Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This supplement to the proxy statement on Schedule 14A is made in reliance upon the safe harbor of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including, without limitation, the statements made concerning A. Schulman's intent to consummate the merger with LyondellBasell. As a general matter, forward-looking statements are those focused upon anticipated events or trends, expectations, and beliefs relating to matters that are not historical in nature. Forward-looking statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate strictly to historic or current facts and relate to future events and expectations. Forward-looking statements contain such words as anticipate, estimate, expect, project, intend, plan, believe, forecast, foresee, likely, may, should, goal, predict, continue, and other words and terms of similar meaning in connection with any discussion of future operating or financial performance. Such forward-looking statements are subject to uncertainties and factors relating to A. Schulman's operations and business environment, all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond the control of A. Schulman. Among others, the following uncertainties and other factors could cause actual results to differ from those set forth in the forward-looking statements: (i) the risk that the merger may not be consummated in a timely manner, if at all; (ii) the risk that the definitive merger agreement may be terminated in circumstances that require A. Schulman to pay LyondellBasell a termination fee of $50 million; (iii) risks related to the diversion of management's attention from A. Schulman's ongoing business operations; (iv) the effect of the announcement of the merger on A.

Schulman's business relationships (including, without limitation, customers and suppliers), operating results and business generally; (v) risks related to obtaining the requisite consents to the merger, including, without limitation, the receipt of approval from A. Schulman's stockholders, the timing (including possible delays) and receipt of regulatory clearance and CFIUS approval from governmental authorities (including any conditions, limitations or restrictions placed on these approvals) and the risk that one or more governmental authority may deny any such approval; and (vi) the conditions of the capital markets during the period covered by the forward-looking statements. Further risks that could cause actual results to differ materially from those matters expressed in or implied by such forward-looking statements are set forth under "Risk Factors" in A. Schulman's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended August 31, 2017, its subsequent quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and in A. Schulman's definitive proxy statement, dated May 11, 2018, that A. Schulman filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") in connection with the proposed merger. The list of factors presented here is, and the list of factors presented in A. Schulman's other SEC filings should not be considered to be a complete statement of all potential risks and uncertainties. In addition, risks and uncertainties not presently known to A. Schulman or that it believes to be immaterial also may adversely affect A. Schulman. Should any known or unknown risks or uncertainties develop into actual events, or underlying assumptions prove inaccurate, these developments could have material adverse effects on A. Schulman's business, financial condition and results of operations. A. Schulman does not undertake, and hereby disclaims, any duty to update these forward-looking statements, although its situation and circumstances may change in the future. Persons reading this communication are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements which speak only as of the date hereof.

The merger is subject to certain conditions precedent, including regulatory approvals, CFIUS approval and approval from A. Schulman's stockholders. A. Schulman cannot provide any assurance that the proposed merger will be completed, nor can it give assurances as to the terms on which such merger will be consummated.
