Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

On March 13, 2012 Fifth Third Bancorp issued a press release relating to the information set forth in Item 8.01 below. A copy of this press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1. The information in this Item 7.01 and Exhibit 99.1 attached hereto shall not be deemed filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Act of 1934, nor shall it or they be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference.

Item 8.01 Other Events

On March 13, 2012 Fifth Third Bancorp announced the Federal Reserve's response to the capital plan it submitted as part of the 2012 Comprehensive Capital Analysis and Review (CCAR).

The Federal Reserve indicated to Fifth Third that it does not object to the following capital actions: a continuation of its quarterly common dividend of $0.08 per share; the redemption of up to $1.4 billion in certain trust preferred securities; and the repurchase of common shares in an amount equal to any after-tax gains realized by Fifth Third from the sale of Vantiv, Inc. (Vantiv) common shares by either Fifth Third or Vantiv. Vantiv has made preliminary filings related to a potential initial public offering. Fifth Third makes no representations as to whether, when or in what amounts any such gains may occur from any such sale.

The Federal Reserve indicated to Fifth Third that it did object to other elements of its capital plan, including increases in its quarterly common dividend and the initiation of common share repurchases other than those described in the paragraph above. Fifth Third intends to resubmit its capital plan to the Federal Reserve as soon as practicable in order to address the reasons for the Federal Reserve's objections.

Bank Holding Companies are not permitted to disclose confidential supervisory information, and Fifth Third has been informed that this includes any reason for an objection to capital plans submitted under CCAR, as well as the ongoing status of any resubmitted capital plan.
