Endologix, Inc. and TriVascular Technologies, Inc. Announce Early Termination of Hart-Scott-Rodino Waiting Period in Connection with Proposed Merger

IRVINE, Calif., & SANTA ROSA, Calif., November 18, 2015 Endologix, Inc. (Nasdaq: ELGX) and TriVascular Technologies, Inc. (Nasdaq: TRIV) today announced that the U.S. Federal Trade Commission and Department of Justice have granted early termination of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 with respect to the proposed merger of Endologix and TriVascular. The waiting period was scheduled to expire on December 9, 2015.

As previously announced on October 26, 2015, Endologix and TriVascular entered into a definitive merger agreement pursuant to which Endologix and TriVascular would combine in a stock and cash merger transaction. Termination of the HSR waiting period satisfies one of the conditions to closing of the proposed transaction. The closing of the transaction remains subject to other customary closing conditions, including the effectiveness of Endologix's Registration Statement on Form S-4, which was initially filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on November 17, 2015, and the approval of TriVascular's stockholders. Subject to the satisfaction of the other conditions to closing, Endologix and TriVascular expect the transaction to close in the first quarter of 2016.

About Endologix, Inc.

Endologix, Inc. develops and manufactures minimally invasive treatments for aortic disorders. Endologix's focus is endovascular stent grafts for the treatment of abdominal aortic aneurysms (AAA). AAA is a weakening of the wall of the aorta, the largest artery in the body, resulting in a balloon-like enlargement. Once AAA develops, it continues to enlarge and, if left untreated, becomes increasingly susceptible to rupture. The overall patient mortality rate for ruptured AAA is approximately 80%, making it a leading cause of death in the United States. Additional information can be found on Endologix's website at www.endologix.com.

About TriVascular Technologies, Inc.

TriVascular develops and commercializes innovative technologies to significantly advance the minimally invasive treatment of abdominal aortic aneurysms. TriVascular manufactures the Ovation® Abdominal Stent Graft platform, the lowest profile FDA-approved endovascular aortic repair (EVAR) system, which utilizes a novel, polymer-based sealing mechanism. TriVascular is based in Santa Rosa, California. Additional information can be found on TriVascular's website at www.trivascular.com.

Forward-Looking Statements

This communication includes statements that may be forward-looking statements. The words "believe," "expect," "anticipate," "project" and similar expressions, among others, generally identify forward-looking statements. Endologix and TriVascular caution that these forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated in the forward-looking statements.
