Item 1.01. Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 27, 2019, Entegris, Inc. (Entegris) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with Versum Materials, Inc. (Versum).

The Merger Agreement provides that, among other things and subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, (1) Versum will merge with and into Entegris (the Merger), with Entegris surviving and continuing as the surviving corporation in the Merger, and, (2) at the effective time of the Merger (the Effective Time), each outstanding share of common stock of Versum (other than shares owned by Versum (excluding any such shares owned by a Versum benefit plan or held on behalf of third parties)) will be converted into the right to receive 1.120 shares of common stock of Entegris, plus cash in lieu of any fractional shares that otherwise would have been issued. The shares of Entegris common stock to be issued in the Merger will be listed on the NASDAQ or the New York Stock Exchange. At the Effective Time, Entegris's common stockholders will own approximately 52.5%, and Versum's common stockholders will own approximately 47.5%, of the outstanding shares of common stock of the combined company on a fully diluted basis including exercisable options only.

The Board of Directors of each of Entegris and Versum unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Treatment of Equity Awards

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, at the Effective Time, (1) each outstanding Versum stock option will convert into a stock option relating to shares of Entegris common stock on the terms set forth in the Merger Agreement, (2) each outstanding Versum restricted stock unit will convert into a time-vesting Entegris restricted stock unit on the terms set forth in the Merger Agreement and (3) each outstanding Versum performance stock unit award will convert into a time-vesting Entegris restricted stock unit award on the terms set forth in the Merger Agreement. Performance goals applicable to Versum performance stock unit awards will be measured based on actual performance through the Effective Time.

Post-Closing Governance

The parties have agreed to certain governance-related matters, some of which will also be set forth in the amended and restated charter of the combined company at the Effective Time, subject to approval by Entegris's stockholders.

At the Effective Time, Entegris's Board of Directors will have nine members, including (1) four directors who prior to the Effective Time were members of Entegris's Board of Directors (the Entegris Designees), (2) four directors who prior to the Effective Time were members of Versum's Board of Directors, including the Chairman of Versum's Board of Directors as of immediately prior to the Effective Time (the Versum Designees), and (3) the Chief Executive Officer of Entegris as of immediately prior to the Effective Time. The Merger Agreement requires each of the Entegris Designees and Versum Designees to meet the independence standards of the NASDAQ or the New York Stock Exchange, as applicable, with respect to Entegris as of the Effective Time.

At the Effective Time, the Chief Executive Officer of Entegris as of immediately prior to the Effective time will become the Chief Executive Officer of the combined company, and the Chairman of Versum's Board of Directors as of immediately prior to the Effective Time will be appointed to serve as the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the combined company.

Subject to approval by the stockholders of Entegris, the certificate of incorporation of Entegris (the Charter) will be amended and restated to provide that for three years from the Effective Time, removal of the Chairman of the Board of Directors or the Chief Executive Officer will require the approval of 75% of the directors (the Charter Amendment).

Conditions to the Merger

The completion of the Merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain customary mutual closing conditions, including (1) a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock of both Entegris and Versum having approved adoption of the Merger Agreement, (2) the expiration or termination of any applicable waiting period, and the receipt of approvals, under U.S. and certain foreign antitrust and competition laws, (3) the absence of any governmental order or law that makes consummation of the Merger illegal or otherwise prohibited, (4) the effectiveness of the registration statement on Form S-4 to be filed by Entegris pursuant to which the shares of Entegris common stock to be issued in connection with the Merger are registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC), (5) the authorization for listing of Entegris common stock to be issued in connection with the merger on the NASDAQ or the New York Stock Exchange and (6) the receipt by each party of a customary legal opinion that the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the U.S. tax code. The obligation of each party to consummate the Merger is also conditioned upon the other party's representations and warranties being true and correct (subject to certain materiality exceptions) and the other party having performed in all material respects its obligations under the Merger Agreement.

Representations, Warranties and Covenants

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations and warranties of Entegris and Versum relating to their respective businesses, financial statements and public filings, in each case generally subject to customary materiality qualifiers. Additionally, the Merger Agreement provides for customary pre-closing covenants of Entegris and Versum, including covenants relating to conducting their respective businesses in the ordinary course and to refrain from taking certain actions without the other party's consent. Entegris and Versum also agreed to use their respective reasonable best efforts to cause the Merger to be consummated and to obtain regulatory approvals or expiration or termination of waiting periods, subject to certain exceptions, including that Entegris and Versum are not required to take any action that would reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on the business, operations, financial condition or results of operations of either party and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or of the combined company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, in each case, from and after the Effective Time.

The Merger Agreement provides that, during the period from the date of the Merger Agreement until the Effective Time, each of Entegris and Versum will be subject to certain restrictions on its ability to solicit alternative acquisition proposals from third parties, to provide non-public information to third parties and to engage in discussions with third parties regarding alternative acquisition proposals, subject to customary exceptions. Entegris is required to call a meeting of its stockholders to vote upon the adoption of the Merger Agreement, to approve the issuance of Entegris common stock in connection with the Merger (the Entegris Stock Issuance) and to adopt the Charter Amendment and, subject to certain exceptions, to recommend that its stockholders vote to adopt the Merger Agreement, approve the Entegris Stock Issuance and adopt the Charter Amendment. Versum is required to call a meeting of its stockholders to vote upon the adoption of the Merger Agreement and, subject to certain exceptions, to recommend that its stockholders vote to adopt the Merger Agreement.

Termination

The Merger Agreement contains termination rights for each of Entegris and Versum, including, among others, (1) if the consummation of the Merger does not occur on or before January 28, 2020, subject to extension to April 28, 2020 in certain circumstances for the sole purpose of obtaining regulatory clearances and (2) subject to certain conditions, if such party wishes to terminate the Merger Agreement to enter into a definitive agreement with respect to a Superior Proposal (as such term is defined in the Merger Agreement). Upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, including the termination by Versum in the event of a change of recommendation by the Entegris Board of Directors or the termination by Entegris to enter into an agreement in connection with a Superior Proposal (as such term is defined in the Merger Agreement), Entegris would be required to pay Versum a termination fee of $155 million. In addition, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under reciprocal specified circumstances, including the termination by Versum in the event of a change of recommendation by the Entegris Board of Directors or by Versum to enter into an agreement providing for a Superior Proposal (as such term is defined in the Merger Agreement), Versum would be required to pay Entegris a termination fee of $140 million. In addition, if the Merger Agreement is terminated because of a failure of Versum's stockholders or Entegris's stockholders to approve the proposals required to complete the Merger (in circumstances where the other party's stockholders have approved the proposals required to complete the Merger), Versum or Entegris, as applicable, may be required to reimburse the other party for its actual transaction expenses in an amount not to exceed $35 million. In no event will either party be entitled to receive more than one termination fee, net of any expense reimbursement.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby in this Current Report on Form 8-K is only a summary and does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and incorporated by reference herein.

The Merger Agreement has been included to provide investors with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about Entegris or Versum. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of the Merger Agreement as of the specific dates therein, were solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors are not third-party beneficiaries under the Merger Agreement and should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the parties thereto or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in Entegris's or Versum's public disclosures, as applicable.

Financing Commitment

In connection with entry into the Merger Agreement, Entegris also entered into a commitment letter, dated as of January 27, 2019, with Morgan Stanley Senior Funding, Inc. (MS), pursuant to which MS committed to provide a $987 million incremental term loan to be used to refinance indebtedness of Versum in certain circumstances in connection with the Merger.
