to March 18, 2013. All other terms of the revolving loan agreement remained the same.

On February 1, 2012, the Company and certain of its subsidiaries entered into an unsecured $300 million multi-currency revolving loan agreement with a group of six banks that replaced and terminated the Company's previous credit agreement that had been entered into on October 5, 2006, and amended on March 18, 2008. Under the new credit agreement, which has a final maturity date of February 1, 2017, the Company has the option to select either a base interest rate (based upon the higher of the federal funds rate plus one-half of 1% or the prime rate of Bank of America plus a margin based on the Company's consolidated leverage ratio) or a Eurocurrency interest rate (at the LIBOR rate plus a margin based on the Company's consolidated leverage ratio). At the Company's option, and subject to certain conditions, the available amount under the new credit facility may be increased from $300 million up to $450 million. As of January 31, 2012, there were no outstanding borrowings under the previous revolving credit agreement. No borrowings have occurred under the new credit facility dated February 1, 2012.

The Company's debt and revolving loan agreements require it to maintain certain financial covenants. The Company's June 2004, February 2006, March 2007, and May 2010 private placement debt agreements require the Company to maintain a ratio of debt to the trailing twelve months EBITDA, as defined in the debt agreements, of not more than a 3.5 to 1.0 ratio (leverage ratio). As of January 31, 2012, the Company was in compliance with the financial covenant of these debt agreements, with the ratio of debt to EBITDA, as defined by the agreements, equal to 1.7 to 1.0. As previously noted, the Company's October 2006 revolving loan agreement was terminated effective February 1, 2012 and replaced with a new revolving loan agreement. The new agreement requires the Company to maintain a ratio of debt to trailing twelve months EBITDA, as defined by the debt agreement, of not more than a 3.25 to 1.0 ratio. The new revolving loan agreement requires the Company's trailing twelve months earnings before interest and taxes (EBIT) to interest expense of not less than a 3.0 to 1.0 ratio (interest expense coverage). Due to the replacement of the Company's previous credit agreement on February 1, 2012, the financial ratios in the previous credit agreement were not applicable to the Company with respect to financial results for the quarter ended January 31, 2012. The Company has computed and was in compliance with the financial covenants of the new credit facility dated February 1, 2012 with respect to financial results for the quarter ended January 31, 2012.

Long-term obligations, less current obligations, as a percentage of long-term obligations, less current obligations, plus stockholders' investment were 23.6% at January 31, 2012, and 22.3% at July 31, 2011. Long-term obligations decreased by $8.8 million from July 31, 2011 to January 31, 2012 due to the impact of foreign currency translation on the Company's Euro-denominated debt, while stockholders' investment decreased as a result of the goodwill impairment charge recorded during the quarter ended January 31, 2012.

Stockholders' investment decreased $109.2 million during the six months ended January 31, 2012 as a result of the Company's net loss of $57.2 million, as well as the decrease in accumulated other comprehensive income of $28.6 million due to the impact of foreign currency translation, and the payment of dividends on Class A and Class B Common Stock of $18.2 million and $1.3 million, respectively.

The Company's cash balances are generated and held in numerous locations throughout the world. At January 31, 2012 and July 31, 2011, approximately 60% and 69% of the Company's cash and cash equivalents was held outside the United States, respectively. The Company's growth has historically been funded by a combination of cash provided by operating activities and debt financing. The Company believes that its cash flow from operating activities, in addition to its borrowing capacity, are sufficient to fund its anticipated requirements for working capital, capital expenditures, restructuring activities, acquisitions, common stock repurchases, scheduled debt repayments, and dividend payments. The Company believes that its current credit arrangements are sound and that the strength of its balance sheet will allow financial flexibility to respond to both internal growth opportunities and those available through acquisition.

Subsequent Events Affecting Financial Condition

On February 1, 2012, the Company and certain of its subsidiaries entered into an unsecured $300 million revolving credit agreement with a group of six banks that replaced and terminated the Company's previous $200 million revolving credit agreement that had been entered into on October 5, 2006, and amended on March 18, 2008.

Under the new credit agreement, which has a final maturity date of February 1, 2017, the Corporation has the option to select either a base interest rate (based upon the higher of the federal funds rate plus one-half of 1% or the prime rate of Bank of America plus a margin based on the Company's consolidated leverage ratio) or a Eurocurrency interest rate (at the LIBOR rate plus a margin based on the Company's consolidated leverage ratio). The new credit agreement is guaranteed by the Corporation's domestic subsidiaries and contains various financial covenants, including a debt-to-EBITDA ratio of 3.25-to-1.0 and an interest coverage ratio of 3.0-to-1.0. A commitment fee is payable on the unused amount of the credit facility. The Corporation intends to use the flexibility provided by the new credit agreement to fund future acquisitions, for general corporate purposes, and to refinance existing debt.

On February 15, 2012, the Board of Directors declared a quarterly cash dividend to shareholders of the Company's Class A and Class B Common Stock of $0.185 per share payable on April 30, 2012, to shareholders of record at the close of business on April 10, 2012.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements The Company does not have material off-balance sheet arrangements or related-party transactions. The Company is not aware of factors that are reasonably likely to adversely affect liquidity trends, other than the risk factors described in this and other Company filings. However, the following additional information is provided to assist those reviewing the Company's financial statements.

Operating Leases These leases generally are entered into for investments in facilities such as manufacturing facilities, warehouses and office space, computer equipment and Company vehicles.

The Company does not believe a material amount of penalties will be incurred under these contracts based upon historical experience and current expectations.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

The Company's business operations give rise to market risk exposure due to changes in foreign exchange rates. To manage that risk effectively, the Company enters into hedging transactions, according to established guidelines and policies that enable it to mitigate the adverse effects of this financial market risk.

The global nature of the Company's business requires active participation in the foreign exchange markets. As a result of investments, production facilities and other operations on a global scale, the Company has assets, liabilities and cash flows in currencies other than the U.S. Dollar. The primary objective of the Company's foreign currency exchange risk management is to minimize the impact of currency movements on intercompany transactions and foreign raw-material imports. To achieve this objective, the Company hedges a portion of known exposures using forward contracts. Main exposures are related to transactions denominated in the British Pound, the Euro, Canadian Dollar, Australian Dollar, Singapore Dollar, Japanese Yen, and the Swiss Franc. As of January 31, 2012, the notional amount of outstanding forward contracts designated as cash flow hedges was $18.5 million. The Company also hedged portions of its net investments in its foreign operations using forward foreign exchange currency contracts of $10.0 million, intercompany foreign currency denominated debt instruments of $6.1 million and Euro-denominated debt of $99.1 million designated as a hedge instrument.

The Company could be exposed to interest rate risk through its corporate borrowing activities. The objective of the Company's interest rate risk management activities is to manage the levels of the Company's fixed and floating interest rate exposure to be consistent with the Company's preferred mix. The interest rate risk management program allows the Company to enter into approved interest rate derivatives, with the approval of the Board of Directors, if there is a desire to modify the Company's exposure to interest rates. As of January 31, 2012, the Company had no interest rate derivatives.

The Company is subject to the risk of changes in foreign currency exchange rates due to its operations in foreign countries. The Company has manufacturing facilities and sells and distributes its products throughout the world. As a result, the Company's financial results could be significantly affected by factors such as changes in foreign currency exchange rates or weak economic conditions in the foreign markets in which the Company manufactures, distributes and sells its products. The Company's operating results are principally exposed to changes in exchange rates between the U.S. Dollar and the European currencies, primarily the Euro, changes between the U.S. Dollar and the Australian Dollar, changes between the U.S. Dollar and the Canadian Dollar, and changes between the U.S. Dollar and the Chinese Yuan. Changes in foreign currency exchange rates for the Company's foreign subsidiaries reporting in local currencies are generally reported as a component of shareholders' equity. The Company's currency translation adjustments recorded for the three and six months ended January 31, 2012, were $11.7 million and $30.8 million unfavorable, respectively. The Company's currency translation adjustments recorded for the three and six months ended January 31, 2011, were $0.3 million unfavorable and $29.8 million favorable, respectively. As of January 31, 2012 and 2011, the Company's foreign subsidiaries had net current assets (defined as current assets less current liabilities) subject to foreign currency translation risk of $415.8 million and $367.1 million, respectively. These amounts were offset by net investment hedges of $115.2 million as of January 31, 2012, and $202.7 million as of January 31, 2011. The potential increase in the net current assets as of January 31, 2012, from a hypothetical 10 percent adverse change in quoted foreign currency exchange rates would be $41.6 million. This sensitivity analysis assumes a parallel shift in foreign currency exchange rates. Exchange rates rarely move in the same direction relative to the U.S. Dollar. This assumption may overstate the impact of changing exchange rates on individual assets and liabilities denominated in a foreign currency.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Brady Corporation maintains a set of disclosure controls and procedures that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the Company in the reports filed by the Company under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms. Disclosure controls and procedures include, without limitation, controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the Company in the reports the Company files under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to the Company's management, including the Company's principal executive and principal financial officers, or persons performing similar functions, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure. The Company carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of its management, including its President and Chief Executive Officer and its Senior Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures pursuant to Rule 13a-15 of the Exchange Act. Based on that evaluation, the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer and Senior Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective as of the end of the period covered by this report.

There were no changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f)) that occurred during the Company's most recently completed fiscal quarter that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.
