Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Merger Agreement

On November 3, 2012, Metropolitan Health Networks, Inc., a Florida corporation (the Company ), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement ) with Humana Inc., a Delaware corporation (Parent ), and Miner Acquisition Subsidiary, Inc., a Florida corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Subsidiary ). Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, which has been unanimously approved by the boards of directors of the respective parties, Merger Subsidiary will be merged with and into the Company (the Merger ), with the Company surviving the Merger as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent. Capitalized terms used and not defined herein have the respective meanings assigned to them in the Merger Agreement filed herewith as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

At the time the Merger is effective, each outstanding share of the Company's common stock, par value $0.001 per share (the Common Stock ), other than shares of Common Stock owned by the Company, Parent or Merger Subsidiary or any of their respective subsidiaries, will be converted into the right to receive cash in an amount equal to $11.25, without interest and less any required withholding taxes.

Prior to the effective time of the Merger, each outstanding option to purchase shares of Common Stock will become fully vested and exercisable and will be cancelled in exchange for the right to receive an amount in cash equal to the product of (1) the total number of shares of Common Stock subject to such option multiplied by (2) the excess, if any, of $11.25 over the exercise price per share of such option, without interest and less any required withholding taxes. Immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger, each restricted share of Common Stock will become fully vested and will be converted into the right to receive $11.25 in cash, without interest and less any required withholding taxes.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations and warranties for a transaction of this type. The Merger Agreement also contains customary covenants, including covenants providing for each of the parties to use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the transactions to be consummated. The Merger Agreement also contains covenants requiring the Company to call and hold a shareholder meeting and recommend adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and the approval of the Merger, subject to applicable fiduciary duties. The affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of Common Stock outstanding and entitled to vote are required to approve the Merger.

The Merger Agreement also requires the Company to, among other things, conduct its business in all material respects in the ordinary course consistent with past practice during the period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the closing of the Merger.

The consummation of the Merger is subject to certain conditions, including: the approval of the Merger Agreement by the Company's shareholders, clearance under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and the absence of any injunction or other prohibition on the consummation of the Merger. The consummation of the Merger is not subject to a financing condition.

Under the Merger Agreement, the Company is subject to a customary no-shop restriction on its ability to solicit inquiries, offers or proposals relating to an Acquisition Proposal or to provide information to or engage in discussions or negotiations or otherwise cooperate with third parties regarding an Acquisition Proposal. The no-shop provision is subject to a customary fiduciary out provision that allows the Company to provide information and participate in discussions with respect to an unsolicited written Acquisition Proposal if the Company's board of directors (the Company Board) has determined, after consultation with outside legal counsel and its financial advisor, that such Acquisition Proposal is or would reasonably be expected to result in a Superior Proposal, and not doing so would be reasonably likely to constitute a breach of its fiduciary duties.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for Parent and the Company. The Company has a right to terminate the Merger Agreement if it makes a Company Adverse Recommendation Change with respect to a Superior Proposal and enters into a definitive agreement for such Superior Proposal to the extent permitted by the Merger Agreement. Parent can terminate the Merger Agreement if the Company Board makes any Company Adverse Recommendation Change or if the Company enters into an Alternative Acquisition Agreement, approves or recommends any Acquisition Proposal or publicly announces its intention to do any of the foregoing, or if a tender or exchange offer is commenced by an unaffiliated third party and the Company fails to recommend rejection of such offer within ten business days. Both the Company and Parent also have the right to terminate the Merger Agreement if the Merger has not been consummated by April 30, 2013 or, in certain circumstances, May 10, 2013 (the End Date) (but the Company or Parent would lose this right if the failure to consummate the Merger by the End Date is wholly or partly due to its failure to fulfill in all material respects all of its obligations under the Merger Agreement).

The Merger Agreement provides for the Company's payment to Parent of a $16 million termination fee and the reimbursement of certain of Parent's and Merger Subsidiary's out-of-pocket expenses not to exceed $5.333 million in circumstances where Parent has the right to terminate the Merger Agreement and (i) the Company makes a Company Adverse Recommendation Change, (ii) the Company enters into an Alternative Acquisition Agreement, (iii) the Company Board approves or recommends the Acquisition Proposal, (iv) the Company fails to make a statement recommending rejection of any unaffiliated third party tender offer or exchange offer constituting an Acquisition Proposal within ten business days, (v) the Company Board enters into a definitive agreement for a Superior Proposal or (vi) an Acquisition Proposal for 50.1 % of the Company's consolidated assets, revenues or any class of its equity securities is publicly announced and not withdrawn prior to the Company Shareholder Meeting, the Company Shareholder Approval is not obtained at the Company Shareholder Meeting, the Merger Agreement is terminated by the Company or Parent, and the Company enters into an Alternative Acquisition Agreement within 12 months of the termination of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by such Alternative Acquisition Agreement are subsequently consummated. Generally, neither the Company nor Parent is entitled to a termination fee or an expense reimbursement in the event the Merger Agreement is terminated because the Merger is not consummated by the End Date, provided that, if the Merger Agreement is terminated under such circumstances, Parent is entitled to receive a termination fee and an expense reimbursement, subject to certain conditions, if the Company enters into an Alternative Acquisition Agreement within 12 months after the termination of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by such Alternative Acquisition Agreement are subsequently consummated.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement is only a summary and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

The Merger Agreement has been filed herewith as required by applicable SEC regulations and solely to inform investors of its terms. The Merger Agreement contains representations, warranties and covenants, which were made only for the purposes of such agreement and as of specific dates, were made solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement, and are intended not as statements of fact, but rather as a way of allocating risk to one of the parties if those statements prove to be inaccurate. In addition, such representations, warranties and covenants may have been qualified by certain disclosures not reflected in the text of the Merger Agreement and may apply standards of materiality in a way that is different from what may be viewed as material by shareholders of, or other investors in, the Company. The holders of Common Stock and other investors are generally not third-party beneficiaries under the Merger Agreement and should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or conditions of the Company, Parent, Merger Subsidiary or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates.

Indemnification Agreements

Effective as of November 2, 2012, the Company entered into a customary indemnification agreement with each director (other than Michael M. Earley, who already is party to an indemnification agreement with the Company) serving on the Company Board (each, an Indemnification Agreement and, together, the Indemnification Agreements ), pursuant to which the Company has agreed, among other things, to indemnify and hold harmless each director against certain liabilities, costs and expenses incurred by such director in connection with proceedings in which such director has been made, or is threatened to be made, a party in respect of such director's service to the Company. Under the Indemnification Agreements, the Company has also agreed to indemnify these individuals against certain liabilities that may arise in connection with their status or service as one of the Company's executive officers or directors or in their capacity at other specified entities at which they may serve at the Company's request. In addition, pursuant to the Indemnification Agreements, the Company has agreed to advance expenses to the applicable directors in advance of the final determination of any proceeding for which they may be entitled to indemnification. The indemnification and advancement provisions contained in the Indemnification Agreements are subject to certain customary conditions, and such provisions are in addition to, and do not otherwise limit, the directors' respective rights to indemnification and advancement of expenses provided for under applicable state law, including the Florida Business Corporation Act, and the Company's articles of incorporation and/or bylaws. The foregoing description of the Indemnification Agreements is only a summary and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the form of Indemnification Agreement attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Form 8-K and incorporated by reference in this Item 1.01.

The information set forth in Item 5.02 of this Current Report on Form 8-K with respect to compensation (including incentive compensation) arrangements for the Chief Executive Officer, non-Chief Executive Officers and non-officer employees is hereby incorporated into this Item 1.01 by reference.

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On November 3, 2012, upon the recommendation of the Company's compensation committee, the Company Board amended the Company's 2012 cash bonus plan for certain executive officers and key management employees to provide for the payment of cash incentive bonuses to each participant in the plan on the earlier of March 1, 2013 or the consummation of the Merger (the Revised Plan). The cash incentive awards payable to each of the Company's named executive officers under the Revised Plan are set forth below.

Name	Award
Michael M. Earley, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer	$ 480,533
Jose A. Guethon, President and Chief Operating Officer	328,000
Gemma Rosello, President Continucare Corporation	250,000
Robert J. Sabo, Chief Financial Officer	231,000
Roberto L. Palenzuela, General Counsel and Secretary	162,720

In determining the award amounts payable to the Company's named executive officers under the Revised Plan, the Company Board generally considered each named executive officer's progress towards achievement of his or her predetermined goals under the Company's 2012 bonus plan and each named executive officer's direct or indirect contributions to the Company's efforts to explore and/or pursue strategic alternatives.
