Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 20, 2016, F.N.B. Corporation (F.N.B.), the parent company of First National Bank of Pennsylvania, and Yadkin Financial Corporation (Yadkin), the parent company of Yadkin Bank, entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement), pursuant to which Yadkin will merge with and into F.N.B. As a result of the merger, the separate corporate existence of Yadkin will cease and F.N.B. will continue as the surviving corporation (the Merger). The Merger is expected to be completed in the first quarter of 2017, subject to approvals by Yadkin shareholders and F.N.B. shareholders, respectively, receipt of required regulatory and other approvals and satisfaction of customary closing conditions. Immediately after the Merger is completed, Yadkin Bank, a North Carolina-chartered bank, will merge with and into First National Bank of Pennsylvania, a national association, with First National Bank of Pennsylvania being the surviving entity.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement and in connection with the Merger, holders of Yadkin voting common stock, par value $1.00 per share (Yadkin Voting Common Stock), will have the right to receive shares of F.N.B. common stock at a fixed exchange ratio of 2.16 shares of F.N.B. common stock for each share of Yadkin Voting Common Stock (the Exchange Ratio), and cash in lieu of any fractional shares (the Merger Consideration). Holders of Yadkin non-voting common stock, par value $1.00 per share (Yadkin Non-Voting Common Stock), will have the right to receive, at their election, either (a) the same Merger Consideration as the holders of the Yadkin Voting Common Stock (i.e., 2.16 shares of F.N.B. common stock for each share of Yadkin Non-Voting Common Stock, and cash in lieu of any fractional shares); or (b) an amount in cash, rounded up to the nearest $0.01, equal to the average closing price of F.N.B. common stock as reported by the New York Stock Exchange over the 20 consecutive trading days ending on and including the fifth trading day prior to the closing date of the Merger, multiplied by the Exchange Ratio. Any shares of Yadkin Voting Common Stock or Yadkin Non-Voting Common Stock that are held by Yadkin and its subsidiaries (other than in a fiduciary, custodial, agency or similar capacity) will be cancelled without receipt of any stock or cash consideration. The Merger is expected to qualify as a tax-free exchange for Yadkin shareholders.

Additionally, each outstanding Yadkin stock option will be assumed and converted into an option to purchase a number of shares of F.N.B. common stock (rounded down to the nearest whole share) equal to the product obtained by multiplying the number of shares of Yadkin Voting Common Stock subject to the option and the Exchange Ratio, at an exercise price (rounded up to the nearest whole cent) obtained by dividing the per share exercise price under the option by the Exchange Ratio. The Yadkin stock options otherwise will continue to be subject to the same terms and conditions which applied immediately before the completion of the Merger. Upon completion of the Merger, each outstanding Yadkin restricted stock award will become fully-vested and will be converted into the right to receive, without interest, the Merger Consideration.

The Merger Agreement also provides that effective upon the completion of the Merger, the size of F.N.B.'s Board of Directors will be increased by one member, and one current member of Yadkin's Board of Directors, who has been designated by F.N.B. in consultation with Yadkin (the Yadkin Designee), will be appointed to the F.N.B. Board of Directors. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, the Yadkin Designee will serve until the 2017 annual meeting of F.N.B. shareholders and will be nominated for re-election at the 2017 annual meeting. F.N.B. also agreed to establish a North Carolina Community Advisory Board following the completion of the Merger, and to invite six members of Yadkin's Board of Directors, who will be selected jointly by F.N.B. and Yadkin, to serve on the advisory board for a minimum term of one year.

The Merger Agreement contains various customary representations, warranties and covenants by Yadkin and F.N.B., including among others, covenants relating to the conduct of their respective businesses during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the effective time of the Merger. Each party also agreed to convene and hold a meeting of its shareholders at which, in Yadkin's case, the shareholders will consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the Merger, and, in F.N.B.'s case, the shareholders will consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the issuance of F.N.B. common stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement, as required by the rules of the New York Stock Exchange. Additionally, Yadkin agreed that it will not solicit or encourage proposals for an alternative business combination transaction or, subject to certain exceptions, enter into discussions or furnish information in connection with any proposals for alternative business combination transactions.

The Merger will not be completed unless a number of customary closing conditions are met, including, among others: approval of the Merger by Yadkin shareholders; approval of the issuance of F.N.B. common stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement by F.N.B. shareholders; the effectiveness of the Form S-4 registration statement to be filed by F.N.B. with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) for the F.N.B. common stock to be issued in the Merger; authorization for listing on the New York Stock Exchange of the F.N.B. common stock to be issued in the Merger; receipt of required regulatory and other approvals, including the approvals of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the North Carolina Commissioner of Banks and the Officer of the Comptroller of the Currency, and the expiration of all applicable statutory waiting periods; the accuracy of the representations and warranties of each party specified in the Merger Agreement; each party's receipt of an opinion from its tax counsel to the effect that the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended; and the absence of any injunctions, court orders or other legal restraints preventing the completion of the Merger.

The Merger Agreement provides for termination rights which may be exercised by Yadkin or F.N.B. upon the occurrence of certain events, such as the following: a required regulatory approval is denied by final, non-appealable action of a governmental entity; the parties fail to complete the Merger by May 31, 2017; the other party has breached a representation, warranty or covenant which would prevent a closing condition from being satisfied and the breach is not or cannot be cured within 30 days; the Yadkin shareholders have failed to approve the Merger; the F.N.B. shareholders have failed to approve the issuance of F.N.B. common stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement; or if, during a specified period prior to the closing of the Merger, the average closing price of F.N.B. common stock is less than 80% of its average closing price over the 10 trading days immediately prior to the execution of the Merger Agreement, and F.N.B. common stock underperforms a specified peer group index by more than 20%. In addition, Yadkin may terminate the Merger Agreement to enter into an alternative business combination transaction pursuant to a superior proposal, as defined by the Merger Agreement. If the Merger Agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, Yadkin has agreed to pay F.N.B. a termination fee of $45.0 million.

In connection with the Merger Agreement, certain shareholders of Yadkin, including each director and executive officer of Yadkin, entered into a voting agreement with F.N.B. in which he or she has agreed, among other things, to vote the shares of Yadkin Voting Common Stock owned beneficially or of record by such shareholder in favor of the Merger Agreement and the Merger at the special meeting of Yadkin's shareholders at which these matters are to be considered.

The foregoing summary of the Merger Agreement and the voting agreements does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of those agreements. As such, the Merger Agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1, is incorporated herein by reference; and the forms of voting agreements, which are exhibits to the Merger Agreement, are also incorporated herein by reference.

The representations, warranties and covenants of each party set forth in the Merger Agreement have been made only for purposes of, were and are solely for the benefit of the parties to, the Merger Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. In addition, the representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement (i) will not survive consummation of the Merger, unless otherwise specified therein, and (ii) were made only as of the date of the Merger Agreement or such other date as is specified in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the parties' public disclosures. Accordingly, the Merger Agreement is included with this filing only to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement, and not to provide investors with any other factual information regarding F.N.B., Yadkin, their respective affiliates or their respective businesses. The Merger Agreement should not be read alone, but should instead be read in conjunction with the other information regarding F.N.B. or Yadkin, their respective affiliates or their respective businesses, the Merger Agreement and the Merger that will be contained in, or incorporated by reference into, the registration statement on Form S-4 filed by F.N.B. with the SEC that will include a joint proxy statement of F.N.B. and Yadkin and a prospectus of F.N.B., as well as in the Forms 10-K, Forms 10-Q and other filings that each of F.N.B. and Yadkin make with the SEC.
