New Q&As posted June 12, 2013

Will my pay stay the same?

We do not expect anyone who stays in the same position to see a decrease or increase in pay as a result of this merger.

Will the EVP, SVP, VP, RVP structure stay the same?

We have a process underway to define the correct multi-site structure, the right support structure and to identify how the areas and regions should be grouped and who should lead them. These are important decisions that will have thoughtful review. At this point we expect to have this clarified by late June to mid-July.

Will the working hours/days change on my property?

No significant changes are expected because both companies have similar schedules. We will review both and determine which option is best for the combined company. At this time, you will continue working the same schedule.

If my position is asked to stay with MAA, what will be the treatment for my year-end bonus?

For property teams, the same bonus structure will remain in place through the end of the year. We will work to keep the multi-site bonuses intact as well but some adjustments may need to be made as we blend groups of properties together. We would not expect your 2013 bonus potential to shrink as a result of this merger.

Will I have to interview and if so when can I expect the interviews to begin?

No, we do not expect you to have to re-interview for your current job.

How will the transition with vendors take place? What communication will they receive and when?

The vendor transition will take place after the close. We will communicate with them prior to the closing.

Will we be renamed? If so do you know when we will be getting new branding items (service shirts, brochures, etc)?

The new company will be named MAA and new branding items will be delivered before the close date. The names of individual properties are not expected to change.

When will we know the closing date?

The closing date will be set as soon as possible after shareholder approval from both sets of shareholders. At this point it is expected to close at the end of September. We will let everyone know quickly if that changes.

What software will be used both in the office and for service?

We are reviewing the software for both companies and will select the system that works best for the department and the combined company. Both companies use LRO for pricing, Communities on MRI will remain on MRI, Communities on Yardi will remain on Yardi. We will review the options for both groups but it is likely that we will move the MRI communities over to Yardi in 2014.

When will we get to meet MAA leaders and have the opportunity to learn more about MAA's corporate culture and their vision for the transition and beyond?

We are excited to get out and visit with your teams. Market tours to meet the teams will begin the week of June 10th.

Will we continue to develop and construct new multifamily projects in the Sunbelt region under MAA or CCC? Also, are projects in pre development or the pipeline going to continue?

We will remain active in investing in new developments.

What is the strategy for Commercial?

We will be evaluating the best options for moving forward with the remaining commercial projects. The process that has been underway over the last few years to become focused solely on the apartment business will continue.

What will happen to vacation, sick time, and personal time balances?

Colonial employee vacation, sick and personal choice time balances will move over at the time of the merger.

Sick time: MAA will honor accrued sick balance as of the date of the merger. Under the combined company's sick time plan, Colonial associates with accrued balances over 56 hours for full-time associates and 24 hours for part-time associates, will begin receiving new sick time each year thereafter when accumulated balances fall below 56 hours for full-time associates and 24 hours for part-time associates.

In addition, the combined company will provide a company paid short-term disability, long-term disability and group life and AD&D insurance plan for associates working over 30 hours per week.

Vacation and Personal Choice days: After the merger, MAA will honor Colonial associates' existing vacation and personal choice days to be taken during the remainder of the year. On January 1st, new paid time off will be granted based on your length of service (last hire date) in accordance with the combined company's Paid Time Off policy as listed below.

What is the benefit package and how does it compare to what I have today?

Colonial medical, vision, prescription and dental plans will remain in effect through the end of 2013. You will have the option to enroll in the combined company medical plans in November to be effective January 1, 2014. MAA medical plans will meet new healthcare reform requirements and be affordable. We plan to blend aspects of both company's benefits to create a comprehensive and competitive package. We will keep you informed as decisions are made regarding the plans.

If my position is asked to stay with MAA how will the 401K match be determined?

Historically, both Boards of Directors has annually reviewed and determined the match under each company's 401k plan. We are currently working on a contribution schedule for each plan for all qualified participants. We will keep you informed as decisions regarding the retirement plans are made.

If my position is asked to stay with MAA what will happen to my restricted stock?

In compliance with the Merger Agreement, MAA will assume all option and restricted stock plans upon merger. The number of options and shares of restricted stock as well as any relevant exercise prices will be adjusted based on the exchange ratio as outlined by the Merger Agreement. The assumed plans will be subject to the same terms and conditions, including vesting schedules and forfeiture conditions, as are

Will employees on properties stay on the property that they are currently on in Multifamily?

Yes, the staffing models at the communities are not expected to change as a result of this merger. We are counting on each of you to serve our residents with your normal compassion and professionalism during the transition.

If MAA sells my commercial property or if they eliminate my position after the merger, what type of severance policy do they have or would they follow the current Colonial practice using my years of service?

For any positions that are eliminated prior to the merger, severance will be handled in accordance with each company's current severance practice. We are in the process of reviewing the practices for both companies and will adopt a combined severance practice for the new company post-merger.

Will my seniority/years of service transfer over to MAA or CLP if I choose to accept a position at a different property prior to the merger?

Until the merger closes, MAA and CLP will operate as two separate companies. If an associate chooses to transfer from a CLP property to a MAA property or vice versa PRIOR to the closing of the merger, the associate's hire date will reflect the date of the transfer and length of service will be reset. If an associate chooses to transfer from a CLP property to a MAA property or vice versa AFTER the closing of the merger, the associate will retain their current hire date and seniority.
