PRE-PAID LEGAL SERVICES, INC.
One Pre-Paid Way

[ ], 2011

Dear Shareholder:

You are cordially invited to attend a special meeting of shareholders of Pre-Paid Legal Services, Inc. (the "Company") to be held at One Pre-Paid Way, Ada, Oklahoma, on [ ], [ ], 2011, at [ ] a.m., local time.

At the special meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve a merger pursuant to which the Company will merge with PPL Acquisition Corp., a wholly owned subsidiary of MidOcean PPL Holdings Corp, which we refer to as Parent. We entered into a merger agreement (the "Merger Agreement") with Parent and its subsidiary PPL Acquisition Corp., which we refer to as Merger Sub, on January 30, 2011. If the merger is approved and is completed, you will be entitled to receive $66.50 in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes, for each share of our common stock owned by you as of the effective time of the merger, unless you have properly exercised your appraisal rights with respect to such shares.

Our board of directors, acting on the unanimous recommendation of a special committee composed of disinterested and independent directors, unanimously approved the Merger Agreement, determined that the Merger Agreement and the merger are fair to and in the best interests of the Company and its unaffiliated shareholders, and directed that the Merger Agreement be submitted to our shareholders for their adoption. Our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" the adoption of the Merger Agreement at the special meeting and "FOR" the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies.

Your vote is very important, regardless of the number of shares you own. The proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement must be approved by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting.

If you do not return your proxy card, submit a proxy via the Internet or by telephone or attend the special meeting and vote in person, it will have the same effect as if you voted "AGAINST" adoption of the Merger Agreement.

Only shareholders who owned shares of the Company's common stock at the close of business on [ ], 2011, the record date for the special meeting, will be entitled to vote at the special meeting.

To vote your shares, you may return your proxy card, submit a proxy via the Internet or by telephone or attend the special meeting and vote in person. Even if you plan to attend the special meeting, we urge you to promptly submit a proxy for your shares via the Internet or by telephone or by completing, signing, dating and returning the enclosed proxy card.

If you received your proxy card or voting instructions relating to shares allocated to your account under the Pre-Paid Legal Services, Inc. Employee Stock Ownership and Thrift Plan (the "ESOP") or your interests in the Associate Investment Club, please follow the instructions provided to ensure that shares of stock allocated to your ESOP account and your Associate Investment Club shares are voted properly.

If your shares of our common stock are held in "street name" by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee will be unable to vote your shares of our common stock without instructions from you. Accordingly, you should instruct your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee to vote your shares of our common stock in accordance with the procedures provided by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee.

The enclosed notice of special meeting and proxy statement explain the proposed merger and provide specific information concerning the special meeting. Please read these materials (including the annexes) carefully.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS TO BE HELD ON [ ], 2011

To the Shareholders of Pre-Paid Legal Services, Inc.:

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT a special meeting of the shareholders of the Pre-Paid Legal Services, Inc., an Oklahoma corporation (the "Company"), will be held at One Pre-Paid Way, Ada, Oklahoma, on [ ], 2011 [a] a.m., local time, for the following purposes:

1. To consider and vote upon the adoption of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of January 30, 2011, by and among the Company, MidOcean PPL Holdings Corp. ("Parent") and PPL Acquisition Corp. ("Merger Sub"), as such agreement may be amended from time to time (the "Merger Agreement");
2. To consider and vote upon any proposal to authorize the Company's board of directors, in its discretion, to adjourn the special meeting to a later date or dates, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in the event there are not sufficient votes in favor of adoption of the Merger Agreement at the time of the special meeting; and
3. To transact such other business as may properly come before the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof by or at the direction of the Company's board of directors.

Only shareholders of record at the close of business on [ ], 2011 are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting and any adjournment or postponement thereof. A complete list of these shareholders will be available at One Pre-Paid Way, Ada, Oklahoma for at least ten days prior to the special meeting. Such list will also be produced and kept at the meeting site during the special meeting.

Your vote is important, regardless of the number of shares you own. The merger cannot be completed unless the Merger Agreement is adopted by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. We urge you to complete, sign, date and return your proxy card as promptly as possible by mailing the card in the enclosed postage prepaid envelope, whether or not you expect to attend the special meeting. If you are unable to attend in person and you return your proxy card, your shares will be voted at the special meeting in accordance with your proxy. You may also submit a proxy by telephone or through the Internet by following the instructions on your proxy card. If you fail to return your proxy card, or submit your proxy by phone or the Internet, your shares of our common stock will not be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the special meeting and will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement.

If your shares of our common stock are held in "street name" by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee will be unable to vote your shares of our common stock without instructions from you. You should instruct your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee to vote your shares of our common stock in accordance with the procedures provided by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee. The failure to instruct your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee to vote your share of our common stock "FOR" the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement.

If you received your proxy card relating to shares allocated to your account under the Pre-Paid Legal Services, Inc. Employee Stock Ownership and Thrift Plan (the "ESOP") or your interests in the Associate Investment Club, please follow the voting instructions provided. The failure to vote the shares allocated to your ESOP account or your Associate Investment Club shares in accordance with the instructions provided will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement.

Edgar Filing: PRE PAID LEGAL SERVICES INC - Form PRER14A

Our board of directors, acting on the unanimous recommendation of a special committee composed of disinterested and independent directors (the "Special Committee"), unanimously approved the Merger Agreement, determined that the Merger Agreement and the merger are fair to and in the best interests of the Company and its unaffiliated shareholders and directed that the Merger Agreement be submitted to our shareholders for their adoption. Our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" the adoption of the Merger Agreement at the special meeting and "FOR" the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies.

Under Oklahoma law, if the merger is completed, holders of the Company's common stock who do not vote in favor of adoption of the Merger Agreement will have the right to seek appraisal of the fair value of their shares as determined by an Oklahoma District Court. In order to exercise your appraisal rights, you must submit a written demand for an appraisal prior to the shareholder vote on the Merger Agreement, not vote in favor of adoption of the Merger Agreement and you must comply with other Oklahoma law procedures explained in the accompanying proxy statement.

The merger is described in the accompanying proxy statement, which we urge you to read carefully. A copy of the Merger Agreement is attached as Annex A to the proxy statement.

By Order of the Board of Directors

YOUR VOTE IS IMPORTANT

Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, please complete, sign and date the enclosed proxy card and return it promptly in the enclosed postage prepaid envelope, or submit a proxy by telephone or through the Internet by following the instructions on your proxy card. - authorizing our board of directors, in its discretion, to adjourn the special meeting to a later date or dates, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in the event there are not sufficient votes in favor of adoption of the Merger Agreement at the time of the special meeting.

Shareholders will also consider and act upon such other business that may properly come before the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

Record Date and Voting Power. You are entitled to vote at the special meeting if you owned shares of our common stock at the close of business on [ ], 2011, the record date for the special meeting. You will have one vote at the special meeting for each share of our common stock you owned at the close of business on the record date. As of the record date, there were [ ] shares of our common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting. A quorum is present if the holders of one-third of the outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote on the record date are present at the meeting, either in person or represented by proxy.

Required Vote. The adoption of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. Approval of any proposal to authorize our board of directors, in its discretion, to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast on the matter.

As of [ ], 2011 the record date, the directors and executive officers of the Company beneficially owned and were entitled to vote, in the aggregate, [ ] shares of our common stock, representing [ ] % of the outstanding shares of our common stock on the record date. Adoption of the Merger Agreement does not require approval of a majority of unaffiliated shareholders. The directors and executive officers have informed the Company that they currently intend to vote all of their shares of Company common stock "FOR" the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement and "FOR" the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies.

If you do not return your proxy card, submit a proxy via the Internet or by telephone or attend the special meeting and vote in person, it will have the same effect as if you voted "AGAINST" adoption of the Merger Agreement.

Voting of Proxies and Revocation of Proxies (page 55)

Any shareholder of record entitled to vote at the special meeting may submit a proxy by telephone, over the Internet, by returning the enclosed proxy card in the accompanying prepaid reply envelope, or may vote in person by appearing at the special meeting. If your shares of our common stock are held in "street name" through a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, you should instruct your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee on how to vote your shares of our common stock using the instructions provided by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee. If you received your proxy card with respect to shares allocated to your account under the ESOP or with respect to your Associate Investment Club shares, please follow the voting instructions provided. If you fail to submit a proxy or to vote in person at the special meeting or in accordance with instructions provided, or do not provide your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee with voting instructions, as applicable, your shares of our common stock will not be voted on the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, which will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, and your shares of our common stock will not have an effect on any vote or a proposal to adjourn the special meeting.

Edgar Filing: PRE PAID LEGAL SERVICES INC - Form PRER14A

You may change your vote at any time before your proxy card is voted at the special meeting. If your shares are registered in your name, you may revoke your proxy by:

- delivering a written revocation of the proxy, or a later dated, signed proxy card, to our corporate secretary, Kathleen S. Pinson, at our corporate offices at One Pre-Paid Way, Ada, Oklahoma 74820, or by fax to the attention of Kathleen S. Pinson at (580) 436-7409, on or before the business day prior to the special meeting;

You may revoke your proxy with respect to shares allocated to your account under the ESOP or your Associate Investment Club shares only by following the instructions provided.

Revocation of the proxy will not affect any vote previously taken. Attendance at the special meeting will not in itself constitute the revocation of a proxy; you must vote in person at the special meeting to revoke a previously delivered proxy.

The Merger (page 58)

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the merger, Merger Sub will be merged with and into the Company with the Company continuing as the surviving corporation. If the merger is completed, the Company will cease to be a publicly-traded company.

If the merger is completed, you will be entitled to receive $66.50 in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes, in exchange for each share of our common stock that you own as of the effective time of the merger and for which you have not properly exercised appraisal rights. If the merger is completed, you will not own any shares of the capital stock of the surviving corporation.

A copy of the Merger Agreement is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement. Please read it carefully.

Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of Our Board of Directors (page 32)

The board of directors of the Company, which we refer to as the board of directors, after considering the unanimous recommendation of the Special Committee and the various factors described in the section entitled "Special Factors—Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of Our Board of Directors," unanimously (i) determined that the merger is fair to and in the best interests of the Company and our unaffiliated shareholders, (ii) approved and declared advisable the Merger Agreement and the merger (iii) directed that the Merger Agreement be submitted for consideration by the shareholders of the Company at a special meeting of shareholders and (iv) resolved to recommend that our shareholders vote to adopt the Merger Agreement. The Special Committee made its recommendation to the board of directors after consideration of the factors described in the section entitled "Special Factors—Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of Our Board of Directors". The Special Committee is comprised entirely of disinterested and independent directors of the Company. Members of the Special Committee are also independent of Parent, Merger Sub and MidOcean Investors.

In considering the recommendation of the board of directors with respect to the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, you should be aware that our directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, yours. The board of directors was aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the Merger Agreement and the merger, and in recommending that the Merger Agreement be adopted by the shareholders of the Company. See the section entitled “Special Factors—Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger” beginning on page 45.

The board of directors recommends that you vote “FOR” the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement and “FOR” the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate to solicit additional proxies.

Purposes and Reasons of the PPD Parties for the Merger and Positions of the PPD Parties Regarding the Fairness of the Merger (page 34)

Each of Harland C. Stonecipher, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company, Randy Harp, Co-Chief Executive Officer, President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company, and Steve Williamson, Chief Financial Officer of the Company (collectively, the “PPD Parties”) agrees with and adopts the reasons for the merger described under “—Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of Our Board of Directors.” In addition, each of the PPD Parties believes that the merger is fair to the Company’s unaffiliated shareholders on the basis of the factors described under “—Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of Our Board of Directors.” None of the PPD Parties participated in the deliberations of the Special Committee regarding, or received advice from the Special Committee’s legal or financial advisor as to, the fairness of the merger.

Opinion of the Special Committee’s Financial Advisor (page 35)

Berenson & Company, LLC (“Berenson”) served as the Special Committee’s financial advisor in connection with the merger. On January 30, 2011, Berenson rendered to the Special Committee its opinion as investment bankers to the effect that, as of that date and based upon and subject to the various considerations and assumptions set forth therein, the merger consideration of $66.50 in cash to be received by the holders of our common stock pursuant to the merger was fair from a financial point of view to the holders of such shares. The Berenson written opinion, dated January 30, 2011, is sometimes referred to herein as the Berenson opinion.

The full text of the Berenson opinion, which sets forth the assumptions made, matters considered, and limitations on the scope of review undertaken by Berenson in rendering its opinion, is attached to this proxy statement as Annex B. The Berenson opinion was provided to the Special Committee in connection with its consideration of the merger. The Berenson opinion does not constitute a recommendation as to how any shareholder should vote on the merger or any other matter. The Company encourages the Company’s shareholders to read the Berenson opinion carefully and in its entirety. The summary of the Berenson opinion in this proxy statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Berenson opinion.

Financing of the Merger (page 40)

The total amount of funds necessary to pay the aggregate merger consideration as well as related transaction charges, fees and expenses is estimated to be approximately $[ ]. Parent has informed us that it intends to fund the transaction with equity and debt financing, together with unrestricted cash and cash equivalents held by us and our subsidiaries, which will be available to Parent following consummation of the merger. Consummation of the merger is not conditioned on the funding of Parent’s financing or on Parent obtaining financing.

Parent has obtained an equity commitment letter and a debt commitment letter, which we refer to collectively as the commitment letters. The funding under those commitment letters is subject to certain conditions, including conditions that do not relate directly to the Merger Agreement. We believe the amounts committed under the commitment letters will be sufficient to complete the merger, but we cannot assure you of that. Those amounts might be insufficient if, among other things, we have substantially less cash on hand or one or more of the parties to the commitment letters fails to fund the committed amounts in breach of such commitment letters or if the conditions to such commitments are not met. Although obtaining the proceeds of any financing, including the financing under the commitment letters, is not a condition to the completion of the merger, the failure of Parent and Merger Sub to obtain any portion of the committed financing (or alternative financing) is likely to result in the failure of the merger to be completed. In that case, Parent may be obligated to pay the Company a reverse termination fee of $50.0 million as described under “The Merger Agreement—Fees and Expenses” beginning on page 78. The obligation of Parent to pay the reverse termination fee is guaranteed by the guarantor referred to below.

Edgar Filing: PRE PAID LEGAL SERVICES INC - Form PRER14A

Equity Financing. Parent has entered into an equity commitment letter with MidOcean Partners III, L.P., MidOcean Partners III-A, L.P. and MidOcean Partners III-D, L.P. (collectively with their affiliates, the “MidOcean Investors”), dated January 30, 2011, pursuant to which they have severally and not jointly committed to provide equity financing up to a specified dollar amount. The funding of the financing contemplated by the equity commitment letter is subject to several conditions, including the satisfaction or waiver by Parent and Merger Sub (with the prior written consent of the MidOcean Investors in the case of any waiver) of each of the conditions to the obligations of Parent and Merger Sub to consummate the merger (other than any condition that by its nature is to be satisfied at the closing of the merger), the concurrent closing of the merger and the contemporaneous consummation of the debt financing. The obligation of the MidOcean Investors to fund their respective equity commitments will expire upon certain events, including the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms and the consummation of the merger after giving effect to the equity contributions.

Debt Financing. In connection with Parent’s entry into the Merger Agreement, Parent received a debt commitment letter, dated January 29, 2011, as subsequently amended on March 25, 2011, from Macquarie Capital (USA) Inc., Royal Bank of Canada, Key Bank National Association and The Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland (acting through such of their affiliates or branches as they deem appropriate) (collectively, the “Commitment Parties”). The debt commitment letter provides in the aggregate up to $440 million in debt financing to Parent, consisting of (i) a senior secured term loan facility in an aggregate principal amount of $410 million and (ii) a senior secured revolving credit facility with a maximum availability of $30 million (which may not be drawn at the closing of the merger). The debt commitment terminates automatically upon the earlier to occur of 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on July 31, 2011, the closing of the merger and the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms.

The availability of the facilities contemplated by the debt commitment letter is subject to certain conditions described beginning on page 41. There is a risk that one or more of the conditions to the debt financing will not be satisfied and the debt financing may not be funded when required.

If any portion of the debt financing becomes unavailable on the terms and conditions contemplated by the debt commitment letter, Parent will, at our request, use its reasonable best efforts to arrange and obtain alternative debt financing from alternative debt sources in an amount sufficient to consummate the merger with terms and conditions not less favorable, taken as a whole, to Parent and Merger Sub than the terms and conditions in the existing debt commitment letter. As of the date of this proxy statement, no alternative financing arrangements or alternative financing plans have been made in the event the debt financing described in this proxy statement is not available as anticipated.

Limited Guarantee (page 42)

The MidOcean Investors have entered into a limited guarantee in favor of the Company in an aggregate amount of $50 million. Under the limited guarantee, each of the MidOcean Investors guarantees, severally and not jointly, and subject to the terms and conditions of the limited guarantee and up to the specified portion of the maximum amount set forth therein, the payment of any termination fee that may become payable by Parent under certain specified circumstances and certain other specified obligations of Parent under the Merger Agreement. In the event that Parent breaches the Merger Agreement or fails to pay us any termination fee that it becomes obligated to pay under the Merger Agreement, our only recourse would be against Parent for specific performance or to seek $50 million from the MidOcean Investors under the limited guarantee.

Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger (page 45)

When considering the recommendation of the Company’s board of directors, you should be aware that the Company’s directors and executive officers have interests in the merger other than their interests as the Company shareholders generally, as described below. These interests may be different from, or in conflict with, your interests as a shareholder of the Company. The members of our board of directors and the Special Committee were aware of these additional interests, and considered them, when they unanimously approved the Merger Agreement. These interests include the following:

- enhanced severance payments and benefits upon a qualifying termination of employment;
- payment of retention bonuses following the merger;

- following the effective time of the merger, Parent and the surviving corporation of the merger will provide continued indemnification to directors and officers for the period prior to the effective time of the merger; and
- Harland C. Stonecipher, the Chairman of our board of directors, may be entitled to special payments under his employment agreement if his employment is terminated under certain circumstances prior to the transaction or if his employment is terminated within a limited period of time following the transaction.

The Merger Agreement (page 58)

Treatment of Common Stock and Equity Awards (page 60)

Common Stock. At the effective time of the merger, each share of our common stock issued and outstanding (other than (i) shares owned by Parent or any direct or indirect subsidiary of Parent, (ii) shares owned by the Company or any direct or indirect subsidiary of the Company and (iii) shares owned by shareholders who have perfected and not otherwise waived, withdrawn or lost their rights as dissenting shareholders, if any, to demand to be paid the “fair value” of their shares of common stock under Oklahoma law) will convert into the right to receive the per share merger consideration of $66.50 in cash, without interest, less any applicable withholding taxes.

Stock Options. The Merger Agreement provides that immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, each option then outstanding (whether or not vested) will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive a cash payment in an amount equal to the product of (i) the amount by which $66.50 exceeds the applicable per share exercise price (if any) multiplied by (ii) the number of shares of common stock issuable upon exercise of such stock option, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes. Parent, or the surviving corporation acting on its behalf, will make such cash payments within 10 business days of the closing of the merger. As of the date of this proxy statement, there were no options outstanding under our stock option plan.

Conditions to the Closing of the Merger (page 74)

The respective obligations of the Company, Parent and Merger Sub to consummate the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain customary conditions, including the adoption of the Merger Agreement by our shareholders, the expiration or termination of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 (the “HSR Act”), approvals from the Commissioner of the Oklahoma Insurance Department and the Commissioner of the Florida Office of Insurance Regulation the absence of any statute, rule, regulation or order that restrains, enjoins or otherwise prohibits the consummation of the merger, the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the parties contained in the Merger Agreement and compliance by the parties with their respective obligations under the Merger Agreement.

Restrictions on Solicitation of Alternative Transaction Proposals (page 67)

We have agreed that from the date of the Merger Agreement until the effective time of the merger, we, our subsidiaries and our and our subsidiaries' respective directors, officers, employees, advisors and representatives shall not, directly or indirectly:

- initiate, solicit, propose or knowingly encourage or knowingly facilitate any "alternative transaction proposal", or any inquiries or the making of any proposal or offer that constitutes or could reasonably be expected to lead to an "alternative transaction proposal";
- engage in, continue or otherwise participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish any person any information concerning the Company or any of its subsidiaries with respect to, any "alternative transaction proposal" or any proposal or offer that could reasonably be expected to lead to an "alternative transaction proposal";
- grant any waiver, amendment or release under any standstill or confidentiality agreement or anti-takeover statute;
- approve, endorse, recommend, or execute or enter into any agreement relating to an "alternative transaction proposal" or that contradicts the Merger Agreement or requires the Company to abandon the Merger Agreement; or
- resolve, propose, commit or agree to do any of the foregoing.

However, prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the Company's shareholders, under certain circumstances specified in the Merger Agreement, we may respond to certain unsolicited "alternative transaction proposals" or participate in discussions or negotiations with person making any such proposals and our board of directors or the Special Committee may modify or withdraw its recommendation in favor of the merger and, with respect to a "superior proposal" we may terminate the Merger Agreement to enter into an agreement with respect to such proposal. See "The Merger Agreement—Restrictions on Change of Recommendation to Shareholders" beginning on page 68. We must notify Parent at least three business days prior to effecting a "Company adverse recommendation change" or a "change of recommendation" in response to an "intervening event" or terminating the Merger Agreement to enter into an agreement with respect to a "superior proposal". We must then negotiate in good faith with Parent (to the extent Parent desires to negotiate) during such period to make such revisions to the Merger Agreement as would permit the board of directors not to take such action. See "The Merger Agreement—Restrictions on Change of Recommendation to Shareholders" beginning on page 68.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (page 76)

Parent and the Company (upon approval of the Special Committee) may, by mutual written consent, terminate the Merger Agreement and abandon the merger at any time prior to the effective time of the merger, whether before or after the adoption of the Merger Agreement by our shareholders.

The Merger Agreement may also be terminated by either Parent or the Company (and the merger abandoned at any time prior to the effective time of the merger) if:

- the merger has not been consummated by the "outside date" (which, unless extended as provided in the Merger Agreement, is July 31, 2011), but this right to terminate the Merger Agreement will not be available to any party whose breach of or failure to fulfill any obligation under the Merger Agreement has been a principal cause of or resulted in the failure of the merger to be consummated by such date, and if the Company has brought any litigation against Parent seeking to specifically enforce its rights as provided under the Merger Agreement and such litigation is pending on such date, this right to terminate the Merger Agreement will not be available to Parent until the third business day after Parent and Merger Sub shall have complied with any all orders included in the final ruling in such litigation;
- an injunction, judgment or order of a governmental entity permanently restraining enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the merger shall have become final or nonappealable or any law makes the consummation of the merger illegal or otherwise prohibited, unless the consummation of the merger in violation of such law would not have a Company material adverse effect, (but this termination right shall not be available to a party unless, prior to such termination, such party shall have used its reasonable best efforts to oppose any such injunction, judgment or order or law or to have such injunction, judgment or order or law vacated or made inapplicable to the merger and shall have complied in all material respects with its obligations to use reasonable best efforts to consummate the Merger contained in the Merger Agreement, and this termination right shall not be available to any party whose breach of any provision of the Merger Agreement results in the imposition of any such injunction, judgment or order or the failure of such injunction, judgment or order to be resisted, resolved or lifted, as applicable); or

- at the special meeting of our shareholders, a proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement shall have been voted upon and our shareholders shall not have adopted the Merger Agreement at such meeting or any adjournment of such meeting.

The Merger Agreement may also be terminated by Parent (and the merger abandoned at any time prior to the effective time of the merger) if:

- the Company shall have breached any of its representations or warranties or failed to perform any of its covenants or other agreements contained in the Merger Agreement, which breach or failure to perform would give rise to the failure of the condition to the closing of the merger relating to the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the Company or the compliance by it with its obligations under the Merger Agreement, and such breach or failure to perform is incapable of being cured, or if capable of being cured, is not cured by the earlier to occur of 30 days (or, in the case of a breach of the Company's obligations not to solicit "alternative transaction proposals", five days) after the Company receives notice of such breach from Parent or Merger Sub and the "outside date"; provided that each of Parent and Merger Sub is not then in breach of the Merger Agreement so as to cause any of the parties' mutual conditions to the closing of the merger or either condition to the closing of the merger relating to the accuracy of the representations and warranties of Parent and Merger Sub or the compliance by Parent and Merger Sub with their obligations under the Merger Agreement not to be satisfied; or
- prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the Company's shareholders our board of directors or the Special Committee shall have effected a Company adverse recommendation change or a change of recommendation in response to an intervening event, or Parent shall have received written notice from the Company to the effect that the Company intends to terminate the Merger Agreement in connection with entering into an agreement with respect to a "superior proposal".

The Merger Agreement may also be terminated by the Company (and the merger abandoned at any time prior to the effective time of the merger) if:

- prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the Company's shareholders, our board of directors or the Special Committee shall have determined, in good faith, that an "alternative transaction proposal" is a "superior proposal" and the Company shall have complied with the restrictions in the Merger Agreement on the solicitation of "alternative transaction proposals" and on our board of directors or the Special Committee changing the recommendation to our shareholders and paid a termination fee of $21.5 million to MidOcean US Advisor, LP;
- if Parent or Merger Sub shall have breached any of its representations or warranties or failed to perform any of its covenants or other agreements contained in the Merger Agreement, which breach or failure to perform would give rise to the failure of the condition to the closing of the merger relating to the accuracy of the representations and warranties of Parent and Merger Sub or the compliance by them with their obligations under the Merger Agreement, and is incapable of being cured, or if capable of being cured, is not cured by the earlier to occur of 30 days after Parent or Merger Sub receives notice of such breach from the Company and the "outside date"; provided that the Company is not then in breach of the Merger Agreement so as to cause any of the parties' mutual conditions to the closing of the merger or either condition to the closing of the merger relating to the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the Company or the compliance by the Company with its obligations under the Merger Agreement not to be satisfied; or

- if (i) the parties' mutual conditions to the closing of the merger and the additional conditions to the closing of the merger of Parent and Merger Sub have been satisfied (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the closing of the merger), (ii) the Company has irrevocably confirmed in writing that all of its additional conditions to the closing of the merger have been satisfied or that it is willing to waive all such conditions that may be unsatisfied provided that the closing of the merger occurs by the close of business on the second business day following the date of such notice, (iii) Parent's marketing period has ended or will end on the date of such notice, and (iv) by the close of business on the second business day after the Company has delivered written notice to Parent of the satisfaction of such conditions and such confirmation, the merger shall not have been consummated; provided that the conditions described in clause (i) remain satisfied and the Company's certification described in clause (ii) remains in full force and effect at the close of business on such second business day; provided, further, that during such two-business-day period, no party shall be entitled to terminate the Merger Agreement for the failure of the merger to be consummated by the "outside date" until after the close of business on the business day immediately following the last day of such period.

Fees and Expenses (page 78)

Termination Fee Payable by Parent. Parent will be required to pay the Company a termination fee equal to $50 million if:

- the Company terminates the Merger Agreement because Parent or Merger Sub shall have breached any of its representations or warranties or failed to perform any of its covenants or other agreements contained in the Merger Agreement, which breach or failure to perform would give rise to the failure of the condition to the closing of the merger relating to the accuracy of the representations and warranties of Parent and Merger Sub or the compliance by them with their obligations under the Merger Agreement, and is incapable of being cured, or if capable of being cured, is not cured by the earlier to occur of 30 days after Parent or Merger Sub receives notice of such breach from the Company and the "outside date"; provided that the Company is not then in breach of the Merger Agreement so as to cause any of the parties' mutual conditions to the closing of the merger or either condition to the closing of the merger relating to the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the Company or the compliance by the Company with its obligations under the Merger Agreement not to be satisfied; or
- the Company terminates the Merger Agreement because (i) the parties' mutual conditions to the closing of the merger and the additional conditions to the closing of the merger of Parent and Merger Sub have been satisfied (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the closing of the merger), (ii) the Company has irrevocably confirmed in writing that all of its additional conditions to the closing of the merger have been satisfied or that it is willing to waive all such conditions that may be unsatisfied provided that the closing of the merger occurs by the close of business on the second business day following the date of such notice, (iii) Parent's marketing period has ended or will end on the date of such notice, and (iv) by the close of business on the second business day after the Company has delivered written notice to Parent of the satisfaction of such conditions and such confirmation, the merger shall not have been consummated; provided that the conditions described in clause (i) remain satisfied and the Company's certification described in clause (ii) remains in full force and effect at the close of business on such second business day; provided, further, that during such two-business-day period, no party shall be entitled to terminate the Merger Agreement for the failure of the merger to be consummated by the "outside date" until after the close of business on the business day immediately following the last day of such period.

Termination Fee Payable by the Company. The Company will be required to pay MidOcean US Advisor, LP a termination fee equal to $21.5 million if:

- prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the Company's shareholders, the Company terminates the Merger Agreement because our board of directors or the Special Committee shall have determined, in good faith, that an "alternative transaction proposal" is a "superior proposal" and we shall have complied with the restrictions in the Merger Agreement on the solicitation of "alternative transaction proposals" and on our board of directors or the Special Committee changing the recommendation to our shareholders;
- Parent terminates the Merger Agreement because prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the Company's shareholders our board of directors or the Special Committee shall have effected a Company adverse recommendation change or a change of recommendation in response to an intervening event, or Parent shall have received written notice from the Company to the effect that the Company intends to terminate the Merger Agreement in connection with entering into an agreement with respect to a "superior proposal";
- Parent or the Company terminates the Merger Agreement because the Company's shareholders shall have voted not to adopt the Merger Agreement at the meeting of Company shareholders (or any adjournment of such meeting) and prior to such meeting our board of directors shall have made a change of recommendation based on an intervening event; or
- (i) after the date of the Merger Agreement (and in the case of a termination of the Merger Agreement by Parent or the Company on account of the Company's shareholders voting not to adopt the Merger Agreement at the meeting of Company shareholders, prior to such meeting (or any adjournment of such meeting)) an "alternative transaction proposal" shall have become publicly known and not withdrawn, (ii) thereafter, the Merger Agreement is terminated by Parent or the Company because the merger shall not have been consummated by the "outside date" or the Company's shareholders shall have voted not to adopt the Merger Agreement at the meeting of Company shareholders (or any adjournment of such meeting) or the Merger Agreement is terminated by Parent because of the Company's uncured material breach, in any case, such termination being made in accordance with the Merger Agreement and (iii) within 12 months after such termination, the Company enters into a definitive agreement providing for any transaction contemplated by any "alternative transaction proposal", regardless of when made (which transaction is thereafter consummated) or consummates any "alternative transaction proposal" regardless of when made (for purposes of clause (iii), the term "alternative transaction proposal" shall have the meaning set forth in the section of this proxy statement entitled "The Merger Agreement—Restrictions on Solicitation of Alternative Transaction Proposals" beginning on page 67, except that all references to "20%" shall be deemed to be references to "50%".

In addition, if the Merger Agreement is terminated under certain circumstances and we are not otherwise required to pay the $21.5 million termination fee, we will be required to pay MidOcean US Advisor, LP reimbursement for the transaction expenses incurred by Parent and its related parties, up to an aggregate limit of $5 million. In the event we shall later be required to pay the $21.5 million termination fee, the aggregate amount of transaction expense reimbursement paid by us shall be credited against the amount of such termination fee.

Litigation Related to the Merger (page 43)

Oklahoma District Court of Oklahoma County

On February 8, 2011, a putative shareholder class action complaint was filed in the Oklahoma District Court of Oklahoma County by Andrew D. McMullan and James E. McCurdy, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, against the Company and each member of the Company's board of directors (case number CJ-2011-871). The complaint generally alleges that the directors breached their fiduciary duties to the shareholders by agreeing to sell the Company pursuant to an unfair process and at an unfair price. The complaint alleges that the directors breached their fiduciary duties of care, loyalty, candor, good faith and independence and have acted to put their personal interests ahead of the interests of the Company's shareholders, and that the Company has aided and abetted such breaches. The complaint seeks injunctive relief, rescission of any barriers to the maximization of shareholder value and attorneys' fees.

Oklahoma District Court of Pontotoc County

On February 11, 2011, a putative shareholder class action complaint was filed in the Oklahoma District Court of Pontotoc County by Czar Fredrik D. Reyes, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, against the Company, each member of the Company's board of directors and Parent and Merger Sub (case number CJ-11-26). The complaint generally alleges that the directors breached their fiduciary duties to the shareholders by agreeing to sell the Company pursuant to an unfair process and at an unfair price. The complaint alleges that the directors breached their fiduciary duties of loyalty, due care, independence, good faith and fair dealing, and that the Company, Parent and Merger Sub have aided and abetted such breaches. The complaint also alleges that the defendants agreed to onerous and preclusive deal protection devices as part of the Merger Agreement, including the "no solicitation" provision, the requirement to notify Parent and Merger Sub of any competing proposals and negotiate in good faith with Parent to amend the terms of the Merger Agreement so that the competing proposal would not be a "superior proposal" and the $21.5 million termination fee. The complaint seeks injunctive relief, damages and costs of the action, including attorneys' fees. On March 2, 2011, the complaint was amended to add allegations that the directors breached their fiduciary duties of candor to the shareholders of the Company and that the Company's preliminary proxy statement filed with the SEC on February 23, 2011 is materially misleading and omits material information that the shareholders require in order to make a fully informed decision in voting on the Merger Agreement, including details regarding the background of the merger and the work performed by Berenson.

On March 3, 2011, a putative shareholder class action complaint was filed in the Oklahoma District Court of Pontotoc County by Troy Ball, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, against the Company, each member of the Company's board of directors, Randy Harp, Kathleen S. Pinson, Parent and Merger Sub (case number CJ-11-35). The complaint generally alleges that the sale of the Company is unfair and inequitable to the Company's shareholders and that the directors breached their fiduciary duties to the shareholders. The complaint alleges that the directors, Mr. Harp and Ms. Pinson have breached their fiduciary duties of loyalty, due care, good faith and candor and have acted to put their personal interests ahead of the interests of the shareholders, and that Parent and Merger Sub have aided and abetted such breaches. The complaint also alleges that the defendants agreed to onerous and preclusive deal protection devices as part of the Merger Agreement, including the "no solicitation" provision, the requirement to notify Parent and Merger Sub of any competing proposals and negotiate in good faith with Parent to amend the terms of the Merger Agreement so that the competing proposal would not be a "superior proposal" and the $21.5 million termination fee. In addition, the complaint alleges that the Company's preliminary proxy statement filed with the SEC on February 23, 2011 provides misleading information or omits material information, including details regarding the background of the merger and the work performed by Berenson, resulting in the shareholders being unable to make a fully informed decision in voting on the Merger Agreement. The complaint seeks injunctive relief and costs of the action, including attorneys' fees.

On March 11, 2011, the plaintiffs in the Reyes and Ball actions filed motions to consolidate the two actions and appoint Bull & Lifshitz, LLP and Levi & Korsinsky, LLP co-lead class counsel. On March 4, 2011 and March 8, 2011, respectively, the plaintiffs in the Reyes and Ball actions filed motions seeking leave to conduct discovery on an expedited basis. On March 10, 2011, the Company and the other defendants in the Reyes action moved to stay the Reyes action in deference to the earlier-filed McMullan action. Also on March 10, 2011, all defendants previously served with process in the Ball action moved to stay that action in deference to the McMullan action. The foregoing motions are currently scheduled to be heard by the Oklahoma District Court of Pontotoc County on April 18, 2011. On March 28, 2011, the plaintiffs in the Ball action voluntarily dismissed their claims against Mr. Harp and Ms. Pinson without prejudice.

On April 15, 2011, the parties to the McMullan action, Parent and Merger Sub executed a Memorandum of Understanding, which we refer to as the MOU, reflecting their agreement to settle the claims asserted in the McMullan action, subject to, among other things, the execution of a stipulation of settlement, notice of the settlement being given to the Company's shareholders, approval of the settlement by the Oklahoma District Court of Oklahoma County, completion of confirmatory discovery and completion of the merger. If approved by the Oklahoma District Court of Oklahoma County, the settlement will resolve all pending litigation related to the merger, including the Reyes and Ball actions, and would result in the release by the plaintiffs and the proposed settlement class, which consists of all record and beneficial holders of the Company's common stock during the period beginning January 30, 2011 and through and including the consummation of the merger (other than the defendants), of all claims that were or could have been brought challenging any aspect of the Merger Agreement, the merger and any disclosures made in connection therewith, among other claims (but excluding any properly perfected claims for statutory appraisal in connection with the merger). The MOU provides, among other things, that the Company shall make certain supplemental disclosures that are set forth in this proxy statement; that the parties to the Merger Agreement shall clarify certain provisions thereunder; and that the parties to the Merger Agreement shall modify certain deadlines in the Oklahoma General Corporation Act (the "OGCA") for the exercise of appraisal rights in connection with the merger, as described under "Appraisal Rights" on page 82.

The Company and its board of directors believe and these lawsuits are without merit and are seeking to settle them solely to eliminate the burden and expense of litigation. Absent such settlement, they intend to defend themselves vigorously.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (page 50)

Edgar Filing: PRE PAID LEGAL SERVICES INC - Form PRER14A

The receipt of cash in exchange for common stock of the Company will be a taxable transaction for United States federal income tax purposes and may also be taxable under applicable state, local, foreign or other tax laws. In general, United States holders of the Company's common stock who receive cash in exchange for their shares pursuant to the merger will recognize gain or loss for United States federal income tax purposes equal to the difference, if any, between the holder's adjusted tax basis in the shares exchanged and the amount of cash received. If the United States holder holds the Company's common stock as a capital asset, any gain or loss generally should (determined before the deduction of any applicable withholding taxes) be capital gain or loss. If the United States holder has held the shares for more than one year, any gain or loss generally should be long-term capital gain or loss. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations. You should read "Special Factors—Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger" for a more detailed discussion.

Tax matters are very complex, and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend on the facts of your own situation. You should consult your tax advisor for a full understanding of the tax consequences of the merger to you, including the federal, state, local and foreign tax consequences of the merger.

Regulatory Matters (page 52)

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, the merger cannot be completed until (i) the waiting period (and any extensions thereof) applicable to the merger under the HSR Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder have terminated or expired, (ii) the Commissioner of the Oklahoma Insurance Department has approved the merger, (iii) the Commissioner of the Florida Office of Insurance Regulation has approved the merger and (iv) any other consent from or with any governmental entity that is required to be obtained or made in connection with the execution, delivery and performance of the Merger Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, that, if not obtained would materially impair the benefits, taken as a whole, that Parent or Merger Sub reasonably expects to derive from the consummation of the transactions has been obtained.

Under the HSR Act, each party must file a pre-merger notification with the Federal Trade Commission (“FTC”) and the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice (“DOJ”). A transaction notifiable under the HSR Act may not be completed until the expiration of a 30-calendar-day waiting period following the parties’ filing of their respective HSR Act notification forms or the early termination of that waiting period. The parties to the merger originally filed their respective notification and report forms pursuant to the HSR Act with the FTC and DOJ on February 24, 2011 and the initial 30-day waiting period was scheduled to expire on March 28, 2011. Early termination of the waiting period was granted by the DOJ and FTC effective February 28, 2011.

The Company has filed the required “applications for approval” with the States of Oklahoma and Florida but has not received the required approvals as of the date of this proxy statement. In addition, the Company will be required to provide certain notifications, prior to and following the merger, to government agencies in other jurisdictions where it operates.

Appraisal Rights (page 82)

Holders of our common stock who do not vote in favor of the Merger Agreement may elect to pursue their appraisal rights to receive the judicially determined “fair value” of their shares, which could be more or less than, or the same as, the per share merger consideration under the Merger Agreement, but only if they comply with the procedures required under Oklahoma law. In order to qualify for these rights, you must (1) not vote in favor of adoption of the Merger Agreement (although you may choose not to vote), (2) deliver to us a written demand for appraisal within ten days following the vote on the Merger Agreement at the special meeting, and (3) otherwise comply with the procedures of Oklahoma law regarding the exercise of appraisal rights. An executed proxy that is not marked “AGAINST” or “ABSTAIN” will be voted for the adoption of the Merger Agreement and will disqualify the shareholder submitting that proxy from demanding appraisal rights.

A copy of Section 1091 of the OGCA is included as Annex C to this proxy statement. Failure to follow the procedures set forth therein, as modified pursuant to the MOU as described under “Appraisal Rights” beginning on page 82, will result in the loss of appraisal rights.

Market Price of Common Stock (page 84)

The closing price of our common stock on the New York Stock Exchange, or NYSE, on January 28, 2011, the last trading day prior to the public announcement of the Merger Agreement, was $60.26 per share of common stock. On [ ], 2011, the most recent practicable date before this proxy statement was mailed to our shareholders, the closing price for Company common stock on the NYSE was $[ ] per share of common stock. You are encouraged to obtain current market quotations for our common stock in connection with voting your shares of our common stock.

Delisting and Deregistration of Company Common Stock (page 48)

If the merger is completed, our common stock will be delisted from and no longer be traded on the NYSE and deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or the Exchange Act. As such, we would no longer file periodic reports with the SEC on account of our common stock.

You can find more information about the Company in the periodic reports and other information we file with the SEC. The information is available at the SEC’s public reference facilities and at the website maintained by the SEC at www.sec.gov. For a more detailed description of the additional information available, please see the section entitled “Where You Can Find More Information” beginning on page 93.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE SPECIAL MEETING AND THE MERGER

The following questions and answers are intended to address some commonly asked questions regarding the special meeting of shareholders and the merger. These questions and answers may not address all questions that may be important to you as a shareholder of the Company. We urge you to read carefully the more detailed information contained elsewhere in this proxy statement and the annexes to this proxy statement.

The Proposed Merger

Q: What will happen in the proposed merger?

A: Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will be merged with and into the Company with the Company continuing as the surviving corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent. We have been advised by Parent that it expects to continue to operate the surviving corporation under the name Pre-Paid Legal Services immediately following the merger.

Q: What will I receive for my shares of our common stock in the merger?

A: As a result of the merger, shareholders of the Company will be entitled to receive $66.50 in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes, for each share of our common stock they own as of the effective time of the merger. For example, if you own 1,000 shares of our common stock, you will be entitled to receive $66,500 in cash, less any applicable withholding taxes, in exchange for your 1,000 shares.

Q: What effects will the proposed merger have on the Company?

A: Upon completion of the proposed merger, the Company will cease to be a publicly traded company and will be wholly owned by Parent. As a result, you will no longer have any interest in our future earnings or growth, if any. Following completion of the merger, the registration of our common stock and our reporting obligations with respect to our common stock under the Exchange Act are expected to be terminated. In addition, upon completion of the proposed merger, shares of our common stock will no longer be listed on the NYSE.

Q: How does the Company's board recommend that I vote?

A: Our board of directors, acting on the unanimous recommendation of the Special Committee, determined that the Merger Agreement and the merger are fair to and in the best interests of the Company and its unaffiliated shareholders. Our board of directors has unanimously approved the Merger Agreement. Our board of directors recommends that you vote "FOR" the adoption of the Merger Agreement at the special meeting and "FOR" the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies.

Q: What regulatory approvals and filings are needed to complete the merger?

A: The merger is subject to compliance with the applicable requirements of the HSR Act and of the Oklahoma Insurance Department and the Office of Insurance Regulation of the Financial Services Commission of the State of Florida. See "Special Factors—Regulatory Matters" beginning on page 52.

Q: When do you expect the merger to be completed?

A: We are working toward completing the merger as quickly as possible and currently expect to consummate the merger by July 31, 2011. In addition to obtaining shareholder approval, we must satisfy all other closing conditions, including the receipt of regulatory approvals, and Parent's marketing period in connection with its debt financing for the merger must have expired or terminated.

Q: Do any "affiliates" of the Company have an interest in the merger that differs from the interests of all shareholders?

A: The only affiliates of the Company that may have an interest in the merger that is different from the interests of our unaffiliated shareholders are our directors and executive officers, who may have interests that are different from, or in addition to, your interests as a shareholder as described at "Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" beginning at page 45. MidOcean is not an affiliate of the Company.

- Q: What happens if the merger is not completed?
- A: If the Merger Agreement is not adopted by our shareholders, or if the merger is not completed for any other reason, our shareholders will not receive any payment for their shares pursuant to the Merger Agreement. Instead, upon the termination of the Merger Agreement, the Company will remain as a public company and our common stock will continue to be registered under the Exchange Act and listed and traded on the NYSE. Under specified circumstances, the Company may be required to pay Parent a termination fee or certain of Parent's expenses or Parent may be required to pay the Company a termination fee, in each case, as described in "The Merger Agreement—Fees and Expenses" beginning on page 78.
- Q: Am I entitled to exercise appraisal rights instead of receiving the per share cash merger consideration for my shares?
- A: Our shareholders are entitled to appraisal rights under Oklahoma law by following the requirements specified in Section 1091 of the Oklahoma General Corporation Act, as modified pursuant to the MOU as described under "Appraisal Rights." A copy of Section 1091 is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement. See "Appraisal Rights" beginning on page 82.
- Q: What is the Special Committee?
- A: It is a committee of our board comprised of disinterested and independent directors that was formed to make decisions with respect to the Company's strategic alternatives. See "Special Factors—Background of the Merger" beginning on page 22.
- Q: Do any of the Company's directors or officers have interests in the merger that may differ from those of the Company shareholders?
- A: Certain of our directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that may differ from those of the Company's shareholders. See "Special Factors—Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" beginning on page 45 for a description of these and other rights of our directors and executive officers that come into effect in connection with the merger.
- Q: What are the United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to holders of our common stock?
- A: The receipt of cash in exchange for our common stock will be a taxable transaction for United States federal income tax purposes and may also be taxable under applicable state, local, foreign or other tax laws. In general, United States holders of our common stock who receive cash in exchange for their shares pursuant to the merger will recognize gain or loss for United States federal income tax purposes equal to the difference, if any, between the holder's adjusted tax basis in the shares exchanged and the amount of cash received. If the United States holder holds the common stock as a capital asset, any gain or loss generally should be capital gain or loss. If the United States holder has held the shares for more than one year, any gain or loss generally should be long-term capital gain or loss. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.
- Tax matters are very complex, and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend on the facts of your own situation. You should consult your tax advisor for a full understanding of the tax consequences of the merger to you, including the federal, state, local and foreign tax consequences of the merger. See "Special Factors—Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger" beginning on page 50.

The Special Meeting

Q: Why am I receiving this proxy statement?

A: Our board of directors is furnishing this proxy statement in connection with the solicitation of proxies to be voted at a special meeting of shareholders, or at any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting. This document contains important information about the merger and the special meeting of shareholders, and you should read it carefully.

Q: Where and when is the special meeting of shareholders?

A: The special meeting of our shareholders will be held on [ ], 2011 at [ ] a.m., local time, at One Pre-Paid Way, Ada, Oklahoma.

Q: What am I being asked to vote on?

A: You will be asked to consider and vote on the following proposals:

- to adopt the Merger Agreement; and
- to authorize our board of directors, in its discretion, to adjourn the special meeting to a later date or dates, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in the event there are not sufficient votes in favor of adoption of the Merger Agreement at the time of the special meeting.

Shareholders will also consider and act upon other business that may properly come before the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

Q: What is a quorum?

A: A quorum of the holders of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock must be present for the special meeting to be held. A quorum is present if the holders of one-third of the outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote on the record date are present at the meeting, either in person or represented by proxy. Abstentions and broker non-votes, if any, are counted as present for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present. Broker non-votes occur in respect of shares held in "street name" when the broker indicates that voting instructions for a particular matter have not been received from the beneficial owners or other persons entitled to vote those shares and the broker does not have discretionary voting authority to vote those shares on that particular matter.

Voting and Proxy Procedures

Q: Who is entitled to vote at the special meeting?

A: Only shareholders of record as of the close of business on [ ], 2011 are entitled to receive notice of the special meeting and to vote the shares of our common stock that they held at that time at the special meeting, or at any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting.

Q: What vote is required to adopt the Merger Agreement?

A: The proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement must be approved by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. Adoption of the Merger Agreement does not require approval of a majority of unaffiliated shareholders.

Q: What vote is required to approve any proposal to authorize our board of directors, in its discretion, to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies?

A: Any proposal to authorize our board of directors, in its discretion, to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast on the matter.

Q: If my broker holds my shares in “street name,” will my broker vote my shares for me?

A: Your broker will not be able to vote your shares without instructions from you. Brokerage firms have the authority under the rules of the NYSE to vote their clients’ unvoted shares on certain routine matters. However, the proposal to approve the merger and to adjourn the meeting are not routine under the NYSE rules, and your broker does not have discretionary authority to vote on either of these proposals. Accordingly, without instructions from you, your shares will not be voted, which will have the same effect as if you voted “AGAINST” adoption of the Merger Agreement; such an occurrence will have no effect on the voting on any proposal to authorize our board of directors, in its discretion, to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies. You should therefore be sure to provide your broker with instructions on how to vote your shares.

- Q: How do I vote shares allocated to my account under the ESOP?
- A: You may vote shares allocated to your account under the ESOP only in accordance with instructions provided. You must also follow instructions to revoke your proxy or change your vote after you have submitted a proxy card in accordance with instructions provided.
- Q: How do I vote my Associate Investment Club shares?
- A: You may vote your Associate Investment Club shares only in accordance with instructions provided. You must also follow instructions to revoke your proxy or change your vote after you have submitted a proxy card in accordance with instructions provided.
- Q: What do I need to do now?
- A: We urge you to read this proxy statement carefully and consider how the merger affects you. Then mail your completed, dated and signed proxy card in the enclosed postage prepaid return envelope as soon as possible, or submit a proxy via the Internet or by telephone, so that your shares can be voted at the special meeting of our shareholders. Please do not send your stock certificates with your proxy card.
- Q: May I vote in person?
- A: Yes. If your shares are registered in your name, you may attend the special meeting and vote your shares in person, rather than signing and returning your proxy card by mail or submitting a proxy via the Internet or by telephone. If your shares are held in "street name," you must obtain a proxy from your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee in order to attend the special meeting and vote in person. Even if you plan to attend the special meeting in person, we urge you to complete, sign, date and return the enclosed proxy by mail or submit a proxy via the Internet or by telephone to ensure that your shares will be represented at the special meeting.
- Q: May I submit a proxy via the Internet or by telephone?
- A: If your shares are registered in your name, you may cause your shares to be voted by returning a signed proxy card by mail or vote in person at the special meeting. Additionally, you may submit a proxy authorizing the voting of your shares via the Internet or by telephone. You must have the enclosed proxy card available, and follow the instructions on the proxy card, in order to submit a proxy via the Internet or by telephone. If your shares are held in "street name" through a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, you may provide voting instructions by completing and returning the voting form provided by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, or via the Internet or by telephone through your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee if your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee provides such a service. To provide voting instructions via the Internet or by telephone through your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, you should follow the instructions on the voting form provided by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee.
- Q: What happens if I do not return my proxy card by mail, submit a proxy via the Internet or by telephone or attend the special meeting and vote in person?
- A: The adoption of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting.

If you do not return your proxy card, submit a proxy via the Internet or by telephone, or attend the special meeting and vote in person, it will have the same effect as if you voted "AGAINST" adoption of the Merger Agreement.

In the event that a quorum is not present at the special meeting, it is expected that the meeting will be adjourned to solicit additional proxies. If a quorum is present in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting, approval of any proposal to authorize our board of directors, in its discretion, to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies, requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast on the matter. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on a vote on any proposal to adjourn the meeting. If you do not vote in person or by proxy, it will have no effect on the voting on any proposal to authorize our board of directors, in its discretion, to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies.

Q: May I change my vote after I have mailed my signed proxy card?

A: Yes. You may change your vote at any time before your proxy card is voted at the special meeting. If your shares are registered in your name, you may revoke your proxy by:

- delivering a written revocation of the proxy, or a later dated, signed proxy card, to our corporate secretary, Kathleen S. Pinson, at our corporate offices at One Pre-Paid Way, Ada, Oklahoma 74820, or by fax to the attention of Kathleen S. Pinson at (580) 436-7409, on or before the business day prior to the special meeting;
- delivering a new, later dated proxy by telephone or via the Internet through 11:59 p.m., eastern time, the day prior to the special meeting;
- delivering a written revocation or later dated, signed proxy card to us at the special meeting prior to the taking of the vote on the matters to be considered at the special meeting; or
- attending the special meeting and voting in person.

If you have instructed a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee to vote your shares, you may revoke your proxy only by following the directions received from your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee to change those instructions.

Revocation of the proxy will not affect any vote previously taken. Attendance at the special meeting will not in itself constitute the revocation of a proxy; you must vote in person at the special meeting to revoke a previously delivered proxy.

Q: What should I do if I receive more than one set of voting materials?

A: You may receive more than one set of voting materials, including multiple copies of this proxy statement and multiple proxy cards or voting instruction cards. For example, if you hold your shares in more than one brokerage account, you will receive a separate voting instruction card for each brokerage account in which you hold shares. If you are a shareholder of record and your shares are registered in more than one name, you will receive more than one proxy card. Please complete, sign, date and return by mail (or submit via the Internet or by telephone) each proxy card and voting instruction card that you receive.

Q: What happens if I sell my shares of our common stock before the special meeting?

A: The record date for the special meeting, [ ], 2011, is earlier than the date of the special meeting and the date the merger is expected to be completed. If you transfer your shares of our common stock after the record date but before the special meeting, you will retain your right to vote at the special meeting, but will transfer the right to receive the per share cash merger consideration.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. Assuming the merger is completed, you will receive written instructions after the completion of the merger for exchanging your shares of our common stock for the merger consideration of $66.50 in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes, for each share of our common stock you hold.

- Q: Will a proxy solicitor be used?
- A: Yes. the Company has engaged MacKenzie Partners, Inc. (“MacKenzie”) to assist in the solicitation of proxies for the special meeting and the Company estimates that it will pay MacKenzie a fee of approximately $25,000 plus reimbursement for disbursements.
- Q: Who can help answer my questions?
- A: If you would like additional copies, without charge, of this proxy statement or if you have questions about the merger, including the procedures for voting your shares, you should contact the following:

SPECIAL FACTORS

The following is a description of the material aspects of the merger. While we believe that the following description covers the material terms of the merger, the description may not contain all of the information that is important to you. We encourage you to read carefully this entire document, including the Merger Agreement which is attached to this proxy statement as Annex A, for a more complete understanding of the merger.

Pre-Paid Legal Services, Inc.

We were one of the first companies in the United States organized solely to design, underwrite and market legal expense plans. Our predecessor commenced business in 1972 and began offering legal expense reimbursement services as a “motor service club” under Oklahoma law. In 1976, we were formed and acquired our predecessor in a stock exchange. We began offering memberships independent of the motor service club product by adding a legal consultation and advice service, and in 1979, we implemented a legal expense benefit that provided for partial payment of legal fees in connection with the defense of certain civil and criminal actions. Our life events legal plans (referred to as “memberships”) provide for a variety of legal services. In most states and provinces, standard plan benefits include preventive legal services, motor vehicle legal defense services, trial defense services, Internal Revenue Service audit services and a 25% discount off legal services not specifically covered by the membership. Additionally, in approximately 49 states, the District of Columbia and four Canadian provinces, a rider can be added to the standard plan that provides members with 24-hour access to a toll-free number for attorney assistance if the member is arrested or detained. We also offer our Identity Theft Shield which includes a credit report and related instructional guide, a credit score and related instructional guide, credit report monitoring with daily online and monthly offline notification of any changes in credit information and comprehensive identity theft restoration services.

Our principal executive offices are located at One Pre-Paid Way, Ada, Oklahoma 74820 and our website is located at <http://www.prepaidlegal.com>. Our website address is included in this proxy statement as a textual reference only, and the information available on our website is not incorporated by reference into this proxy statement. Additional information regarding the Company is contained in our filings with the SEC. See “Where You Can Find More Information” beginning on page 93.

MidOcean PPL Holdings Corp.

MidOcean PPL Holdings Corp., or Parent, is a Delaware corporation that was formed solely for the purpose of entering into the Merger Agreement and, subject to the terms and conditions thereof, completing the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, by affiliates of MidOcean Associates, SPC, which, with their affiliates we refer to as MidOcean. MidOcean is a private equity investment firm based in New York and London. Upon completion of the merger, the Company will be a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of MidOcean. MidOcean’s principal executive offices are located at 320 Park Avenue, 16th Floor, New York, New York.

MidOcean is a premier private equity firm focused on the middle market. MidOcean is committed to investing in high quality companies with stable market positions and multiple opportunities for growth in the United States and Europe. Targeted sectors include consumer and leisure, business and financial services, media and communications and industrials. MidOcean utilizes a broad foundation of expertise in its focus industries and its transatlantic platform to create value for its investors and partners.

PPL Acquisition Corp.

PPL Acquisition Corp., or Merger Sub, is an Oklahoma corporation that was formed by Parent solely for the purpose of entering into the Merger Agreement and completing the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and the related financing transactions. Merger Sub is a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent and has not engaged in any business except for activities incidental to its formation and as contemplated by the Merger Agreement and the related financing transactions. Upon consummation of the merger, Merger Sub will cease to exist, and the Company will continue as the surviving corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent. Merger Sub was formed solely for the purpose of securing debt financing and engaging in the transactions described in this proxy statement and has not engaged in any business activities or conducted any operations other than in connection with the debt financing and such transactions.

Overview of the Transaction

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will be merged with and into the Company with the Company continuing as the surviving corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent. If the merger is completed, you will be entitled to receive $66.50 in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes, in exchange for each share of our common stock that you own as of the effective time of the merger and for which you have not properly exercised appraisal rights.

After the merger is completed, you will have the right to receive the merger consideration of $66.50 per share in cash, but you will no longer have any rights as a shareholder of the Company and will have no rights as a shareholder of the surviving corporation as a result of the merger. Our shareholders will receive the per share cash merger consideration after surrendering their shares in accordance with the instructions contained in the letter of transmittal to be sent to our shareholders shortly after closing of the merger. As a result of the merger, the Company will cease to be a publicly-traded company.

Share Repurchase Program

Our senior management and board of directors periodically review and discuss our business strategy and prospects with the goal of maximizing shareholder value. In the course of these discussions, our senior management and board of directors have periodically considered various strategic alternatives for the Company. We have also received periodic, unsolicited inquiries from unaffiliated third parties about our interest in being acquired.

We have historically generated significant cash from operations. In 1999, our board of directors authorized a share repurchase program -- initially of up to 500,000 shares -- to return excess cash to shareholders and enhance shareholder value through a reduction in the number of outstanding shares and a corresponding increase in the Company's financial performance on a per share basis. The board subsequently increased the initial authorization by an additional 750,000 shares in 1999, 500,000 share in 2000, 2.25 million shares in 2001, 2.0 million shares in each of 2002, 2003, 2004 and 2006, 1.0 million shares in each of 2007 and 2008, and 2.0 million shares in 2009. Our board of directors authorized each increase in the share repurchase program separately based on a variety of considerations, including the Company's available resources, other potential uses of those resources, recent trading prices for our common stock and other considerations the board deemed relevant. The total amount authorized to be repurchased since inception of the share repurchase program in 1999 is 16 million shares, of which approximately 15.4 million shares have been repurchased for an aggregate purchase price of approximately $472.0 million.

In addition to the share repurchase program, several years ago we also sought to enhance shareholder value through the payment of cash dividends on our common stock. We paid dividends of $0.50 per share ($7.8 million in the aggregate) in January 2005, $0.30 per share ($4.6 million in the aggregate) in May 2005 and $0.30 per share ($4.6 million in the aggregate) in January 2006. However, management did not believe the market's reaction to the dividends was sufficiently favorable to warrant continued use of the Company's cash to fund dividends.

As a result of our share repurchase program, the number of outstanding shares of our common stock has decreased from approximately 23.6 million shares in 1999 to approximately 9.8 million shares as of March 31, 2011, a decrease of approximately 58%. Our share repurchase program has included open market purchases, privately negotiated purchases (including from management and significant shareholders), as well as tender offers conducted in 2004 and 2006. We also purchased shares from participants in the Company's 401(k) plan and Associate Investment Club and small, odd-lot holders, although these purchases are done at the direction of the participant or holder and are not initiated by us. We refer to repurchases from participants in the Company's 401(k) plan and Associate Investment Club and from odd lot holders as "participant directed transactions."

In 2009, we repurchased a total of 1,354,183 shares with an average price of $37.44 per share. As part of our 2009 share repurchases we repurchased 200,000 shares from an affiliate of Prescott Investors, Inc. ("Prescott"), one of our significant shareholders, at a price of $33.57 per share pursuant to an agreement entered into on January 30, 2009. The purchase price was based on the closing sale price per share of our common stock on the NYSE on January 30, 2009, which was $33.62. The high and low sale price per share on such date was $33.87 and $32.96, respectively. The repurchase of shares from Prescott in January 2009 was initiated by Prescott. At the time of this transaction, Thomas W. Smith, a principal of Prescott, was a director of the Company. The repurchase was made pursuant to the then-existing Board repurchase authorization. The 2009 repurchases also include 1,100,700 shares repurchased in open market transactions, with an average purchase of $37.99, and 53,483 shares repurchased pursuant to participant directed transactions, with an average purchase price of $40.73 per share.

In 2010, the Company repurchased a total of 289,675 shares, with an average price of $48.68 per share, including 223,068 shares repurchased in open market transactions with an average purchase of $48.64, and 66,607 shares repurchased pursuant to participant directed transactions with an average purchase price of $48.80 per share. We did not repurchase any shares from our directors or executive officers in either 2009 or 2010.

The Company used a combination of cash on hand and available credit to repurchase shares. Between 1999 and 2010, the Company borrowed an aggregate of approximately $149.0 million to support its share repurchases, all of which the Company has repaid. None of the share repurchases were made with the knowledge or involvement of MidOcean or anyone affiliated with MidOcean or for the purpose of facilitating a transaction between the Company and MidOcean. The Company had repurchased shares for nearly ten years and had completed almost all of the repurchases made by it during its history before the Company first met MidOcean.

Although the share repurchases were not undertaken for the purpose of accomplishing or achieving a sale of the Company, management recognized that the share repurchase program could also help facilitate the Company's going private at some unknown point in the future (by reducing the number of outstanding shares), a result management thought would be beneficial for the business. In earnings calls, on sales force calls and on other occasions, members of management acknowledged this, such as stating that with the share repurchases "we're in essence going private one share at a time" (and using similar descriptions). In 2010, however, the Company re-evaluated its strategic options in light of developments in the business and with the Company's leadership.

Background of the Merger

In 2009, following 16 consecutive years of revenue growth, the Company experienced a decrease in revenue. In addition, with Mr. Stonecipher now in his early 70s, there was increased attention being given to the future leadership of the Company. Against this backdrop, at a regularly scheduled meeting on February 26, 2010, our board of directors discussed options for strategic alternatives for the Company and confirmed to management their openness to examining such alternatives.

In February and March 2010, we received inquiries from multiple private equity firms, including MidOcean, as to whether we would be interested in engaging in a strategic transaction. MidOcean was introduced to Randy Harp, who was then our chief operating officer, on an unsolicited basis by a representative of VideoPlus, one of our primary outside vendors. MidOcean sent representatives to our headquarters in Ada, Oklahoma to meet with certain members of our management in March 2010. MidOcean also sent representatives to attend our annual sales convention in April 2010. In connection with these preliminary contacts with MidOcean, MidOcean did not make an offer to acquire the Company and we did not engage in any substantive discussions with MidOcean with respect to a possible strategic transaction. MidOcean was not affiliated with us or any of our officers or directors.

On April 27, 2010, Harland C Stonecipher, our founder and Chairman of the board of directors, met with representatives of Cerberus Capital Management, L.P. ("Cerberus") in Ada, Oklahoma to discuss a possible strategic transaction between the Company and Cerberus. The meeting was arranged by a representative of Riggs, Abney, Neal, Turpen, Orbison & Lewis, Inc., one of our provider law firms, who also attended the meeting. Cerberus was not affiliated with us or any of our officers or directors.

Effective April 2, 2010, Mr. Stonecipher relinquished the title and responsibilities of chief executive officer and president of the Company, but he continues to serve as the Chairman of the Company's board of directors.

On May 4, 2010, we received a follow-up letter from Cerberus stating that it would like to learn more about the Company so as to possibly facilitate making an offer to acquire all of the outstanding common stock of the Company at a "substantial premium" to the then-current market price. Attached to the letter was a proposed confidentiality agreement to be signed by the Company and Cerberus to allow for it to conduct due diligence with respect to the Company.

On May 6, 2010, Randy Harp, now our Co-Chief Executive Officer and President, sent an email to our board of directors attaching the letter received from Cerberus as well as describing the inquiries that had been received from other parties, including MidOcean.

On May 7, 2010, the Company and Cerberus executed a confidentiality agreement, and Cerberus' due diligence review of the Company commenced. Cerberus retained financial, legal and other advisors to assist in its due diligence review and consideration of a possible transaction with the Company. This due diligence review continued through Summer 2010. Cerberus sent representatives to our headquarters for meetings with our management and other due diligence review in June 2010. Other discussions between Cerberus and management and Mr. Stonecipher continued periodically through Summer 2010 as well.

On May 21, 2010, at a regularly scheduled meeting of our board of directors, our board discussed the fact that inquiries with respect to potential strategic transactions and/or financing alternatives had been received from several parties, though there was not yet any proposal with respect to any particular transaction. The board determined that while the Company might or might not be interested in pursuing any such transaction, management should continue discussions with interested parties in order to gather more information about the transactions, if any, in which these parties might be interested.

As contacts with Cerberus intensified through Summer 2010, our management stopped responding to inquiries from MidOcean about a possible strategic transaction with us.

At a meeting of the Audit Committee of the board of directors held on July 21, 2010, Mr. Harp informed the Audit Committee that Cerberus had been conducting due diligence to determine if it wanted to purchase some or all of the Company's stock. Mr. Harp then described the due diligence process conducted by Cerberus and told the Audit Committee that Cerberus indicated that it would provide a proposal with respect to a possible transaction as early as the next regularly scheduled August board meeting.

At a meeting of the Audit Committee of the board of directors held on August 19, 2010, the Audit Committee discussed Cerberus' interest in acquiring shares of the Company's stock as well as its due diligence involving accountants and financial advisors. Later on August 19, 2010, at a regularly scheduled meeting of our board of directors, at the request of our management outside corporate, business and securities counsel to the Company, provided the directors with an overview of their legal duties in the context of evaluating strategic alternatives. In response to an inquiry from a member of the Audit Committee who was following up on the discussion in the Audit Committee meeting earlier that day, management told the full board that it had expected an offer from Cerberus by the time of the meeting but that the offer had been delayed. The board also discussed a presentation with respect to the Company's strategic alternatives that Goldman Sachs & Co. had prepared and sent to the Company on an unsolicited basis. At the time of this discussion, the members of the Audit Committee understood that Goldman Sachs was the financial advisor to Cerberus.

On September 22, 2010, Cerberus sent a letter to Mr. Stonecipher proposing a transaction pursuant to which Cerberus would acquire 100% of the outstanding common stock of the Company for an amount in cash equal to $60 per share. Attached to the letter was a commitment for debt financing from Morgan Stanley Senior Funding, Inc. as well as a proposed merger agreement. The proposed merger agreement provided for a 30-day "go shop" period during which the Company could actively solicit alternative offers after the signing of a merger agreement with Cerberus. If the go-shop period resulted in an offer being made that was superior to the proposed transaction with Cerberus, the Company could terminate the agreement with Cerberus and accept the superior offer, subject to paying Cerberus an unspecified break-up fee. The proposed merger agreement also provided that Cerberus' sole liability for not closing on account of a failure to obtain financing was an unspecified termination fee and that Cerberus' sole liability for breaching the agreement and not closing was an unspecified higher termination fee. The letter from Cerberus was forwarded to the members of our board of directors on the same day.

Upon receiving the offer letter from Cerberus, our board of directors, acting by unanimous written consent on September 22 after conversations among individual directors and among individual directors and members of management, formed the Special Committee in order to review and respond to the offer from Cerberus and to make decisions with respect to, the Company's strategic alternatives more generally. The composition of the Special Committee was based on the board's determinations regarding independence and disinterestedness including the possibility that Mr. Stonecipher might at some point decide to invest with a bidder or otherwise have interests in a potential transaction that would be different from, and possibly in conflict with, the interests of the other shareholders of the Company. Additionally, it was determined that director John Hail, who is an independent sales associate for the Company, might not be seen to be independent.

The Special Committee was comprised of Orland G. Aldridge, Martin H. Belsky, Peter K. Grunebaum and Duke R. Ligon, all of whom were determined by the board to be independent and disinterested directors with respect to the offer from Cerberus and a potential transaction generally. Mr. Ligon was selected to act as the Chairman of the Special Committee. The Special Committee was authorized to review and evaluate a possible transaction with Cerberus and the Company's strategic alternatives.

On September 23, 2010, a meeting of the Special Committee was held. At this meeting, the Special Committee determined that it should retain a financial and legal advisor to assist the Special Committee in reviewing and responding to the offer from Cerberus and to review, and make decisions with respect to, the Company's strategic alternatives more generally. The Special Committee decided to retain Berenson & Company, LLC as its financial advisor and Mayer Brown LLP as its legal advisor. At this meeting, the Special Committee also discussed the scope of the Special Committee's objectives and responsibilities, including the review of the proposal received by the Company from Cerberus and the assessment of other strategic alternatives for the Company.

On September 27, 2010, counsel for Cerberus sent a letter to counsel for the Company stating, among other things, that if the Company publicly disclosed Cerberus' offer, the offer would be "deemed withdrawn."

On September 28, 2010, the Special Committee met together with representatives of Berenson and Mayer Brown. At this meeting, various topics related to the Special Committee's objectives and responsibilities were discussed. Mayer Brown provided the members of the Special Committee with an overview of their legal duties in connection with their service on the Special Committee, their review of the offer from Cerberus and their exploration of strategic alternatives for the Company generally. The Special Committee decided to ask the board of directors to clarify the Committee's powers and make clear that the board delegated to the Special Committee the exclusive power and authority to make decisions and take actions with respect to a potential strategic transaction involving the Company. The Special Committee and its advisors also discussed the timing of Berenson's preparation of a financial analysis with respect to the Company and the absence of a requirement that Cerberus' offer be publicly disclosed at that time.

On October 11, 2010, the Special Committee again met together with its financial and legal advisors. At this meeting, representatives of Berenson discussed with the Special Committee certain of Berenson's preliminary views with respect to the offer from Cerberus, the valuation of the Company and possible strategic alternatives for the Company that the Special Committee should consider. Representatives of Berenson also reported to the Special Committee on Berenson's initial discussions with Cerberus' financial advisor. Also at this meeting, the Special Committee discussed three primary options in response to the offer from Cerberus: (1) decide that this is not the right time to sell the Company and have the Company remain owned by public shareholders, (2) decide that it is potentially the right time to sell the Company and commission Berenson to conduct an exploratory sale process to check the market for other bids prior to entering into any merger agreement or (3) decide that it is potentially the right time to sell the Company and engage in discussions about entering into an agreement with Cerberus that would allow the Company to subsequently check the market through a go-shop clause. The Committee made no decision at this meeting as to which of these options to pursue.

On October 14, 2010, the Special Committee held a meeting, together with its financial and legal advisors, at which the Special Committee decided to meet with certain members of the Company's management and Mr. Stonecipher to discuss, among other things, the near-term and long-term prospects of the Company's business. The Special Committee also discussed recent developments relating to Cerberus' proposal and the expected timeline for the Special Committee to arrive at a preliminary determination with respect to its consideration of strategic alternatives for the Company.

On October 15, 2010, the board of directors, acting by unanimous written consent, adopted resolutions clarifying the Special Committee's powers and making clear that the board delegated to the Special Committee the exclusive power and authority to make decisions and take actions with respect to a potential strategic transaction involving the Company.

The Special Committee and its financial and legal advisors met with Mark Brown, the Company's Co-Chief Executive Officer, and Steve Williamson, the Company's Chief Financial Officer, at a meeting on October 17, 2010, and with Mr. Harp and Mr. Stonecipher at a meeting on October 18, 2010. During these meetings, which were held with each of Mr. Brown, Mr. Williamson, Mr. Harp and Mr. Stonecipher separately, the Special Committee asked a range of questions and discussed a variety of topics with respect to the Company and its prospects, the recent downward trends in the Company's business, the possibility of the Company engaging in various strategic transactions such as a self-tender for its shares, and management's interactions with Cerberus to date.

Edgar Filing: PRE PAID LEGAL SERVICES INC - Form PRER14A

On October 18, 2010, the Special Committee met together with its financial and legal advisors. Berenson provided the Special Committee with a preliminary report and analysis with respect to the offer from Cerberus, the Company's valuation, and other possible strategic alternatives for the Company. The Special Committee deliberated further with respect to how to respond to the offer from Cerberus, the downward trends in the Company's business and issues with respect to the disclosure of Cerberus' offer. Also at the October 18th meeting, the Special Committee and its advisors discussed the Special Committee's legal duties, different ways of performing a market check and how Cerberus might respond in different scenarios.

On October 22, 2010, the Special Committee met together with its financial and legal advisors and discussed the fact that the SEC had requested that the Company provide the SEC with documents received by the Company related to going private transactions. The Special Committee further discussed the fact that the Company had determined to provide the offer letter from Cerberus in response to the SEC's request. The Special Committee then invited Mr. Harp and Mr. Williamson to jointly attend a portion of this meeting to enable the Special Committee to ask follow-up questions from the meetings with Mr. Harp and Mr. Williamson the previous week.

After Messrs. Harp and Williamson left the meeting, the Special Committee engaged in a discussion of its options and unanimously determined to authorize Berenson to immediately initiate an exploratory sale process (although no decision to sell was reached) to determine whether other strategic or financial buyers would be interested in making an offer to acquire the Company before entering into any merger agreement. Because of the need to provide the Cerberus offer to the SEC and the desire to avoid the possibility that the SEC would require disclosure of the Cerberus offer in the middle of the exploratory sale process, the Special Committee determined that the Company would publicly announce that it had received an offer from a private equity firm (without naming Cerberus) for $60 per share and that, in response to this offer, the Special Committee had determined that the Company would explore strategic alternatives. The Special Committee further determined that, in light of the September 27th letter previously received from counsel to Cerberus stating that Cerberus' offer would be deemed withdrawn if it was publicly disclosed by the Company, the public announcement would include a statement that counsel for Cerberus had notified the Company that in the event of a public disclosure by the Company of Cerberus' proposal the proposal would be deemed withdrawn. A press release containing this information was issued by the Company on the morning of October 25, 2010.

Our last repurchase of shares pursuant to a participant directed transaction occurred on October 22, 2010, when we repurchased 225 shares from participants in our Associate Investment Club, at their direction, at a price of $55.12 per share. Neither Cerberus nor MidOcean was consulted about any of the share repurchases we made in 2010 or about decisions to curtail our share repurchases. We did not act at their request, and none of the share repurchases were made to facilitate a sale transaction with either of them or with any other third party.

On October 26, 2010, at the direction of the Special Committee, Berenson formally commenced an exploratory sale process, though the Special Committee had not at that time made a decision that the Company should be sold. Throughout the course of this process, Berenson contacted and sought bids from a total of 75 parties, 62 of which were financial buyers and 13 of which were strategic buyers. Of these 75 parties, 36 executed confidentiality agreements and received a confidential information memorandum and other information with respect to the Company. Of these 36 parties, 35 were financial buyers and one was a strategic buyer.

On October 27, 2010, one of the Mayer Brown partners advising the Special Committee informed its members that he had learned that day that Mayer Brown represented two entities that were controlled by Cerberus in litigation matters. The Mayer Brown partner explained that Mayer Brown did not represent Cerberus, that one of the partners at the firm responsible for addressing conflicts issues did not believe that these facts created a conflict for Mayer Brown under the attorney conflicts rules, that neither he nor the other Mayer Brown partner that the members of the Special Committee were receiving advice from had anything to do with these litigation matters, that the revenue generated from these engagements constituted a very small percentage of Mayer Brown's aggregate revenues and that consequently it would be difficult to sustain an argument that they would be unable to be independent with respect to Cerberus. Mr. Ligon responded that he thought that there was no conflict as a result of these facts, and Mayer Brown continued to represent the Special Committee.

On October 28, 2010, the Company replaced its previous outside corporate, business and securities counsel with Fellers, Snider, Blankenship, Bailey & Tipples, P.C.

On October 30, 2010, the Special Committee received a letter from Prescott, which, according to public filings, owned, together with former director Thomas W. Smith and other affiliated investors, approximately 25% of the Company's outstanding common stock. In the letter, Prescott urged the Special Committee to move expeditiously in its evaluation of strategic alternatives. Prescott also stated in the letter that it believed that the $60 per share offer price stated in the October 25th press release was "appropriate." Prescott filed this letter with the SEC on an amendment to its Schedule 13D with respect to its ownership interest in the Company.

On November 2, 2010, the Special Committee met together with its financial and legal advisors to discuss the letter from Prescott as well as the possibility of implementing severance and retention arrangements for certain of the Company's management and other employees in light of the pending review of strategic alternatives. Berenson also provided the Special Committee with an update relating to the exploratory sale process and the difficulty that several bidders were experiencing in obtaining the financing necessary to engage in a business transaction involving the Company.

Also on November 2, 2010, the Special Committee received a letter from Alan Weber, who at the time of the letter purported to own, together with certain affiliated investors, 270,500 shares of the Company's common stock. The letter from Mr. Weber was in response to the October 30th letter from Prescott. In the letter, Mr. Weber asked the Special Committee to undertake a careful and deliberate process and suggested that the $60 per share offer price stated in the October 25th press release was too low.

On November 8, 2010, an email on behalf of Mr. Stonecipher was sent to Mr. Ligon stating that Mr. Stonecipher had retained a personal attorney to advise him and that Mr. Stonecipher wished to meet as quickly as possible with the Special Committee. Around this time, Mr. Stonecipher expressed concern to the Special Committee that he should be part of the exploratory sale process, that the Special Committee was unnecessary and that the exploratory sale process was taking too long, was putting at risk the possibility of a $60 per share bid from Cerberus and could result in the loss of members of the Company's sales force. He further expressed the view that the Company's shareholders should be given the opportunity to vote on Cerberus' offer as soon as possible.

On November 10, 2010, Mr. Stonecipher communicated to the members of the Special Committee a request that the Special Committee cease efforts to solicit buyers. The Special Committee noted the request but continued its ongoing exploratory sale process.

On November 11, 2010, Mr. Stonecipher sent an email communication to the members of the Special Committee stating that he had notified Mr. Harp and the management team of Mr. Stonecipher's desire that they start preparing a proxy statement for the purpose of submitting the transaction proposed by Cerberus to the Company's shareholders.

Also on November 11, 2010, the Special Committee held a meeting with representatives of Berenson and Mayer Brown. At this meeting, representatives of Berenson provided the Special Committee with an update on the exploratory sale process, including the process by which potential bidders would conduct due diligence, and representatives of Mayer Brown discussed the progress with respect to the proposed severance and retention arrangements. The Special Committee discussed the current state of the Company's business and operations and the concerns Mr. Stonecipher had previously expressed regarding the effect that the exploratory sale process was having on the Company's employees, sales associates and provider law firms. The Special Committee also discussed the importance of involving Prescott in the process given Prescott's substantial ownership interest in the Company, and the possibility that Prescott, either individually or through a partnership with another interested party, could be a buyer, rather than a seller, in a potential transaction.

Mr. Stonecipher attended a portion of the November 11 meeting, although he was not in attendance during the portion of the meeting at which the items described in the preceding paragraph were discussed. He told the Special Committee about his concerns. Mr. Stonecipher and the Special Committee discussed the need for better communications between the Special Committee, Mr. Stonecipher and the Company's management.

On November 14, 2010, Mr. Harp distributed to the members of the board of directors a notice of a board meeting that had been called for November 18, 2010. The agenda item for this board meeting was the termination of the Special Committee under certain circumstances.

On November 16, 2010, at the request of Fellers Snider, Mr. Ligon and a lawyer from Mayer Brown met with Mr. Stonecipher, Mr. Harp, Keri Prince, the General Counsel of the Company, and three lawyers from Fellers Snider. At this meeting, Mr. Stonecipher reiterated his concerns. Mr. Ligon and the lawyer from Mayer Brown responded that, in their judgment, the Special Committee was taking the right approach with respect to exploring the Company's strategic alternatives and that disbanding the Special Committee would be a mistake. Mr. Ligon and the lawyer from Mayer Brown further stated that they agreed with Mr. Stonecipher that it would be helpful to improve communications between the Special Committee and Mr. Stonecipher.

Also on November 16, 2010, the Special Committee held a meeting together with its financial and legal advisors. Mr. Ligon and the lawyer from Mayer Brown who had attended the meeting with Mr. Stonecipher and others earlier in the day reported on that event and Mr. Stonecipher's concerns. The Special Committee discussed the general outcome of the earlier meeting and the need to continue the work and maintain the independence of the Special Committee in connection with the exploratory sale process.

On November 17, 2010, Mr. Stonecipher expressed his thanks to Mr. Ligon and the Mayer Brown lawyer for coming to the November 16 meeting, and stated that the meeting had been positive and further stating that it was not his intention to impede the progress of the Special Committee.

Mr. Ligon and Mr. Stonecipher met on November 18, 2010 and discussed the issues raised at the November 11 and 16 meetings. Mr. Stonecipher made clear that his concerns had been ameliorated. At the meeting of our board of directors later on November 18, 2010, the topic of terminating the Special Committee was neither discussed nor acted on by the board.

On November 22, 2010, four parties submitted non-binding indications of interest with respect to an acquisition of the Company. The per share cash consideration reflected in these indications of interest were as follows: (1) Cerberus - $60 per share, (2) Bidder B - $60-65 per share, (3) Bidder C - $62-63 per share and (4) MidOcean - $61-$63 per share.

On November 23, 2010, the Special Committee, together with Berenson and Mayer Brown, met to review the indications of interests. After discussion and consideration of a variety of factors, including the input and advice from its financial advisor, the Special Committee decided to invite each of the four parties that submitted indications of interest to proceed with the process, receive management presentations in Ada, Oklahoma, and conduct additional due diligence.

Starting in early December 2010 and continuing through late January 2011, the four bidders conducted due diligence on the Company via an electronic data room and by attending management presentations and other due diligence meetings with the Company at the Company's headquarters in Ada, Oklahoma and at other locations.

The Special Committee met on December 6, 2010 together with its financial and legal advisors. The Special Committee discussed the status of ongoing management presentations that were being conducted in Ada, Oklahoma. The Special Committee also discussed the possibility of arranging stapled financing to facilitate the sale of the Company. In addition, the Special Committee discussed the possibility of asking Prescott whether it would be willing to roll its current equity holdings in the Company with the potential bidders. Representatives of Mayer Brown provided the Special Committee with an update relating to the proposed severance and retention arrangements.

On December 9, 2010, the Special Committee, together with its financial and legal advisors, met to discuss current developments with respect to MidOcean, Cerberus and Bidders B and C. Berenson provided the Special Committee with a summary of conversations that had recently been held between Berenson and Prescott relating to Prescott's potential participation in the exploratory sale process as an rollover equity investor with the bidders and Prescott's concern that a prolonged exploratory sale process could jeopardize Cerberus' continued interest in pursuing a transaction at $60 per share. During these discussions, Prescott expressed to Berenson an openness to having discussions with bidders with respect to a possible rollover investment.

On December 13, 2010, a proposed non-binding letter of intent was sent to Mr. Ligon by a group of investors, one of whom was an existing shareholder of the Company. In this proposed letter of intent, the group proposed to acquire substantially all of the assets of the Company for a value of $65-70 per share. Upon receipt of this proposed letter of intent, Berenson followed up with this group and was informed that the group was not able to obtain the financing necessary to pursue the transaction outlined in its proposed letter of intent. Discussions with this group therefore did not continue.

On December 16, 2010, the Special Committee convened a meeting with its financial and legal advisors to discuss developments in the exploratory sale process relating to Bidder B. Berenson informed the Special Committee that Bidder B had dropped out of the exploratory sale process due to the lack of financing and certain identified business risks. The Special Committee and its advisors also discussed the estimated costs to the Company of the proposed severance and retention arrangements and the relative merits of adopting such arrangements in connection with the potential sale of the Company.

On December 21, 2010, MidOcean met with Prescott and Tom Smith, at the suggestion of Berenson, which was also in attendance, to explore whether Prescott would be interested in rolling over some of its equity and investing in the Company with MidOcean, although the specific amount of any rollover and other deal terms were not discussed. No agreement whether Prescott would participate in a MidOcean bid was reached at this meeting. Also on December 21, 2010, Berenson facilitated a similar discussion between Prescott and Bidder C.

On December 22, 2010, the Special Committee and its financial and legal advisors met to discuss the status of the exploratory sale process and the proposed severance and retention arrangements. Berenson reported to the Special Committee that, based on an understanding that Cerberus had held discussions with Prescott with respect to a possible rollover investment and consistent with the Special Committee's prior instructions, Berenson had facilitated discussions between Prescott and each of Bidder C and MidOcean. Berenson also reported the current status of Bidder C's and MidOcean's efforts to secure the financing necessary to complete a transaction.

On December 29, 2010, Mr. Harp sent an email to Mr. Ligon, Mr. Stonecipher, Ms. Prince and three outside lawyers expressing his dissatisfaction with the Special Committee's authority to make determinations with respect to who should receive retention payments and the size of those payments, and his view that since the Company's management was in a better position to make such assessments, it could proceed without the approval of the Special Committee. On January 20, 2011, the four members of the Special Committee sent a letter to Mr. Harp instructing Mr. Harp that management should not proceed on its own on this matter and stating that while the Special Committee had committed to give serious consideration to management's recommendation, the legal authority to make the final decision in this regard had been delegated by the board of directors to the Special Committee.

On December 30, 2010, the Special Committee, together with its financial and legal advisors, held a meeting at which Berenson provided an update on the exploratory sale process. The Special Committee then discussed the proposed severance and retention arrangements, after which it voted on and approved those arrangements.

On January 3, 2011, the Special Committee, together with Berenson and Mayer Brown, met to discuss a request from MidOcean that the Company agree to reimburse MidOcean for up to $750,000 of expenses incurred by MidOcean in connection with its due diligence investigation of the Company. The Special Committee considered the request and instructed Berenson to inform MidOcean that its request had been denied.

On January 6, 2011, the Special Committee met with Mayer Brown and Berenson to discuss matters related to the disclosure of the severance and retention arrangements and other matters related to the proposed transaction.

On January 9, 2011, Cerberus, Bidder C and MidOcean, which were the three remaining bidders were provided with a proposed form of merger agreement that they were instructed to review and mark-up in connection with the submission of their final bids.

On January 19, 2011, Prescott filed an amendment to its Schedule 13D with respect to the Company announcing that it had entered into an exclusivity agreement with Cerberus in connection with a potential transaction. Neither the Special Committee nor the Company played any role in the decision of Prescott to enter into the exclusivity agreement. The exclusivity agreement provided that Prescott was prohibited from entering into an arrangement related to a possible acquisition of the Company with a party other than Cerberus. The exclusivity agreement did not, however, preclude Prescott from voting its shares in favor of a transaction with a party other than Cerberus.

On January 20, 2011, Mr. Harp and Mr. Brown, accompanied by representatives of Berenson, met with MidOcean at MidOcean's offices in New York as part of MidOcean's confirmatory due diligence process.

Also on January 20, 2011, on a conference call arranged by Berenson (whose representatives were present on the call) at MidOcean's request, representatives of MidOcean spoke with Mr. Stonecipher to review the status of MidOcean's business diligence, which they had substantially completed, and inform Mr. Stonecipher of their intent to submit a bid to acquire the Company by the January 21st deadline. During the course of this discussion, MidOcean also indicated that MidOcean would welcome Mr. Stonecipher's continued involvement with the Company subsequent to a closing if MidOcean was the ultimate buyer as well as a co-investment by Mr. Stonecipher, although MidOcean's offer to acquire the Company would not be conditioned on any rollover. The amount and terms of any rollover were not discussed.

Also on January 20, the Special Committee, together with its financial and legal advisors, held a meeting at which Berenson and Mayer Brown provided an update on the exploratory sale process. In addition, Mayer Brown discussed with the Special Committee the content and potential ramifications of the amendment to Schedule 13D with respect to the Company that Prescott filed on January 19, 2011.

On January 21, 2011, each of MidOcean and Cerberus submitted a definitive offer to acquire the Company in an all-cash merger, together with a proposed merger agreement, a proposed form of guarantee and debt and equity financing commitments. MidOcean's offer was for $65 per share, was conditioned on obtaining financing (without a "reverse termination fee" payable to the Company if the financing could not be obtained) and was subject to certain remaining due diligence. Cerberus' offer was for $60.50 per share not being rolled over by Prescott Investors, contained a $30 million reverse termination fee if Cerberus was not able to obtain the financing necessary to close the transaction and a $60 million reverse termination fee (plus up to $2.5 million in reimbursed expenses) if Cerberus materially breached the merger agreement. Also, though Cerberus did submit a proposed merger agreement, it did not mark up the form of agreement provided on January 9th to all the remaining bidders in the exploratory sale process but rather submitted a modified version of the proposed merger agreement that it provided to the Company with its initial offer in September 2010. Bidder C informed Berenson that it was not prepared to submit a bid.

On January 22, 2011, after discussions with Berenson and obtaining additional due diligence materials, MidOcean revised its offer to eliminate its due diligence requirement and include a $38 million reverse termination fee payable to the Company in the event that MidOcean failed to obtain financing or materially breached the merger agreement.

On January 23, 2011, the Special Committee, together with Berenson and Mayer Brown, met to discuss the bids that were received from MidOcean and Cerberus as well as to provide an update on Bidder C. Berenson provided the Special Committee with a summary of the financial implications of the two bids and a summary of the various discussions with each of MidOcean, Cerberus and Bidder C. The Special Committee and its advisors reviewed the key terms of the proposed merger agreements and other documents submitted by each party and discussed various issues and concerns in connection therewith. Mr. Ligon informed the other members of the Special Committee that it was his understanding that management and Mr. Stonecipher preferred a transaction with MidOcean over a transaction with Cerberus. After discussion and consideration of a variety of factors, including MidOcean's significantly higher offer price and the other terms of MidOcean's proposal, the need for the Special Committee to focus on the interests of shareholders rather than management's preference for one bidder over another, and receiving input and advice from its financial and legal advisors, the Special Committee instructed its advisors to engage with MidOcean and its advisors on its proposed merger agreement and other terms of a potential transaction while continuing discussions with Cerberus.

On January 25, 2011, Cerberus increased its offer to $65 per share. Also on January 25, Mayer Brown sent to Kirkland & Ellis LLP, counsel for MidOcean, a revised version of the proposed merger agreement submitted by MidOcean with its bid.

Also on January 25, the Special Committee held a meeting, together with Berenson and Mayer Brown. At this meeting, Berenson informed the Special Committee that Cerberus had increased its offer to $65 per share. Because of this increase, the Special Committee instructed Berenson and Mayer Brown to work with both MidOcean and Cerberus in an effort to negotiate the best possible terms for a potential transaction.

Representatives of Mayer Brown and Kirkland & Ellis had a conference call on January 26, 2011 to discuss the proposed merger agreement between the Company and MidOcean. Also on January 26, Cerberus increased the reverse termination fee that it would pay in the event it materially breached the merger agreement or was unable to obtain financing to consummate the transaction to $117 million.

Also on January 26, the Special Committee held a meeting, together with Berenson and Mayer Brown. At this meeting, Mayer Brown reported to the Special Committee that discussions with MidOcean and its counsel were progressing. Berenson informed the Special Committee that Cerberus had increased the reverse termination fee that it would pay in the event it materially breached the merger agreement or was unable to obtain financing to consummate the transaction to $117 million. Given the revised terms of Cerberus' offer and the fact that Cerberus had previously submitted its form of merger agreement with its bid, the Special Committee instructed Mayer Brown to send to counsel for Cerberus a form of merger agreement that was substantially the same as the merger agreement being negotiated with MidOcean so as to facilitate more ready comparisons between the two bidders' proposed agreements. In the evening of January 26, 2011, Mayer Brown sent such a merger agreement to counsel for Cerberus.

Discussions continued with each of MidOcean and Cerberus and their respective counsel and, in the case of Cerberus, financial advisors, on January 27, 2011 and January 28, 2011. The Company's management continued to respond to the due diligence inquiries of both bidders.

On January 28, 2011, the Special Committee, together with Berenson and Mayer Brown, met to discuss the status of the discussions with the two bidders and to determine a path forward for bringing the process to a successful conclusion. The Special Committee and its advisors engaged in a discussion with respect to the extensive discussions with the two bidders and their respective advisors over the previous several days. It was noted that while discussions with counsel for Cerberus on the merger agreement were progressing, there were still a number of open issues and progress on completing the agreement significantly lagged behind progress on completing the MidOcean merger agreement. After discussion and careful deliberation, the Special Committee determined that Berenson should instruct each bidder that it should submit its best and final bid (including the merger agreement and related documents) by 5pm central time on January 29, 2011. After the meeting Berenson delivered that message to each of the two bidders.

At approximately 5pm central time on January 29, 2011, MidOcean submitted a bid in response to the Special Committee's instructions. MidOcean increased its offer price from $65.00 per share to $66.50 per share and increased the amount of the reverse termination fee that it would pay in the event it materially breached the merger agreement or was unable to obtain financing to consummate the transaction to $50 million. MidOcean also submitted a proposed merger agreement and related documents that were close to complete based on the ongoing discussions that had been occurring between Mayer Brown and Kirkland & Ellis.

At approximately 11pm central time on January 29, 2011, Cerberus submitted a bid in response to the Special Committee's instructions. Cerberus maintained the $65.00 per share price that had been previously communicated. Cerberus also submitted a proposed merger agreement and related documents that still contained significant issues including, among others, significant conditions to Cerberus' obligation to close the transaction that were not contained in the MidOcean agreement.

In the early morning hours of January 30, 2011, Mayer Brown and Kirkland & Ellis had a conference call to discuss the remaining open issues on the merger agreement and other documents.

The Special Committee met at 8am central time on January 30, 2011 with representatives of Berenson and Mayer Brown. A lawyer from Fellers Snider also attended a portion of the meeting. There was a discussion with respect to the current state of the two bidders' proposals, the directors' legal duties that apply in the context of the potential transaction and the need to focus only on what was best for shareholders and no other factors, including that management and Mr. Stonecipher appeared to prefer a transaction with MidOcean over a transaction with Cerberus. The Special Committee then discussed the extensive process that the Special Committee had undertaken since being formed in late September 2010 upon receipt of the initial offer from Cerberus, including how the Special Committee had met over 20 times during that period, and the key terms of documentation with respect to a potential transaction with MidOcean, including the Merger Agreement, equity commitment letter, debt commitment letter and limited guarantee.

Berenson then reviewed the various key events leading up to the receipt of the final MidOcean proposal and provided the Special Committee with a summary of various methodologies that Berenson used in evaluating the proposed transaction, including an analysis of the Company's historical stock price, premiums paid analysis, a discounted cash flow analysis and a leveraged buyout analysis. Thereafter, Berenson orally stated to the Special Committee, which was confirmed in writing later that day, that it was the opinion of Berenson that the merger consideration being offered by MidOcean was fair, from a financial point of view, to the Company's shareholders.

The Special Committee, meeting without its advisors, then made a final decision that it was advisable to enter into an agreement to sell the Company. The Special Committee then engaged with its advisors in a discussion with respect to the proposed transaction with MidOcean, including that the proposed transaction offered a higher per share offer price than the proposal from Cerberus. After that discussion, based on its determination that, among other things, the transaction proposed by MidOcean represented the best price reasonably available for the Company, the Special Committee unanimously approved and declared advisable the Merger Agreement with MidOcean and recommended that the board of directors approve the Merger Agreement with MidOcean and submit it to the Company's shareholders.

Later that day, the board of directors met at 1:30pm central time with Fellers Snider and Mayer Brown. Berenson and the following members of the Company's management also attended a portion of the meeting: Randy Harp, Mark Brown, Steve Williamson, Kathy Pinson, Melanie Lawson, John Long and Keri Prince. Mr. Ligon reported the recommendation of the Special Committee that the board of directors approve the Merger Agreement with MidOcean and submit the Merger Agreement with MidOcean to the Company's shareholders. An attorney from Fellers Snider gave an overview of the directors' legal duties that apply in the context of the potential transaction and reviewed the key terms of the Merger Agreement, Berenson reviewed the financial analysis that it had provided to the Special Committee, and told the board that it had expressed its opinion to the Special Committee that the merger consideration being offered by MidOcean was fair, from a financial point of view, to the Company's shareholders. After a discussion, the board of directors, acting on the unanimous recommendation of the Special Committee, unanimously approved and declared advisable the Merger Agreement with MidOcean and directed that the merger agreement with MidOcean be submitted to the Company's shareholders.

At approximately 5:45pm central time, the parties executed the Merger Agreement and related documents.

The Company and MidOcean issued a joint press release announcing the transaction on the morning of January 31, 2011.

In mid-February 2011, Cerberus contacted MidOcean about exploring a possible investment in Parent.

On February 27, 2011, after Prescott was released from its exclusivity agreement with Cerberus disclosed in Prescott's January 19, 2011 amendment to its Schedule 13D with respect to the Company, a representative of Prescott contacted MidOcean to express Prescott's interest in making an equity investment in Parent through a rollover of a portion of the Company's common stock owned by Prescott. Representatives of MidOcean and Prescott met the next day to discuss this topic. As of the date of this proxy statement, MidOcean has not agreed to any co-investment by Prescott and has not made a co-investment opportunity available to Prescott.

On March 1, 2011, Prescott filed an amendment to its Schedule 13D with respect to the Company that stated that on February 27, 2011, Cerberus had released Prescott from the exclusivity agreement and stated that Prescott continues to evaluate its position in the Company and may in the future hold discussions or otherwise participate with various parties, including MidOcean, in discussions relating to a transaction or certain other actions involving the Company.

On March 17, 2011, after first informing the Special Committee, Parent entered into a letter agreement with Cerberus pursuant to which Cerberus agreed to purchase and Parent agreed to issue at closing $75 million of nonvoting, non-convertible preferred stock of Parent, together with warrants to acquire 7.5% of Parent's equity voting securities. Also, in connection with entering into this letter agreement, Cerberus agreed that prior to termination of the Merger Agreement it would not pursue a transaction competitive with MidOcean's acquisition of the Company or have any discussions with any other party related to a competitive transaction. There can be no assurance that Parent and Cerberus will enter into definitive documentation on the terms contemplated by the letter agreement or at all. The financing from Cerberus is not a condition to Parent's obligations under the merger agreement.

On March 21, 2011, Mr. Stonecipher and MidOcean discussed the terms under which Mr. Stonecipher might co-invest in Parent, serve on the board of directors of the surviving corporation and have a continuing role with the Company following the closing of the merger.

On March 25, 2011, after first informing the Special Committee, Parent amended the Debt Commitment Letter issued by Macquarie Capital (USA) to add the following three additional banks: Royal Bank of Canada, KeyBank National Association and The Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland. Other than the addition of these banks, the terms of the Debt Commitment Letter remained unchanged in all material respects.

On April 5, 2011, Mr. Stonecipher informed MidOcean and the Company that, after carefully considering a variety of factors, he had decided not to co-invest in Parent, serve on the board of directors of the surviving corporation or have a continuing role with the Company following the closing of the merger. Mr. Stonecipher continues to support the merger and plans to vote his shares in favor of adoption of the Merger Agreement.

On April 8, 2011, in response to comments from the staff of the SEC, the Company notified the SEC that it would comply with Rule 13e-3 under the Exchange Act by filing a Schedule 13E-3 and amending the preliminary proxy statement to include the disclosures required by Rule 13e-3.

On April 17, 2011, the Special Committee held a meeting, together with representatives of Berenson and Mayer Brown. Mayer Brown described for the Special Committee the applicability of Rule 13e-3. Mayer Brown also reviewed for the Special Committee the standards for independence and disinterestedness of the members of the Committee. At the meeting, Berenson confirmed that its opinion, rendered on January 30, 2011, that the merger consideration being offered by MidOcean was fair, from a financial point of view, to the Company's shareholders included the conclusion that the merger consideration being offered by MidOcean was fair, from a financial point of view, to the Company's unaffiliated shareholders. The Special Committee unanimously confirmed that each of its members was independent and disinterested with respect to MidOcean and the merger. The Special Committee also unanimously determined that the merger is substantively and procedurally fair to, and in the best interests of, the unaffiliated shareholders of the Company, confirmed that the Special Committee held this view when it approved the Merger Agreement on January 30, 2011, and recommended that the board of directors make the same determination.

Later that day, the board of directors held a meeting at which representatives of Berenson and Mayer Brown were present. Mayer Brown described for the board the applicability of Rule 13e-3. Berenson confirmed that its opinion, rendered to the Special Committee on January 30, 2011, that the merger consideration being offered by MidOcean was fair, from a financial point of view, to the Company's shareholders included the conclusion that the merger consideration being offered by MidOcean was fair, from a financial point of view, to the Company's unaffiliated shareholders. Mr. Ligon reported that the Special Committee unanimously determined that the merger is substantively and procedurally fair to, and in the best interests of, the unaffiliated shareholders of the Company, confirmed that the Special Committee held this view when it approved the Merger Agreement on January 30, 2011, and recommended that the board of directors make the same determination. After a discussion, the board of directors, acting on the unanimous recommendation of the Special Committee, unanimously determined that the merger is substantively and procedurally fair to, and in the best interests of, the unaffiliated shareholders of the Company and confirmed that the board of directors held this view when it approved the Merger Agreement on January 30, 2011.

Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of Our Board of Directors

Recommendation of Our Board of Directors

At a meeting held on January 30, 2011, our board of directors, after considering the unanimous recommendation of the Special Committee, unanimously:

- approved and declared advisable the Merger Agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement;
- declared that it was in the best interests of the Company's shareholders that the Company enter into the Merger Agreement and consummate the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement;
- directed that the Merger Agreement be submitted to the holders of our common stock for their adoption; and
- resolved to recommend to the shareholders that they vote in favor of adopting the Merger Agreement

At a meeting held on April 17, 2011, our board of directors, after considering the unanimous recommendation of the Special Committee, unanimously determined that the merger is substantively and procedurally fair to, and in the best interests of, the unaffiliated shareholders of the Company and confirmed that the board of directors held this view when it approved the Merger Agreement on January 30, 2011.

Accordingly, our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" adoption of the Merger Agreement and "FOR" any proposal to authorize our board of directors, in its discretion, to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies.

Reasons for the Merger

Edgar Filing: PRE PAID LEGAL SERVICES INC - Form PRER14A

In reaching its determination to recommend that our board of directors approve and declare advisable the Merger Agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and to recommend that you vote in favor of the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, the Special Committee consulted with members of our senior management, as well as the Special Committee's financial and legal advisors. These consultations included discussions regarding our strategic business plan, the historical and expected future price for our common stock, our past and current business operations and financial condition and performance, our future prospects, other potential strategic transactions, the possible sale of the Company to companies other than Parent and the potential transaction with Parent.

The Special Committee considered a number of positive factors in its deliberations, including the following:

- the Special Committee's solicitations of interest from a total of 75 parties and its conduct of a process in which all interested parties were given an opportunity to conduct an investigation of the Company and make a bid;
- at the conclusion of this process, Parent offered the highest price to the Company's shareholders;
- the quality of Parent's equity and debt financing for the merger;
- Parent is obligated to pay us a termination fee of $50 million if we terminate the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances or if the merger has not been consummated under certain circumstances, including if Parent's financing for the merger fails, as more fully described under "The Merger Agreement—Fees and Expenses" beginning on page 78;
- the Company's ability, under certain circumstances, to seek specific performance to prevent breaches of the Merger Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms of the Merger Agreement;
- the April 2010 resignation of Harland Stonecipher as our chief executive officer, his age and health, and his desire to take a less active role in our daily management and operations;
- the potential shareholder value that could be expected to be generated from the other strategic options available to us, including remaining independent and continuing to implement our present strategy or pursuing other strategic alternatives, as well as the risks and uncertainties associated with those alternatives;
- the merger consideration consists solely of cash, which provides certainty of value to our shareholders compared to a transaction in which shareholders would receive stock or other consideration;
- our ability under the Merger Agreement to furnish information to and conduct negotiations with a third party, as more fully described under "The Merger Agreement— Restrictions on Solicitation of Alternative Transaction Proposals" beginning on page 67;
- the board of directors' and the Special Committee's ability to modify and change their respective recommendations of the transaction in certain circumstances or if otherwise required by their respective fiduciary obligations to our shareholders; and
- the opinion of Berenson, dated January 30, 2011, to the Special Committee as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, of the consideration to be received by the holders of our common stock in the merger, as more fully described under "Special Factors—Opinion of the Special Committee's Financial Advisor" beginning on page 35.

The Special Committee also determined that sufficient procedural safeguards were and are present to permit the Special Committee to represent effectively the interests of the Company's shareholders. These procedural safeguards include:

- the Special Committee is comprised of four disinterested and independent directors who are not affiliated with either Parent or Merger Sub and are not employees or significant shareholders of the Company or any of its subsidiaries;
- other than their receipt of board of directors and Special Committee fees (which are not contingent upon the consummation of the merger or the Special Committee's or board of directors' recommendation of the merger), members of the Special Committee do not have interests in the merger different from, or in addition to, those of the Company's shareholders; and

- the Special Committee had the authority not to recommend the approval of the merger or any other transaction.

The Special Committee also considered potential drawbacks or risks relating to the merger, including the following:

- while the merger is expected to be consummated, there can be no assurance that financing will be available or that all conditions to the parties' obligations to consummate the merger will be satisfied, and as a result, it is possible that the merger may not be consummated even if the Merger Agreement is adopted by our shareholders;
- in the event that Parent breaches the Merger Agreement, is unable to obtain financing for the merger or fails to pay us any termination fee that it becomes obligated to pay under the Merger Agreement, our only recourse would be to seek specific performance against Parent or to seek $50 million from the MidOcean Investors under the limited guarantee;
- if the merger is consummated, we will no longer exist as an independent company and our shareholders will no longer participate in our growth;
- the Merger Agreement precludes us from soliciting alternative proposals;
- we are obligated to pay Parent a termination fee of $21.5 million if we or Parent terminate the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances, as more fully described under "The Merger Agreement—Fees and Expenses" beginning on page 78, which may deter others from proposing an alternative transaction that might be more advantageous to our shareholders;
- the risk that the Merger will not be approved by the appropriate governmental authorities; and
- if the merger does not close, we may incur significant risks and costs, including the possibility of disruption to our operations, diversion of management and employee attention, employee attrition and a potentially negative effect on business and customers, sales associate and provider law firm relationships.

The Special Committee also considered that certain of our directors and officers may have conflicts of interest in connection with the merger, as they may receive certain benefits that are different from, and in addition to, those of our other shareholders. See "—Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" beginning on page 45.

After taking into account all of the factors set forth above, as well as others, our board of directors, acting on the unanimous recommendation of the Special Committee, unanimously agreed that the benefits of the merger outweigh the risks and that the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the merger, are advisable and in the best interests of our shareholders. Our board of directors has unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and the merger and recommends that our shareholders vote to adopt the Merger Agreement and the merger at the special meeting.

The foregoing discussion is not intended to be exhaustive, but we believe it addresses the material information and principal factors considered by the Special Committee in its consideration of the merger. In view of the number and variety of factors and the amount of information considered, the Special Committee did not find it practicable to, and did not make specific assessments of, quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to, the specific factors considered in reaching their respective determinations. In addition, the Special Committee did not undertake to make any specific determination as to whether any particular factor, or any aspect of any particular factor, was favorable or unfavorable to their respective ultimate determinations, and individual members of the Special Committee may have given different weights to different factors. The Special Committee made its recommendation to our board of directors based on the totality of information presented to, and the investigation conducted by, the Special Committee.

Purposes and Reasons of the PPD Parties for the Merger and Positions of the PPD Parties Regarding the Fairness of the Merger

Each of the PPD Parties agrees with and adopts the reasons for the merger described under "—Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of Our Board of Directors." In addition, each of the PPD Parties believes that the merger is fair to the Company's unaffiliated shareholders on the basis of the factors described under "—Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of Our Board of Directors." None of the PPD Parties participated in the deliberations of the Special Committee regarding, or received advice from the Special Committee's legal or financial advisor as to, the fairness of the merger. As disclosed under "—Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" beginning on page 45, the PPD Parties have interests in the merger both the same as those of the unaffiliated shareholders of the Company by virtue of the receipt of the per share merger consideration in exchange for their entire equity interests in the Company upon completion of the merger, and different from those of the unaffiliated shareholders of the Company by virtue of the information set forth in that section.

The interests of the unaffiliated shareholders of the Company were represented by the Special Committee, which negotiated the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, with the assistance of the Special Committee's financial and legal advisors. Accordingly, none of the PPD Parties has performed, or engaged a financial advisor to perform, any independent valuation or other analysis for the purpose of assessing the fairness of the merger to the Company's unaffiliated shareholders. The PPD Parties believe, however, that the merger is substantively and procedurally fair to the unaffiliated shareholders of the Company based upon the same factors considered by the Special Committee and the board of directors discussed in this proxy statement in the section entitled "—Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of Our Board of Directors," which analysis and resulting conclusions the PPD Parties adopt.

Purposes and Reasons of the Company and the PPD Parties for the Share Repurchases

The Company and the PPD Parties conducted the share repurchases pursuant to the share repurchase program to return excess cash to shareholders and enhance shareholder value through a reduction in the number of outstanding shares and a corresponding increase in the Company's financial performance on a per share basis. The share repurchases also provided shareholders with a choice regarding their investment in the Company: they could sell their shares for cash or could retain their shares and own a greater percentage of the Company, as the number of outstanding shares declined. In addition, the Company's share repurchases provided shareholders with additional liquidity options, as the Company's stock was not heavily traded, and gave shareholders a greater ability to diversify their holdings by selling only a portion of their shares of Company stock and retaining a portion in order to keep a continuing equity interest in the Company. Management recognized that the share repurchase program could also help facilitate the Company's going private at some unknown point in the future (by reducing the number of shares outstanding), a result management thought would be beneficial for the business, particularly to avoid negative publicity from short-selling investors that stood to benefit from a decline in the Company's share price and the impact such publicity might have on the Company's sales force. However, the board of directors has never adopted a plan or policy to use the Company's share repurchase program or any other share repurchases to achieve or facilitate a going private transaction. The share repurchases were approved and effected based on the board of directors' determination that they were beneficial for the reasons noted above. As an alternative means of returning excess cash to shareholders and enhancing shareholder value, the Company paid dividends in 2005 and 2006. However, the Company and the PPD Parties did not believe the market's reaction to the dividends was sufficiently favorable to warrant continued use of the Company's cash to fund dividends. As a result of our share repurchase program, the number of outstanding shares of the Company's common stock has decreased by approximately 58%, and the PPD Parties' interest in the net book value and net earnings of the Company increased by a corresponding amount to the extent their holdings of the Company's common stock remained constant.

Positions of the Company and the PPD Parties Regarding the Fairness of the Share Repurchases

Neither the Company nor the PPD Parties has performed, or engaged a financial advisor to perform, any independent valuation or other analysis for the purpose of assessing the fairness of the share repurchases to the Company's unaffiliated shareholders. The Company and the PPD Parties believe, however, that the share repurchases were substantively and procedurally fair to the unaffiliated shareholders of the Company based on the following factors:

- the repurchases were not coercive -- unaffiliated shareholders were free to sell or not sell their shares;
- for unaffiliated shareholders that sold in open market transactions or participant directed transactions, the purchase prices paid by the Company were based on current market prices;
- the tender offers were conducted in accordance with the SEC's tender offer rules; and
- unaffiliated shareholders that did not sell their shares (or sold only a portion of their shares) benefited from an increase in their percentage ownership in the Company (and, to the extent of any sales, received cash).

Because each of the share repurchases from unaffiliated shareholders was based on the then current market price, neither the Company nor the PPD Parties considered the net book value, going concern value or liquidation value in determining the prices paid to unaffiliated shareholders.

Opinion of the Special Committee's Financial Advisor

The Special Committee retained Berenson & Company, LLC to serve as the Special Committee's financial advisor in connection with the merger and to render an opinion to the Special Committee as to the fairness from a financial point of view to the holders of the common stock of the Company of the merger consideration to be received pursuant to the merger by the holders of such shares. On January 30, 2011, Berenson rendered to the Special Committee its opinion to the effect that, as of that date and based upon and subject to the various considerations and assumptions set forth therein, the merger consideration to be received by the holders of the common stock of the Company pursuant to the merger was fair from a financial point of view to the holders of such shares.

The full text of the Berenson opinion, which sets forth the assumptions made, matters considered, and limitations on the scope of review undertaken by Berenson in rendering its opinion, is attached to this proxy statement as Annex B. The Company encourages the Company's shareholders to read the Berenson opinion carefully and in its entirety. The summary of the Berenson opinion in this proxy statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Berenson opinion.

Edgar Filing: PRE PAID LEGAL SERVICES INC - Form PRER14A

The Berenson opinion was provided to the Special Committee in connection with its consideration of the merger and addresses only the fairness, from a financial point of view, as of the date of the Berenson opinion, of the merger consideration to be received by the holders of the Company's common stock, and does not address any other term or aspect of the Merger Agreement or the merger. The Berenson opinion does not constitute a recommendation as to how any shareholder should vote on the merger or any other matter.

In connection with its opinion, Berenson, among other things:

- reviewed the Merger Agreement;
- reviewed, and discussed with members of management of the Company, certain publicly available business and financial information relating to the Company that Berenson deemed to be relevant, including the Company's recent public filings and financial statements;
- reviewed, and discussed with members of management of the Company, certain information, including financial forecasts, relating to the business, earnings, cash flow, capital structure, assets, liabilities and prospects of the Company, furnished to Berenson by the Company;
- participated in certain discussions and negotiations among representatives of the Company and Parent and their advisors; and
- reviewed such other information, performed such other analyses and took into account such other factors Berenson deemed relevant.

In its review and analysis and in rendering its opinion, Berenson assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial, legal, regulatory, tax, accounting and other information provided or otherwise made available to Berenson, discussed with or reviewed by or for Berenson, or publicly available and Berenson did not assume any responsibility for independent verification of such information. Berenson did not obtain any independent valuation or appraisal of any assets or liabilities (including any contingent, derivative or off-balance-sheet assets and liabilities) of the Company, nor was Berenson furnished with any such valuations or appraisals. Berenson did not evaluate the solvency or fair value of the Company under any laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar matters. Furthermore, Berenson did not assume any obligation to, and accordingly did not, conduct any physical inspection of the properties or facilities of the Company.

With respect to the financial forecast information furnished to or discussed with Berenson by the Company, Berenson assumed, and relied upon the fact, that they were reasonably prepared and reflect the best currently available estimates and good faith judgments of the Company's senior management as to the expected future financial performance of the Company. Berenson expressed no opinion as to any financial forecasts or the assumptions on which they were made.

In rendering its opinion, Berenson also assumed that all governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the merger will be obtained without the imposition of any delay, limitation, restriction, divestiture or condition that would have a materially adverse effect on the Company.

The Berenson opinion was based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions, and on information made available to it, as of the date of its opinion. Berenson expressly disclaimed any responsibility for updating, revising or reaffirming its opinion based on circumstances, developments or events occurring after the date of the opinion. Berenson made no independent investigation of any legal, tax, accounting or regulatory matters affecting the Company, and Berenson relied on the assessments of other advisors to the Company and the Special Committee with respect to such issues. In addition, in preparing its opinion Berenson did not take into account any tax consequences of the transaction to any holder of the Company's common stock.

The Berenson opinion was solely for the use and benefit of the Special Committee in its consideration of the merger, and does not address the merits of the underlying decision by the Company to engage in the merger or the relative merits of the merger as compared to any strategic alternatives that may have been available to the Company. In addition, the Berenson opinion does not address the fairness to, or any other consideration of, the holders of any class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of the Company, other than the holders of the shares of the Company's common stock. Berenson's opinion has been authorized by the fairness committee of Berenson.

In preparing its opinion, Berenson performed a variety of financial and comparative analyses. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant quantitative and qualitative methods of financial analysis and the applications of those methods to the particular circumstances and, therefore, is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. Berenson believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole. Considering any portion of Berenson's analyses or the factors considered by Berenson, without considering all analyses and factors, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying the conclusion expressed in the Berenson opinion. In addition, Berenson may have given various analyses more or less weight than other analyses, and may have deemed various assumptions more or less probable than other assumptions, so that the range of valuations resulting from any particular analysis described below should not be taken to be Berenson's view of the Company's actual value. Accordingly, the conclusions reached by Berenson are based on all analyses and factors taken as a whole and also on the application of Berenson's own experience and judgment.

Edgar Filing: PRE PAID LEGAL SERVICES INC - Form PRER14A

In performing its analyses, Berenson made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond Berenson's or the Company's control. The analyses performed by Berenson are not necessarily indicative of actual values or actual future results of the Company, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by those analyses. In addition, analyses relating to the value of businesses or assets do not purport to be appraisals or to necessarily reflect the prices at which businesses or assets may actually be sold and are inherently subject to uncertainty. The analyses performed were prepared solely as part of Berenson's analysis of the fairness from a financial point of view of the merger consideration and were provided to the Special Committee in connection with the delivery of Berenson's opinion.

The following is a summary of the material financial and comparative analyses performed by Berenson that were presented to the Special Committee on January 30, 2011 in connection with the delivery of its opinion. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand Berenson's financial analyses, any table must be read together with the text of the summary. Any table alone does not constitute a complete description of the financial analysis. Considering the data described below without considering the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of Berenson's financial analyses.

Transaction Overview. Based upon the merger consideration of $66.50 per share, approximately 9.8 million shares of common stock outstanding as of January 30, 2011 on a fully diluted basis (calculated using the treasury stock method), and approximately $47.7 million of unrestricted cash and $0.9 million of debt (including capital lease payables) as of December 31, 2010, Berenson noted that the merger consideration implied a transaction equity value of approximately $651.0 million, and a transaction enterprise value of approximately $604.2 million.

Historical Trading Analysis. Berenson reviewed the share price trading history of the Company's common stock for the one-year period ending on January 28, 2011 on a stand-alone basis and also in relation to the S&P 500 index. During this period, Berenson noted that the Company's common stock closed at prices as low as $37.50 and as high as $67.67 per share, as compared to the closing price per share of Company's common stock on January 28, 2011 of $60.26 and the merger consideration of $66.50 per share of Company's common stock.

Premiums Paid Analysis. Using publicly available information, Berenson analyzed the premiums offered in going private transactions in the United States announced between January 2006 and January 2011 in all industries with transaction values between $300 million and $1 billion, which is referred to below as "Going Private Transactions", and in all public merger and acquisition transactions in the United States announced during the same period in all industries with transaction values between $450 million and $700 million, which is referred to below as "All Public M&A Transactions". For each of these transactions, Berenson calculated the premium represented by the offer price over the target company's closing share price one day, one week, and one month prior to the transaction's announcement. This analysis indicated the following:

Benchmark/Time Period	Premiums Paid Analysis
	Mean	Median
Going Private Transactions
1 day	21%	19%
1 week	22%	20%
1 month	24%	21%
All Public M&amp;A Transactions
1 day	28%	24%
1 week	30%	26%
1 month	34%	27%

Based on the premiums offered in the Going Private Transactions and the All Public M&A Transactions described above, Berenson applied a reference range of premiums of 20% to 30% to the average closing prices per share of the Company's common stock for the 30-day, 180-day and 360-day periods prior to the Company's announcement on October 25, 2010 that it was exploring strategic alternatives of $59.26, $51.53 and $46.00, respectively. This analysis indicated a range of implied prices per share of the Company's common stock of $71.12 to $77.04 for the 30-day period prior to the October 25, 2010 announcement, $61.83 to $66.98 for the 180-day period prior to the October 25, 2010 announcement, $55.20 to $59.80 for the 360-day period prior to the October 25, 2010 announcement and $55.25 to $77.00 for the preceding three time periods combined, as compared to the merger consideration of $66.50 per share of the Company's common stock.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Berenson performed a discounted cash flow analysis to calculate the estimated present value of the after-tax free cash flows, on an unlevered basis, of the Company for the fiscal years December 31, 2011 through December 31, 2015 using the Company management's financial forecasts and utilizing end of period discounting. Berenson defined free cash flows, on an unlevered basis, as earnings before interest and taxes (EBIT) less pre-interest income tax expense plus depreciation and amortization less any change in net working capital less capital expenditures less any sale (or plus any purchase) of available for sale investments. Berenson also calculated the terminal value of the enterprise at December 31, 2015 by applying a range of perpetuity growth rates of (2.00)% to 2.00% to the Company's 2015 estimated unlevered free cash flows. Berenson determined the range of perpetuity growth rates of (2.00)% to 2.00% based on a relatively flat growth rate in estimated unlevered free cash flows for the years 2011 to 2015 based on certain prospective financial information prepared by the Company's management and provided to Berenson. The present value of the cash flows and terminal value was calculated using discount rates ranging from 12.00% to 15.00% which were selected by Berenson based on its experience and on an analysis of the Company's weighted average cost of capital. In analyzing the Company's weighted average cost of capital, Berenson included a size premium of 2.49%, which corresponds to the size premium for companies with $432 million to $685 million of market capitalization as set forth in the 2010 Ibbotson Stocks, Bonds, Bills, and Inflation Valuation Yearbook (the "2010 Ibbotson Report"). Berenson also included a range of liquidity premia from 0.0% to 4.0% based on the Company's relatively illiquid trading history and the 2010 Ibbotson Report, which provides that a liquidity premium may be up to or greater than 5.0%. Berenson also utilized a range of leverage assumptions from 0.0% to 50.0%, with "leverage" defined as the Company's net debt divided by net debt plus market capitalization, based on the Company having historically operated with little to low levels of leverage. Berenson then added cash (which included proceeds from the exercise of stock options) and subtracted debt of the Company to the implied enterprise value to determine an implied equity value, and after accounting for the vesting of in-the-money options, this analysis indicated a range of implied values per share of the Company's common stock of approximately $47.25 to $69.00, as compared to the merger consideration of $66.50 per share of the Company's common stock. In determining the implied enterprise value of the Company, Berenson did not include $20 million in securities available for sale, as such securities are held by the Company as required by law in order to conduct business in nineteen states in which the Company presently operates.

Leveraged Buyout Analysis. Berenson performed a leveraged buyout valuation analysis of the theoretical maximum consideration that could be paid in an acquisition of the Company by a financial buyer, based on the Company management's financial forecasts and a hypothetical closing as of December 31, 2010, and using the terms of the debt commitment letter described in "Special Factors—Financing of the Merger—Debt Financing" beginning on page 40. In its analysis, Berenson assumed that a financial buyer would be subject to the following constraints:

- maximum of $410 million of funded indebtedness with an interest rate of LIBOR plus 5.00%, subject to a LIBOR floor of 1.75%;
- exiting the investment in the Company at valuation multiples based on a multiple of 2015 estimated earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization ranging from approximately 4.5x to 6.0x (based on Berenson's review and analysis of the five-year trading performance of the Company); and
- targeted internal rate of return of 20.0% to 25.0% (based on Berenson's experience, judgment and understanding of targeted internal rates of return within the financial sponsor market).

This analysis resulted in an implied price per share of the Company's common stock of $55.50 to $65.75, as compared to the merger consideration of $66.50 per share of the Company's common stock.

The Berenson opinion was one of many factors taken into consideration by the Special Committee in making its determination to approve the merger and should not be considered determinative of the views of the Special Committee, the Company's board of directors or management with respect to the merger or the merger consideration.

Berenson is a nationally recognized investment banking and advisory firm. Berenson, as part of its investment banking services, is regularly engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, financial restructurings and other financial services. Berenson may in the future provide investment banking and other financial services to the Company and Parent and their respective affiliates for which Berenson would expect to receive compensation.

Pursuant to an engagement letter among Berenson, the Special Committee and the Company, dated September 28, 2010, the Company has agreed to pay Berenson total fees for its services in connection with the merger based, in part, upon the value of the consideration to be paid in the merger, which fees are expected as of the date of this proxy statement to total approximately $6.0 million (a portion of which has already been paid for financial advisory services to the Special Committee and portion of which was paid upon delivery of Berenson's opinion) and approximately $2.0 million of which is payable contingent upon consummation of the merger. Berenson will also be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred, including the fees and disbursements of its counsel. The Company has also agreed to indemnify Berenson against liabilities arising out of or in connection with the services rendered or to be rendered by it under its engagement.

Financial Projections

We do not as a matter of course publicly disclose long-term forecasts or internal projections as to future performance, revenues, earnings or financial condition. However, during our review of the various alternatives to enhance shareholder value, as discussed in "Special Factors—Background of the Merger" beginning on page 22, certain prospective financial information was prepared by our management and reviewed with and discussed among members of our board of directors, the Special Committee and Berenson. Our management provided certain internal forecasts through December 31, 2015 to Berenson, the Special Committee and our board of directors. Management also made available to Parent and the other bidders this prospective financial information. Management's key assumptions supporting the prospective financial information are discussed below.

The inclusion of the prospective financial information below should not be regarded as an indication that we, our management team, our board of directors, the Special Committee or Parent, or any of their respective representatives, considered, or now considers, the prospective financial information below to be predictive of actual future results.

Management's internal financial forecasts, upon which the prospective financial information set forth below is based, are subjective in many respects. The prospective financial information set forth below reflects numerous assumptions with respect to membership and associate fee growth rates, membership benefits margins, commission margins, general and administrative expenses and other matters, all of which are difficult to predict and beyond our control.

The prospective financial information set forth below also reflects numerous estimates and assumptions related to our business that are inherently subject to significant economic, political and competitive uncertainties, all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond our control. As a result, although the prospective financial information set forth below was prepared in good faith based on assumptions believed to be reasonable at the time the information was prepared, there can be no assurance that the assumptions made in preparing such information will prove accurate or that the projected results reflected therein will be realized.

The prospective financial information set forth below was not prepared with a view toward public disclosure. Accordingly, the prospective financial information set forth below was not prepared with a view toward complying with the published guidelines of the SEC regarding projections or the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for preparation and presentation of prospective financial information or U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"). Some of the projections present financial metrics that were not prepared in accordance with GAAP. Neither our independent auditor nor any other independent accountants have compiled, examined or performed any procedures with respect to the prospective financial information contained herein, nor have they expressed any opinion or any other form of assurance on such information or its achievability, and they assume no responsibility for, and disclaim any association with, the prospective financial information.

The prospective financial information set forth below does not take into account any circumstances or events occurring since the date such information was prepared or which may occur in the future, and, in particular, does not take into account any revised prospects of our business, changes in general business, geo-political or economic conditions, competition, legal or regulatory developments or any other transaction or event that has occurred since the date on which such information was prepared or which may occur in the future.

Prospective financial information are forward-looking statements and are based on estimates and assumptions that are inherently subject to factors such as industry performance, competition, general business, economic, legal, regulatory, geo-political, market and financial conditions, as well as changes to the business, financial condition or results of operation of the Company, including the factors described under "Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Information" on page 19, and other risk factors as disclosed in our filings with the SEC that could cause actual results to differ materially from those shown below. Since the prospective financial information set forth below covers multiple years, such information by its nature is subject to greater uncertainty with each successive year. In addition, the projections do not take into account any of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the merger, which might also cause actual results to differ materially.

For the foregoing reasons, as well as the bases and assumptions on which the prospective financial information set forth below was prepared, the inclusion of the prospective financial information in this proxy statement should not be regarded as an indication that such information will be predictive of actual future results or events, and it should not be relied on as such.

EXCEPT AS REQUIRED BY APPLICABLE SECURITIES LAWS, WE HAVE NOT UPDATED NOR DO WE INTEND TO UPDATE OR OTHERWISE REVISE THE PROSPECTIVE FINANCIAL INFORMATION SET FORTH BELOW, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, TO REFLECT CIRCUMSTANCES EXISTING AFTER THE DATE SUCH INFORMATION WAS PREPARED OR TO REFLECT THE OCCURRENCE OF FUTURE EVENTS, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, CHANGES IN GENERAL ECONOMIC, GEOPOLITICAL OR INDUSTRY CONDITIONS, EVEN IN THE EVENT THAT ANY OR ALL OF THE ASSUMPTIONS UNDERLYING THE PROSPECTIVE FINANCIAL INFORMATION IS SHOWN TO BE IN ERROR.

Edgar Filing: PRE PAID LEGAL SERVICES INC - Form PRER14A

Our management employed the following key assumptions in preparing the prospective financial information summarized in the table below, which were provided to Berenson, our board of directors, the Special Committee and Parent:

- new associates would be 146,611 in 2010 and 110,000 in 2011, with annual growth of 10.0% thereafter;
- membership growth rates would be based on 0.95 members recruited per existing associate (those with tenure of greater than one year), and for new associates, 0.79 members recruited per new associate in 2010 with an annual increase of 0.10 members recruited per new associate thereafter;
- associate and membership retention rates based on historical rates;
- average annual membership fees for existing members of $297.65 in 2010 and growing at annual rate of 1.0% thereafter; and average annual membership fees for new members of $325.88 throughout the five-year period;
- membership benefit costs equal to 33.5% of membership fees throughout the period; and
- commission costs based on 69.4% of first year premiums, which is based on historical commission percentages, net of any charge backs, and renewal commissions equal to 6.2% of related membership fees.

The following is a summary of the prospective financial information described above:

	Year Ending December 31,
	2010	2011	2012	2013	2014	2015

Financing of the Merger

The total amount of funds necessary to pay the aggregate merger consideration as well as related transaction charges, fees and expenses is estimated to be approximately $[ ]. Parent has informed us that it intends to fund the transaction with equity and debt financing, together with unrestricted cash and cash equivalents held by us and our subsidiaries, which will be available to Parent. Consummation of the merger is not conditioned on the funding of Parent's financing or on Parent obtaining financing.

Parent has obtained the equity and debt financing commitments described below. The funding under those commitments is subject to conditions described below. We believe the committed amounts will, together with cash on hand of the Company, be sufficient to complete the transaction, but we cannot assure you of that. Those amounts might be insufficient if, among other things, we have substantially less cash on hand and/or, there are substantially less net proceeds from the equity and debt financings than we currently expect. Although obtaining the equity or debt financing is not a condition to the completion of the merger, the failure of Parent and Merger Sub to obtain sufficient financing is likely to result in the failure of the merger to be completed. In that case, Parent may be obligated to pay the Company a termination fee of $50 million, as described under "The Merger Agreement—Remedies" beginning on page 80. That obligation is guaranteed by MidOcean Investors referred to below.

Equity Financing. Parent has entered into an equity commitment letter with the Parent Investors, dated January 30, 2011, pursuant to which they have severally and not jointly committed to provide equity financing up to a specified dollar amount.

The funding of the financing contemplated by the equity commitment letter is subject to several conditions, including the satisfaction or waiver by Parent and Merger Sub (with the prior written consent of the MidOcean Investors in the case of any waiver) of each of the conditions to the obligations of Parent and Merger Sub to consummate the merger, other than any condition that by its nature is to be satisfied at the closing of the merger), the concurrent closing of the merger and the contemporaneous consummation of the debt financing. The obligation of the MidOcean Investors to fund their respective equity commitments will expire upon certain events, including the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms and the consummation of the merger after giving effect to the equity contributions. Each MidOcean Investor may allocate all or a portion of its equity investment in Parent to one or more affiliated entities or other designated co-investors, including third parties; provided that each MidOcean Investor will remain severally liable for the full amount of its portion of the equity commitment. The amount actually funded pursuant to the equity commitment letter may be reduced in a manner determined by the MidOcean Investors that will not adversely affect the closing of the merger in the event that Parent does not require all of the equity with respect to which the MidOcean Investors have made commitments.

The funding of the financing contemplated by the equity commitment letter is subject to:

- the prior satisfaction or, with the prior written consent of the MidOcean Investors, waiver of the conditions precedent to Parent's and Merger Sub's obligations to consummate the merger under the Merger Agreement (other than any condition that by its nature is to be satisfied at the closing of the merger, but subject to the substantially concurrent satisfaction or waiver of such conditions);
- the concurrent or substantially concurrent consummation of the merger in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement; and
- the prior or contemporaneous consummation of the debt financing (or any alternative financing that shall have been obtained in accordance with, and that satisfies the conditions of, the Merger Agreement).

The obligation of each MidOcean Investor to fund its equity commitment will expire upon:

- the consummation of the merger after giving effect to the contributions; and
- the valid termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms.

Debt Financing. In connection with Parent's entry into the Merger Agreement, Parent received a debt commitment letter, dated January 29, 2011, from the Commitment Parties. The debt commitment letter provides in the aggregate up to $440 million in debt financing to Parent. The facility will be a senior secured credit facility consisting of a $410 million term loan facility and a $30 million revolving credit facility (which may not be used to fund the merger consideration).

The facilities contemplated by the debt financing are subject to certain closing conditions, including without limitation:

- that, since September 30, 2010, there has not occurred any "Company Material Adverse Effect" (which is the same definition as that used in the Merger Agreement);
- the negotiation, execution and delivery of definitive debt agreements;
- consummation of the equity contribution by the MidOcean Investors concurrently with the initial funding under the debt financing;
- consummation of the merger in accordance with the Merger Agreement (without giving effect to any amendments to the Merger Agreement or any waivers thereof that are materially adverse to the Lenders without the consent of the Lenders) concurrently with the initial funding under the debt financing;
- delivery of certain customary closing documents (including, among others, a solvency certificate), specified items of collateral and certain of our financial statements, including, without limitation, pro forma financial statements and evidence that our ratio of total funded debt to pro forma earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization for the most recent twelve month period ending used to generate such pro forma financial statements is no more than 3.50 to 1.00;
- expiration of a 20 consecutive business day period following the delivery of certain marketing materials; and

- the satisfaction by the arranger for the facility of certain other conditions precedent set forth in the debt commitment letter.

The debt commitment terminates automatically upon the earlier to occur of 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on July 31, 2011, the closing of the merger and the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms.

Parent has agreed to arrange and obtain equity financing, on the terms and conditions set forth in the equity commitment letter and to use its reasonable best efforts to arrange and obtain debt financing, on the terms and conditions set forth in the debt commitment letter, in each case, as described above. In addition, Parent has agreed not to permit any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision or remedy of the equity commitment letter or the debt commitment letter that would or would reasonably be expected to reduce the aggregate amount of the financing or impose new or additional conditions to the receipt of financing, prevent or materially delay the closing of the merger or adversely impact the ability of Parent or Merger Sub to enforce its rights against the other parties to the equity commitment letter or the debt commitment letter, as applicable, in each case, without the prior written consent of the Company; provided that Parent and Merger Sub may amend the debt commitment letter to add lenders, lead arrangers, bookrunners, syndication agents or similar entities who had not executed the debt commitment letter as of the date of the Merger Agreement so long as such action would not reasonably be expected to delay or prevent the closing of the merger.

Parent has further agreed to maintain in effect the equity commitment letter and use its reasonable best efforts to maintain in effect the debt commitment letter and any related definitive agreements, timely satisfy all conditions in the financing agreements applicable to it and Merger Sub in order to obtain such debt financing and equity financing, consummate the equity financing at or prior to the closing of the merger, negotiate and enter into definitive agreements with respect to the debt financing on terms no less favorable to it and Merger Sub than the terms set forth in the debt commitment letter, consummate the debt financing at or prior to the closing of the merger and fully enforce any counterparties' obligations and its own rights under any financing agreements subject to compliance with any requirements set forth in the Merger Agreement. If any portion of the debt financing becomes unavailable on the terms and conditions contemplated by the debt commitment letter, Parent will, at our request, use its reasonable best efforts to arrange and obtain alternative debt financing from alternative debt sources in an amount sufficient to consummate the merger with terms and conditions not less favorable, taken as a whole, to Parent and Merger Sub than the terms and conditions in the existing debt commitment letter no later than the business day immediately prior to the closing of the merger; provided that if Parent is deemed to have breached the provisions of the debt commitment letter as a result of its seeking to arrange and obtain any such alternative financing at our request, such result will not be a breach by Parent of its obligation to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain debt financing. As of the date of this proxy statement, no alternative financing arrangements or alternative financing plans have been made in the event the debt financing described in this proxy statement is not available as anticipated.

Limited Guarantee

The MidOcean Investors have entered into a limited guarantee in favor of the Company in an aggregate amount of $50 million. Under the limited guarantee, each of the MidOcean Investors guarantees, severally and not jointly, and subject to the terms and conditions of the limited guarantee and up to the specified portion of the maximum amount set forth therein, the payment of any termination fee that may become payable by Parent under certain specified circumstances and reasonable legal fees and expenses incurred in connection with any litigation or proceeding incurred by the Company in enforcement of the limited guarantee if any guarantor asserts that the limited guarantee is illegal, invalid or unenforceable in accordance with its terms and the Company prevails in such litigation or proceeding. In the event that Parent breaches the Merger Agreement or fails to pay us any termination fee that it becomes obligated to pay under the Merger Agreement, our only recourse would be against Parent for specific performance, to the extent permitted under the terms of the Merger Agreement, or to seek $50 million from the MidOcean Investors under the terms of the limited guarantee. In addition, the limited guarantee guarantees Parent's obligations to reimburse and indemnify us for our cooperation in connection with Parent's arranging and obtaining of financing. For further information regarding the termination fee that may become payable by Parent and the circumstances under which it becomes payable and Parent's financing of the merger, see "The Merger Agreement—Fees and Expenses," "The Merger Agreement—Financing" and "Special Factors—Financing of the Merger" beginning on pages 78, 71 and 40, respectively.

Litigation Related to the Merger

Oklahoma District Court of Oklahoma County

On February 8, 2011, a putative shareholder class action complaint was filed in the Oklahoma District Court of Oklahoma County by Andrew D. McMullan and James E. McCurdy, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, against the Company and each member of the Company's board of directors (case number CJ-2011-871). The complaint generally alleges that the directors breached their fiduciary duties to the shareholders by agreeing to sell the Company pursuant to an unfair process and at an unfair price. The complaint alleges that the directors breached their fiduciary duties of care, loyalty, candor, good faith and independence and have acted to put their personal interests ahead of the interests of the Company's shareholders and that the Company has aided and abetted such breaches. The complaint seeks injunctive relief, rescission of any barriers to the maximization of shareholder value and attorneys' fees.

Oklahoma District Court of Pontotoc County

On February 11, 2011, a putative shareholder class action complaint was filed in the Oklahoma District Court of Pontotoc County by Czar Fredrik D. Reyes, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, against the Company, each member of the Company's board of directors, Parent and Merger Sub (case number CJ-11-26). The complaint generally alleges that the directors breached their fiduciary duties to the shareholders by agreeing to sell the Company pursuant to an unfair process and at an unfair price. The complaint alleges that the directors breached their fiduciary duties of loyalty, due care, independence, good faith and fair dealing, and that the Company, Parent and Merger Sub have aided and abetted such breaches. The complaint also alleges that the defendants agreed to onerous and preclusive deal protection devices as part of the Merger Agreement, including the "no solicitation" provision, the requirement to notify Parent and Merger Sub of any competing proposals and negotiate in good faith with Parent to amend the terms of the Merger Agreement so that the competing proposal would not be a "superior proposal" and the $21.5 million termination fee. The complaint seeks injunctive relief, damages and costs of the action, including attorneys' fees. On March 2, 2011, the complaint was amended to add allegations that the directors breached their fiduciary duties of candor to the shareholders of the Company and that the Company's preliminary proxy statement filed with the SEC on February 23, 2011 is materially misleading and omits material information that the shareholders require in order to make a fully informed decision in voting on the Merger Agreement, including details regarding the background of the merger and the work performed by Berenson.

On March 3, 2011, a putative shareholder class action complaint was filed in the Oklahoma District Court of Pontotoc County by Troy Ball, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, against the Company, each member of the Company's board of directors, Randy Harp, Kathleen S. Pinson, Parent and Merger Sub (case number CJ-11-35). The complaint generally alleges that the sale of the Company is unfair and inequitable to the Company's shareholders and that the directors breached their fiduciary duties to the shareholders. The complaint alleges that the directors, Mr. Harp and Ms. Pinson have breached their fiduciary duties of loyalty, due care, good faith and candor and have acted to put their personal interests ahead of the interests of the shareholders, and that Parent and Merger Sub have aided and abetted such breaches. The complaint also alleges that the defendants agreed to onerous and preclusive deal protection devices as part of the Merger Agreement, including the "no solicitation" provision, the requirement to notify Parent and Merger Sub of any competing proposals and negotiate in good faith with Parent to amend the terms of the Merger Agreement so that the competing proposal would not be a "superior proposal" and the $21.5 million termination fee. In addition, the complaint alleges that the Company's preliminary proxy statement filed with the SEC on February 23, 2011 provides misleading information or omits material information, including details regarding the background of the merger and the work performed by Berenson, resulting in the shareholders being unable to make a fully informed decision in voting on the Merger Agreement. The complaint seeks injunctive relief and costs of the action, including attorneys' fees.

On March 11, 2011, the plaintiffs in the Reyes and Ball actions filed motions to consolidate the two actions and appoint Bull & Lifshitz, LLP and Levi & Korsinsky, LLP co-lead class counsel. On March 4, 2011 and March 8, 2011, respectively, the plaintiffs in the Reyes and Ball actions filed motions seeking leave to conduct discovery on an expedited basis. On March 10, 2011, the Company and the other defendants in the Reyes action moved to stay the Reyes action in deference to the earlier-filed McMullan action. Also on March 10, 2011, all defendants previously served with process in the Ball action moved to stay that action in deference to the McMullan action. The foregoing motions are currently scheduled to be heard by the Oklahoma District Court of Pontotoc County on April 18, 2011. On March 28, 2011, the plaintiffs in the Ball action voluntarily dismissed their claims against Mr. Harp and Ms. Pinson without prejudice.

On April 15, 2011, the parties to the McMullan action, Parent and Merger Sub executed a Memorandum of Understanding, which we refer to as the MOU, reflecting their agreement to settle the claims asserted in the McMullan action, subject to, among other things, the execution of a stipulation of settlement, notice of the settlement being given to the Company's shareholders, approval of the settlement by the Oklahoma District Court of Oklahoma County, completion of confirmatory discovery and completion of the merger. If approved by the Oklahoma District Court of Oklahoma County, the settlement will resolve all pending litigation related to the merger, including the Reyes and Ball actions, and would result in the release by the plaintiffs and the proposed settlement class, which consists of all record and beneficial holders of the Company's common stock during the period beginning January 30, 2011 and through and including the consummation of the merger (other than the defendants), of all claims that were or could have been brought challenging any aspect of the Merger Agreement, the merger and any disclosures made in connection therewith, among other claims (but excluding any properly perfected claims for statutory appraisal in connection with the merger). The MOU provides, among other things, that the Company shall make certain supplemental disclosures that are set forth in this proxy statement; that the parties to the Merger Agreement shall clarify certain provisions thereunder; and that the parties to the Merger Agreement shall modify certain deadlines in the Oklahoma General Corporation Act (the "OGCA") for the exercise of appraisal rights in connection with the merger, as described under "Appraisal Rights" on page 82.

The Company and its board of directors believe and these lawsuits are without merit and are seeking to settle them solely to eliminate the burden and expense of litigation. Absent such settlement, they intend to defend themselves vigorously.

Payment of Merger Consideration and Surrender of Stock Certificates

Each record holder of shares of our common stock (other than (i) shares owned by Parent or any direct or indirect subsidiary of Parent, (ii) shares owned by the Company or any direct or indirect subsidiary of the Company and (iii) shares owned by shareholders who have perfected and not otherwise waived, withdrawn or lost their rights as dissenting shareholders, if any, to demand to be paid the "fair value" of their shares of common stock under Oklahoma law) will be sent a letter of transmittal describing how such holder may exchange their shares of our common stock for the merger consideration of $66.50 per share in cash, without interest, less any applicable withholding taxes promptly after the completion of the merger. Any consideration relating to shares allocated to your account under the ESOP will be paid to the ESOP and allocated to your account under the ESOP. Any consideration relating to your Associate Investment Club shares will be allocated as provided under the Associate Investment Club.

You should not return your stock certificates with the enclosed proxy card, and you should not forward your stock certificates to the paying agent without a letter of transmittal.

You will not be entitled to receive the merger consideration of $66.50 per share in cash, without interest, less any applicable withholding taxes until you deliver a duly completed and executed letter of transmittal to the paying agent. If your shares are certificated, you must also surrender your stock certificate or certificates to the paying agent. If ownership of your shares is not registered in the transfer records of the Company, a check for any cash to be delivered will only be issued if the applicable letter of transmittal is accompanied by all documents reasonably required to evidence and effect transfer and to evidence that any applicable stock transfer taxes have been paid. You do not have to take the foregoing actions with respect to shares allocated to your account under the ESOP as the ESOP trustee will be responsible for taking those actions.

Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

When considering the recommendation of our board of directors, you should be aware that the members of our board of directors and our executive officers have interests in the merger, as are described below, other than their interests as shareholders of the Company generally. These interests may be different from, or in conflict with, your interests as a Company shareholder. The members of our board of directors and the Special Committee were aware of the material facts as to these additional interests, and considered them, when they unanimously approved the Merger Agreement.

Executive Officer Severance Plan, Retention Bonus Program and Employment Agreements

On December 30, 2010, the Special Committee unanimously approved and adopted a change in control severance plan (as subsequently amended and restated by the Special Committee on January 6, 2011 and January 30, 2011, respectively, the "Change in Control Severance Plan") and a retention bonus program, including a form of retention bonus letter (the "Retention Bonus Program"), for certain executive officers and other employees of the Company and its subsidiaries. The executive officers who are eligible to participate in the Change in Control Severance Plan and the Retention Bonus Program are Randy Harp, Co-Chief Executive Officer, President and Chief Operating Officer, Mark Brown, Co-Chief Executive Officer and Chief Marketing Officer, Steve Williamson, Chief Financial Officer, and Kathleen S. Pinson, Vice President of Regulatory and Compliance and Secretary. Harland C. Stonecipher, the Company's Chairman, is not eligible to participate in the Change in Control Severance Plan or the Retention Bonus Program.

Change in Control Severance Plan. Severance benefits under the Change in Control Severance Plan are triggered upon a participating executive's involuntary termination of employment with the Company and its affiliates other than for "cause," or the participating executive's termination of employment for "good reason," during the 24-month period beginning on the date of a "change in control" (as defined in the Change in Control Severance Plan).

For purposes of the Change in Control Severance Plan, (a) "cause" generally means (i) failure or refusal by the participating executive to substantially perform his or her duties (except where the failure results from incapacity due to disability); (ii) severe misconduct or activity deemed detrimental to the interests of the Company or its affiliates (including, but not limited to, acts involving dishonesty, violation of written policies of the Company or its affiliates that apply to the participating executive, violations of safety rules, disorderly conduct, discrimination and/or discriminatory harassment or unauthorized disclosure of confidential information of the Company or its affiliates); or (iii) the participating executive's entry of a plea of nolo contendere to, or the conviction of, a crime; and (b) "good reason" generally means (i) a reduction of 10 percent or more in the participating executive's base salary as in effect immediately prior to the change in control; (ii) a material diminution of the participating executive's authority, duties or responsibilities from those in effect immediately prior to the change in control; or (iii) a change in the principal location of the participating executive's job or office, such that he or she will be based at a location that is 50 miles or more further from such executive's principal job or office location immediately prior to the change in control. A participating executive's termination will not be for good reason if the Company cures the event constituting good reason within 30 days after receiving the executive's timely notice of the event constituting good reason. A participating executive is not entitled to benefits under the Change in Control Severance Plan unless he or she executes an effective release of claims against the Company and its affiliates and their respective officers, directors, employees and agents.

A participating executive who qualifies for severance benefits under the Change in Control Severance Plan will be entitled to a cash severance benefit equal to (A) one month of such participating executive's base salary as of the termination date, multiplied by (B) such participating executive's full completed years of service as of the termination date. In addition, such participating executive will be entitled to a pro rata portion of his or her target annual incentive bonus for the year in which the termination occurs. Participating executives are not entitled to receive duplicate severance payments under any other change in control plan or agreement, offer letter or letter agreement, and payments under the Change in Control Severance Plan are expressly conditioned upon a participating executive not receiving duplicate payments. Payments under the Retention Bonus Program are not considered duplicate payments for this purpose.

The Change in Control Severance Plan also provides for continued medical and dental plan coverage and outplacement services for varying periods of time (and at varying levels) following termination.

The Change in Control Severance Plan provides that a participating executive's severance benefits will be cut back to the extent required to avoid excise tax liability that may be incurred as a result of a change in control. To the extent any such benefits are so reduced, the participating executive will be treated as having forfeited such benefits.

Consummation of the merger would constitute a "change in control" for purposes of the Change in Control Severance Plan.

Retention Bonus Program. The Retention Bonus Program consists of a retention bonus pool for all participating employees, including the participating executives, in an aggregate amount not to exceed $600,000 and the related form of retention bonus letter (the "Retention Bonus Letter"). The Retention Bonus Program is administered by the Special Committee, which is authorized to determine who will receive retention bonuses and the amount of such bonuses. As of the date of this proxy statement, the Special Committee has not granted any retention bonus awards under the Retention Bonus Program but will do so prior to the effective date of the merger.

A participating executive who has been granted a retention bonus will be entitled to such bonus only if (1) he or she remains continuously employed by the Company and its affiliates through the date that is 60 days after a "change in control" (as such term is defined in the Change in Control Severance Plan) that occurs prior to September 30, 2011, or (2) such participating executive's employment is terminated by the Company for reasons other than "cause" or by such participating executive for "good reason" in each case prior to September 30, 2011. The definitions of the terms "cause" and "good reason" in the Retention Bonus Letter are similar to the definitions of such terms in the Change in Control Severance Plan, as described above. A participating executive's termination will not be for good reason if the Company cures the event constituting good reason within 15 days after receiving the executive's timely notice of the event constituting good reason.

The following table shows the estimated potential cash installment payments to our executive officers pursuant to the Change in Control Severance Plan, assuming the merger closes on July 31, 2011 and assuming they are terminated on such date.

Name	Installment Cash Payment ($)
Randy Harp	1,188,091
Mark Brown	330,000
Steve Williamson	155,353
Kathleen S. Pinson	447,987

Stonecipher Employment Agreement. Mr. Stonecipher is a party to an employment agreement with us which provides, among other things, that he will be entitled to certain special payments and benefits if (a) we terminate his employment for any reason (other than death or extended illness), (b) he terminates his employment with us due to our material breach of the agreement which is not cured in 30 days or (c) he terminates his employment with us for any reason within one year following a change in control of us. If his employment terminates as described above, he is entitled to a lump sum payment equal to the present value, using a 3% discount rate, of (i) the total salary remaining for the term (the current term expires on June 30, 2011) and (ii) the supplemental retirement benefit provided under his employment agreement ($26,000 per year for ten years) assuming that he would have received the benefit for the full ten years. Assuming the merger closes on July 31, 2011 and assuming Mr. Stonecipher terminates employment on such date, the estimated potential cash payment to him pursuant to his employment agreement is approximately $362,000. The agreement also provides that if Mr. Stonecipher's employment is terminated pursuant to the agreement other than for death (and other than under circumstances that entitle him to the lump sum payment described above), he will receive payment of the supplemental retirement benefit described above over a 10 year period provided he makes himself available to provide consulting services to us and he will be subject to certain restrictive covenants.

ESOP. Effective as of the effective time of the merger, each share of our common stock held by the ESOP trustee immediately prior to the effective time will be converted into the right to receive $66.50 per share in cash, without interest, in the same manner as shares of our common stock that are not held by the ESOP trustee. Payments received by the ESOP trustee for the shares held under the ESOP shall be allocated to participants' ESOP accounts based on the number of shares allocated to their respective ESOP accounts immediately prior to the effective time.

Director Payments

Pursuant to resolutions adopted by our board of directors on September 22, 2010, the members of the Special Committee are being paid the following compensation from the Company for serving on the Special Committee: (i) the chairman of the Special Committee is entitled to $52,500 and each other non-chair member of the Special Committee is entitled to $35,000; (ii) each member is entitled to $1,000 per meeting of the Special Committee and (iii) each member is entitled to $1,500 for each day that such member is personally involved in attending any litigation in connection with the activities of the Special Committee. As of the date of this proxy statement there have been [ ] meetings of the Special Committee.

Indemnification

From and after the effective time of the merger, Parent and the surviving corporation will indemnify each present and former director and officer of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, certain other individuals identified in the Merger Agreement and each person who served at the request of the Company or any of its subsidiaries as a director or officer of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any costs, expenses and other losses incurred in connection with any claim or proceeding arising out of or relating to matters existing or occurring at or prior to the effective time of the merger relating to such person's service with or at the request of the Company, whenever asserted or claimed, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law. In addition, from and after the effective time of the merger, Parent and the surviving corporation will pay expenses incurred by any such person in advance of any final disposition of any such claim or proceeding to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.

Effects on Us if the Merger is Not Completed

If the Merger Agreement is not adopted by our shareholders or if the merger is not completed for any other reason, our shareholders will not receive any payment for their shares in connection with the merger. Instead, the Company will remain an independent public company and our common stock will continue to be listed and traded on the NYSE. In addition, if the merger is not completed, we expect that management will operate the business in a manner similar to that in which it is being operated today, and our shareholders will continue to be subject to the same risks and opportunities to which they are currently subject. Accordingly, if the merger is not consummated, there can be no assurance as to the effect of these risks and opportunities on the future value of your shares of Company common stock. Under specified circumstances, we may be required to pay Parent a termination fee of $21.5 million or certain of Parent's expenses, or Parent may be required to pay the Company a reverse termination fee of $50 million, in each case, as described in "The Merger Agreement—Fees and Expenses" beginning on page 78.

If the merger is not completed, from time to time, our board of directors will evaluate and review, among other things, our business, operations, properties, dividend policy and capitalization and make such changes as are deemed appropriate and continue to seek to identify various alternatives to enhance shareholder value. If the Merger Agreement is not adopted by our shareholders, or if the merger is not consummated for any other reason, there can be no assurance that any other transaction acceptable to the Company will be offered, or that our business, prospects or results of operations will not be adversely impacted.

Delisting and Deregistration of Our Common Stock

If the merger is completed, our common stock will be delisted from and will no longer be traded on the NYSE and will be deregistered under the Exchange Act. Following the closing of the merger we will no longer be a public company.

Effects of the Merger

If the merger is completed, all of our equity interests will be owned by Parent. None of our current shareholders will have any ownership interest in, or be a shareholder of, the Company after the completion of the merger. As a result, our current shareholders will no longer benefit from any increase in our value, nor will they bear the risk of any decrease in our value. Following the merger, Parent will benefit from any increase in our value and also will bear the risk of any decrease in our value.

Upon completion of the merger, each share of our common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger (other than shares owned by (i) us or any of our direct or indirect subsidiaries, (ii) Parent or any of its direct or indirect subsidiaries or (iii) shareholders who have not voted in favor of the merger and who have otherwise satisfied all of the requirements of applicable law to have appraisal rights under Section 1091 of the OGCA) will be converted into the right to receive $66.50 per share in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes.

Under the Merger Agreement, immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, each stock option to purchase shares of our common stock that is outstanding under our option plan (whether or not vested) will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive a cash payment in an amount equal to the product of (i) the amount by which $66.50 exceeds the applicable per share exercise price (if any) multiplied by (ii) the number of shares of common stock issuable upon exercise of such stock option, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes. As of the date of this proxy statement, there were no options outstanding under our equity compensation plans.

Our common stock is registered as a class of equity security under the Exchange Act. Registration of our common stock under the Exchange Act may be terminated upon the Company's application to the SEC if our common stock is not listed on a national securities exchange and there are fewer than 300 record holders of the outstanding shares. Termination of registration of our common stock under the Exchange Act will substantially reduce the information required to be furnished by the Company to our shareholders and the SEC, and would make certain provisions of the Exchange Act, such as the short-swing trading provisions of Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act and the requirement of furnishing a proxy statement in connection with shareholders' meetings pursuant to Section 14(a) of the Exchange Act, no longer applicable to the Company. If the Company (as the entity surviving the merger) completed a registered exchange or public offering of debt securities, however, we would be required to file periodic reports with the SEC under the Exchange Act for a period of time following that transaction.

Plans for the Company After the Merger

After the effective time of the merger, Parent anticipates that the Company will continue its current operations, except that it will (i) cease to be an independent public company and will instead be a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent and (ii) have substantially more debt than it currently has. Also, after the effective time of the merger, the directors of Merger Sub immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will become the directors of the Company, and the officers of the Company immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will remain the officers of the Company, in each case until the earlier of their resignation or removal or until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed and qualified, as the case may be.

Parent and Merger Sub have informed us that they have no current plans or proposals or negotiations which relate to or would result in an extraordinary corporate transaction involving our corporate structure, business or management, such as a merger, reorganization or liquidation or a sale or transfer of a material amount of assets. Parent may initiate from time to time reviews of the Company and our assets, corporate structure, capitalization, operations, properties, management and personnel to determine what changes, if any, would be desirable following the merger. Parent expressly reserves the right to make any changes that it deems necessary or appropriate in the light of its review or in the light of future developments. Parent and Merger Sub have informed us that there are no current plans to repay the debt taken out to finance the merger.

Provisions for Unaffiliated Shareholders

No provision has been made to grant any unaffiliated shareholder of the Company access to the files of the Company or to obtain counsel or appraisal services at the expense of the Company. Adoption of the Merger Agreement does not require approval of a majority of unaffiliated shareholders. The Company does not believe approval of a majority of unaffiliated shareholders is necessary given the sale process conducted by the Special Committee and the fact that the MidOcean is not an affiliate of the Company.

Estimated Fees and Expenses of the Merger

The following is an estimate of fees and expenses to be incurred by the Company in connection with the proposed merger:

Description	Estimated Amount ($)
SEC filing fee	75,580
Printing, mailing and proxy solicitation expenses	50,000
Financial advisor fees and expenses	6,000,000
Legal and other professional fees and expenses	2,500,000
Miscellaneous expenses	[ ]
Total	[ ]

All of the foregoing fees and expenses will be borne by the Company. The Company has not retained Berenson to provide any services, in the past or the future, other than those services described in this proxy statement with respect to the merger.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

The following is a summary of the material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to “U.S. holders” and “non-U.S. holders” (each, as defined below) who receive cash in the merger in exchange for shares of our common stock. The discussion does not purport to consider all aspects of United States federal income taxation that might be relevant to holders of our common stock. The discussion is based on the Code, applicable current and proposed United States Treasury regulations, judicial authority and administrative rulings and practice, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. Any change could alter the tax consequences of the merger to the holders of our common stock. This discussion applies only to holders who hold shares as capital assets within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code (generally, property held for investment). This discussion does not address all aspects of United States federal income taxation that may be relevant to holders of our common stock in light of their particular circumstances, or that may apply to holders that are subject to special treatment under United States federal income tax laws (including, for example, insurance companies, tax-exempt organizations, financial institutions, broker-dealers, cooperatives, traders in securities who elect to mark their securities to market, mutual funds, real estate investment trusts, S corporations, holders subject to the alternative minimum tax, persons who validly exercise appraisal rights, partnerships or other pass-through entities and persons holding shares of our common stock through a partnership or other pass-through entity, persons who acquired shares of our common stock in connection with the exercise of employee stock options or otherwise as compensation, United States expatriates, “passive foreign investment companies,” “controlled foreign corporations,” persons who hold shares of our common stock as part of a hedge, straddle, constructive sale or conversion transaction and persons who hold any equity interest, directly or indirectly through constructive ownership or otherwise, in Parent or the Company after the merger). This discussion does not address any aspect of state, local or foreign tax laws or United States federal tax laws other than United States federal income tax laws.

The summary set forth below is for general information purposes only. It is not intended to be, and should not be construed as, legal or tax advice to any particular holder of our common stock. The summary is not intended to constitute a complete description of all tax consequences relating to the merger. Because individual circumstances may differ, each holder should consult its tax advisor regarding the applicability of the rules discussed below to the holder and the particular tax effects of the merger to the holder, including the application of state, local and foreign tax laws.

For purposes of this summary, a “U.S. holder” is a holder of shares of common stock of the Company, who or that is, for United States federal income tax purposes:

- an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States;
- a corporation, or other entity taxable as a corporation for United States federal income tax purposes, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state of the United States or the District of Columbia;
- an estate, the income of which is subject to United States federal income tax regardless of its source; or
- a trust if (1) a United States court is able to exercise primary supervision over the trust’s administration and one or more United States persons are authorized to control all substantial decisions of the trust; or (2) it has a valid election in place to be treated as a domestic trust for United States federal income tax purposes.

A “non-U.S. holder” is a person (other than a partnership) that is not a U.S. holder.

If shares of our common stock are held by a partnership (including an entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for United States federal income tax purposes), the United States federal income tax treatment of a partner in the partnership generally will depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Partnerships that hold shares of our common stock and partners in such partnerships are urged to consult their tax advisors regarding the tax consequences to them of the merger.

U.S. Holders. The receipt of cash for shares of our common stock in the merger will be a taxable transaction for United States federal income tax purposes. In general, a U.S. holder who exchanges shares of our common stock for cash in the merger will recognize capital gain or loss for United States federal income tax purposes equal to the difference, if any, between the amount of cash received in exchange for such shares (determined before the deduction of any applicable withholding taxes) and the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in such shares. If a U.S. holder acquired different blocks of our common stock at different times or different prices, such holder must determine its tax basis and holding period separately with respect to each block of our common stock (i.e., shares of the Company common stock acquired at the same cost in a single transaction). Such gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss provided that a U.S. holder's holding period for such shares is more than one year at the time of completion of the merger. Long-term capital gains for certain non-corporate U.S. holders, including individuals, are generally eligible for a reduced rate of federal income taxation. There are limitations on the deductibility of capital losses.

Cash payments made pursuant to the Merger Agreement will be reported to holders of our common stock and the United States Internal Revenue Service to the extent required by the Code and applicable regulations of the United States Treasury. Under the Code, a U.S. holder of our common stock (other than a corporation or other exempt recipient) may be subject, under certain circumstances, to information reporting on the cash received in the merger. Backup withholding also may apply with respect to the amount of cash received in the merger, unless the U.S. holder provides proof of an applicable exemption or a correct taxpayer identification number and otherwise complies with applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules will be allowed as a refund or a credit against a U.S. holder's United States federal income tax liability provided the required information is timely furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

Non-U.S. Holders. Any gain realized on the receipt of cash in the merger by a non-U.S. holder generally will not be subject to United States federal income tax unless:

- the gain is effectively connected with a trade or business of the non-U.S. holder in the United States (and, if required by an applicable United States income tax treaty, is attributable to a United States permanent establishment of the non-U.S. holder);
- the non-U.S. holder is an individual who is present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of the cash disposition, and certain other conditions are met; or
- the Company was a "United States real property holding corporation" for United States federal income tax purposes within the five years preceding the merger.

A non-U.S. holder whose gain is described in the first bullet point above will be subject to tax on its net gain in the same manner as if it were a U.S. holder. In addition, such a non-U.S. holder that is a corporation may be subject to a branch profits tax equal to 30% of its effectively connected earnings and profits (including such gain) or at such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty. An individual non-U.S. holder described in the second bullet point above will be subject to tax at a 30% flat rate on the gain recognized, equal to the difference, if any, between the amount of cash received in exchange for shares of our common stock and the non-U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in such shares, which may be offset by U.S. source capital losses even though the individual is not considered a resident of the United States. To the extent that a non-U.S. holder's income is eligible for a reduced rate of withholding tax under a treaty, such non-U.S. holder may obtain a refund of excess amounts withheld by filing a properly completed claim for refund with the Internal Revenue Service. The Company does not believe it is, or has been during the five years preceding the merger, a United States real property holding corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

The payment to a non-U.S. holder of the proceeds of a disposition of a share of our common stock by or through the U.S. office of a broker generally will not be subject to information reporting or backup withholding if the non-U.S. holder either certifies, under penalties of perjury, on IRS Form W-8BEN (or a suitable substitute form) that it is not a United States person and certain other conditions are met, or the non-U.S. holder otherwise establishes an exemption. Information reporting and backup withholding generally will not apply to the payment of the proceeds of a disposition of a share of our common stock by or through the foreign office of a foreign broker (as defined in applicable Treasury regulations). Information reporting requirements (but not backup withholding) will apply, however, to a payment of the proceeds of the disposition of a share of our common stock by or through a foreign office of a U.S. broker or of a foreign broker with certain relationships to the United States, unless the broker has documentary evidence in its records that the holder is not a United States person and certain other conditions are met, or the holder otherwise establishes an exemption.

Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be allowed as a refund or a credit against a non-U.S. holder's United States federal income tax liability provided that the required information is timely furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

Regulatory Matters

Under the HSR Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, certain transactions, including the merger, may not be consummated unless certain waiting period requirements have expired or been terminated. The HSR Act provides that each party must file a pre-merger notification with the FTC and the DOJ. A transaction notifiable under the HSR Act may not be completed until the expiration of a 30-calendar-day waiting period following the parties' filing of their respective HSR Act notification forms or the early termination of that waiting period. If the DOJ or the FTC issues a Request for Additional Information and Documentary Material ("Second Request") prior to the expiration of the initial waiting period, the parties must observe a second 30-day waiting period, which would begin to run only after both parties have substantially complied with the request for additional information, unless the waiting period is terminated earlier. At any time before or after the merger is completed, either the DOJ or the FTC could take action under the antitrust laws in opposition to the merger, including seeking to enjoin completion of the merger or permitting completion subject to regulatory concessions or conditions. In addition, U.S. state attorneys general could take action under the antitrust laws, including, without limitation, seeking to enjoin the completion of the merger or permitting completion subject to regulatory concessions or conditions. Private parties may also seek to take legal action under the antitrust laws under some circumstances.

The parties to the merger originally filed their respective notification and report forms pursuant to the HSR Act with the FTC and DOJ on February 24, 2011 and the initial 30-day waiting period was scheduled to expire on March 28, 2011. Early termination of the waiting period was granted by the DOJ and FTC effective February 28, 2011.

The consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the merger, requires the prior approval of the Oklahoma Insurance Department pursuant to Title 36, Section 1651 of the Oklahoma Statutes, as amended, and the Office of Insurance Regulation of the Financial Services Commission of the State of Florida pursuant to Title 37, Chapter 628 of the Florida Statutes, as amended. The Company has filed the required "applications for approval" with the States of Oklahoma and Florida but has not received the required approvals as of the date of this proxy statement. In addition, the Company will be required to provide certain notifications, prior to and following the merger, to state insurance departments, consumer affairs agencies, bar associations and similar state agencies in other jurisdictions where it operates.

THE SPECIAL MEETING

The enclosed proxy is solicited on behalf of the board of directors of the Company for use at the special meeting of shareholders or at any adjournment or postponement thereof.

Date, Time and Place of the Special Meeting

We will hold the special meeting at our offices at One Pre-Paid Way, Ada, Oklahoma, at [ ] a.m., local time, on [ ], [ ], 2011.

Purpose of the Special Meeting

The purposes of the special meeting are to consider and act upon the following matters:

- Proposal 1: To consider and vote on a proposal to adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of January 30, 2011, by and among the Company, Parent and Merger Sub, as described in this proxy statement, as it may be amended from time to time. A copy of the Merger Agreement is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement.
- Proposal 2: To consider and vote upon any proposal to authorize the Company board of directors, in its discretion, to adjourn the special meeting to a later date or dates, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in the event there are not sufficient votes in favor of adoption of the Merger Agreement at the time of the special meeting.

Shareholders will also consider and act on any other matters that may properly come before the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof by or at the direction of the Company's board of directors.

Recommendation of Our Board of Directors

Our board of directors, after considering the unanimous recommendation of the Special Committee and the various factors described in the section entitled "Special Factors—Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of Our Board of Directors," has unanimously (i) determined that the merger is fair to and in the best interests of the Company and our unaffiliated shareholders, (ii) approved and declared advisable the Merger Agreement and the merger (iii) directed that the Merger Agreement be submitted for consideration by the shareholders of the Company at a special meeting of shareholders and (iv) resolved to recommend that our shareholders vote to adopt the Merger Agreement. Our board of directors unanimously recommends that our shareholders vote "FOR" the adoption of the Merger Agreement.

Our board of directors has unanimously determined and believes that giving it the discretionary authority to adjourn the special meeting to a later date or dates, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes in favor of the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement is advisable and in the best interests of the Company and our unaffiliated shareholders and has unanimously approved such a proposal. Our board of directors unanimously recommends that shareholders vote "FOR" the proposal to authorize our board of directors, in its discretion, to adjourn the special meeting to a later date or dates, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes in favor of the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement.

Record Date; Shares Entitled to Vote

Only holders of record of our common stock at the close of business on [ ], 2011, the record date, are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting. On the record date, [ ] shares of our common stock were issued and outstanding and held by approximately [ ] holders of record. Holders of record of our common stock on the record date are entitled to one vote per share at the special meeting on the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement and any proposal to authorize our board of directors, in its discretion, to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies.

Quorum

A quorum of shareholders is necessary to hold a valid special meeting. Under our bylaws, a quorum is present if the holders of one-third of the outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote on the record date are present at the meeting, either in person or represented by proxy. In the event that a quorum is not present at the special meeting, it is expected that the meeting will be adjourned to solicit additional proxies. For purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, abstentions and broker non-votes, if any, will be counted as shares present. Broker non-votes occur in respect of shares held in "street name" when the broker indicates that voting instructions for a particular matter have not been received from the beneficial owners or other persons entitled to vote those shares and the broker does not have discretionary voting authority to vote those shares on that particular matter.

Vote Required

The following votes are required to approve the proposals:

Proposal 1: The adoption of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. Adoption of the Merger Agreement is a condition to the closing of the merger. Adoption of the Merger Agreement does not require approval of a majority of unaffiliated shareholders.

Proposal 2: Approval of any proposal to authorize our board of directors, in its discretion, to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast on the matter.

Voting by the Company's Directors and Executive Officers

As of March 31, 2011, our directors and executive officers beneficially owned and were entitled to vote, in the aggregate, 954,892 shares of our common stock, representing 9.8% of our outstanding common stock. The directors and executive officers have informed us that they currently intend to vote all of their shares of our common stock "FOR" the adoption of the Merger Agreement and "FOR" any proposal to authorize our board of directors, in its discretion, to adjourn the special meeting.

Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes

For the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, you may vote FOR, AGAINST or ABSTAIN. Abstentions will not be counted as votes cast or shares voting on the proposal to approve the merger, but will count for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present.

Completion of the merger requires the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting, assuming a quorum is present. Therefore, if you abstain, it will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement.

If your shares are held in "street name" through a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, you should instruct your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee on how to vote your shares of our common stock using the instructions provided by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee. Under the rules of the NYSE, banks, brokerage firms or other nominees who hold shares in street name for customers have the authority to vote on "routine" proposals when they have not received instructions from beneficial owners. However, banks, brokerage firms or other nominees are precluded from exercising their voting discretion with respect to approving non-routine matters, such as the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, and, as a result, absent specific instructions from the beneficial owner of such shares of our common stock, banks, brokerage firms or other nominees are not empowered to vote those shares of our common stock on non-routine matters, which we refer to generally as broker non-votes. These broker non-votes (if any) will be counted for purposes of determining a quorum, but will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement.

Edgar Filing: PRE PAID LEGAL SERVICES INC - Form PRER14A

Shares allocated to your account under the ESOP and your Associate Investment Club shares must be voted in accordance with instructions provided. If you do not vote the shares in accordance with those instructions, it will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the merger.

For the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, you may vote FOR, AGAINST or ABSTAIN. Approval of the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast on the matter at the special meeting. For purposes of this proposal, abstentions will not be counted in tabulating the votes cast therefor and will have no effect on any vote on this proposal. Broker non-votes will not be counted in tabulating the votes cast, and will not have an effect on the proposal to adjourn the special meeting.

Voting of Proxies

If your shares are registered in your name, you may cause your shares to be voted by mailing a signed proxy card in the enclosed postage prepaid envelope or by voting in person at the meeting. Additionally, you may submit a proxy authorizing the voting of your shares via the Internet or by telephone. You must have the enclosed proxy card available, and follow the instructions on the proxy card, in order to submit a proxy via the Internet or by telephone.

If your shares are registered in your name and you plan to attend the special meeting and wish to vote in person, you will be given a ballot at the meeting. If your shares are registered in your name, you are encouraged to submit a proxy even if you plan to attend the special meeting in person.

Voting instructions are included on your proxy card. All shares represented by properly executed proxies received in time for the special meeting will be voted at the special meeting in accordance with the instructions of the shareholder. Properly executed proxies that do not contain voting instructions will be voted "FOR" the adoption of the Merger Agreement and "FOR" any proposal to authorize our board of directors, in its discretion, to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies.

If your shares are held in street name, you will receive instructions from your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee that you must follow in order to have your shares voted. If you do not instruct your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee to vote your shares, it has the same effect as a vote against the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, and will not count as a vote cast on the proposal to adjourn the meeting. If you plan to attend the special meeting and hold your shares in street name, you will need a proxy from your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee in order to be given a ballot to vote the shares.

Shares allocated to your account under the ESOP and your Associate Investment Club shares may only be voted in accordance with the voting instructions provided. If you do not following the voting instructions provided, it has the same effect as a vote against the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement and will not count as a vote cast on the proposal to adjourn the meeting.

Any proxy you give pursuant to this solicitation may be revoked by you at any time before it is voted. Proxies may be revoked as follows:

If your shares are registered in your name, you may revoke your proxy by:

- delivering a written revocation of the proxy, or a later dated, signed proxy card, to our corporate secretary, Kathleen S. Pinson, at our corporate offices at One Pre-Paid Way, Ada, Oklahoma 74820, or by fax to the attention of Kathleen S. Pinson at (580) 436-7409, on or before the business day prior to the special meeting;
- delivering a new, later dated proxy by telephone or via the Internet through 11:59 p.m., eastern time, the day prior to the special meeting;
- delivering a written revocation or later dated, signed proxy card to us at the special meeting prior to the taking of the vote on the matters to be considered at the special meeting; or
- attending the special meeting and voting in person.

If you have instructed a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee to vote your shares, you may revoke your proxy only by following the directions received from your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee to change those instructions.

If you have voted the shares allocated to your account under the ESOP or your Associate Investment Club shares, you may revoke your proxy only by following the voting instructions provided.

Revocation of the proxy will not affect any vote previously taken. Attendance at the special meeting will not in itself constitute the revocation of a proxy; you must vote in person at the special meeting to revoke a previously delivered proxy.

Rights of Shareholders Who Object to the Merger

Shareholders are entitled to appraisal rights under Oklahoma law in connection with the merger. This means that you are entitled to have the “fair value” of your shares determined by an Oklahoma District Court and to receive payment based on that valuation. The ultimate amount you receive as a dissenting shareholder in an appraisal proceeding may be more than, the same as, or less than the amount you would have received under the Merger Agreement.

To exercise your appraisal rights, you must submit a written demand for appraisal to the Company within ten days following the vote on the Merger Agreement at the special meeting, you must not vote in favor of adoption of the Merger Agreement, and you must comply with the other Oklahoma law procedures, as modified pursuant to the MOU as described under “Appraisal Rights.” Your failure to follow all of the procedures specified under Oklahoma law may result in the loss of your appraisal rights. The text of the Oklahoma appraisal rights statute is reproduced in its entirety as Annex C to this proxy statement.

Solicitation of Proxies

The expense of soliciting proxies in the enclosed form will be paid by the Company. We have retained MacKenzie to assist in the solicitation of proxies for the special meeting and we estimate that we will pay MacKenzie a fee of approximately $25,000. The Company will reimburse MacKenzie for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and will indemnify MacKenzie and its affiliates against certain claims, liabilities, losses, damages and expenses. The Company may also reimburse brokers, banks and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries representing beneficial owners of shares of our common stock for their expenses in forwarding soliciting materials to beneficial owners of our common stock and in obtaining voting instructions from those owners. Our directors, officers and employees may also solicit proxies by telephone, by facsimile, by mail, on the Internet or in person. They will not be paid any additional amounts for soliciting proxies.

Other Matters

We are not currently aware of any business to be acted upon at the special meeting other than the matters discussed in this proxy statement. If other matters do properly come before the special meeting, or at any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting, we intend that shares of our common stock represented by properly submitted proxies will be voted in accordance with the recommendations of our board of directors.

Shareholder List

A list of our shareholders entitled to vote at the special meeting will be available for examination by any shareholder of the Company at the special meeting.

For ten days prior to the special meeting, this shareholder list will be available for inspection by any shareholder for any purpose germane to the special meeting during ordinary business hours at One Pre-Paid Way, Ada, Oklahoma 74820.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following summary describes material provisions of the Merger Agreement. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is attached to this proxy statement as Annex A and is incorporated herein by reference. We urge you to read carefully the Merger Agreement in its entirety because this summary may not contain all the information about the Merger Agreement that is important to you. The Merger Agreement and the following description have been included to provide you with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Company or Parent. Such information can be found elsewhere in this proxy statement and in the other public filings the Company makes with the SEC, which are available, without charge, at <http://www.sec.gov>.

Explanatory Note

The representations, warranties, agreements and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement were made solely for the purposes of the Merger Agreement and the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement and may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties. Certain of the representations and warranties have been made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts. In addition, the representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement (i) are qualified by information in confidential disclosure schedules that the parties have exchanged, (ii) were made only as of the dates specified in the Merger Agreement or the confidential disclosure schedules, and (iii) in some cases are subject to qualifications with respect to materiality, knowledge and/or other matters, including standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company's public disclosures. Accordingly, you should not rely on the representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Company or Parent or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. In addition, the representations and warranties and other provisions of the Merger Agreement should not be read alone, and you should read the information provided elsewhere in this proxy statement.

The Merger

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub, a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent, will merge with and into the Company, with the Company continuing as the surviving corporation of the merger. As a result of the merger, the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub will cease, and the Company will continue as the surviving corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent. At the effective time of the merger, our certificate of incorporation will be amended to read as the certificate of incorporation attached as Exhibit B to the Merger Agreement and the bylaws of Merger Sub will become the bylaws of the surviving corporation. The directors of Merger Sub immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will become the directors of the surviving corporation, and the officers of the Company immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will continue as the officers of the surviving corporation.

Effective Time of the Merger

The merger will become effective upon the filing of a certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Oklahoma or at such later time as is agreed upon by Parent and us and specified in such certificate of merger. The filing of the certificate of merger will occur at the closing, which will take place on the second business day after satisfaction or waiver of the conditions to the closing of the merger set forth in the Merger Agreement (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the closing of the merger (which, includes, without limitation, the receipt by us of a favorable opinion addressed to our board of directors as to certain solvency matters as of and immediately following the effective time of the merger), but subject to the satisfaction or waiver of those conditions at the closing), which are described in this proxy statement, or at such other place, time and date as we and Parent shall agree, except that no party shall be required to effect the closing until the earlier of a date during Parent's marketing period (described below) specified by Parent on at least three business days' notice and the last day of Parent's marketing period.

Parent's marketing period is the first period of 20 consecutive business days during which (i) Parent has received all financial and other information required by the financing commitments or by applicable law in connection with the debt financing and the transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement and all other financial and other information regarding us and our subsidiaries as may be reasonably requested by Parent, including, without limitation, the audited consolidated financial statements of us and our subsidiaries for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2010 (all such information we refer to collectively as the "required financial information"), and (ii) and the mutual conditions to the parties' obligations to close the merger have been satisfied (other than conditions that by their nature can be satisfied only at the closing of the merger) and no event has occurred and no conditions exist that would cause any of the additional conditions to the obligations of Parent and Merger Sub to close the merger to fail to be satisfied assuming the closing of the merger were to be scheduled for any time during such 20-consecutive-business-day period. The marketing period shall not be deemed to have commenced, however, if (1) on or before such period of 20 consecutive business days shall have expired, our independent registered public accounting firm shall have withdrawn its audit opinion with respect to any financial statements contained in the required financial information or we shall have publicly announced an intention to restate any of the financial information contained in the required financial information or (2) the financial statements contained in the required financial information would not be sufficiently current during such period of 20 consecutive business days to permit a registration statement using such financial statements to be declared effective by the SEC on the last day of such period of 20 consecutive business days. In addition, if the marketing period shall have commenced or been completed prior to the date that Parent shall be required to obtain alternative debt financing (unless such obligation is waived by us), Parent may, at its option, extend the marketing period for an additional period of 20 consecutive business days. The marketing period shall end on any earlier date on which Parent's debt financing under the debt financing commitment has been funded.

We intend to complete the merger as promptly as practicable, subject to receipt of shareholder approval and all requisite regulatory approvals. Although we currently expect to complete the merger by July 31, 2011, we cannot specify when, or assure you that, all conditions to the consummation of the merger will be satisfied or waived, or that the merger will be completed.

Merger Consideration

At the effective time of the merger, each share of our common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time (other than shares owned by (i) us or any of our direct or indirect subsidiaries, (ii) Parent or any of its direct or indirect subsidiaries or (iii) shareholders who have not voted in favor of the merger and who have otherwise satisfied all of the requirements of applicable law to have appraisal rights under Section 1091 of the OGCA) will be converted into the right to receive $66.50 per share in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes. All shares of our common stock converted into the right to receive the merger consideration of $66.50 per share in cash will no longer be outstanding and will automatically be cancelled and retired, and holders of such shares will cease to have any rights with respect to such shares, except the right to receive $66.50 per share in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes (and any dividends or distributions with a record date before the effective time of the merger that are unpaid as of the effective time of the merger). Shares owned by us or any of our subsidiaries or Parent or any of its subsidiaries immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will no longer be outstanding and will be cancelled and no consideration will be paid for such shares. Shares held immediately prior to the effective time of the merger by our shareholders who have not voted in favor of the merger and who have otherwise satisfied all of the requirements of applicable law to have appraisal rights under Section 1091 of the OGCA will be converted into the right to receive the fair value of such shares subject to the provisions of Section 1091 of the OGCA.

Payment Procedures

At or prior to the effective time of the merger, Parent will deposit with a paying agent (referred to as the "paying agent") funds in the amount of the aggregate per share cash merger consideration, which funds we refer to as the "exchange fund". The per share cash merger consideration will be delivered out of the exchange fund. As soon as reasonably practicable (and in any event within three business days) after the effective time of the merger, Parent will instruct the paying agent to mail to each holder of record of our common stock a letter of transmittal and instructions for use in effecting the surrender of shares of our common stock in exchange for the per share cash merger consideration.

No interest will be paid or accrued on the amount of the per share cash merger consideration. Parent, the surviving corporation and the paying agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold any applicable taxes from the per share cash merger consideration. Any sum that is withheld will be deemed to have been paid to the person with regard to whom it is withheld.

Any funds in the exchange fund that have not been distributed within six months after the effective time of the merger will be delivered to the surviving corporation and after that date, shareholders who have not complied with the instructions to exchange their shares will be entitled to look only to Parent and the surviving corporation for payment of the per share cash merger consideration. None of the Parent, Merger Sub, the company, the surviving corporation or the paying agent will have any liability to any person in respect of cash from the exchange fund delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheatment or similar law.

After the effective time of the merger, there will be no further registration of transfers on the stock transfer books of the surviving corporation of shares of our common stock that were outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. If, after the effective time of the merger, any certificates formerly representing share of our common stock are presented to the surviving corporation or the paying agent for any reason, they shall be canceled and, subject to the exchange procedures set forth in the Merger Agreement, exchanged for the amount of per share cash merger consideration to which the holder thereof is entitled pursuant to the Merger Agreement.

If any of your certificates representing our common stock have been lost, stolen or destroyed, you will be entitled to obtain the per share cash merger consideration after you make an affidavit of that fact and, if required by Parent, make a reasonable undertaking (which may include, without limitation, the posting of a bond) to indemnify Parent against any claim that may be made against Parent or the surviving corporation with respect to such certificates.

You should not send your stock certificates (if any) to the paying agent until you have received transmittal materials from the paying agent. Do not return your stock certificates (if any) with the enclosed proxy card.

Appraisal Rights

Shares of our common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger that are held by any shareholder who has not voted in favor of the Merger Agreement and who shall otherwise have satisfied all of the requirements of Section 1091 of the OGCA, as modified pursuant to the MOU as described under "Appraisal Rights," will not be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration of $66.50 per share in cash. Instead, such shareholder will only be entitled to payment of the fair value of such shares in accordance with Section 1091 of the OGCA. In the event a shareholder does not satisfy all of the requirements for appraisal of the shareholder's shares under Section 1091 of the OGCA, as modified pursuant to the MOU as described under "Appraisal Rights", then such shareholder's shares will be deemed to have been converted at the effective time of the merger into the right to receive the per share cash merger consideration described above. We are required to promptly provide to Parent any information and copies of any documents reasonably requested by Parent relating to the appraisal rights of holders of shares of our common stock, including, without limitation, any written communication by us to such shareholders and any written communication received by us from any such shareholders. We may not, without Parent's prior written consent, make any payment with respect to any demands for the fair value of shares of our common stock under Section 1091 of the OGCA or offer to settle, settle or negotiate any legal proceeding with respect to any such demands.

These rights in general are discussed more fully under the section of this proxy statement entitled "Appraisal Rights" beginning on page 82.

Treatment of Equity Awards

Under the Merger Agreement, immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, each stock option to purchase shares of our common stock that is outstanding under our option plan (whether or not vested) will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive a cash payment in an amount equal to the product of (i) the amount by which $66.50 exceeds the applicable per share exercise price (if any) multiplied by (ii) the number of shares of common stock issuable upon exercise of such stock option, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes. As of the date of this proxy statement, there were no options outstanding under our equity compensation plans.

Restrictions on Solicitation of Alternative Transaction Proposals

We have agreed that from the date of the Merger Agreement until the effective time of the merger, we, our subsidiaries and our and our subsidiaries' respective directors, officers, employees, advisors and representatives shall not, directly or indirectly:

- initiate, solicit, propose or knowingly encourage or knowingly facilitate any alternative transaction proposal, or any inquiries or the making of any proposal or offer that constitutes or could reasonably be expected to lead to an alternative transaction proposal;
- engage in, continue or otherwise participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish any person any information concerning the Company or any of its subsidiaries with respect to, any alternative transaction proposal or any proposal or offer that could reasonably be expected to lead to an alternative transaction proposal;
- grant any waiver, amendment or release under any standstill or confidentiality agreement or anti-takeover statute;
- approve, endorse, recommend, or execute or enter into any agreement relating to an alternative transaction proposal or that contradicts the Merger Agreement or requires the Company to abandon the Merger Agreement; or
- resolve, propose, commit or agree to do any of the foregoing.

However, prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the Company's shareholders, if the Company has complied with the restrictions on the solicitation of alternative transaction proposals contained in the Merger Agreement, in the event that the Company receives an unsolicited, bona fide (which generally means made in good faith without fraud or deceit) alternative transaction proposal with respect to which the Company's board of directors or the Special Committee has determined in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel, that failure to take such action would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable laws, and, based on the information then available and after consultation with its independent financial advisor and outside legal counsel, that such alternative transaction proposal could reasonably be expected to lead to a superior proposal, the Company may:

- furnish or provide access to information to the person making such alternative transaction proposal with respect to the Company or its subsidiaries, subject to such person having executed a confidentiality agreement that is in all material respects the same as the confidentiality agreement executed by the Company and MidOcean Associates, SPC and the Company promptly making available to Parent any written material non-public information that is provided to such person to the extent such information was not previously made available to Parent; and
- engage in or otherwise participate in any discussions or negotiations with such person and its representatives with respect to such alternative transaction proposal.

Promptly (but in any event within two business days) after receipt of any alternative transaction proposal or any request for nonpublic information or any inquiry relating to any alternative transaction proposal, we are required to provide Parent with a copy of such alternative transaction proposal (if in writing) and any written amendments, changes, modifications, supplements, or additions to such proposal. We are also required to keep Parent reasonably informed on a current basis (and in any event within 24 hours of the occurrence of any material changes, developments, discussions or negotiations) of the status of any such alternative transaction proposal (including the material terms and conditions thereof and any material modification thereto), and any material developments, discussions and negotiations, including furnishing copies of any written inquiries, correspondence and draft documentation.

As used in this proxy statement, an "alternative transaction proposal" refers to any inquiry, offer or proposal relating to (i) the acquisition of 20% or more of the equity interests in the Company by a third party, (ii) any merger, consolidation, business combination, reorganization, share exchange, sale of assets, recapitalization, equity investment, joint venture, liquidation, dissolution or other transaction which would result in any third party acquiring, directly or indirectly, assets representing 20% or more of the net revenues, net income or total assets of the Company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, (iii) any merger, consolidation, business combination, binding share exchange or similar transaction involving the Company or any of its subsidiaries pursuant to which any person or group (or the shareholders of any person) would own, directly or indirectly, 20% or more of the aggregate voting power of the Company or of the surviving entity in a merger or the resulting direct or indirect parent of the Company or such surviving entity or (iv) any tender offer or exchange offer, as such terms are defined under applicable securities laws, that, if consummated, would result in any third party beneficially owning 20% percent or more of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock and any other voting securities of the Company, in each case, other than the merger.

As used in this proxy statement, a "superior proposal" refers to any bona fide written alternative transaction proposal that is not solicited or received in violation of the restrictions on the solicitation of alternative transaction proposals contained in the Merger Agreement that the Special Committee or our board of directors has determined in its good faith judgment, after consultation with its financial advisor and outside legal counsel, is reasonably likely to be consummated in accordance with its terms, taking into account all legal, regulatory and financial aspects of the proposal and the person making the proposal, and if consummated, would result in a transaction more favorable to the Company's shareholders than the transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement (including any changes to the terms of the Merger Agreement proposed by Parent to the Company in writing in response to such proposal or otherwise), except that for purposes of the definition of "superior proposal", the references to "20%" in the definition of "alternative transaction proposal" shall be deemed to be references to "50%".

Restrictions on Change of Recommendation to Shareholders

We have agreed in the Merger Agreement that neither our board of directors nor the Special Committee shall (i) change, withhold, withdraw, qualify or modify (or publicly propose to do so) in a manner adverse to Parent or Merger Sub, the recommendation that our shareholders vote to adopt the Merger Agreement, (ii) fail to make or fail to include in this proxy statement the recommendation that our shareholders vote to adopt the Merger Agreement, (iii) make any recommendation or public statement in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer that affirmatively supports such offer or (iv) adopt, approve or recommend, or publicly propose to adopt, approve or recommend to our shareholders, any alternative transaction proposal (the events in clauses (i) through (iv) being referred to as a "Company adverse recommendation change") or (v) cause or permit the Company or any of its subsidiaries to enter into any letter of intent or agreement relating to any alternative transaction proposal.

However, prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the Company's shareholders, if our board of directors or the Special Committee determines, in good faith, that a bona fide alternative transaction proposal that did not result from a breach of the restrictions on the solicitation of alternative transaction proposals contained in the Merger Agreement is a superior proposal, our board of directors or the Special Committee may effect a Company adverse recommendation change with respect to such superior proposal or authorize the Company to terminate the Merger Agreement to enter into an agreement with respect to such superior proposal, only if:

- our board of directors or the Special Committee determines in good faith, after consultation with an independent financial advisor and outside legal counsel, that failure to do so would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law;
- the Company shall have provided three business days' prior written notice to Parent to the effect that our board of directors or the Special Committee has resolved to effect a Company adverse recommendation change and/or to terminate the Merger Agreement, which notice shall specify the identity of the party making the superior proposal, the material terms of the superior proposal and unredacted copies of the relevant material transaction documents relating to such superior proposal;
- prior to effecting a Company adverse recommendation change or termination of the Merger Agreement, the Company shall, and shall cause its financial and legal advisors to, during the three-business-day notice period, negotiate with Parent and its representatives in good faith (to the extent Parent desires to negotiate) to make such adjustments to the provisions of the Merger Agreement so that such alternative transaction proposal would cease to constitute a superior proposal, provided that any material revision to the alternative transaction proposal will require the Company to deliver a new written notice to Parent and to comply with the foregoing requirements during such new notice period, except that any new notice period will be two business days (and, in any event, will not shorten the initial three-business-day notice period); and
- if our board of directors or the Special Committee authorizes terminating the Merger Agreement or entering into an agreement with respect to a superior proposal, the Company shall have validly terminated the Merger Agreement as provided in the applicable termination provision of the Merger Agreement, which requires that the Company shall have complied with the restrictions in the Merger Agreement on the solicitation of alternative transaction proposals and on our board of directors or the Special Committee changing the recommendation to our shareholders and paid the Company termination fee.

In addition, prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the Company's shareholders, our board of directors or the Special Committee may withhold, withdraw, qualify or modify (or publicly propose to do so), in a manner adverse to Parent, the recommendation that our shareholders vote to adopt the Merger Agreement in response to an intervening event (such action being referred to as a "change of recommendation") if our board of directors or the Special Committee has determined in good faith, after consultation with independent financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that failure to take such action would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law; provided that prior to taking such action:

- our board of directors or the Special Committee has given Parent at least three business days' prior written notice of its intention to take such action and a description of the intervening event;
- the Company has negotiated, and has caused its financial and legal advisors to negotiate, in good faith with Parent during such notice period to the extent Parent desires to negotiate, to enable Parent to revise the provisions of the Merger Agreement in such a manner as would obviate the need for taking such action as a result of an intervening event; and
- following the end of such notice period, our board of directors or the Special Committee shall have considered in good faith any changes to the Merger Agreement proposed by Parent, and shall have determined in good faith, after consultation with independent financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that failure to effect a change of recommendation in response to an intervening event still would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law.

As used in this proxy statement, an “intervening event” means an event or circumstance that was not known to our board of directors or the Special Committee on the date of the Merger Agreement (or if known, the consequences of which are not known to or reasonably foreseeable by our board of directors or the Special Committee as of the date of the Merger Agreement), which event or circumstance, or any consequences thereof, becomes known to our board of directors or the Special Committee prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the Company’s shareholders, except that in no event shall the receipt, existence or terms of an alternative transaction proposal or superior proposal constitute an intervening event.

Shareholders Meeting

We are required to hold a meeting of our shareholders as promptly as reasonably practicable after the date of mailing of this proxy statement (but in any event within 35 days thereafter, subject to a limited exception) to consider and vote upon the adoption of the Merger Agreement, except that we may postpone or adjourn the special meeting under certain circumstances set forth in the Merger Agreement and Parent may also require us to adjourn or postpone the special meeting one time. Unless our board of directors shall have made a Company adverse recommendation change or a change in recommendation in response to an intervening event as permitted by the Merger Agreement, we are required to include in this proxy statement the recommendation that our shareholders vote to adopt the Merger Agreement, use our reasonable best efforts to obtain the adoption of the Merger Agreement by our shareholders and recommend that our shareholders vote to adopt the Merger Agreement. So long as the Merger Agreement shall not have been terminated, we are required to hold the special meeting to consider and vote upon the adoption of the Merger Agreement, even if our board of directors or the Special Committee shall have made any Company adverse recommendation change or change of recommendation in response to an intervening event.

Reasonable Best Efforts; Notification

Except for the undertaking of Parent to obtain financing pursuant to the financing commitments, the Company, Parent and Merger Sub shall use their respective reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done all things necessary, proper or advisable to consummate and make effective, in the most expeditious manner practicable, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and to cause the conditions to the merger to be satisfied as promptly as practicable, including:

- obtaining all necessary consents from governmental entities and the making of all necessary registrations and filings and the taking of all steps as may be necessary to obtain any necessary consent from, or to avoid an action or legal proceeding by, any governmental entity (including under the HSR Act or any foreign competition law);
- obtaining all third party consents necessary or advisable in order to consummate the merger or the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement;
- defending any legal proceedings challenging the Merger Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement (including seeking to avoid the entry of, or to have reversed, terminated or vacated, any order entered by any governmental entity); and
- executing and delivering any additional instruments necessary to consummate the merger and other transactions contemplated hereby and to fully carry out the purposes of the Merger Agreement.

To the extent not prohibited by applicable law, each of Parent and the Company shall keep the other reasonably apprised of the status of matters relating to the completion of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and shall work cooperatively with the other in connection with obtaining all required consents of any governmental entity, including:

- promptly notifying the other of, and, if in writing, furnishing the other with copies of any communications from or with any governmental entity with respect to the merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement;

- permitting the other to review and discuss in advance, and considering in good faith the views of the other in connection with, any proposed written or material proposed oral communication with any such governmental entity;
- not participating in any meeting with any such governmental entity unless it notifies the other in advance and, to the extent permitted by such governmental entity, gives the other the opportunity to attend and participate therein;
- furnishing the other with copies of all correspondence, filings and communications (and related memoranda) between it and any such governmental entity with respect to the Merger Agreement and the merger; and
- cooperating with the other to furnish the other party with such necessary information and reasonable assistance as the other party may reasonably request in connection with the parties' mutual cooperation in preparing any necessary filings or submissions of information to any such governmental entity.

The Company and Parent will make all filings and submissions required by all applicable laws, including the HSR Act and all applicable state, federal and non-U.S. insurance laws, and promptly file any additional information requested as soon as reasonably practicable after receipt of such request therefor. In addition, Parent has agreed to submit to all applicable governmental entities all filings required to be made under the laws governing the insurance businesses of Parent and the Company and their respective subsidiaries in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement by February 22, 2011 (which date the Company has agreed to extend until February 25, 2011 with respect to certain filings) and all required notifications under the HSR Act or any foreign competition law within 10 business days of the date of the Merger Agreement (which submission date the Company has agreed to extend until February 25, 2011 with respect to the notification required under the HSR ACT).

In the event any legal proceeding by any governmental entity or other person is commenced that challenges the validity or legality of the Merger Agreement or the merger or seeks damages in connection therewith, except as otherwise permitted by the Merger Agreement or necessary to avoid violation of applicable law, the Company, Parent and Merger Sub agree to cooperate and use their reasonable best efforts to defend against and respond thereto. The Company shall be entitled to control the defense and settlement of any such legal proceeding but shall provide Parent reasonable opportunity to participate at its expense in the defense or settlement thereof.

Financing

Parent has agreed to arrange and obtain equity financing, on the terms and conditions set forth in the equity commitment letter and to use its reasonable best efforts to arrange and obtain debt financing, on the terms and conditions set forth in the debt commitment letter, in each case, that were delivered to us and that are described elsewhere in this proxy statement. In addition, Parent has agreed not to permit any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision or remedy of the equity commitment letter or the debt commitment letter that would or would reasonably be expected to reduce the aggregate amount of the financing or impose new or additional conditions to the receipt of financing, prevent or materially delay the closing of the merger or adversely impact the ability of Parent or Merger Sub to enforce its rights against the other parties to the equity commitment letter or the debt commitment letter, as applicable, in each case, without the prior written consent of the Company. Parent and Merger Sub may amend the debt commitment letter to add lenders, lead arrangers, bookrunners, syndication agents or similar entities who had not executed the debt commitment letter as of the date of the Merger Agreement or otherwise amend or replace the debt commitment letter so long as such action would not reasonably be expected to delay or prevent the closing of the merger, the terms and conditions not less favorable, taken as a whole, to Parent and Merger Sub than the terms and conditions in the existing debt commitment letter and the debt commitment letter is replaced no later than the business day immediately prior to the closing of the merger.

Parent has further agreed to maintain in effect the equity commitment letter and use its reasonable best efforts to maintain in effect the debt commitment letter and any related definitive agreements, timely satisfy all conditions in the financing agreements applicable to it and Merger Sub in order to obtain such debt financing and equity financing, consummate the equity financing at or prior to the closing of the merger, negotiate and enter into definitive agreements with respect to the debt financing on terms no less favorable to it and Merger Sub than the terms set forth in the debt commitment letter, consummate the debt financing at or prior to the closing of the merger and fully enforce any counterparties' obligations and its own rights under any financing agreements subject to compliance with any requirements set forth in the Merger Agreement. If any portion of the debt financing becomes unavailable on the terms and conditions contemplated by the debt commitment letter, Parent will, at our request, use its reasonable best efforts to arrange and obtain alternative debt financing from alternative debt sources in an amount sufficient to consummate the merger with terms and conditions not less favorable, taken as a whole, to Parent and Merger Sub than the terms and conditions in the existing debt commitment letter no later than the business day immediately prior to the closing of the merger; provided that if Parent is deemed to have breached the provisions of the debt commitment letter as a result of its seeking to arrange and obtain any such alternative financing at our request, such result will not be a breach by Parent of its obligation to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain debt financing.

Edgar Filing: PRE PAID LEGAL SERVICES INC - Form PRER14A

We have agreed to provide to Parent and Merger Sub, at Parent's cost and expense, and to use reasonable best efforts to cause our representatives to provide, all cooperation reasonably requested by Parent in connection with arranging and obtaining debt financing, including:

- participating in a reasonable number of sessions with ratings agencies in connection with the debt financing and using reasonable best efforts to obtain ratings as and when set forth in the debt commitment letter;
- hosting one or more meetings with prospective financing sources as and when set forth in the debt commitment letter;
- providing reasonable assistance with the preparation of marketing materials and materials for rating agency presentations;
- executing and delivering any definitive financing certificates, documents and/or instruments as may be reasonably requested by Parent, including pledge and security documents, currency or interest hedging agreements, and a certificate of an officer of the Company or any borrowing subsidiary of the Company with respect to solvency matters and consents of accountants for use of their reports in any materials relating to the debt financing;
- furnishing Parent and its financing sources as promptly as practicable with financial and other pertinent information regarding the Company and its subsidiaries as may be reasonably requested by Parent, including the audited consolidated financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2010, and all other financial statements and projections and other pertinent information required by the debt commitment letter and the equity commitment letter, as applicable, and all financial statements, pro forma financial information, financial data, audit reports and other information of the type required by Regulation S-X and Regulation S-K under the Securities Act of 1933 and of type and form customarily included in a registration statement on Form S-1 (or any applicable successor form) under the Securities Act of 1933 (subject to exceptions customary for private placements pursuant to Rule 144A promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933) for a public offering to consummate the offering(s) of debt securities, or as otherwise required by law in connection with the Debt Financing and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement;
- using reasonable best efforts to obtain accountants' comfort letters, consents, legal opinions, surveys and title insurance as reasonably requested by Parent;
- providing quarterly financial statements no later than the date by which the applicable quarterly filing is required to be made with the SEC;
- providing customary letters to the financing sources of Parent and Merger Sub authorizing the dissemination of marketing materials, including confirming that such materials do not contain material non-public information; and
- entering into one or more credit or other agreements on terms satisfactory to Parent in connection with the debt financing immediately prior to the closing of the merger to the extent direct borrowings or debt incurrences by the Company or subsidiary of the Company are contemplated by the debt commitment letter;

provided that irrespective of the obligations above, no obligation of the Company or any of its subsidiaries under any certificate, document or instrument shall be effective until the closing of the merger and none of the Company or any of its subsidiaries shall be required to take any action under any certificate, document or instrument that is not contingent upon the closing of the merger (including the entry into any agreement that is effective before the closing of the merger), shall unreasonably interfere with the ongoing operations of the Company and its subsidiaries or shall require the Company to issue or disseminate any offering or information document.

Upon our request, Parent will promptly reimburse us for all of our out-of-pocket costs incurred in connection with our cooperation. Parent has further agreed to indemnify us and our representatives in connection with the arrangement of any financing, and any information used in connection with such financing arrangements. Parent's reimbursement and indemnification obligations have been guaranteed pursuant to the limited guarantee made by the MidOcean Investors in favor of the Company.

Consummation of the merger is not conditioned on the funding of Parent's financing or on Parent obtaining financing. See "Merger Agreement—Fees and Expenses" beginning on page 78 and "Merger Agreement—Remedies" beginning on page 80 for a description of the consequences of Parent failing to consummate the merger under certain circumstances.

In connection with the preparation and delivery of the solvency opinion, the receipt of which by us (and addressed to our board of directors) is a condition to the obligation of the Company to close the merger, Parent will make its officers available and use its reasonable best efforts to make its other representatives available on a customary basis and on reasonable notice, provide or make available such information concerning the business, properties, contracts, assets and liabilities of Parent and its affiliates as may reasonably be requested, and pay the fees and reimbursable expenses of the firm preparing and delivering such solvency opinion that are incurred in such preparation and delivery.

Employee Benefits

The Merger Agreement provides that, with respect to employee benefit plans, programs, policies and arrangements that are established or maintained by Parent or its affiliates for the benefit of current and former employees (and their eligible dependents) of the Company (collectively "Company Employees"), the Company Employees will be given credit for their service with the Company and its affiliates (i) for purposes of eligibility to participate, vesting and level of benefits under vacation and severance plans (but not benefit accrual for any purpose, including under a defined benefit pension plan) to the extent such service was taken into account under a corresponding benefit plan of the Company or its affiliates, and (ii) for purposes of satisfying any waiting periods, evidence of insurability requirements, or the application of any pre-existing condition limitations, and will be given credit for amounts paid under a corresponding benefit plan of the Company or its affiliates during the plan year in which the merger occurs for purposes of applying deductibles, copayments and out-of-pocket maximums for such plan year as though such amounts had been paid in accordance with the terms and conditions of the plans, programs, policies and arrangements maintained by Parent. Service and other amounts will not be credited to Company Employees to the extent the crediting of such service or other amounts would result in the duplication of benefits.

As of the effective time of the merger, the surviving corporation will assume and agree to perform in accordance with their terms (i) all employment, severance, bonus, incentive and other compensation agreements and arrangements existing as of the date of this proxy statement between the Company or any of its subsidiaries and any director, officer or employee thereof and (ii) any such agreements or arrangements entered into after the date hereof and prior to the effective time of the merger by the Company or any of its subsidiaries in compliance with the terms of the Merger Agreement.

Indemnification

From and after the effective time of the merger, Parent and the surviving corporation will indemnify each present and former director and officer of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, certain other individuals identified in the Merger Agreement and each person who served at the request of the Company or any of its subsidiaries as a director or officer of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any costs, expenses and other losses incurred in connection with any claim or proceeding arising out of or relating to matters existing or occurring at or prior to the effective time of the merger relating to such person's service with or at the request of the Company, whenever asserted or claimed, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law. In addition, from and after the effective time of the merger, Parent and the surviving corporation will pay expenses incurred by any such person in advance of any final disposition of any such claim or proceeding to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.

Conditions to the Closing of the Merger

The obligations of the Company, Parent and Merger Sub to consummate the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver at or prior to the effective time of the merger of each of the following conditions:

- the Merger Agreement must have been adopted by holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock;
- the applicable waiting period under the HSR Act must have been terminated or expired;
- the Commissioner of the Oklahoma Insurance Department must have approved the application for the acquisition of Pre-Paid Legal Casualty, Inc. in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement;
- the Commissioner of the Florida Office of Insurance Regulation must have approved the application for the acquisition of Pre-Paid Legal Services, Inc. of Florida in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement;
- each consent of any governmental entity that is required to be obtained or made in connection with the execution, delivery and performance of the Merger Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the merger, that, if not obtained would materially impair the benefits, taken as a whole, that Parent or Merger Sub reasonably expects to derive from the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, if any, must have been obtained; and
- no statute, rule, regulation or order shall have been enacted, entered, promulgated, issued or enforced by any governmental entity of competent jurisdiction and shall be in effect that restrains, enjoins or otherwise prohibits the consummation of the merger.

The obligation of the Company to consummate the merger is also subject to the satisfaction or waiver at or prior to the effective time of the merger of each of the following additional conditions:

- the representations and warranties of Parent and Merger Sub regarding corporate authority relative to the Merger Agreement and enforceability of the Merger Agreement must be true and correct as of the date of the Merger Agreement and as of the date of the closing of the merger as if made at and as of such date (except for those representations and warranties that address matters only as of an earlier specified date, which must be true and correct only as of such earlier specified date);
- the representations and warranties made by Parent and Merger Sub other than those listed in the immediately preceding bullet must be true and correct as of the date of the Merger Agreement and on the date of the closing of the merger with the same effect as if made on and as of such date (except for those representations and warranties which address matters only as of an earlier specified date, which must be true and correct only as of such earlier specified date), disregarding all qualifications and exceptions contained in such representation and warranties relating to materiality or Parent material adverse effect (with limited exceptions set forth in the Merger Agreement), except for such failures to be so true and correct which, individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to prevent, materially delay or materially impede the performance by Parent or Merger Sub of its obligations under the Merger Agreement;

- each of Parent and Merger Sub must have performed in all material respects all covenants and agreements, and complied in all material respects with all obligations, contained in the Merger Agreement that are to be performed or complied with by it prior to or on the date of the closing of the merger;
- the Company must have received a certificate of Parent, dated as of the date of the closing of the merger, signed by an executive officer of Parent to the effect that the conditions set forth in the three immediately preceding bullets have been satisfied.
- the Company must have received a favorable opinion from a firm reasonably acceptable to Parent and the Company addressed to the Company's board of directors, in customary form and substance, that (i) as of and immediately after the effective time of the merger, neither Parent, the surviving corporation nor any of the Company's subsidiaries is insolvent (as defined under applicable bankruptcy law), (ii) neither Parent, the surviving corporation nor any of the Company's subsidiaries is, as of the effective time of the merger, engaged or about to engage in a business or transaction for which its remaining property was an unreasonably small capital, and (iii) neither Parent, the surviving corporation nor any of the Company's subsidiaries intended, as of the effective time of the merger to incur, or believed at the effective time of the merger that it would incur, debts beyond their ability to pay as such debts matured.

The obligations of Parent and Merger Sub to consummate the merger are also subject to the satisfaction or waiver at or prior to the effective time of the merger of each of the following additional conditions:

- the representations and warranties of the Company regarding its capitalization must be true and correct as of the date of the Merger Agreement and as of the date of the closing of the merger as if made at and as of such date (except for those representations and warranties that address matters only as of an earlier specified date, which must be true and correct only as of such earlier specified date), except for such failures to be so true and correct that do not exceed a de minimis extent;
- the representations and warranties of the Company regarding corporate authority relative to the Merger Agreement and enforceability of the Merger Agreement, the absence of a Company material adverse effect and the inapplicability of any anti-takeover law to the merger shall be true and correct as of the date of the Merger Agreement and as of the date of the closing of the merger as if made at and as of such date (except for those representations and warranties that address matters only as of an earlier specified date, which must be true and correct only as of such earlier specified date);
- the representations and warranties made by the Company other than those listed in the two immediately preceding bullets must be true and correct as of the date of the Merger Agreement and on the date of the closing of the merger with the same effect as if made on and as of such date (except for those representations and warranties that address matters only as of an earlier specified date, which must be true and correct only as of such earlier specified date), disregarding all qualifications and exceptions contained in such representations and warranties relating to materiality or Company material adverse effect (with limited exceptions set forth in the Merger Agreement), except for such failures to be so true and correct which, individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to have a Company material adverse effect;
- the Company must have performed in all material respects all covenants and agreements, and complied in all material respects with all obligations, contained in the Merger Agreement that are to be performed or complied with by it prior to or on the date of the closing of the merger;

- Parent must have received a certificate of the Company, dated as of the date of the closing of the merger, signed by an executive officer of the Company to the effect that the conditions set forth in the four immediately preceding bullets have been satisfied; and
- the Company must have delivered to Parent a properly completed and executed certificate to the effect that the Company's common stock is not a U.S. real property interest (such certificate in the form required by applicable tax law), along with written authorization for Parent to deliver such form to the Internal Revenue Service on behalf of the Company upon the closing of the merger.

Although the parties have the right to waive conditions to the merger (to the extent permissible under applicable law), we are not currently aware of any circumstance in which Parent, Merger Sub or we would waive any of the closing conditions described above. The ability of Parent and Merger Sub to obtain financing to consummate the merger is not a condition to the closing of the merger.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

Parent and the Company (upon approval of the Special Committee) may, by mutual written consent, terminate the Merger Agreement and abandon the merger at any time prior to the effective time of the merger, whether before or after the adoption of the Merger Agreement by our shareholders.

The Merger Agreement may also be terminated by either Parent or the Company (and the merger abandoned at any time prior to the effective time of the merger) if:

- the merger has not been consummated by the July 31, 2011 (which date, as extended as provided in this sentence, we refer to as the "outside date"), except that if Parent's marketing period has commenced on or before July 31, 2011, but not ended before July 31, 2011, the outside date shall automatically be extended by one month and, in any event, the outside date shall not occur sooner than three business days after the final day of Parent's marketing period (but this right to terminate the Merger Agreement will not be available to any party whose breach of or failure to fulfill any obligation under the Merger Agreement has been a principal cause of or resulted in the failure of the merger to be consummated by such date, and if the Company has brought any litigation against Parent seeking to specifically enforce its rights as provided under the Merger Agreement and such litigation is pending on such date, this right to terminate the Merger Agreement will not be available to Parent until the third business day after Parent and Merger Sub shall have complied with any all orders included in the final ruling in such litigation);
- an injunction, judgment or order of a governmental entity permanently restraining enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the merger shall have become final or nonappealable or any law makes the consummation of the merger illegal or otherwise prohibited, unless the consummation of the merger in violation of such law would not have a Company material adverse effect, (but this termination right shall not be available to a party unless, prior to such termination, such party shall have used its reasonable best efforts to oppose any such injunction, judgment or order or law or to have such injunction, judgment or order or law vacated or made inapplicable to the merger and shall have complied in all material respects with its obligations to use reasonable best efforts to consummate the merger contained in the Merger Agreement, and this termination right shall not be available to any party whose breach of any provision of the Merger Agreement results in the imposition of any such injunction, judgment or order or the failure of such injunction, judgment or order to be resisted, resolved or lifted, as applicable); or
- at the special meeting of our shareholders, a proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement shall have been voted upon and our shareholders shall not have adopted the Merger Agreement at such meeting or any adjournment of such meeting.

The Merger Agreement may also be terminated by Parent (and the merger abandoned at any time prior to the effective time of the merger) if:

- the Company shall have breached any of its representations or warranties or failed to perform any of its covenants or other agreements contained in the Merger Agreement, which breach or failure to perform would give rise to the failure of the condition to the closing of the merger relating to the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the Company or the compliance by it with its obligations under the Merger Agreement, and such breach or failure to perform is incapable of being cured, or if capable of being cured, is not cured by the earlier to occur of 30 days (or, in the case of a breach of the Company's obligations not to solicit alternative transaction proposals, five days) after the Company receives notice of such breach from Parent or Merger Sub and the outside date; provided that each of Parent and Merger Sub is not then in breach of the Merger Agreement so as to cause any of the parties' mutual conditions to the closing of the merger or either condition to the closing of the merger relating to the accuracy of the representations and warranties of Parent and Merger Sub or the compliance by Parent and Merger Sub with their obligations under the Merger Agreement not to be satisfied; or
- prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the Company's shareholders our board of directors or the Special Committee shall have effected a Company adverse recommendation change or a change of recommendation in response to an intervening event, or Parent shall have received written notice from the Company to the effect that the Company intends to terminate the Merger Agreement in connection with entering into an agreement with respect to a superior proposal.

The Merger Agreement may also be terminated by the Company (and the merger abandoned at any time prior to the effective time of the merger) if:

- prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the Company's shareholders, our board of directors or the Special Committee shall have determined, in good faith, that an alternative transaction proposal is a superior proposal and the Company shall have complied with the restrictions in the Merger Agreement on the solicitation of alternative transaction proposals and on our board of directors or the Special Committee changing the recommendation to our shareholders and paid the Company termination fee;
- if Parent or Merger Sub shall have breached any of its representations or warranties or failed to perform any of its covenants or other agreements contained in the Merger Agreement, which breach or failure to perform would give rise to the failure of the condition to the closing of the merger relating to the accuracy of the representations and warranties of Parent and Merger Sub or the compliance by them with their obligations under the Merger Agreement, and is incapable of being cured, or if capable of being cured, is not cured by the earlier to occur of 30 days after Parent or Merger Sub receives notice of such breach from the Company and the outside date; provided that the Company is not then in breach of the Merger Agreement so as to cause any of the parties' mutual conditions to the closing of the merger or either condition to the closing of the merger relating to the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the Company or the compliance by the Company with its obligations under the Merger Agreement not to be satisfied; or
- if (i) the parties' mutual conditions to the closing of the merger and the additional conditions to the closing of the merger of Parent and Merger Sub have been satisfied (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the closing of the merger), (ii) the Company has irrevocably confirmed in writing that all of its additional conditions to the closing of the merger have been satisfied or that it is willing to waive all such conditions that may be unsatisfied provided that the closing of the merger occurs by the close of business on the second business day following the date of such notice, (iii) Parent's marketing period has ended or will end on the date of such notice, and (iv) by the close of business on the second business day after the Company has delivered written notice to Parent of the satisfaction of such conditions and such confirmation, the merger shall not have been consummated; provided that the conditions described in clause (i) remain satisfied and the Company's certification described in clause (ii) remains in full force and effect at the close of business on such second business day; provided, further, that during such two-business-day period, no party shall be entitled to terminate the Merger Agreement for the failure of the merger to be consummated by the outside date until after the close of business on the business day immediately following the last day of such period.

Fees and Expenses

Parent will be required to pay the Company a termination fee equal to $50 million if:

- the Company terminates the Merger Agreement because Parent or Merger Sub shall have breached any of its representations or warranties or failed to perform any of its covenants or other agreements contained in the Merger Agreement, which breach or failure to perform would give rise to the failure of the condition to the closing of the merger relating to the accuracy of the representations and warranties of Parent and Merger Sub or the compliance by them with their obligations under the Merger Agreement, and is incapable of being cured, or if capable of being cured, is not cured by the earlier to occur of 30 days after Parent or Merger Sub receives notice of such breach from the Company and the outside date; provided that the Company is not then in breach of the Merger Agreement so as to cause any of the parties' mutual conditions to the closing of the merger or either condition to the closing of the merger relating to the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the Company or the compliance by the Company with its obligations under the Merger Agreement not to be satisfied; or
- the Company terminates the Merger Agreement because (i) the parties' mutual conditions to the closing of the merger and the additional conditions to the closing of the merger of Parent and Merger Sub have been satisfied (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the closing of the merger), (ii) the Company has irrevocably confirmed in writing that all of its additional conditions to the closing of the merger have been satisfied or that it is willing to waive all such conditions that may be unsatisfied provided that the closing of the merger occurs by the close of business on the second business day following the date of such notice, (iii) Parent's marketing period has ended or will end on the date of such notice, and (iv) by the close of business on the second business day after the Company has delivered written notice to Parent of the satisfaction of such conditions and such confirmation, the merger shall not have been consummated; provided that the conditions described in clause (i) remain satisfied and the Company's certification described in clause (ii) remains in full force and effect at the close of business on such second business day; provided, further, that during such two-business-day period, no party shall be entitled to terminate the Merger Agreement for the failure of the merger to be consummated by the outside date until after the close of business on the business day immediately following the last day of such period.

Edgar Filing: PRE PAID LEGAL SERVICES INC - Form PRER14A

The Company will be required to pay MidOcean US Advisor, LP a termination fee equal to $21.5 million (which we refer to as the “Company termination fee”) if:

- prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the Company’s shareholders, the Company terminates the Merger Agreement because our board of directors or the Special Committee shall have determined, in good faith, that an alternative transaction proposal is a superior proposal and we shall have complied with the restrictions in the Merger Agreement on the solicitation of alternative transaction proposals and on our board of directors or the Special Committee changing the recommendation to our shareholders;
- Parent terminates the Merger Agreement because prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the Company’s shareholders our board of directors or the Special Committee shall have effected a Company adverse recommendation change or a change of recommendation in response to an intervening event, or Parent shall have received written notice from the Company to the effect that the Company intends to terminate the Merger Agreement in connection with entering into an agreement with respect to a superior proposal;
- Parent or the Company terminates the Merger Agreement because the Company’s shareholders shall have voted not to adopt the Merger Agreement at the meeting of Company shareholders (or any adjournment of such meeting) and prior to such meeting our board of directors shall have made a change of recommendation based on an intervening event; or
- (i) after the date of the Merger Agreement (and in the case of a termination of the Merger Agreement by Parent or the Company on account of the Company’s shareholders voting not to adopt the Merger Agreement at the meeting of Company shareholders, prior to such meeting (or any adjournment of such meeting)) an alternative transaction proposal shall have become publicly known and not withdrawn, (ii) thereafter, the Merger Agreement is terminated by Parent or the Company because the merger shall not have been consummated by the outside date or the Company’s shareholders shall have voted not to adopt the Merger Agreement at the meeting of Company shareholders (or any adjournment of such meeting) or the Merger Agreement is terminated by Parent because of the Company’s uncured material breach, in any case, such termination being made in accordance with the Merger Agreement and (iii) within 12 months after such termination, the Company enters into a definitive agreement providing for any transaction contemplated by any alternative transaction proposal, regardless of when made (which transaction is thereafter consummated) or consummates any alternative transaction proposal regardless of when made (for purposes of clause (iii), the term “alternative transaction proposal” shall have the meaning set forth in the section of this proxy statement entitled “The Merger Agreement—Restrictions on Solicitation of Alternative Transaction Proposals” beginning on page 67, except that all references to “20%” shall be deemed to be references to “50%”.

If the Merger Agreement is terminated:

- by Parent or the Company because the merger has not been consummated by the outside date and, as of the date of such termination, all of the parties’ mutual conditions to the closing of the merger and the additional conditions to the Company’s obligation to close the merger shall have been satisfied or waived (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the closing of the merger, all of which would be satisfied if the closing of the merger were to occur on the date of such termination, except that the condition relating to the Company’s receipt of a solvency opinion (addressed to our board of directors) would fail to be satisfied as of such date), and Parent shall have complied in all material respects with its obligation to provide assistance in obtaining such solvency opinion;
- by Parent or the Company because our shareholders shall have voted not to adopt the Merger Agreement at the meeting of Company shareholders (or any adjournment of such meeting); or
- by Parent because the Company shall have breached any of its representations or warranties or failed to perform any of its covenants or other agreements contained in the Merger Agreement, which breach or failure to perform would give rise to the failure of the condition to the closing of the merger relating to the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the Company or the compliance by it with its obligations under the Merger Agreement, and such breach or failure to perform is incapable of being cured, or if capable of being cured, is not cured by the earlier to occur of 30 days (or, in the case of a breach of the Company’s obligations not to solicit alternative transaction proposals, five days) after the Company receives notice of such breach from Parent or Merger Sub and the outside date; provided that each of Parent and Merger Sub is not then in breach of the Merger Agreement so as to cause any of the parties’ mutual conditions to the closing of the merger or either condition to the closing of the merger relating to the accuracy of the representations and warranties of Parent and Merger Sub or the compliance by Parent and Merger Sub with their obligations under the Merger Agreement not to be satisfied;

and, in any case, under circumstances in which the Company termination fee is not then payable, then the Company will be required to pay MidOcean US Advisor, LP reimbursement for all reasonably documented out-of-pocket fees and expenses incurred by Parent and its related parties in connection with the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, up to an aggregate limit of $5 million. In the event the Company shall later be required to pay the Company termination fee to MidOcean US Advisor, LP, the aggregate amount of any such fee and expense reimbursement paid by the Company shall be credited against the amount of the Company termination fee payable.

Remedies

Under the Merger Agreement, the parties are entitled to an injunction, specific performance and other equitable relief to prevent breaches of the Merger Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of the Merger Agreement.

However, the right of the Company to obtain an injunction, or other appropriate form of specific performance or equitable relief to cause Parent and Merger Sub to cause the equity financing to be funded at any time (but only simultaneously with the receipt of the debt financing) are subject to the following requirements:

- all of the parties' mutual conditions to the closing of the merger and the additional conditions to the closing of the merger of Parent and Merger Sub (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the closing of the merger) have been satisfied or waived;
- Parent and Merger Sub fail to complete the closing of the merger by the date the closing of the merger is required to have occurred pursuant to the provisions of the Merger Agreement;
- the debt financing (or any alternative financing) has been funded or will be funded at the closing of the merger if the equity financing is funded at the closing of the merger; and
- the Company has irrevocably confirmed that all of its additional conditions to the closing of the merger have been satisfied or that it is willing to waive any of such conditions to the extent not so satisfied, and that if specific performance is granted and the equity financing and debt financing are funded, then the closing of the merger will occur.

In addition, the Company's right to specific performance to cause Parent and Merger Sub to use reasonable best efforts to enforce the terms of the debt financing commitment, which may include a demand that Merger Sub and Parent file one or more lawsuits against the sources of debt financing to fully enforce such sources' obligations under the debt financing commitment and Parent's and Merger Sub's rights under the debt financing commitment, are subject to the following requirements:

- all of the parties' mutual conditions to the closing of the merger and the additional conditions to the closing of the merger of Parent and Merger Sub (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the closing of the merger) have been satisfied or waived;
- Parent and Merger Sub fail to complete the closing of the merger by the date the closing of the merger is required to have occurred pursuant to the provisions of the Merger Agreement;
- the Company has irrevocably confirmed that all of its additional conditions to the closing of the merger have been satisfied or that it is willing to waive any of such conditions to the extent not so satisfied, and that if specific performance is granted and the equity financing and debt financing are funded, then the closing of the merger will occur; and
- all conditions to the consummation of the debt financing contemplated by the debt financing commitment (other than the receipt of the equity financing and those conditions that by their nature cannot be satisfied until the closing of the merger, but each of which, including the receipt of the equity financing, shall be capable of being satisfied on the closing of the merger (and shall be satisfied on the date of the closing of the merger)) have been satisfied and remain satisfied.

Any party seeking an injunction to prevent breaches of the Merger Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of the Merger Agreement shall not be required to provide any bond or other security in connection with any such injunction.

The maximum aggregate liability of Parent and Merger Sub with respect to the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement is $50 million. If we receive the $50 million termination fee from Parent, such payment will be our sole and exclusive remedy against Parent and Merger Sub and their related parties with respect to the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Amendment and Waiver

Amendment. The Merger Agreement may be amended by the parties at any time before the effective time of the merger, except that after our shareholders have adopted the Merger Agreement, there shall be no amendment that by law requires further approval by our shareholders without such further approval having been obtained. No amendment to the provisions of the Merger Agreement that are for the benefit of third parties shall be effective against such third party without such third party's prior written consent.

Waiver. At any time prior to the effective time of the merger, the parties may, and in the case of the Company upon the approval of the Special Committee, (i) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties, (ii) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement or in any document delivered pursuant to the Merger Agreement or (iii) to the fullest extent permitted by law, waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained in the Merger Agreement (subject to the requirement that after our shareholders have adopted the Merger Agreement, there shall be no amendment that by law requires further approval by our shareholders without such further approval having been obtained).

Our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" the adoption of the Merger Agreement.

APPRAISAL RIGHTS

If you do not vote for the adoption of the Merger Agreement at the special meeting and otherwise comply with the applicable statutory procedures of Section 1091 of the Oklahoma General Corporation Act (the "OGCA"), as modified pursuant to the MOU, as described below, you may be entitled to appraisal rights under Section 1091 of the OGCA. In order to exercise and perfect appraisal rights, a record holder of our common stock must follow the steps summarized below properly and in a timely manner.

Section 1091 of the OGCA is printed in its entirety in Annex C to this proxy statement. Set forth below is a summary description. This summary describes certain material aspects of Section 1091 and the law relating to appraisal rights and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Annex C. All references in Section 1091 and this summary to "shareholder" are to the record holder of the shares of our common stock immediately prior to the effective time of the merger as to which the appraisal rights are asserted. Failure to comply with the procedures set forth in Section 1091 of the OGCA may result in the loss of appraisal rights.

Under the OGCA, holders of our common stock who follow the procedures set forth in Section 1091, as modified pursuant to the MOU, as described herein, of the OGCA will be entitled to have their shares appraised by an Oklahoma District Court and to receive payment in cash of the "fair value" of those shares, exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger.

Pursuant to the MOU, the Company, Parent and Merger Sub have agreed to the following modifications to the deadlines set forth in the OGCA for the exercise of appraisal rights in connection with the merger:

- a shareholder electing to demand the appraisal of the shares of the shareholder shall make a written demand for appraisal within ten days following the vote on the Merger Agreement at the special meeting (rather than before the vote on the merger, as provided in OGCA Section 1091.D.1);
- any shareholder who has complied with the provisions of subsections A and D of Section 1091 of the OGCA and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights shall have 130 days following the effective date of the merger to file a petition in district court demanding a determination of the value of the stock of such shareholder (rather than 120 days, as provided for in Section 1091.E);
- any shareholder shall have the right to withdraw the demand of the shareholder for appraisal and accept the consideration for the merger at any time within 70 days after the effective date of the merger (rather than 60 days, as provided for in Section 1091.E); and
- any shareholder who has properly asserted appraisal rights may make a written request to receive a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received within 130 days after the effective date of the merger (rather than 120 days, as provided for in Section 1091.E).

If any of the foregoing deadlines is not a business day, then the applicable deadline shall be the next succeeding business day. The following description of the provisions of Section 1091 of the OGCA reflect the modified deadlines set forth in the MOU.

Under Section 1091, in instances where appraisal rights are available, we must, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, notify each of our shareholders that such rights are available and include a copy of Section 1091. This proxy statement constitutes such notice to the holders of our common stock and Section 1091 of the OGCA is attached to this proxy statement as Annex C. Any shareholder who wishes to exercise such appraisal rights or who wishes to preserve its right to do so should review the following discussion and Annex C carefully because failure to timely and properly comply with the procedures specified will result in the loss of appraisal rights under the OGCA.

If you wish to exercise appraisal rights, you must not vote for the adoption of the Merger Agreement (although you may choose not to vote) and must deliver to the Company, within ten days following the vote on the Merger Agreement at the special meeting, a written demand for appraisal of such shares of our common stock. Properly executed proxies that do not contain voting instructions will be voted "FOR" the adoption of the Merger Agreement. Accordingly, if you desire to exercise and perfect appraisal rights with respect to any of your shares of common stock, you must either (i) refrain from executing and returning the enclosed proxy card, refrain from voting in person and refrain from submitting a proxy by telephone or through the Internet in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement, or (ii) check either the "AGAINST" or the "ABSTAIN" box next to the proposal on such card and return such card, vote "AGAINST" the proposal in person (or register in person your abstention thereto) or vote "AGAINST" the proposal by submitting a proxy by telephone or through the Internet (or register your abstention thereto by submitting a proxy by telephone or through the Internet). A vote or proxy against the adoption of the Merger Agreement or abstaining on such matter will not, in and of itself, constitute a demand for appraisal. You must make a separate and timely written demand for appraisal.

Edgar Filing: PRE PAID LEGAL SERVICES INC - Form PRER14A

Only a holder of record of shares of our common stock is entitled to assert appraisal rights for such shares. A demand for appraisal should be executed by or on behalf of the holder of record, state such holder's name fully and correctly (ideally matching such holder's name as it appears on his, her or its stock certificate or certificates), and must state that such holder intends thereby to demand appraisal rights of his, her or its shares. If the shares are owned of record in a fiduciary capacity, such as by a trustee, guardian or custodian, execution of the demand for appraisal should be made in that capacity. If the shares are owned of record by more than one person, as in a joint tenancy or tenancy in common, the demand should be executed by or on behalf of all joint owners. An authorized agent, including one or two or more joint owners, may execute the demand for appraisal on behalf of a holder of record; however, the agent must identify the record owner or owners or expressly disclose the fact that, in executing the demand, he or she is acting as agent for such owner or owners.

A record holder such as a broker who holds shares as nominee for several beneficial owners may exercise appraisal rights with respect to the shares of our common stock held for one or more beneficial owners while not exercising such rights with respect to the shares held for other beneficial owners – in such case, the written demand should set forth the number of shares as to which appraisal is sought. The number of shares as to which appraisal is sought should reflect the shares of the beneficial owners for whom appraisal rights are being exercised. Where the number of shares of our common stock is not expressly stated, the demand will be presumed to cover all shares held in the name of the record owner. If you hold your shares in brokerage accounts or other nominee forms and wish to exercise your appraisal rights, you are urged to consult with your broker to determine the appropriate procedures for the making of a demand for appraisal.

All written demands for appraisal of shares must be mailed or delivered to Pre-Paid Legal Services, Inc., One Pre-Paid Way, Ada, Oklahoma 74820, Attention: Corporate Secretary, or delivered to the Secretary within ten days following the vote on the Merger Agreement at the special meeting.

Within ten days after the effective time of the merger, we will notify each shareholder who properly asserted appraisal rights under Section 1091 of the OGCA. Within 130 days after the effective date, the surviving corporation or any shareholder who has properly asserted appraisal rights may file a petition in an Oklahoma District Court demanding a determination of the value of the shares of all shareholders seeking appraisal rights. However, at any time within 70 days after the effective date, any shareholder shall have the right to withdraw the demand for appraisal and may accept the consideration for the merger, and with the consent of the Company the shareholder may withdraw the demand for appraisal and accept the consideration for the merger more than 70 days after the effective date. Within 130 days after the effective date, any shareholder who has properly asserted appraisal rights may make a written request to the surviving corporation to receive a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received, including the aggregate number of holders of the shares. This statement must be mailed to the requesting shareholder within ten days after the written request is received by the surviving corporation or within ten days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal, whichever is later.

If a petition is filed by a shareholder, within twenty days after receipt of service we must file, in the office of the court clerk of the district court in which the petition was filed, a list containing the names and addresses of all shareholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements regarding the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving corporation. The court clerk, if so ordered by the court, will provide notice of the time and place for a hearing by the applicable Oklahoma District Court to determine the shareholders who have properly perfected their appraisal rights. The court may require that shareholders demanding appraisal rights submit their stock certificates to the court clerk for the duration of the proceedings and, should any shareholder fail to so comply, the court may dismiss the proceedings as to that shareholder.

After determining the shareholders entitled to an appraisal, the court shall appraise the shares, determining their fair value, exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, to be paid. In determining the fair value, the court will consider all relevant factors including the rate of interest which the surviving corporation would have to pay to borrow money during the pendency of the proceedings. After determining the fair value, the court will direct the surviving corporation to make payment, in the manner as the court may direct, to the shareholders entitled to such payment. The costs of any such proceedings may be determined by the court and taxed upon the parties as the court may determine.

If you desire to exercise your appraisal rights, you must not vote for the adoption of the Merger Agreement and must strictly comply with the procedures set forth in Section 1091 of the Oklahoma General Corporation Act, as modified pursuant to the MOU as described above. Failure to do so will result in the termination or waiver of such rights.

No dividends have been declared or paid on our common stock since 2006. In the event that the merger is not completed, we will continue to evaluate the desirability of cash dividends considering our financial condition and available resources and market conditions.

Our ability to pay dividends is dependent in part on our ability to derive dividends from our subsidiaries. The payment of dividends by our subsidiary Pre-Paid Legal Casualty, Inc. ("PPLCI") is restricted under the Oklahoma Insurance Code to available surplus funds derived from realized net profits and requires the approval of the Oklahoma Insurance Commissioner for any dividend representing more than the greater of 10% of such accumulated available surplus or the previous years' net profits. Additionally, in one of its operating states, PPLCI must meet a premium to surplus ratio of 3:1. PPLCI also computes an analysis of its capital under a risk based capital formula prescribed by statutory accounting regulations and must maintain sufficient capital above amounts otherwise required by the various state insurance departments to meet the adjusted capital requirements. Dividends by our subsidiary Legal Service Plans of Virginia, Inc. have a similar restriction pursuant to requirements to meet risk based capital levels.

AUTHORITY TO ADJOURN THE SPECIAL MEETING

We may ask our shareholders to vote on a proposal to authorize our board of directors, in its discretion, to adjourn the special meeting to a later date or dates, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the meeting to adopt the Merger Agreement. In addition, under the Merger Agreement, we are required to adjourn or postpone the special meeting one time, if requested to do so by Parent. We currently do not intend to propose that our board of directors have discretionary authority to adjourn the special meeting if there are sufficient votes to adopt the Merger Agreement. If any proposal to authorize our board of directors, in its discretion, to adjourn the special meeting for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies is submitted to our shareholders for approval, such approval requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast on the matter.

Our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" any proposal to authorize our board of directors, in its discretion, to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies.

OTHER MATTERS

We are not currently aware of any business to be acted upon at the special meeting other than the matters discussed in this proxy statement. Under our bylaws, business transacted at the special meeting is limited to the purposes stated in the notice of the special meeting, which is provided at the beginning of this proxy statement. If other matters do properly come before the special meeting, or at any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting by or at the direction of our board of directors, we intend that shares of our common stock represented by properly submitted proxies will be voted in accordance with the recommendations of our board of directors.

It is important that your shares be represented at the special meeting, regardless of the number of shares which you hold. Therefore, we urge you to complete, sign, date and return the accompanying proxy card as promptly as possible in the postage prepaid envelope enclosed for that purpose or to submit a proxy via the Internet or by telephone.

HOUSEHOLDING OF PROXY STATEMENT

Applicable rules of the SEC permit companies and brokers, banks or other nominees to deliver a single copy of a proxy statement to households at which two or more beneficial owners reside. This method of delivery, which eliminates duplicate mailings, is known as "householding." Beneficial owners sharing an address who have been previously notified by their bank, brokerage firm or other nominee and have consented to householding, either affirmatively or implicitly by not objecting to householding, will receive only a single copy of this proxy statement, unless that bank, brokerage firm or other nominee has received contrary instructions from one or more of the shareholders. We will deliver promptly, upon written or oral request, a separate copy of this proxy statement to a shareholder at a shared address to which a single copy of this proxy statement was delivered. A shareholder who wishes to receive a separate copy of this proxy statement, now or in the future, should submit their request to: PrePaid Legal Services, Inc., One Pre-Paid Way, Ada, Oklahoma 74820, Attention: Corporate Secretary, Telephone: (580) 436-1234. Beneficial owners sharing an address who are receiving multiple copies of proxy materials and annual reports and wish to receive a single copy of such materials in the future will need to contact their bank, brokerage firm or other nominee to request that only a single copy of each document be mailed to all shareholders at the shared address in the future.

FUTURE SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS

If the merger is completed, there will be no public participation in any future meetings of our shareholders. However, if the merger is not completed, our public shareholders will continue to be entitled to attend and participate in our shareholders' meetings. If the merger is not completed and any shareholder intends to present a proposal to be considered for inclusion in our proxy materials in connection with our 2011 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, the proposal must have been received by our Corporate Secretary at our principal executive offices (One Pre-Paid Way, Ada, Oklahoma 74820) no later than December 7, 2010 and otherwise meet the requirements of applicable SEC rules. If the date of our 2011 Annual Meeting of Shareholders is changed to a date that is more than 30 days before or after the anniversary of our 2010 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, the deadline is a reasonable time before we begin to print and send our proxy materials for our 2011 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. If the merger is not completed and any shareholder wishes to present a proposal at our 2011 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, but does not wish to have the proposal considered for inclusion in our proxy materials, the shareholder must give written notice to our Corporate Secretary, which such notice must be received by our Corporate Secretary at our principal executive offices not more than 150 days and not less than 90 days in advance of the anniversary of the 2010 Annual Meeting to be timely and contain all of the information required by our bylaws. An untimely proposal will not be permitted to be raised at the meeting.

At the Closing, the Surviving Corporation will cause the Certificate of Merger to be executed and filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Oklahoma in accordance with the relevant provisions of the OGCA. From and after the Effective Time, the Merger shall have all the effects as provided in this Agreement and as provided by Section 1088 of the OGCA (including the effect that the Surviving Corporation shall possess all of the assets, rights, privileges, powers and franchises and shall be subject to all of the liabilities, restrictions, disabilities and duties of the Company and Merger Sub, all as provided under the OGCA).

ARTICLE III

EFFECT ON THE CAPITAL STOCK OF THE CONSTITUENT CORPORATIONS; EXCHANGE OF CERTIFICATES

Section 3.01 Effect on Capital Stock. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Merger Sub, the Company or any holder of any shares of Company Common Stock or any shares of capital stock of Merger Sub:

(a) Capital Stock of Merger Sub. Each issued and outstanding share of capital stock of Merger Sub shall be converted into and become one fully paid and nonassessable share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Surviving Corporation.

(b) Cancellation of Treasury Stock and Parent-Owned Stock. Each share of Company Common Stock that is owned by the Company or any Company Subsidiary or Parent or any Subsidiary of Parent shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be canceled, and no consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor.

(c) Conversion of Company Common Stock. Each share of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than shares to be canceled in accordance with Section 3.01(b) and any Dissenting Shares) shall be converted into the right to receive $66.50 (referred to herein as the "Merger Consideration") in cash payable to the holder thereof. All such shares of Company Common Stock, when so converted, shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be canceled and retired and each holder of a Certificate shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive the Merger Consideration upon surrender of such certificate in accordance with Section 3.03, without interest, and except as otherwise provided with respect to unpaid dividends and other distributions in Section 3.04.

Section 3.02 Dissenting Shares. Shares of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time that are held of record by shareholders who shall not have voted such shares in favor of the Merger and who shall have otherwise satisfied all requirements of Oklahoma Law, including Section 1091 of the OGCA, to have appraisal rights under Section 1091 ("Dissenting Shares") shall not be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration as set forth in Section 3.01(c), but the holders thereof instead shall be entitled to receive, and the Dissenting Shares shall only represent the right to receive, payment of the fair value of such shares in accordance with the provisions of Section 1091 of the OGCA; provided, however, that (i) if such a holder fails to demand properly in writing from the Surviving Corporation the appraisal of that shareholder's shares in accordance with Section 1091 of the OGCA or, after making such demand, subsequently delivers an effective written withdrawal of such demand, or fails to establish his entitlement to appraisal rights as provided in Section 1091 of the OGCA, or (ii) if a court shall determine that such holder is not entitled to receive payment for his shares or such holder shall otherwise lose his appraisal rights, then, in any such case, each share of Company Common Stock held of record by such holder or holders shall automatically be converted into, and represent only the right to receive, the Merger Consideration as set forth in Section 3.01(c), upon surrender of the certificate or certificates representing such Dissenting Shares. The Company recognizes that Parent has a substantial and direct financial interest with respect to the ultimate satisfaction of any Dissenting Shares. Therefore, the Company agrees to promptly provide to Parent any information and copies of any documents reasonably requested by Parent relating to the appraisal rights of holders of the Company Common Stock, including any written communication by the Company to such shareholders and any written communication received by the Company from any such shareholders. In the event any shareholders exercise their appraisal rights in a manner pursuant to which their shares of Company Common Stock become Dissenting Shares, then the Company shall permit legal counsel for the Parent to participate in any legal proceedings related thereto, including any legal proceeding to determine the fair value of the Dissenting Shares. The Company shall not, except with the prior written consent of Parent, make any payment with respect to any demands for fair value for Dissenting Shares or offer to settle, settle or negotiate in respect of any such demands. Any cash paid in respect of Dissenting Shares shall be paid by the Company solely with its own funds, and the Company shall not be reimbursed therefor by Parent or any of its Subsidiaries, either directly or indirectly.

Section 3.03 Exchange of Certificates. (a) Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall select and appoint a commercial bank or trust company who shall be reasonably satisfactory to Parent to act as the paying agent (the "Paying Agent") for the payment of the Merger Consideration upon surrender of Certificates. At or prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall deposit with the Paying Agent for the benefit of the holders of shares of Company Common Stock immediately available funds in the amount of the aggregate Merger Consideration under Section 3.01(c) (such cash being hereinafter referred to as the "Exchange Fund"). The Paying Agent shall deliver the Merger Consideration contemplated to be paid pursuant to Section 3.01(c) out of the Exchange Fund.

(b) As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time (but in no event more than three Business Days after the Effective Time), Parent shall instruct the Paying Agent to mail to each holder of record of a Certificate or Certificates (i) a letter of transmittal (which shall be in customary form and specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon delivery of the Certificates to the Paying Agent (or affidavit of loss in lieu thereof in accordance with Section 3.08)) and (ii) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates in exchange for Merger Consideration. Upon surrender of a Certificate (or affidavit of loss in lieu thereof in accordance with Section 3.08) for cancellation to the Paying Agent or to such other agent or agents as may be appointed by Parent, together with such letter of transmittal, duly executed, and such other documents as may reasonably be required by the Paying Agent, the holder of such Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor the Merger Consideration into which the shares of Company Common Stock theretofore represented by such Certificate shall have been converted pursuant to Section 3.01(c), and the Certificate so surrendered shall forthwith be canceled. In the event of a transfer of ownership of Company Common Stock which is not registered in the transfer records of the Company, payment may be made to a Person other than the Person in whose name the Certificate so surrendered is registered, if such Certificate shall be properly endorsed or otherwise be in proper form for transfer and the Person requesting such payment shall (A) pay any transfer or other Taxes required by reason of the payment to a Person other than the registered holder of such Certificate or (B) establish to the reasonable satisfaction of the Surviving Corporation that such Tax has been paid or is otherwise not applicable. Except as otherwise provided with respect to unpaid dividends and other distributions in Section 3.04, until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 3.03, each Certificate (other than Certificates representing Dissenting Shares) shall be deemed at any time after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive upon such surrender the Merger Consideration, without interest, as provided in this Agreement. No interest shall be paid or shall accrue on any Merger Consideration payable upon the surrender of any Certificate.

Section 3.04 No Further Ownership Rights in Company Common Stock. The Merger Consideration paid in accordance with the terms of this Article III upon conversion of any shares of Company Common Stock shall be deemed to have been paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to such shares, subject, however, to the Surviving Corporation's obligation to pay any dividends or make any other distributions with a record date prior to the Effective Time that may have been declared or made by the Company on such shares of Company Common Stock in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and which remain unpaid at the Effective Time. After the Effective Time, there shall be no further registration of transfers on the stock transfer books of the Surviving Corporation of shares of Company Common Stock that were outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, any Certificates formerly representing shares of Company Common Stock are presented to the Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent for any reason, they shall be canceled and exchanged as provided in this Article III. No dividends or other distributions with respect to capital stock of the Surviving Corporation with a record date on or after the Effective Time shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificates.

Section 3.05 Termination of Exchange Fund. Any portion of the Exchange Fund that remains undistributed to the holders of shares of Company Common Stock six (6) months after the Effective Time shall be delivered to the Surviving Corporation and any holder of shares of Company Common Stock who has not theretofore complied with this Article III shall thereafter look only to Parent and the Surviving Corporation for payment of its claim for Merger Consideration.

Section 3.06 No Liability. None of Parent, Merger Sub, the Company, the Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent shall be liable to any Person in respect of any cash from the Exchange Fund delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheatment or similar applicable Law.

Section 3.07 Investment of Exchange Fund. The Paying Agent shall invest any cash included in the Exchange Fund, as directed by Parent, on a daily basis; provided that: (a) such investments shall only be in obligations of or guaranteed by the United States of America, in commercial paper obligations rated A-1 or P-1 or better by Moody's Investors Service, Inc. or Standard & Poor's Corporation, respectively, or in certificates of deposit, bank repurchase agreements or banker's acceptances of commercial banks with capital exceeding $1 billion (it being understood that any and all interest or income earned on funds made available to the Paying Agent pursuant to this Agreement shall be turned over to Parent); (b) no such investment shall relieve Parent or the Paying Agent from making the payments required by this Agreement, and following any losses Parent shall promptly provide additional funds to the Paying Agent for the benefit of the holders of shares of Company Common Stock in the amount of such losses; and (c) no such investment shall have maturities that could prevent or delay payments to be made pursuant to this Agreement.

Section 3.08 Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. In the event any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed, Parent shall pay or cause to be paid in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the Merger Consideration deliverable in respect thereof as determined in accordance with Section 3.01(c) for the shares of Company Common Stock formerly represented thereby. When authorizing such payment of Merger Consideration in exchange therefor, Parent may, in its discretion thereof, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate to make a reasonable undertaking to indemnify Parent or the Surviving Corporation against any claim that may be made against Parent or the Surviving Corporation with respect to the Certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, including the posting by such Person of a bond.

Section 3.09 Adjustment to Prevent Dilution. In the event that prior to the Effective Time there is a change in the number of shares of Company Common Stock or securities convertible or exchangeable into or exercisable for shares of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding as a result of a distribution, reclassification, stock split (including a reverse stock split), stock dividend or distribution, recapitalization, merger, subdivision, issuer tender or exchange offer or other similar transaction, the Merger Consideration shall be equitably adjusted to eliminate the effects of such event.

Section 3.10 Withholding. Parent, the Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of shares of Company Common Stock or Company Stock Options, amounts as Parent, the Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent are required to deduct and withhold under the Code or any provision of state, local or foreign Applicable Tax Law with respect to the making of such payment. To the extent that amounts are so withheld by Parent, the Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of shares of Company Capital Stock or Company Stock Options, as the case may be, in respect of whom such deduction and withholding was made by Parent, the Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent.

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE COMPANY

Except as set forth in (i) any Filed Company SEC Document (excluding any disclosures set forth in any risk factor section or in any forward looking statements (whether or not specifically identified as such), including future operating results) (provided that this clause (i) shall not apply to Section 4.03) or (ii) in the Company Disclosure Schedule (it being understood that an item disclosed in one Section of the Company Disclosure Schedule shall be deemed to be disclosed with respect to the Section of this Agreement that has the same number as such Section of the Company Disclosure Schedule and any other Section of this Agreement where the relevance of such item is reasonably apparent), the Company represents and warrants to Parent and Merger Sub as follows:

The Company and each Company Subsidiary is duly qualified to do business in each jurisdiction in which the nature of its business or its ownership of its properties make such qualification necessary, except in such jurisdictions where the failure to be so qualified would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be likely to result in a Company Material Adverse Effect. True and complete copies of the Company Charter and the Company Bylaws as in effect immediately prior to the date hereof have been made available to Parent.

Section 4.02 Company Subsidiaries. The Persons listed in Section 1.01 of the Company Disclosure Schedule are the only Subsidiaries of the Company. At the close of business on January 27, 2011, (i) 9,764,194 shares of Company Common Stock, no shares of Company Preferred Stock and no shares of Company Special Preferred Stock were issued and outstanding, (ii) 4,852,179 shares of Company Common Stock were held by the Company in its treasury or by a Company Subsidiary, (iii) 2,000,000 shares of Company Common Stock were reserved for issuance under the Company Option Plan (of which 36,300 shares of Company Common Stock were subject to outstanding Company Stock Options) and (iv) 203,086.861 shares of Company Common Stock were held by the trustee pursuant to the Pre-Paid Legal Services, Inc. Employee Stock Ownership and Thrift Plan. Except as set forth above, as of the date hereof, no shares of capital stock or other voting securities of the Company are issued, reserved for issuance or outstanding. All outstanding shares of Company Capital Stock have been duly authorized and validly issued and are fully paid and nonassessable and not subject to or issued in violation of any purchase option, call option, right of first refusal, preemptive right, subscription right or any similar right under any provision of the OGCA, the Company Charter, the Company Bylaws or any Contract to which the Company is a party or by which the Company is otherwise bound. The Company has made available to Parent a true and complete list, as of January 27, 2011, of all outstanding Company Stock Options or other rights to purchase or receive shares of Company Common Stock granted under the Company Option Plan or otherwise by the Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries, the number of shares of Company Common Stock subject thereto and the expiration dates, vesting schedules and exercise prices thereof. There is no Voting Company Debt issued or outstanding and the only rights outstanding under the Company Option Plan are Company Stock Options. Other than as contemplated by this Agreement and except for the Company Stock Options, there are no (A) options, warrants, rights, convertible or exchangeable securities, "phantom" stock rights, stock appreciation rights, stock-based performance units, commitments, Contracts, arrangements or undertakings of any kind to which the Company or any Company Subsidiary is a party or by which any of them is bound (x) obligating the Company or any Company Subsidiary to issue, deliver or sell, or cause to be issued, delivered or sold, additional shares of capital stock or other equity interests in, or any security convertible or exercisable for or exchangeable into any capital stock of or other equity interest in, the Company or any Company Subsidiary or any Voting Company Debt, (y) obligating the Company or any Company Subsidiary to issue, grant, extend or enter into any such option, warrant, call, right, security, commitment, Contract, arrangement or undertaking or (z) that give any Person the right to receive any economic benefit or right similar to or derived from the economic benefits and rights accruing to holders of shares of Company Capital Stock, (B) outstanding contractual obligations of the Company or any Company Subsidiary to repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any shares of capital stock of the Company or any Company Subsidiary (other than open market purchases under the Employee Stock Ownership and Thrift Plan and the Associate Investment Club Stock Purchase Plan) or (C) voting trusts or other agreements or understandings to which the Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries is a party with respect to the voting or transfer of capital stock of the Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries.

Section 4.04 Authorization; Validity of Agreement; Necessary Action. (a) The Company has all requisite corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement. The execution, delivery and performance by the Company of this Agreement and the consummation by the Company of the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Merger, have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of the Company other than the receipt of the affirmative vote by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock to adopt this Agreement (the "Company Shareholder Approval"), and except for the Company Shareholder Approval in the case of the Merger, no other corporate action on the part of the Company is necessary to authorize the consummation of the Merger. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Company and constitutes (assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery by Parent and Merger Sub) the valid and binding obligation of the Company enforceable against the Company in accordance with its terms, except to the extent that enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium or other similar Laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and subject to general principles of equity.

(b) The Company Board, acting upon the recommendation of the Special Committee, at a meeting duly called and held prior to execution of this Agreement, has unanimously: (i) approved and declared advisable this Agreement and the Merger; (ii) determined that this Agreement and the Merger are fair to and in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders; (iii) resolved to recommend that the holders of shares of Company Common Stock adopt this Agreement (the "Company Recommendation"); and (iv) directed that this Agreement be submitted to the holders of the Company Common Stock for their adoption at a meeting duly called and held for such purpose.

(c) Assuming the accuracy of the representations and warranties contained in Section 5.06, the only vote of holders of any class or series of Company Capital Stock necessary to approve or adopt this Agreement or to consummate the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement is the Company Shareholder Approval.

Section 4.05 No Conflicts; Consents. The execution and delivery by the Company of this Agreement does not, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Merger, and compliance with the terms hereof will not, conflict with, or require any consent or approval under, or result in any breach of or any loss of any benefit under, or result in any violation of or default (with or without notice or lapse of time, or both) under, or give rise to a right of termination, cancellation or acceleration of any obligation or to loss of a material benefit under, or to increased, additional, accelerated or guaranteed rights or entitlements of any Person under, or result in the creation of any Lien (other than Permitted Liens) upon any of the properties or assets of the Company or any Company Subsidiary under, any provision of (a) the Company Charter, the Company Bylaws or the comparable charter, bylaws or organizational documents of any Company Subsidiary, (b) any Material Contract or (c) subject to the filings and other matters referred to in the following sentence, any provision of any Order or Law applicable to the Company or any Company Subsidiary or their respective properties or assets, other than, in the cases of clauses (b) or (c) above, any such items that would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be likely to result in a Company Material Adverse Effect. No Consent of, from or with any Governmental Entity is required to be obtained or made by or with respect to the Company or any Company Subsidiary in connection with the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Merger, other than (i) compliance with and filings under the HSR Act and any required Foreign Competition Law filings, (ii) the filing with the SEC of such reports under Section 13 or Section 14 of the Exchange Act as may be required in connection with this Agreement and the Merger, (iii) the filing of the Certificate of Merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Oklahoma and appropriate documents with the relevant authorities of the other jurisdictions in which the Company is qualified to do business, (iv) such other Consents as are set forth in Section 4.05 of the Company Disclosure Schedule and (v) such other Consents that would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be likely to result in a Company Material Adverse Effect.

As of its respective date, each Company SEC Document (including any financial statements or schedules included therein) complied in all material respects with the applicable requirements of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act, as the case may be, and the rules and regulations of the SEC promulgated thereunder applicable to such Company SEC Documents, and did not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. (d) The Company and the Company Subsidiaries have no liabilities, whether accrued, absolute, contingent or otherwise that would be required to be disclosed on a balance sheet prepared in accordance with GAAP, except liabilities (i) stated or reserved against in the Financial Statements, (ii) incurred in the ordinary course of business since December 31, 2009 or in connection with this Agreement or the Merger or in connection with the exploration of strategic alternatives announced by the Company on October 25, 2010 (including fees and expenses of advisors of the Company or the Special Committee), none of which would, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be likely to result in a Company Material Adverse Effect, (iii) under any Contract to which the Company or any Company Subsidiary is a party or by which any of them or their respective assets or properties are bound or (iv) that would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be likely to result in a Company Material Adverse Effect. There are no unconsolidated Subsidiaries of the Company or any off-balance sheet arrangements of any type (including any off-balance sheet arrangement required to be disclosed pursuant to Item 303(a)(4) of Regulation S-K promulgated under the Securities Act) that have not been so described in the Company SEC Documents nor any obligations to enter into any such arrangements. (f) The consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement alone, or in combination with any other event (where such event would not alone have an effect described in this sentence), will not give rise to any liability under any Company Plan, including liability for severance pay, unemployment compensation, termination pay or withdrawal liability, or accelerate the time of payment or vesting or increase the amount of compensation or benefits due to any employee, officer, director, or other service provider of the Company or the Company Subsidiaries (whether current, former or retired) or their beneficiaries.

As of the date of this Agreement, no event has occurred which, with or without notice, lapse of time or both, would constitute a default or breach on the part of Parent or Merger Sub or, to the Knowledge of Parent, any other party thereto under any term or condition of the Financing Commitments; provided that Parent is not making any representation or warranty regarding the effect of any inaccuracy of the representations and warranties in Article IV. There are no conditions precedent or other contingencies related to the funding of the full amount of the Financing other than as expressly set forth in the Financing Commitments. Parent has fully paid, or will fully pay when due, any and all commitment and other fees required to be paid in connection with the Financing Commitments. Assuming (i) the accuracy of Section 4.03 (except to a de minimis extent), (ii) the accuracy of all other representations and warranties set forth in Article IV in all material respects and (iii) the performance by the Company in all material respects of its obligations under Section 6.01, and that the Financing Commitments are fully funded, including the funding in full of the term loan in the amount of $410,000,000 under the Debt Financing, the net proceeds of the Financing, together with the unrestricted cash or cash equivalents available to the Company, will be sufficient for the Parent and Merger Sub to pay the aggregate Merger Consideration and to pay all of the fees and expenses relating to the consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby. As of the date of this Agreement, Parent has no reason to believe that it will be unable to satisfy on a timely basis any term or condition of closing to be satisfied by it contained in the Financing Commitments; provided that Parent is not making any representation regarding the accuracy of the representations and warranties set forth in Article IV, or compliance by the Company of its obligations hereunder.

Section 5.06 Ownership of Company Common Stock; Section 1090.3 of the OGCA. As of the date of this Agreement, neither Parent nor Merger Sub or any of their respective Subsidiaries or Affiliates owns, of record or beneficially, or is party to any agreement, arrangement or understanding for the purpose of acquiring, holding, borrowing, voting or disposing of, directly or indirectly, shares of Company Common Stock. Neither Parent nor Merger Sub is, and at no time during the last three years has been, an "interested shareholder" of the Company as defined in Section 1090.3 of the OGCA.

Section 5.07 Information Supplied. None of the information supplied or to be supplied by Parent or Merger Sub for inclusion or incorporation by reference in the Proxy Statement will, on the date it is first mailed to the Company's shareholders or at the time of the Company Shareholders Meeting, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, except that no representation is made by Parent or Merger Sub with respect to statements made in or omitted from the Proxy Statement relating to the Company or its Affiliates based on information supplied by Company for inclusion or incorporation by reference in the Proxy Statement.

Section 5.08 Brokers. No broker, investment banker, financial advisor or other Person, the fees and expenses of which will be paid by Parent, is entitled to any broker's, finder's, financial advisor's or other similar fee or commission in connection with the Merger based upon arrangements made by or on behalf of Parent or Merger Sub.

Section 5.09 Litigation. Except for such Orders or Proceedings that would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be likely to result in a Parent Material Adverse Effect, there are (a) no continuing Orders to which Parent or any of its Subsidiaries is a party or by which any of their respective properties or assets are bound, and (b) no Proceedings pending and for which service of process has been made against Parent or any Subsidiary of Parent or, to the Knowledge of Parent, threatened or pending against Parent or any Subsidiary of Parent.

Section 5.10 Interests in Competitors. Neither Parent nor Merger Sub owns any interest(s), nor do any of their respective Affiliates insofar as such Affiliate-owned interests would be attributed to Parent or Merger Sub under the HSR Act or any Foreign Competition Law, in any Person that derives a substantial portion of its revenues from a line of business within the principal lines of business of the Company or any Company Subsidiary.

Section 5.11 WARN Act. Neither Parent nor Merger Sub is planning or contemplating, and neither of Parent nor Merger Sub has made or taken, any decisions or actions concerning employees of the Company and the Company Subsidiaries after the Closing that would require the service of notice under The Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act or similar Laws.

Section 5.12 Guarantee. Concurrently with the execution of this Agreement, the Guarantors have delivered to the Company the duly executed Guarantee. The Guarantee is in full force and effect and is a valid, binding and enforceable obligation of each of the Guarantors and no event has occurred, that, with or without notice, lapse of time or both, would constitute a default on the part of any of the Guarantors under the Guarantee.

Section 5.13 Management Agreements. Except as set forth on Section 5.13 of the Parent Disclosure Schedule, there are no contracts, undertakings, commitments, agreements or obligations or understandings between Parent or Merger Sub or any of their Affiliates, on the one hand, and any member of the Company's management or the Company Board, on the other hand, relating to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the operations of the Surviving Corporation after the Effective Time.

Section 5.14 Solvency. Neither Parent nor Merger Sub is entering into the Merger with the intent to hinder, delay or defraud either present or future creditors of Parent, Merger Sub, the Company or the Surviving Corporation. To the Knowledge of the Parent, based on information available to the Parent as of the date of this Agreement, immediately after giving affect to the Merger, including the Financing, and the payment of the aggregate Merger Consideration and any other repayment or financing of debt that may be contemplated in the Debt Financing Commitment, assuming (a) satisfaction of the conditions to Parent's and Merger Sub's obligation to consummate the Merger as set forth herein and (b) any estimates, projections or forecasts of the Company and the Company Subsidiaries provided to Parent and Merger Sub have been prepared in good faith based upon assumptions that were and continue to be reasonable as of the Closing, the Surviving Corporation (i) as of such date will be able to pay its existing debts, together with any other debts it intends to incur as of or after the Closing, as they become due and shall own as of such date property having a fair saleable value greater than the amount of its debts; and (ii) shall not have, as of such date, unreasonably small capital to carry on its business.

The Company shall keep Parent reasonably informed on a current basis (and in any event within 24 hours of the occurrence of any material changes, developments, discussions or negotiations) of the status of any such Alternative Transaction Proposal (including the material terms and conditions thereof and any material modification thereto), and any material developments, discussions and negotiations, including furnishing copies of any written inquiries, correspondence and draft documentation.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 6.02, if the Company has otherwise complied with its obligations under this Section 6.02, but only prior to the receipt of the Company Shareholder Approval, in the event that the Company receives an unsolicited, bona fide Alternative Transaction Proposal from any Person, the Company may, subject to compliance with this Section 6.02(c) (i) furnish or provide access to information or data to the Person making such Alternative Transaction Proposal with respect to the Company or the Company Subsidiaries; provided that the Company has received from the Person so requesting the information an executed Acceptable Confidentiality Agreement (it being understood that the Company shall promptly make available to Parent and Merger Sub any written material non-public information concerning the Company or the Company Subsidiaries that is provided to any Person pursuant to this Section 6.02(c)(i) to the extent such information was not previously made available to Parent or Merger Sub) and (ii) engage in or otherwise participate in any discussions or negotiations with such Person and its Representatives with respect to such Alternative Transaction Proposal; provided, that prior to taking any action described in Section 6.02(c)(i) or Section 6.02(c)(ii) above, (x) the Company Board or the Special Committee shall have determined in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel, that failure to take such action would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable Laws, and (y) the Company Board or the Special Committee shall have determined in good faith, based on the information then available and after consultation with its independent financial advisor and outside legal counsel, that such Alternative Transaction Proposal could reasonably be expected to lead to a Superior Proposal.

(d) Except as set forth in Section 6.02(e) or Section 6.02(f), neither the Company Board nor the Special Committee shall (i) change, withhold, withdraw, qualify or modify, or publicly propose to change, withhold, withdraw, qualify or modify, in a manner adverse to Parent or Merger Sub, the Company Recommendation, (ii) fail to make or fail to include the Company Recommendation in the Proxy Statement, (iii) make any recommendation or public statement in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer that affirmatively supports such offer or (iv) adopt, approve or recommend, or publicly propose to adopt, approve or recommend to the shareholders, any Alternative Transaction Proposal (any action described in clauses (i) through (iv), a “Company Adverse Recommendation Change”), or (v) cause or permit the Company or any Company Subsidiary to enter into any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, acquisition agreement, merger agreement or similar agreement (other than any Acceptable Confidentiality Agreement entered into in accordance herewith) (an “Alternative Transaction Agreement”) relating to any Alternative Transaction Proposal.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, at any time prior to obtaining the Company Shareholder Approval, if the Company Board or the Special Committee determines, in good faith, that a bona fide Alternative Transaction Proposal that did not result from a breach of this Section 6.02 is a Superior Proposal (to the extent that such Alternative Transaction Proposal has not been withdrawn), the Company Board or the Special Committee may, in response to a Superior Proposal, effect a Company Adverse Recommendation Change with respect to such Superior Proposal or authorize the Company to terminate this Agreement to enter into an Alternative Transaction Agreement with respect to such Superior Proposal, only if:

(i) the Company Board or the Special Committee determines in good faith, after consultation with an independent financial advisor and outside legal counsel, that failure to do so would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable Laws;

(ii) [Reserved];

(iii) (A) the Company shall have provided prior written notice to Parent at least three (3) Business Days in advance (the "Notice Period"), to the effect that the Company Board or the Special Committee has resolved to effect a Company Adverse Recommendation Change and/or to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 6.02(e), which notice shall specify the identity of the party making the Superior Proposal, the material terms thereof and unredacted copies of the relevant material transaction documents relating to such Superior Proposal (including debt and equity commitment letters and guarantees); and (B) prior to effecting such Company Adverse Recommendation Change or termination, the Company shall, and shall cause its financial and legal advisors to, during the Notice Period, negotiate with Parent and its Representatives in good faith (to the extent Parent desires to negotiate) to make such adjustments to the terms and conditions of this Agreement so that such Alternative Transaction Proposal would cease to constitute a Superior Proposal; provided, that in the event of any material revisions to the Alternative Transaction Proposal that the Company Board or the Special Committee has determined to be a Superior Proposal, the Company shall be required to deliver a new written notice to Parent and to comply with the requirements of this Section 6.02(e)(iii) with respect to such new written notice (it being understood and agreed that (x) in such event the Notice Period shall be two (2) Business Days and (y) in no event shall any such additional two-Business-Day Notice Period be deemed to shorten the initial three-Business-Day Notice Period); and

(iv) if the Company Board or the Special Committee authorizes terminating this Agreement or entering into an Alternative Transaction Agreement with respect to a Superior Proposal, the Company shall have validly terminated this Agreement in accordance with Section 9.01(d)(i), including the payment of the Company Termination Fee in accordance with Section 9.02(b).

(f) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, prior to the time the Company Shareholder Approval is obtained, but not after, the Company Board or the Special Committee may withhold, withdraw, qualify or modify, or publicly propose to withhold, withdraw, qualify or modify, in a manner adverse to Parent, the Company Recommendation in response to an Intervening Event (“Change of Recommendation”) if the Company Board or the Special Committee has determined in good faith, after consultation with independent financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that failure to take such action would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable Law; provided, however, that prior to taking such action, (x) the Company Board or the Special Committee has given Parent at least three (3) Business Days’ prior written notice of its intention to take such action and a description of the Intervening Event, (y) the Company has negotiated, and has caused its financial and legal advisors to negotiate, in good faith with Parent during such notice period to the extent Parent desires to negotiate, to enable Parent to revise the terms of this Agreement, in such a manner as would obviate the need for taking such action as a result of an Intervening Event and (z) following the end of such notice period, the Company Board or the Special Committee shall have considered in good faith any changes to this Agreement, proposed in writing by Parent, and shall have determined in good faith, after consultation with independent financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that failure to effect a Change of Recommendation in response to an Intervening Event still would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable Law.

(g) No Company Adverse Recommendation Change or Change of Recommendation shall change the approval of the Company Board for purposes of causing any Takeover Statute to be inapplicable to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(h) Nothing contained in this Section 6.02 shall prohibit the Company from taking and disclosing to its shareholders with regard to an Alternative Transaction Proposal a position contemplated by Rule 14d-9 or Rule 14e-2(a) promulgated under the Exchange Act or from making any required disclosure to the Company’s shareholders if, in the good faith judgment of each of the Company Board and the Special Committee, failure to so disclose would be inconsistent with their obligations under applicable Law; provided that the Company Board and the Company shall not recommend that the shareholders of the Company tender their shares in connection with any tender offer or exchange offer (or otherwise approve or recommend any Takeover Proposal) unless the requirements of Section 6.2(e) and Section 6.2(f) shall have been satisfied.

(i) For purposes of this Agreement:

(i) “Alternative Transaction Proposal” means any inquiry, offer or proposal relating to (i) the acquisition of twenty (20) percent or more of the Equity Interests in the Company (by vote or by value) by any Third Party, (ii) any merger, consolidation, business combination, reorganization, share exchange, sale of assets, recapitalization, equity investment, joint venture, liquidation, dissolution or other transaction which would result in any Third Party acquiring assets (including capital stock of or interest in any Subsidiary of the Company) representing, directly or indirectly, twenty (20) percent or more of the net revenues, net income or total assets of the Company and the Company Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, (iii) any merger, consolidation, business combination, binding share exchange or similar transaction involving the Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries pursuant to which any person or group (or the shareholders of any person) would own, directly or indirectly, twenty (20) percent or more of the aggregate voting power of the Company or of the surviving entity in a merger or the resulting direct or indirect parent of the Company or such surviving entity or (iv) any tender offer or exchange offer, as such terms are defined under the Exchange Act, that, if consummated, would result in any Third Party beneficially owning twenty (20) percent or more of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock and any other voting securities of the Company, in each case, other than the Merger and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(ii) "Superior Proposal" means any bona fide written Alternative Transaction Proposal that is not solicited or received in violation of Section 6.02 that the Special Committee or Company Board has determined in its good faith judgment, after consultation with its financial advisor and outside legal counsel, is reasonably likely to be consummated in accordance with its terms, taking into account all legal, regulatory and financial aspects of the proposal and the Person making the proposal, and if consummated, would result in a transaction more favorable to the Company's shareholders than the transaction contemplated by this Agreement (including any changes to the terms of this Agreement proposed by Parent to the Company in writing in response to such proposal or otherwise); provided, that for purposes of the definition of "Superior Proposal", the references to "twenty (20) percent" in the definition of Alternative Transaction Proposal shall be deemed to be references to "fifty (50) percent."

In no event shall the Company or any Company Subsidiary be required pursuant to this Section 7.03 to conduct or allow to be conducted any invasive testing of soil, groundwater or building components at any property of the Company or any Company Subsidiary. All information exchanged pursuant to this Section 7.03 shall be subject to the Confidentiality Agreement, and the Confidentiality Agreement shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms.

Section 7.04 Reasonable Best Efforts; Notification. (a) Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, except as may be otherwise permitted by this Agreement, and except for the undertaking of Parent to obtain financing pursuant to the Financing Commitments, which shall be governed solely by Section 7.18, except as may be otherwise permitted by this Agreement, each of the parties hereto shall use its respective reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, and to assist and cooperate with the other parties in doing, all things necessary, proper or advisable to consummate and make effective, in the most expeditious manner practicable, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby and to cause the conditions to the Merger set forth in Article VIII to be satisfied as promptly as practicable, including (i) obtaining all necessary Consents from Governmental Entities and the making of all necessary registrations and filings and the taking of all steps as may be necessary to obtain any necessary Consent from, or to avoid an action or Proceeding by, any Governmental Entity (including under the HSR Act or any Foreign Competition Law), (ii) obtaining all Consents necessary or advisable to be obtained from Third Parties in order to consummate the Merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (iii) defending any Proceedings challenging this Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby (including seeking to avoid the entry of, or to have reversed, terminated or vacated, any Order entered by any Governmental Entity), and (iv) executing and delivering any additional instruments necessary to consummate the Merger and other transactions contemplated hereby and to fully carry out the purposes of this Agreement; provided, however, all obligations hereunder of the Company, Parent and Merger Sub relating to the Financing shall not be governed by this Section 7.04. To the extent not prohibited by applicable Law, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, each of Parent and the Company shall keep the other reasonably apprised of the status of matters relating to the completion of the transactions contemplated hereby and shall work cooperatively with the other in connection with obtaining all required Consents of any Governmental Entity, including (A) promptly notifying the other of, and, if in writing, furnishing the other with copies of (or, in the case of material oral communications, advising the other orally of) any communications from or with any Governmental Entity with respect to the Merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (B) permitting the other to review and discuss in advance, and considering in good faith the views of the other in connection with, any proposed written (or any material proposed oral) communication with any such Governmental Entity, (C) not participating in any meeting with any such Governmental Entity unless it notifies the other in advance and, to the extent permitted by such Governmental Entity, gives the other the opportunity to attend and participate thereat, (D) furnishing the other with copies of all correspondence, filings and communications (and memoranda setting forth the substance thereof) between it and any such Governmental Entity with respect to this Agreement and the Merger, and (E) cooperating with the other to furnish the other party with such necessary information and reasonable assistance as the other party may reasonably request in connection with the parties' mutual cooperation in preparing any necessary filings or submissions of information to any such Governmental Entity.

(b) Without limiting the generality of the provisions of Section 7.04(a), the Company and Parent shall make all filings and submissions required by all applicable Laws, including the HSR Act and all applicable state, federal and non-U.S. insurance Laws, and promptly file any additional information requested as soon as reasonably practicable after receipt of such request therefor. Parent shall file with all applicable Governmental Entities all filings required to be made under the Laws governing the insurance businesses of Parent and the Company and their respective Subsidiaries in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement as promptly as practicable hereafter, including an application with the Commissioner of the Oklahoma Insurance Department for approval of the acquisition of Pre-Paid Legal Casualty, Inc. of in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby pursuant to the Oklahoma Insurance Law (the "Oklahoma Form A") and an application with the Commissioner of the Florida Office of Insurance Regulation for approval of the acquisition of Pre-Paid Legal Services, Inc. of Florida in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby pursuant to the Florida Insurance Law (the "Florida Application"). Parent will submit or cause to be submitted (i)(A) a complete Oklahoma Form A on or prior to February 22, 2011, (B) the notification required pursuant to Section 628.4615(2)(a) of the Florida Insurance Law in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby within five days of the execution of this Agreement, (C) a complete Florida Application on or prior to February 22, 2011, (D) all other required pre-acquisition notification statements (Form Es and equivalent forms) under the insurance holding company Laws of applicable states and non-U.S. jurisdictions, including those set forth in Section 7.04(b) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, in each case, on or prior to February 22, 2011 and (E) all required notifications under the HSR Act or any Foreign Competition Law within ten (10) Business Days of the execution of this Agreement and (ii) Parent shall have responsibility for and pay the filing fees associated with all such filings.

(c) In the event any Proceeding by any Governmental Entity or other Person is commenced that challenges the validity or legality of this Agreement or the Merger or seeks damages in connection therewith, except as otherwise permitted by this Agreement or necessary to avoid violation of applicable Law, the parties hereto agree to cooperate and use their reasonable best efforts to defend against and respond thereto, in accordance with Section 7.04(a). The Company shall be entitled to control the defense and settlement of any such Proceeding but shall provide Parent reasonable opportunity to participate at its expense in the defense or settlement thereof.

Section 7.05 Company Stock Options. (a) At the Option Cancellation Time, each Company Stock Option then outstanding (whether vested or unvested), shall be canceled and, in consideration of such cancellation, Parent shall as promptly as reasonably practicable, but in no event more than ten (10) Business Days after the Option Cancellation Time, pay or cause to be paid to the holder as soon as practicable following the Option Cancellation Time, in full satisfaction of such Company Stock Option, an amount in cash equal to the product of (i) the excess of (if any) (A) the Merger Consideration over (B) the per share exercise price with respect to such Company Stock Option, and (ii) the number of shares of Company Common Stock subject to such outstanding Company Stock Option, as the case may be, less any applicable withholding taxes; provided that if the per share exercise price of any such Company Stock Option is equal to or greater than the Merger Consideration, such Company Stock Option shall be canceled without any cash payment being made in respect thereof.

(b) Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, the Company shall (i) take all actions necessary to cause the actions and effects specified in Section 7.05(a) to occur, (ii) take all actions necessary to ensure that, effective as of the Option Cancellation Time, no holder of shares of Company Stock Options will have any right to receive any shares of capital stock of the Company or, if applicable, the Surviving Corporation, upon exercise or settlement of any Company Stock Option or any other event and (iii) cooperate with all reasonable requests of Parent to ensure the effective application of Section 7.05(a) without limitation.

Section 7.06 Indemnification. (a) From and after the Effective Time, each of Parent and the Surviving Corporation shall, jointly and severally, indemnify, defend and hold harmless (i) each present and former director and officer of the Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries, (ii) to the extent not covered by the foregoing clause (i), those individuals identified in clause (i) of the definition of "Knowledge" and (iii) each person who served at the request of the Company or any Company Subsidiary as a director or officer of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise (collectively, the "Indemnified Parties") against any costs or expenses (including fees and expenses of counsel), judgments, fines, penalties, interest, losses, claims, damages or liabilities and amounts paid in settlement (collectively, "Losses") incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of or pertaining to matters existing or occurring at or prior to the Effective Time relating to the Indemnified Party's service with or at the request of the Company, whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the Effective Time to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by any Indemnified Party in defending any civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by Parent or the Surviving Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding, subject to (if legally required) receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such Indemnified Party to repay such amounts to the extent it shall ultimately be determined that such Indemnified Party is not entitled to be indemnified under applicable Law. The indemnification rights hereunder are not exclusive and shall be in addition to any other rights such Indemnified Party may have under any Law or Contract or any organizational documents of any Person, under the OGCA or otherwise. The certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the Surviving Corporation shall contain, and Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation to fulfill and honor, provisions with respect to indemnification, advancement of expenses and exculpation that are at least as favorable to the Indemnified Parties as those set forth in the Company Charter and Company Bylaws as of the date of this Agreement, and those provisions shall not be amended, repealed or otherwise modified for a period of six (6) years from the Effective Time in any manner that would adversely affect the rights thereunder of any of the Indemnified Parties. The parties agree that the provisions relating to exoneration of directors and officers and the rights to indemnification and advancement of expenses incurred in defense of any action or suit in the Company Charter or Company Bylaws and the comparable organizational documents of the Company Subsidiaries with respect to matters occurring through the Effective Time shall survive the Merger and shall continue in full force and effect for a period of six years from the Effective Time; provided that all rights to indemnification and advancements in respect of any action, suit or proceeding pending or asserted or claim made within such period shall continue until the disposition of such action, suit or proceeding or resolution of such claim.

(b) If Parent, the Surviving Corporation or any of their respective successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other Person and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger or (ii) transfers or conveys all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any Person, then, and in each such case, to the extent necessary, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of Parent or Surviving Corporation, as the case may be, shall assume the obligations set forth in this Section 7.06.

(c) Parent and the Surviving Corporation shall be jointly and severally liable for and, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, shall pay (within 10 days of receiving a reasonably detailed invoice therefor) all expenses (including reasonable fees and expenses of counsel) that an Indemnified Party may incur in enforcing the indemnity and other rights and obligations provided for in this Section 7.06.

(d) The provisions of this Section 7.06 are (i) intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each of the Indemnified Parties, their heirs and their representatives and (ii) in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other rights to indemnification, advancement of expenses or contribution that any such Person may have by contract or otherwise. No release executed by any Indemnified Party in connection with his or her departure from the Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries shall be deemed to be a release or waiver of any of the indemnity or other rights provided such Indemnified Party in this Section 7.06, unless the release or waiver of the provisions of this Section 7.06 is expressly provided for in such release.

Section 7.07 Public Announcements.

(a) The initial press release regarding the Merger shall be a joint press release by the Company and Parent and thereafter, except with respect to any action pursuant to Section 6.02, Parent and Merger Sub, on the one hand, and the Company, on the other hand, shall consult with each other before issuing, and provide each other the opportunity to review and comment upon, any press release or other public statements (including conference calls with investors and analysts) with respect to this Agreement and the Merger and shall not issue any such press release or make any such public statement prior to such consultation, except as may be required by applicable Law, by court process or by obligations pursuant to any listing agreement with any national securities exchange, in which case such party shall use all reasonable efforts to consult with the other party before issuing any such release or making any such public statement.

Section 7.08 Transfer Taxes. All Transfer Taxes, if any, and any penalties or interest with respect to the Transfer Taxes, payable in connection with the consummation of the Merger, and all Stock Transfer Taxes, if any, and any penalties or interest with respect to any such Stock Transfer Taxes shall be paid by either Merger Sub or the Surviving Corporation, and shall not be paid out of the aggregate Merger Consideration.

Section 7.09 Employee Matters. (a) With respect to employee benefit plans, programs, policies and arrangements that are established or maintained by Parent or its Affiliates (including the Company and the Company Subsidiaries) for the benefit of each person who is employed by the Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries as of the Closing Date (the “CompanyEmployees”) and, to the extent applicable, any former employees of the Company and the Company Subsidiaries (“Former Company Employees”) (and their eligible dependents), Company Employees and Former Company Employees (and their eligible dependents) shall be given credit for their service with the Company and the Company Subsidiaries (i) for purposes of eligibility to participate, vesting and level of benefits under vacation and severance plans (but not benefit accrual for any purpose, including under a defined benefit pension plan) to the extent such service was taken into account under a corresponding Company Plan and (ii) for purposes of satisfying any waiting periods, evidence of insurability requirements, or the application of any pre-existing condition limitations, and shall be given credit for amounts paid under a corresponding Company Plan during the plan year in which the Closing Date occurs for purposes of applying deductibles, copayments and out-of-pocket maximums for such plan year as though such amounts had been paid in accordance with the terms and conditions of the plans, programs, policies and arrangements maintained by Parent. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 7.09(a), service and other amounts shall not be credited to Company Employees or Former Company Employees (or their eligible dependents) to the extent the crediting of such service or other amounts would result in the duplication of benefits.

(b) As of the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall assume and agree to perform in accordance with their terms (i) all employment, severance, bonus, incentive and other compensation agreements and arrangements existing as of the date hereof between the Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries and any director, officer or employee thereof and (ii) any such agreements or arrangements entered into after the date hereof and prior to the Effective Time by the Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries in compliance with the terms of this Agreement that have been provided to Parent.

(c) Nothing contained in this Agreement, (i) shall be construed to establish, amend, or modify any benefit or compensation plan, program, agreement or arrangement, or (ii) create any third-party beneficiary rights or obligations in any Person (including any Company Employee or Former Company Employee), including with respect to (x) any right to employment or continued employment or to a particular term or condition of employment with Parent, the Company, any of the Company Subsidiaries or any of their respective Affiliates and (y) the ability of Parent or any of its Affiliates (including, following the Closing Date, the Company and the Company Subsidiaries) to amend, modify, or terminate any benefit or compensation plan, program, agreement or arrangement at any time established, sponsored or maintained by any of them; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 7.09(c) shall affect the obligations between Parent and the Company under this Agreement.

Section 7.10 Section 16(b). Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall take all actions reasonably necessary to cause the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including any dispositions of equity securities of the Company (including derivative securities) by each individual who is or will be subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act with respect to the Company, to be exempt under Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act.

Section 7.11 Financing Cooperation.

(a) Prior to the Closing, the Company shall provide to Parent and Merger Sub and their financing sources, and shall cause the Company Subsidiaries to, and shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause the respective officers, employees and advisors, including legal and accounting, of the Company and the Company Subsidiaries to, provide to Parent and Merger Sub and their financing sources all cooperation reasonably requested by Parent in connection with the arrangement of the Financing, including:

(v) furnishing Parent and its financing sources as promptly as practicable with financial and other pertinent information regarding the Company and the Company Subsidiaries as may be reasonably requested by Parent, including the audited consolidated financial statements of the Company and the Company Subsidiaries for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2010 (the "2010 Audited Financials"), and all other financial statements and projections and other pertinent information required by the Financing Commitments and all financial statements, pro forma financial information, financial data, audit reports and other information of the type required by Regulation S-X and Regulation S-K under the Securities Act and of type and form customarily included in a registration statement on Form S-1 (or any applicable successor form) under the Securities Act (subject to exceptions customary for private placements pursuant to Rule 144A promulgated under the Securities Act) for a public offering to consummate the offering(s) of debt securities, or as otherwise required by Law in connection with the Debt Financing and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (all such information in this clause (v), the "Required Financial Information");

(ix) entering into one or more credit or other agreements on terms satisfactory to Parent in connection with the Debt Financing immediately prior to the Effective Time to the extent direct borrowings or debt incurrences by the Company or any Company Subsidiary are contemplated by the Debt Financing Commitment; provided that (1) irrespective of the above, no obligation of the Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries under any certificate, document or instrument shall be effective until the Effective Time and none of the Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries shall be required to take any action under any certificate, document or instrument that is not contingent upon the Closing (including the entry into any agreement that is effective before the Effective Time) or that would be effective prior to the Effective Time, (2) such efforts do not unreasonably interfere with the ongoing operations of the Company and the Company Subsidiaries and (3) none of the Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries shall be required to issue or disseminate any offering or information document. Parent shall, promptly upon request by the Company, reimburse the Company for all out-of-pocket costs incurred by the Company or the Company Subsidiaries in connection with the performance of the provisions of this Section 7.11(a).

(b) Parent acknowledges and agrees that the Company and its Representatives shall not have any responsibility for, or incur any liability to, any Person under, any Financing that Parent or Merger Sub may raise in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any cooperation provided pursuant to this Section 7.11 and that Parent and Merger Sub shall, jointly and severally, indemnify and hold harmless the Company and its Representatives from and against any and all Losses suffered or incurred by any of them in connection with any Financing and any information utilized in connection therewith.

(c) All non-public or otherwise confidential information regarding the Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries obtained by Parent or Merger Sub or their respective Representatives pursuant to Section 7.11(a) shall be kept confidential in accordance with the Confidentiality Agreement.

Section 7.12 Obligations of Merger Sub. Parent shall take all action necessary to cause Merger Sub to perform its covenants and agreements, and comply with its obligations, under this Agreement, including consummating the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement.

Section 7.13 Parent Vote. Parent shall vote (or consent with respect to) or cause to be voted (or cause a consent to be given with respect to) any shares of Company Common Stock beneficially owned by it or any of its Subsidiaries or other Affiliates or with respect to which it or any of its Subsidiaries or other Affiliates has the power (by agreement, proxy or otherwise) to cause to be voted (or to provide a consent), in favor of the adoption of this Agreement at any meeting of shareholders of the Company at which this Agreement shall be submitted for adoption and at all adjournments or postponements thereof (or, if applicable, by any action of shareholders of the Company by consent in lieu of a meeting).

Section 7.14 Solvency Opinion Assistance. Parent will, in connection with the preparation and delivery of the solvency opinion referenced in Section 8.02(d), (a) make its officers available and will use its reasonable best efforts to make its other Representatives available on a customary basis and upon reasonable notice, (b) provide or make available such information concerning the business, properties, Contracts, assets and liabilities of Parent and its Affiliates as may reasonably be requested, and (c) pay the fees and reimbursable expenses of the firm referred to in Section 8.02(d) that are incurred in such preparation and delivery.

Section 7.15 State Takeover Statutes. Parent, the Company and their respective Boards of Directors (or with respect to the Company, the Special Committee, if appropriate) shall (i) take all reasonable action necessary to ensure that no Takeover Statute is or becomes applicable to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and (ii) if any Takeover Statute becomes applicable to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, take all reasonable action necessary to ensure that the transactions provided for in this Agreement may be consummated as promptly as practicable on the terms contemplated by this Agreement and otherwise to minimize the effect of such Takeover Statute on this Agreement or the transactions provided for in this Agreement. In furtherance of the foregoing, any Contract entered into after the execution of this Agreement between Parent or any member of the Parent Group, on the one hand, and any Third Party, on the other hand, that has the effect of causing a Takeover Statute (including Section 1090.3 of the OGCA) to be applicable to this Agreement, the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be deemed to be a breach of this Section 7.15 by Parent.

Section 7.16 Resignation of Directors. At the Closing, except as otherwise may be agreed to by Parent no later than three (3) Business Days prior to the Closing Date, the Company shall deliver to Parent the resignation of all members of the Company Board who are in office immediately prior to the Effective Time, which resignations shall be effective at the Effective Time.

Section 7.17 Transaction Litigation. From and after the date of this Agreement until the Effective Time, each of the Company and Parent shall promptly notify the other orally and in writing of any Action commenced against, such party or any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates or otherwise relating to, involving or affecting such party or any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates, in each case in connection with, arising from or otherwise relating to the Merger or any other transaction contemplated hereby (the "Transaction Litigation"). The Company and Parent shall give each other the opportunity to participate in the defense, settlement and/or prosecution of any Transaction Litigation; provided, that neither the Company nor any Company Subsidiary or Company Representative shall compromise, settle, come to an arrangement regarding or agree to compromise, settle or come to an arrangement regarding any Transaction Litigation or consent to the same unless Parent shall have consented in writing; provided, further, that after receipt of Company Shareholder Approval, the Company shall cooperate with Parent and, if requested by Parent, use its reasonable best efforts to settle any unresolved Transaction Litigation in accordance with Parent's direction; provided that any such settlement shall be conditioned on the consummation of the Merger.

Section 7.18 Financing. (a) Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable to arrange and obtain the Debt Financing on the terms and conditions described in or contemplated by the Debt Financing Commitment and shall not agree to any amendment or modification to be made to, or any waiver of any provision or remedy under, the Debt Financing Commitment without the prior written consent of the Company if such amendments, modifications or waivers would or would reasonably be expected to (w) reduce the aggregate amount of the Debt Financing below the amount required to consummate the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby, (x) impose new or additional conditions to the receipt of the Debt Financing, (y) prevent or materially delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or (z) adversely impact the ability of Parent or Merger Sub to enforce its rights against the other parties to the Financing Commitments (provided that Parent and Merger Sub may amend the Debt Financing Commitment to add lenders, lead arrangers, bookrunners, syndication agents or similar entities who had not executed the Debt Financing Commitment as of the date of this Agreement so long as such action would not reasonably be expected to delay or prevent the Closing), including using reasonable best efforts to (i) maintain in effect the Debt Financing Commitment, (ii) satisfy on a timely basis all conditions and covenants applicable to Parent and Merger Sub in the Debt Financing Commitment (including by consummating the financing pursuant to the terms of the Equity Financing Commitment) and otherwise comply with its obligations thereunder, (iii) enter into definitive agreements with respect thereto on the terms and conditions contemplated by the Debt Financing Commitment (or terms and conditions no less favorable, in the aggregate, to Parent and Merger Sub (in the reasonable judgment of Parent) than the terms and conditions in the Debt Financing Commitment), (iv) in the event that all conditions in the Debt Financing Commitment (other than the availability or funding of any Equity Financing) have been satisfied, consummate the Debt Financing at or prior to Closing and (v) subject to compliance with the requirements of Section 10.09(b), enforce its rights under the Debt Financing Commitment in the event that all conditions in the Debt Financing Commitment (other than the availability or funding of any Equity Financing) have been satisfied, to cause the lenders and other persons providing Debt Financing to fund on the Closing Date the Debt Financing required to consummate the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Parent and Merger Sub shall give the Company prompt notice (containing a reasonable description of the circumstances giving rise to the notified matter): (A) of any material breach or material default (or any event or circumstance that, with or without notice, lapse of time or both, would reasonably be expected to give rise to any material breach or material default) by any party to the Debt Financing Commitment or definitive document related to the Debt Financing of which Parent or Merger Sub become aware; (B) of the receipt of any written notice or other written communication from any party to the Debt Financing Commitment with respect to any breach, default, termination or repudiation by any party to the Debt Financing Commitment or any definitive document related to the Debt Financing or any provisions of the Debt Financing Commitment or any definitive document related to the Debt Financing; and (C) if Parent or Merger Sub will not be able to obtain all or any portion of the Debt Financing on the terms, in the manner or from the sources contemplated by the Debt Financing Commitment or the definitive documents related to the Debt Financing; provided, that the Parent and Merger Sub shall be under no obligation to disclose any information that is subject to attorney client or similar privilege, but only if such privilege is asserted in good faith. If any portion of the Debt Financing becomes unavailable on the terms and conditions contemplated in the Debt Financing Commitment, Parent shall, if requested by the Company, use its reasonable best efforts to arrange and obtain alternative debt financing from alternative debt sources in an amount sufficient to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement upon terms and conditions not less favorable, taken as a whole, to Parent and Merger Sub (in the reasonable judgment of Parent) than those in the Debt Financing Commitment as promptly as practicable following the occurrence of such event but no later than the Business Day immediately prior to the Closing Date. To the extent Parent, at the Company's request, seeks to arrange and obtain alternative debt financing from alternative debt sources and such actions by Parent are determined to have constituted a breach of the Debt Financing Commitment, the Company agrees that such result shall not be deemed to be a breach by Parent of its obligations under this Section 7.18 or otherwise under this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section 7.18 or in any other provision of this Agreement, in no event shall Parent or Merger Sub be required (x) to amend or waive any of the terms or conditions hereof or (y) consummate the Closing any earlier than the final day of the Marketing Period.

(b) Each of Parent and Merger Sub shall take, or cause to be taken, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable to arrange and obtain the Equity Financing on the terms and conditions described in or contemplated by the Equity Financing Commitment and shall not agree to any amendment or modification to be made to, or any waiver of any provision or remedy under the Equity Financing Commitment without the prior written consent of the Company if such amendments, modifications or waivers would or would reasonably be expected to (w) reduce the aggregate amount of the Equity Financing, (x) impose new or additional conditions to the receipt of the Equity Financing, (y) prevent or materially delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or (z) adversely impact the ability of Parent or Merger Sub to enforce its rights against the other parties to the Equity Financing Commitment, including (i) maintaining in effect the Equity Financing Commitment and (ii) satisfying on a timely basis all conditions and covenants applicable to Parent and Merger Sub in the Equity Financing Commitment and otherwise complying with their obligations thereunder. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Parent and Merger Sub shall give the Company prompt notice (containing a reasonable description of the circumstances giving rise to the notified matter): (A) of any material breach or material default (or any event or circumstance that, with or without notice, lapse of time or both, could reasonably be expected to give rise to any material breach or material default) by any party to the Equity Financing Commitment; (B) of the receipt of any written notice or other written communication from any party to the Equity Financing Commitment with respect to any breach, default, termination or repudiation by any party to the Equity Financing Commitment of the Equity Financing Commitment or any provisions of the Equity Financing Commitment; and (C) if Parent or Merger Sub will not be able to obtain all or any portion of the Equity Financing on the terms, in the manner or from the sources contemplated by the Equity Financing Commitment.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, nothing contained in this Section 7.18 shall require, and in no event shall the reasonable best efforts of Parent or Merger Sub be deemed or construed to require, either Parent or Merger Sub to (i) bring any enforcement action against the counterparties to the Financing Commitments to enforce its respective rights under the Financing Commitments, except that Parent shall seek enforcement of the Financing Commitments solely if the Company seeks and is granted a decree of specific performance after all conditions to the granting therefor set forth in Section 10.09(b) of this Agreement have been satisfied, (ii) seek the Equity Financing from any source other than those counterparty to, or in any amount in excess of that contemplated by, the Equity Commitments or (iii) pay any fees in connection with the Financing in excess of those contemplated by the Financing Commitments (whether to secure waiver of any conditions contained therein or otherwise).

Section 8.02 Conditions to Obligation of the Company to Effect the Merger. The obligation of the Company to consummate the Merger is also subject to the satisfaction or waiver (to the extent permitted by applicable Law) at or prior to the Effective Time of each of the following conditions:

(a) Accuracy of Representations and Warranties. (i) The representations and warranties made by Parent and Merger Sub herein, other than in Section 5.03, shall be true and correct as of the date hereof and on the Closing Date with the same effect as if made on and as of the Closing Date (except for those representations and warranties which address matters only as of an earlier specified date (including the date of this Agreement), which shall be true and correct only as of such earlier specified date), disregarding all qualifications and exceptions contained therein relating to materiality or Parent Material Adverse Effect (other than the Parent Retained Qualifiers), except for such failures to be so true and correct which, individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to prevent, materially delay or materially impede the performance by Parent or Merger Sub of its obligations under this Agreement; and (ii) the representations and warranties set forth in Section 5.03 shall be true and correct as of the date hereof and as of the Closing Date as if made at and as of the Closing Date (except for those representations and warranties that address matters only as of an earlier specified date (including the date of this Agreement), which shall be true and correct only as of such earlier specified date).

(b) Compliance with Covenants. Each of Parent and Merger Sub shall have performed in all material respects all covenants and agreements, and complied in all material respects with all obligations, contained in this Agreement that are to be performed or complied with by it prior to or on the Closing Date.

(c) Officer's Certificate. The Company shall have received a certificate of Parent, dated as of the Closing Date, signed by an executive officer of Parent to the effect that the conditions set forth in Section 8.02(a) and Section 8.02(b) have been satisfied.

(d) Solvency Opinion. The Company shall have received a favorable opinion from a firm reasonably acceptable to Parent and the Company addressed to the Company Board, in customary form and substance, that (i) as of and immediately after the Effective Time, neither Parent, the Surviving Corporation nor any of the Company Subsidiaries is insolvent (as defined in section 101(32) of title 11 of United States Code), (ii) neither Parent, the Surviving Corporation nor any of the Company Subsidiaries is, as of the Effective Time, engaged or about to engage in a business or transaction for which its remaining property was an unreasonably small capital, and (iii) neither Parent, the Surviving Corporation nor any of the Company Subsidiaries intended, as of the Effective Time to incur, or believed at the Effective Time that it would incur, debts beyond their ability to pay as such debts matured.

Section 8.03 Conditions to Obligation of Parent and Merger Sub to Effect the Merger. The obligations of Parent and Merger Sub to consummate the Merger are also subject to the satisfaction or waiver (to the extent permitted by applicable Law) at or prior to the effective time of each of the following conditions:

(a) Accuracy of Representations and Warranties. (i) The representations and warranties made by the Company herein, other than in Sections 4.03, 4.04, 4.08 (second sentence only) and 4.20, shall be true and correct as of the date hereof and on the Closing Date with the same effect as if made on and as of the Closing Date (except for those representations and warranties that address matters only as of an earlier specified date (including the date of this Agreement), which shall be true and correct only as of such earlier specified date), disregarding all qualifications and exceptions contained therein relating to materiality or Company Material Adverse Effect (other than the Company Retained Qualifiers), except for such failures to be so true and correct which, individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect; (ii) the representations and warranties set forth in Section 4.03 shall be true and correct as of the date hereof and as of the Closing Date as if made at and as of the Closing Date (except for those representations and warranties that address matters only as of an earlier specified date (including the date of this Agreement), which shall be true and correct only as of such earlier specified date), except for such failures to be so true and correct that do not exceed a de minimis extent; and (iii) the representations and warranties set forth in Sections 4.04, 4.08 (second sentence only) and 4.20 shall be true and correct as of the date hereof and as of the Closing Date as if made at and as of the Closing Date (except for those representations and warranties that address matters only as of an earlier specified date (including the date of this Agreement), which shall be true and correct only as of such earlier specified date).

(b) Compliance with Covenants. The Company shall have performed in all material respects all covenants and agreements, and complied in all material respects with all obligations, contained in this Agreement that are to be performed or complied with by it prior to or on the Closing Date.

(c) Officer's Certificate. Parent shall have received a certificate of the Company, dated as of the Closing Date, signed by an executive officer of the Company to the effect that the conditions set forth in Section 8.03(a) and Section 8.03(b) have been satisfied.

(d) FIRPTA Certificate. The Company shall have delivered to Parent a properly completed and executed certificate to the effect that the Common Stock of the Company is not a U.S. real property interest (such certificate in the form required by Treasury Regulation Sections 1.897-2(h) and 1.1445-2(c)(3)), along with written authorization for Parent to deliver such form to the IRS on behalf of the Company upon Closing.

ARTICLE IX

TERMINATION, AMENDMENT AND WAIVER

Section 9.01 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated and the Merger contemplated hereby may be abandoned at any time prior to the Effective Time, whether before or after Company Shareholder Approval has been obtained (other than as provided in Section 9.01(d)(i)), by written notice (other than termination pursuant to Section 9.01(a)) by the terminating party to the other parties specifying the subsection of this Section 9.01 pursuant to which such termination is effected:

(a) by mutual written consent of the Company (upon approval of the Special Committee) and Parent;

(b) by either Parent or the Company:

(i) if the Merger shall not have been consummated on or before July 31, 2011 (as may be extended in accordance with this Section 9.01(b)(i), the "Outside Date") provided, further that (x) if the Marketing Period has commenced on or before such Outside Date, but not ended before any such Outside Date, such Outside Date shall automatically be extended by one month and (y) the Outside Date shall not occur sooner than three (3) Business Days after the final day of the Marketing Period; provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 9.01(b)(i) shall not be available to any party whose breach of, or failure to fulfill any obligation under, this Agreement has been the principal cause of, or resulted in, the failure of the Merger to be consummated on or before such date; provided further that in the event the Company has brought any litigation seeking to enforce any of its rights under Section 10.09 and such litigation is pending as of the Outside Date, Parent shall not be entitled to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 9.01(b)(i) until the third Business Day immediately following the date on which Parent and Merger Sub have complied with all orders (if any) included in the final ruling (including any appeals) on the merits of such litigation that is issued by the courts in which such litigation is pending;

(ii) if (x) any Order permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the Merger shall have become final and nonappealable or (y) any Law makes consummation of the Merger illegal or otherwise prohibited (unless the consummation of the Merger in violation of such Law would not have a Company Material Adverse Effect); provided, however, that no party hereto shall have such right to terminate pursuant to this Section 9.01(b)(ii) unless, prior to such termination, such party shall have used its reasonable best efforts to oppose any such Order or Law or to have such Order or Law vacated or made inapplicable to the Merger and shall have complied in all material respects with its obligations under Section 7.04; provided further that the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 9.01(b)(ii) shall not be available to any party whose breach of any provision of this Agreement results in the imposition of any such Order or the failure of such Order to be resisted, resolved or lifted, as applicable; or

(iii) if at the Company Shareholders Meeting (or any adjournment thereof), a proposal to adopt this Agreement shall have been voted upon by the holders of shares of Company Common Stock and the Company Shareholder Approval shall not have been obtained.

(c) by Parent:

(i) if the Company shall have breached any of its representations or warranties or failed to perform any of its covenants or other agreements contained in this Agreement, which breach or failure to perform (x) would give rise to the failure of a condition set forth in Section 8.03(a) or 8.03(b) and (y) (1) is incapable of being cured or (2) if capable of being cured, is not cured by the earlier to occur of thirty (30) calendar days (or, in the case of a breach of Section 6.02, five (5) calendar days) after the Company receives notice of such breach from Parent or Merger Sub and the Outside Date; provided, however, that each of Parent and Merger Sub is not then in breach of this Agreement so as to cause any of the conditions set forth in Section 8.01, 8.02(a) or 8.02(b), as applicable, not to be satisfied; or

(ii) if, prior to the obtaining of the Company Shareholder Approval, (A) the Company Board or the Special Committee shall have effected a Company Adverse Recommendation Change or the Company Board or the Special Committee shall have effected a Change of Recommendation in response to an Intervening Event; or (B) Parent shall have received written notice from the Company to the effect that the Company intends to terminate this Agreement in accordance with Section 6.02(e).

(d) by the Company:

(i) at any time prior to obtaining the Company Shareholder Approval, if the Company Board or the Special Committee shall have determined, in good faith, that an Alternative Transaction Proposal is a Superior Proposal and the Company shall have complied with the provisions of Section 6.02 and Section 9.02(b);

(ii) if Parent or Merger Sub shall have breached any of its representations or warranties or failed to perform any of its covenants or other agreements contained in this Agreement, which breach or failure to perform (A) would give rise to the failure of a condition set forth in Section 8.02(a) or 8.02(b) and (B) (1) is incapable of being cured or (2) if capable of being cured, is not cured by the earlier to occur of (x) thirty (30) calendar days after Parent or Merger Sub receives notice of such breach from the Company and (y) the Outside Date; provided, however, that the Company is not then in breach of this Agreement so as to cause any of the conditions set forth in Section 8.01, 8.03(a) or 8.03(b), as applicable, not to be satisfied; or

(iii) if (A) the conditions set forth in Sections 8.01 and 8.03 have been satisfied (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing), (B) the Company has irrevocably confirmed in writing that all conditions set forth in Section 8.02 have been satisfied or that it is willing to waive all unsatisfied conditions in Section 8.02 provided that the Closing occurs by the close of business on the second Business Day following the date of such notice, (C) the Marketing Period has ended or will end on the date of such notice, and (D) by the close of business on the second Business Day after the Company has delivered written notice to Parent of the satisfaction of such conditions and such confirmation, the Merger shall not have been consummated; provided that such conditions in Sections 8.01 and 8.03 remain satisfied and the Company's certification remains in full force and effect at the close of business on such second Business Day; provided, further, that during such period of two (2) Business Days, no party shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.01(b)(i) until after the close of business on the Business Day immediately following the last day of such period.

Section 9.02 Effect of Termination. (a) In the event of termination of this Agreement as provided in Section 9.01, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and have no effect, without any liability or obligation on the part of Parent, Merger Sub or the Company, other than Section 4.18, Section 5.08, the last sentence of Section 7.03, the last sentence of Section 7.11(a), Section 7.11(b), Section 7.11(c), this Section 9.02, and Article X; provided, however, that no such termination shall relieve any party from any liability for damages to any other party resulting from any material and willful breach by such party of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement set forth in this Agreement. The Confidentiality Agreement and the Guarantee shall survive any termination of this Agreement in accordance with their respective terms.

(b) Company Termination Fee.

(i) In the event that this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 9.01(d)(i), the Company shall pay to the Fund Manager a fee equal to $21,500,000 (the “Company Termination Fee”) prior to such termination by wire transfer of same day funds to one or more accounts designated by Fund Manager (except that if the Fund Manager shall not have so designated one or more accounts to the Company by 12:00 pm, New York City time, on the final day of the Notice Period, the Company shall be permitted to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.01(d)(i) without paying the Company Termination Fee prior to such termination; provided, that the Company shall thereafter pay the Company Termination Fee to the Fund Manager within two (2) Business Days of the later to occur of (A) the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.01(d)(i) and (B) the date that the Fund Manager shall have designated such account or accounts to the Company).

(ii) In the event that this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 9.01(c)(ii), the Company shall pay the Company Termination Fee to the Fund Manager promptly, but in any event within two (2) Business Days after the date of such termination, by wire transfer of same day funds to one or more accounts designated by the Fund Manager.

(iii) In the event that this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 9.01(b)(iii) and prior to the Company Shareholders Meeting the Company Board has made a Change of Recommendation based on an Intervening Event, the Company shall pay the Company Termination Fee to Fund Manager promptly, but in any event within two (2) Business Days after the date of such termination, by wire transfer of same day funds to one or more accounts designated by Fund Manager.

(iv) In the event that (A) after the date of this Agreement (and in the case of a termination pursuant to Section 9.01(b)(iii), prior to the Company Shareholders Meeting (or any adjournment thereof)) an Alternative Transaction Proposal shall have become publicly known and not withdrawn, (B) thereafter, this Agreement is terminated (1) by Parent or the Company pursuant to Section 9.01(b)(i), (2) by Parent or the Company pursuant to Section 9.01(b)(iii), or (3) by Parent pursuant to Section 9.01(c)(i), and (C) within 12 months after such termination, the Company enters into a definitive agreement providing for any transaction contemplated by any Alternative Transaction Proposal (regardless of when made) (which transaction is thereafter consummated) or consummates any Alternative Transaction Proposal (regardless of when made), then the Company shall, on the date such Alternative Transaction Proposal is consummated, pay the Company Termination Fee to the Fund Manager; provided that for purposes of clause (C) of this Section 9.02(b)(iv), the term “Alternative Transaction Proposal” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 6.02(i)(i) except that all references to “twenty (20) percent or more” shall be deemed to be references to “fifty (50) percent or more”.

In no event shall the Company Termination Fee be paid more than once.

(c) Parent Termination Fee.

(i) In the event that this Agreement is terminated by the Company pursuant to Section 9.01(d)(ii) or Section 9.01(d)(iii), Parent shall pay or cause to be paid to the Company a fee equal to $50,000,000 (the "Parent Termination Fee"), in each case promptly, and in any event within two (2) Business Days following such termination, by wire transfer of same day funds to one or more accounts designated by the Company.

(ii) In no event shall Parent be obligated to pay, or cause to be paid, the Parent Termination Fee on more than one occasion.

(iii) If Parent becomes obligated to pay the Parent Termination Fee pursuant to this Section 9.02(c), the Company agrees that its right to receive the Parent Termination Fee from Parent or the Guarantors pursuant to the Guarantee shall be its sole and exclusive remedy against Parent, the Parent Group and the Lender Identified Persons and, upon payment of the Parent Termination Fee, neither Parent nor any member of the Parent Group nor any Lender Identified Person shall have any liability or obligation to the Company relating to or arising out of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby. Each Lender Identified Person is an express third party beneficiary of this Section 9.02(c)(iii).

(d) In the event that this Agreement is terminated pursuant to (i) (A) Section 9.01(b)(i) and, as of the date of such termination, (1) all of the conditions set forth in Sections 8.01 and 8.02 shall have been satisfied or waived (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing, all of which would be satisfied if the Closing were to occur on the date of such termination (except that the condition set forth in Section 8.02(d) would fail to be satisfied as of such date)) and (2) Parent shall have complied in all material respects with its obligations contained in Section 7.14 or (B) either Section 9.01(b)(iii) or Section 9.01(c)(i) and (ii) under circumstances in which the Company Termination Fee is not then payable pursuant to Section 9.02(b), then the Company shall promptly reimburse Parent for all reasonably documented out-of-pocket fees and expenses (including all fees and expenses of counsel, accountants, investment bankers, financing sources (including commitment fees), experts, consultants and the costs of all filing fees and printing costs) incurred by the Parent Group in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby ("Parent Expenses") by payment to the Fund Manager of the amount thereof by wire transfer of same day funds as promptly as reasonably practicable (and, in any event, within two (2) Business Days following request therefor), which amount shall not be greater than $5,000,000; provided, that the payment by the Company of Parent Expenses pursuant to this Section 9.02(d) shall be credited against any amount that may become payable pursuant to Section 9.02(b).

(e) Each party acknowledges that (i) the agreements contained in this Section 9.02 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated in this Agreement, (ii) the damages resulting from termination of this Agreement under circumstances where a Company Termination Fee or Parent Termination Fee is payable are uncertain and incapable of accurate calculation and therefore, the amounts payable pursuant to Section 9.02(b) or Section 9.02(c) are not a penalty but rather constitute liquidated damages in a reasonable amount that will compensate Parent or the Company, as the case may be, for the efforts and resources expended and opportunities foregone while negotiating this Agreement and in reliance on this Agreement and on the expectation of the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, and (iii) without the agreements contained in this Section 9.02, the parties would not have entered into this Agreement. Accordingly, if the Company fails to promptly pay any amount due pursuant to Section 9.02(b) or if Parent fails to promptly pay any amount due pursuant to Section 9.02(c) and, in order to obtain such payment, Parent or the Company, as the case may be, commences a suit that results in a judgment against the Company for the amount set forth in Section 9.02(b) or Section 9.02(c) or any portion thereof or a judgment against Parent for the amount set forth in or any portion thereof, the Company shall pay to Parent, or Parent shall pay to the Company, as the case may be, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by the prevailing party and its Affiliates in connection with such suit, together with interest on the amount of such amount or portion thereof at the prime rate in effect on the date such payment was required to be made through the date of payment.

Section 9.03 Amendment. This Agreement may be amended by the parties at any time before the Effective Time; provided, that after receipt of Company Shareholder Approval, there shall be no amendment that by Law requires further approval by the shareholders of the Company without the further approval of such shareholders; provided, further that no amendment of Section 7.06 or the second sentence of Section 10.06 (to the extent such sentence refers to Section 7.06 or Section 10.12(c)) shall be effective against any Indemnified Party without the prior written consent of such Indemnified Party. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties.

Section 9.04 Extension; Waiver. At any time prior to the Effective Time, the parties may, and in the case of the Company upon the approval of the Special Committee, (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties, (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained in this Agreement or in any document delivered pursuant to this Agreement or (c) subject to the proviso in the first sentence of Section 9.03, and to the fullest extent permitted by Law, waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained in this Agreement. Any agreement on the part of a party to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such party. The failure of any party to this Agreement to assert any of its rights under this Agreement or otherwise shall not constitute a waiver of such rights.

ARTICLE X

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 10.03 Interpretation. When a reference is made in this Agreement to a Section or Exhibit, such reference shall be to a Section or Exhibit of this Agreement unless otherwise indicated. The table of contents and headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement. Whenever the words "include", "includes" or "including" are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation" to the extent such words do not already follow any such term. The phrases "herein," "hereof," "hereunder" and words of similar import shall be deemed to refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Agreement.

Section 10.04 Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced by any rule or Law, or public policy, all other conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated hereby is not affected in any manner materially adverse to any party. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in an acceptable manner to the end that transactions contemplated hereby are fulfilled to the extent possible.

Section 10.05 Counterparts. This Agreement (i) may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which when executed shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which taken together shall be considered one and the same agreement and (ii) shall become effective when signed by all of the parties or when counterparts have been signed by each of the parties and delivered to all of the other parties. Delivery of an executed counterpart of this Agreement by facsimile or “.pdf” file shall be effective to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law.

Section 10.06 Entire Agreement; No Third-Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement, the Company Disclosure Schedule, Parent Disclosure Schedule and all Exhibits hereto, the Guarantee and the Confidentiality Agreement, taken together, constitute the entire agreement, and supersede all prior agreements, arrangements and understandings, both written and oral, among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and the transactions contemplated hereby. Other than as provided in Section 7.06 and Section 10.12(c) (each of which is intended to be for the benefit of the Persons referred to therein), each of Parent and the Company hereby agrees that their respective representations, warranties and covenants set forth herein are solely for the benefit of the other parties hereto, in accordance with and subject to the terms of this Agreement and no provision of this Agreement is intended to, and does not, confer upon any Person other than the parties hereto and the Lender Identified Persons any rights or remedies hereunder, including the right to rely upon the representations and warranties set forth herein. For the avoidance of doubt and without limitation on the foregoing, in no event shall any Lender Identified Person have any liability or obligation under this Agreement.

Section 10.07 Governing Law. Except to the extent the Laws of the State of Oklahoma are mandatorily applicable to the Merger, this Agreement, the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the internal affairs of any parties hereto, the Merger, this Agreement and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and all disputes between the parties under or related to this Agreement or the facts and circumstances leading to its execution, whether in contract, tort or otherwise, shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the Laws of the State of New York, without reference to conflicts of laws principles.

Section 10.08 Assignment. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations under this Agreement shall be assigned or delegated, in whole or in part, by operation of Law or otherwise by any of the parties without the prior written consent of the other parties. Any purported assignment without such consent shall be void. Subject to the two immediately preceding sentences, this Agreement will be binding upon, inure to the benefit of, and be enforceable by, the parties and their respective successors and assigns.

Section 10.09 Enforcement.

(a) The parties agree that irreparable injury, for which monetary damages, even if available, would not be an adequate remedy, would occur in the event that the parties hereto do not perform the provisions of this Agreement (including failing to take such actions as are required of it hereunder in order to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement) in accordance with its specified terms or otherwise breach such provisions. Accordingly, the parties agree that, prior to the valid termination of this Agreement in accordance with Section 9.01 but in all cases subject to the specific requirements set forth in Section 10.09(b), the parties shall be entitled to an injunction, specific performance and other equitable relief to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof, in accordance with Section 10.10, this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled under the terms of this Agreement at law or in equity.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the right of the Company to obtain an injunction, or other appropriate form of specific performance or equitable relief, in each case, solely with respect to causing Parent and Merger Sub to, or to directly, cause the Equity Financing to be funded at any time but only simultaneously with the receipt of the Debt Financing (whether under this Agreement, the Equity Financing Commitment or the Guarantee) shall be subject to the requirements that: (A) all conditions in Sections 8.01 and 8.03 (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing) have been satisfied or waived, (B) Parent and Merger Sub fail to complete the Closing by the date the Closing is required to have occurred pursuant to Section 2.02, (C) the Debt Financing (or, if alternative financing is being used in accordance with Section 7.18, pursuant to the commitments with respect thereto) has been funded or will be funded at the Closing if the Equity Financing is funded at the Closing and (D) the Company has irrevocably confirmed that (1) all conditions set forth in Section 8.02 have been satisfied or that it is willing to waive any of the conditions to the extent not so satisfied in Section 8.02 and (2) if specific performance is granted and the Equity Financing and Debt Financing are funded, then the Closing will occur. It is further hereby acknowledged and agreed that the Company's right to specific performance to cause Parent and Merger Sub to use reasonable best efforts to enforce the terms of the Debt Financing Commitment, which may include a demand that Merger Sub and Parent file one or more lawsuits against the sources of Debt Financing to fully enforce such sources' obligations thereunder and Parent's and Merger Sub's rights thereunder shall be subject to the requirements that (A) all conditions in Sections 8.01 and 8.03 (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing) have been satisfied or waived, (B) Parent and Merger Sub fail to complete the Closing by the date the Closing is required to have occurred pursuant to Section 2.02, (C) the Company has irrevocably confirmed that (1) all conditions set forth in Section 8.02 have been satisfied or that it is willing to waive any of the conditions to the extent not so satisfied in Section 8.02 and (2) if specific performance is granted and the Equity Financing and Debt Financing are funded, then the Closing will occur and (D) all conditions to the consummation of the Debt Financing contemplated by the Debt Financing Commitment (other than the receipt of the Equity Financing and those conditions that by their nature cannot be satisfied until the Closing, but each of which, including the receipt of the Equity Financing, shall be capable of being satisfied on the Closing (and shall be satisfied on the Closing Date)) have been satisfied and remain satisfied.

(c) Each of the parties agrees that it will not oppose the granting of an injunction, specific performance and other equitable relief as provided herein on the basis that (x) either party has an adequate remedy at law or (y) an award of specific performance is not an appropriate remedy for any reason at law or equity. Any party seeking an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement shall not be required to provide any bond or other security in connection with any such order or injunction.

Section 10.10 Submission to Jurisdiction.

(a) Parent and Merger Sub acknowledge and agree that, except for the representations and warranties expressly set forth in this Agreement, neither the Company nor any of its Representatives has made, in connection with Parent's and Merger Sub's investigation of the Company or otherwise, any representation or warranty, express or implied, including with respect to the accuracy or completeness of any information, written or oral, relating to the Company or the Company Subsidiaries (collectively, the "Information"). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Parent and Merger Sub acknowledge that neither the Company nor any of its Representatives has made any representation or warranty with respect to (i) any projections, forecasts or forward-looking statements made or made available to Parent or Merger Sub or any of their respective Representatives or (ii) any memoranda, charts, summaries, schedules or other information about the Company or the Company Subsidiaries made available to Parent or Merger Sub or any of their respective Representatives (including any information by any financial advisor for the Company), except as expressly set forth in this Agreement. Parent and Merger Sub acknowledge and agree that neither the Company nor any of its Representatives shall have any liability to Parent or Merger Sub or any of their respective Representatives relating to or resulting from the use of the Information or any errors or inaccuracies contained therein or omissions therefrom, except for any liability resulting from the breach of the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements expressly set forth in this Agreement or from Parent's reliance on the Company SEC Documents. Parent and Merger Sub also agree that, except for the representations and warranties expressly set forth in this Agreement, neither they nor any of their respective Representatives has relied upon any representations or warranties of any nature made by or on behalf of or imputed to the Company or any of its Representatives, and Parent and Merger Sub acknowledge that, in entering into this Agreement, they have relied solely on their own investigation of the Company and the Company Subsidiaries, the Company SEC Documents and the representations and warranties expressly set forth in this Agreement, subject to the limitations and restrictions specified herein.

(b) Parent and Merger Sub acknowledge and agree that neither the Company nor any of its Representatives shall have any liability to Parent or Merger Sub or any of their respective Representatives relating to or resulting from the use of the Information or any errors or inaccuracies contained therein or omissions therefrom, except for any liability resulting from the breach of the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements expressly set forth in this Agreement.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt and subject only to the Company's right to seek specific performance under Section 10.09, notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the maximum aggregate liability of Parent and Merger Sub under or relating to this Agreement to any Person shall be limited to the amount of the Parent Termination Fee (the "Parent Liability Limitation"), and in no event shall the Company or any of its Affiliates seek, obtain or accept, or permit to be sought (and no liability shall attach to the any member of the Parent Group with respect to), any recovery, judgment or damages of any kind, including consequential, indirect or punitive damages, under or in connection with this Agreement, the Financing Commitments or the Guarantee or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, against Parent, Merger Sub, the Guarantor or any other member of the Parent Group, whether by or through attempted piercing of the corporate, limited partnership or limited liability company veil, by or through a claim by or on behalf of Parent against the Guarantors or any other member of the Parent Group, by the enforcement of any assessment or by any legal or equitable proceeding, by virtue of any statute, regulation or applicable Law, or otherwise, other than against Parent or Merger Sub pursuant to this Agreement or against Guarantor pursuant to the Guarantee, in each such case not to exceed the Parent Liability Limitation, and in no event shall the Company and its Affiliates be entitled to an aggregate amount equal to more than the Parent Liability Limitation. GUARANTEE

LIMITED GUARANTEE, dated as of January 30, 2011 (this "Limited Guarantee"), by MidOcean Partners III, L.P., MidOcean Partners III-A, L.P. and MidOcean Partners III-D, L.P. (collectively, the "Guarantors"), in favor of Pre-Paid Legal Services, Inc., an Oklahoma corporation (the "Company").

WHEREAS, contemporaneously with the execution and delivery of this Limited Guarantee, MidOcean PPL Holdings Corp., a Delaware corporation ("Parent"), PPL Acquisition Corp., an Oklahoma corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent ("Merger Sub"), and the Company are entering into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (as amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Merger Agreement"; capitalized terms used, but not defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Merger Agreement) pursuant to which, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will be merged with and into the Company (the "Merger"), with the Company surviving the Merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent; and

WHEREAS, Guarantors are entering into this Limited Guarantee as an inducement to and a condition to the willingness of the Company to enter into the Merger Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements contained in this Limited Guarantee, the parties agree as follows:

1. Limited Guarantee. To induce the Company to enter into the Merger Agreement, Guarantors, intending to be legally bound, hereby absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably guarantee to the Company the due and punctual payment by Parent and Merger Sub of, and to cause Parent and Merger Sub to punctually pay and perform, when due pursuant to the terms and condition of the Merger Agreement of (1) the Parent Termination Fee, when required to be paid by Parent pursuant to Section 9.02(c) of the Merger Agreement, subject to the provisions of Section 9.02(c) and the other terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, and (2) any reimbursement obligations of Parent pursuant to Sections 7.11(a) and (c) of the Merger Agreement (collectively, the "Guaranteed Obligations") provided, however, that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Limited Guarantee (except the immediately succeeding proviso), the Merger Agreement, or any other agreement contemplated hereby or thereby, in no event shall the aggregate liability of the Guarantors pursuant to this Limited Guarantee exceed $50,000,000 (such amount, plus the aggregate amount to which the Company shall be entitled pursuant to Section 10 of this Limited Guarantee being, the "Maximum Liability Cap"), it being understood that in no event shall this Limited Guarantee be enforced without giving effect to the Maximum Liability Cap. The Company hereby agrees that (i) the Guarantors shall in no event be required to pay an aggregate amount in excess of the Maximum Liability Cap under or in respect of this Limited Guarantee (or in the case of each Guarantor, its Pro Rata Amount of the Maximum Liability Cap), and (ii) neither the Guarantors nor any Guarantor Affiliate (as hereinafter defined) shall have any obligation or liability to any person relating to, arising out of or in connection with, this Limited Guarantee, other than as expressly set forth herein.

2. Nature of Guarantee; Waivers.

(a) The Company shall not be obligated to file any claim relating to the Guaranteed Obligations in the event Parent or Merger Sub becomes subject to a bankruptcy, reorganization or similar proceeding, and the failure of the Company to so file shall not affect any Guarantor's obligations hereunder. In the event any payment theretofore applied by the Company to the Guaranteed Obligations is rescinded or must otherwise be returned for any reason whatsoever (including by reason of the insolvency, bankruptcy or reorganization of Merger Sub or any Guarantor), such Guaranteed Obligations shall, for the purposes of this Limited Guarantee, to the extent that such payment is or must be rescinded or returned, be deemed to have continued in existence, notwithstanding such application by the Company, and this Limited Guarantee shall continue to be effective or be reinstated, as the case may be, as to such Guaranteed Obligations, all as though such application by the Company had not been made.

(b) Each Guarantor agrees that the Company may, in its sole discretion, at any time and from time to time, without notice to or further consent of such Guarantor, extend the time of payment of the Guaranteed Obligations, and may also make any agreement with Parent or Merger Sub for the extension or renewal thereof, in whole or in part, without in any way impairing or affecting such Guarantor's obligations under this Limited Guarantee or affecting the validity or enforceability of this Limited Guarantee. Each Guarantor agrees that the obligations of such Guarantor hereunder shall not be released or discharged, in whole or in part, or otherwise affected by (i) the failure of the Company to assert any claim or demand or to enforce any right or remedy against Parent, Merger Sub or any other Guarantor or any other Person interested in the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; (ii) any change in the time, place or manner of payment of any of the Guaranteed Obligations or any rescission, waiver, compromise, consolidation or other amendment or modification of any of the terms or provisions of the Merger Agreement made in accordance with the terms thereof or any agreement evidencing, securing or otherwise executed in connection with any of the Guaranteed Obligations; (iii) the addition, substitution, discharge or release of any Person interested in the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; (iv) any change in the corporate existence, structure or ownership of Parent, Merger Sub or any other Guarantor; (v) any insolvency, bankruptcy, reorganization or other similar proceeding affecting Parent or Merger Sub or any other Guarantor; (vi) the lack of enforceability of the Merger Agreement (in each case against any Person other than the Company); (vii) except as otherwise provided herein, the existence of any claim, set-off or other right that such Guarantor may have at any time against Parent, Merger Sub or any other Guarantor, whether in connection with the Guaranteed Obligations or otherwise; (viii) the adequacy of any means the Company may have of obtaining payment related to the Guaranteed Obligations. To the fullest extent permitted by Law, each Guarantor hereby expressly waives any rights and defenses arising by reason of any applicable Law that would otherwise require any election of remedies by the Company. Each Guarantor hereby waives promptness, diligence in collection or protection of or realization upon any Guaranteed Obligations, notice of the acceptance of this Limited Guarantee and of the Guaranteed Obligations, presentment, demand for payment, notice of non-performance, default, dishonor and protest, notice of any Guaranteed Obligations incurred and all other notices of any kind, all defenses that may be available by virtue of any valuation, stay, moratorium Law or other similar Law now or hereafter in effect, any right to require the marshalling of assets of Parent, Merger Sub or any other Guarantor, and all suretyship and guarantor defenses generally (other than fraud or willful misconduct by the Company or any of its Affiliates, defenses to the payment of the Guaranteed Obligations that are available to Parent under the Merger Agreement or breach by the Company of this Limited Guarantee). Each Guarantor acknowledges that it will receive substantial direct and indirect benefits from the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and that the waivers set forth in this Limited Guarantee are knowingly made in contemplation of such benefits. Each Guarantor hereby covenants and agrees that it shall not assert, directly or indirectly, and shall cause its Affiliates not to assert, in any proceeding that this Limited Guarantee is illegal, invalid or unenforceable in accordance with its terms.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Limited Guarantee, the Company hereby agrees that (i) each of the Guarantor may assert, as a defense to, or release or discharge of, any payment by such Guarantor under this Limited Guarantee, any claim, set off, deduction, defense or release that Parent or Merger Sub could assert against the Company under the terms of, or with respect to, the Merger Agreement and (ii) any failure by the Company to comply with the terms of the Merger Agreement, including any breach by the Company of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained therein or in any of the agreements, certificates and other documents required to be delivered by the Company pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement (whether any such breach results from fraud, intentional misrepresentation or otherwise), that would relieve each of Parent and Merger Sub of its obligations to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement or any obligations to pay any fees, costs or expenses under the Merger Agreement shall likewise automatically and without any further action on the part of any Person relieve the Guarantors of their obligations under this Limited Guarantee.

3. Continuing Guarantee; Primary Obligations. This Limited Guarantee may not be revoked or terminated and shall remain in full force and effect until all of the Guaranteed Obligations have been satisfied in full. Subject to the provisions of the immediately preceding sentence, this Limited Guarantee is a primary and original obligation of each Guarantor, is not merely the creation of a surety relationship, and is an absolute, unconditional, irrevocable and continuing guaranty of payment and not of collectibility and shall (a) be binding upon each Guarantor, its successors and permitted assigns and (b) inure to the benefit of, and be enforceable by the Company and its successors and permitted assigns against each Guarantor and its successors and permitted assigns. Each Guarantor agrees that it is directly liable to the Company and that a separate action may be brought against each Guarantor, irrespective of whether such action is brought against Parent or Merger Sub or whether Parent or Merger Sub is joined in such action. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Limited Guarantee shall terminate and the Guarantors shall have no further obligations under this Limited Guarantee as of the earliest of (i) the Effective Time, (ii) the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms under circumstances set forth in the Merger Agreement in which Parent would not be obligated to pay any Guaranteed Obligation, and (iii) the 90th day after any termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms under circumstances in which Parent would be obligated to pay any Guaranteed Obligation if the Company has not presented a claim for payment of any Guarantee Obligation to Parent or any Guarantor by such 90th day; provided, that, such claim shall set forth in reasonable detail the basis for such claim. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that the Company or any of its Subsidiaries asserts in any litigation or other proceeding that the provisions of Section 1 hereof or that any other provisions of this Limited Guaranty are illegal, invalid or unenforceable in whole or in part, that the Guarantors are liable in excess of or to a greater extent than the applicable amount of the Guaranteed Obligations or asserting any theory of liability against the Guarantors or the Guarantor Affiliates of the Guarantors with respect to the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement other than liability of the Guarantors under this Limited Guarantee (as limited by the provisions of Section 1 and Section 9), then (i) the obligations of the Guarantors under this Limited Guarantee shall terminate ab initio and shall thereupon be null and void, (ii) if any Guarantor has previously made any payments under this Limited Guarantee, it shall be entitled to recover such payments from the Company, and (iii) no Guarantor shall have any liability to the Company or any of its Affiliates with respect to the Merger Agreement, the Equity Commitment Letter, the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement or under this Limited Guarantee.

4. No Recourse. The Company agrees and acknowledges that no Person other than the Guarantors has any obligations hereunder and that, notwithstanding that Guarantors may be limited partnerships, the Company hereunder has no remedy, recourse or right of recovery against, or contribution from, (i) any former, current or future general or limited partners, stockholders, holders of any equity, partnership or limited liability company interest, officer, member, manager, director, employees, agents, controlling persons, assignee or Affiliates of any Guarantor, (ii) Parent or Merger Sub, (iii) any lender or prospective lender, lead arranger, arranger, agent or representative of or to Parent or Merger Sub or (iv) any former, current or future general or limited partners, stockholders, holders of any equity, partnership or limited liability company interest, officer, member, manager, director, employees, agents, attorneys, controlling persons, assignee or Affiliates of any of the foregoing (those persons and entities described in the foregoing clauses (i), (iii) and (iv) being referred to herein collectively as “Guarantor Affiliates”), through any Guarantor, Parent or Merger Sub or otherwise, whether by or through attempted piercing of the corporate, limited partnership or limited liability company veil, by or through a claim by or on behalf of any Guarantor, Parent or Merger Sub against any Guarantor or any Guarantor Affiliate, by the enforcement of any assessment or by any legal or equitable proceeding, by virtue of any statute, regulation or applicable law, or otherwise, except for its rights against the Guarantors under this Limited Guarantee; provided, however, that in the event any Guarantor (i) consolidates with or merges with any other Person and is not the continuing or surviving entity of such consolidation or merger, or (ii) transfers or conveys all or a substantial portion of its properties and other assets to any Person such that the sum of all of such Guarantor’s remaining net assets plus uncalled capital is less than such Guarantor’s Pro Rata Share of the Guaranteed Obligations, then, in each such case, the Company may seek recourse, whether by the enforcement of any judgment or assessment or by any legal or equitable proceeding or by virtue of any statute, regulation or other applicable law, against such continuing or surviving entity or such Person (in either case, a “Successor Entity”), as the case may be, but only to the extent of the unpaid liability hereunder up to the portion of amount of the Guaranteed Obligations for which such Guarantor is liable, as determined in accordance with this Limited Guarantee. As used herein, unless otherwise specified, the term Guarantor shall include such Guarantor’s Successor Entity.

5. No Waiver; Cumulative Rights. No failure on the part of the Company to exercise, and no delay in exercising, any right, remedy or power hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise by the Company of any right, remedy or power hereunder preclude any other or future exercise of any right, remedy or power hereunder. Each and every right, remedy and power hereby granted to the Company or allowed it by Law (and not limited by this Limited Guarantee) shall be cumulative and not exclusive of any other, and may be exercised by the Company at any time or from time to time. The Company shall not have any obligation to proceed at any time or in any manner against, or exhaust any or all of the Company’s rights or remedies against Parent or Merger Sub or any other Person liable for the Guaranteed Obligations prior to proceeding against the Guarantors hereunder and the failure by the Company to pursue rights or remedies against Parent or Merger Sub shall not relieve Guarantors of any liability hereunder and shall not impair or affect the rights and remedies, whether express, implied or available as a matter of Law, of the Company. The Company shall have the right to seek recourse against Guarantors to the fullest extent provided for herein, and no election by the Company to proceed in one form of action or proceeding, or against any Person, or on any obligation, shall constitute a waiver of the Company’s right to proceed in any other form of action or proceeding or against any other Person unless the Company shall have expressly waived such right in writing. Nothing in this Limited Guarantee shall affect or be construed to affect any liability of Parent or Merger Sub to the Company.

6. No Subrogation. Each Guarantor hereby unconditionally and irrevocably agrees not to exercise any rights that it may now have or hereafter acquire against Parent, Merger Sub or any other Person liable with respect to any of the Guaranteed Obligations that arise from the existence, payment, performance or enforcement of such Guarantor's obligation under or in respect of this Limited Guarantee or any other agreement in connection therewith, including any right of subrogation, reimbursement, exoneration, contribution or indemnification and any right to participate in any claim or remedy of the Company against Parent, Merger Sub or such other Person, whether or not such claim, remedy or right arises in equity or under contract or Law, including the right to take or receive from Parent, Merger Sub or such other Person, directly or indirectly, in cash or other property or by set-off or in any other manner, payment or security on account of such claim, remedy or right, unless and until the Guaranteed Obligations and any other amounts that may be payable under this Limited Guarantee shall have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash or otherwise fully performed. If any amount shall be paid to any Guarantor in violation of the immediately preceding sentence at any time prior to the satisfaction in full of the Guaranteed Obligations and any other amounts that may be payable under this Limited Guarantee, such amount shall be received and held in trust for the benefit of the Company, shall be segregated from other property and funds of such Guarantor and shall forthwith be paid or delivered to the Company in the same form as so received (with any necessary endorsement or assignment) to be credited and applied to the Guaranteed Obligations and any other amounts that may be payable under this Limited Guarantee, in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement and herewith, whether matured or unmatured, or to be held as collateral for the Guaranteed Obligations or other amounts payable under this Limited Guarantee thereafter arising.

7. Representations of Guarantor. Each Guarantor, severally and not jointly, hereby represents and warrants to the Company as to itself the following:

The execution and delivery by Guarantor of this Limited Guarantee and the performance by Guarantor of its obligations hereunder have been duly authorized by all necessary action and no other action on the part of Guarantor or any other Person is necessary to authorize the execution or delivery of this Limited Guarantee or the performance by Guarantor of its obligations hereunder. This Limited Guarantee constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of Guarantor, enforceable against Guarantor in accordance with its terms, except to the extent that enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium or other similar Laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and subject to general principles of equity.

(b) The execution and delivery by Guarantor of this Limited Guarantee, do not, and the performance by Guarantor of its obligations hereunder will not, conflict with, or result in any violation of or default (with or without notice or lapse of time, or both) under any provision of (i) the organizational documents of Guarantor, (ii) any Contract to which Guarantor is a party or by which any of its properties or assets is bound or (iii) any Order or Law applicable to Guarantor or its properties or assets. No Consent of, from or with any Governmental Entity is required to be obtained or made by or with respect to Guarantor in connection with the execution, delivery and performance of this Limited Guarantee.

(e) Guarantor has read and understands the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement.

(f) Guarantor acknowledges that in consideration of the execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement by the Company, the Company is relying on the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements made by Guarantor in this Limited Guarantee.

8. Payments; Availability of Funds. All payments to be made hereunder by the Guarantors shall be made in lawful money of the United States of America at the time of payment, shall be made in immediately available funds, and, subject to Section 2(c) hereof, shall be made without deduction (whether for taxes or otherwise), offset, defense, claim or counterclaim of any kind. For so long as this Limited Guarantee shall remain in effect in accordance with Section 3, each Guarantor shall have available to it all funds necessary for it to satisfy all of its obligations under this Limited Guarantee, including its Pro Rata Amount of the Guaranteed Obligations.

9. Relationship of the Parties. Each party acknowledges and agrees that (a) this Limited Guarantee is not intended to, and does not, create any agency, partnership, fiduciary or joint venture relationship between or among any of the parties hereto and neither this Limited Guarantee nor any other document or agreement entered into by any party hereto relating to the subject matter hereof shall be construed to suggest otherwise, and (b) the obligations of each of the Guarantors under this Limited Guarantee are solely contractual in nature. 11. Amendment and Waiver. This Limited Guarantee may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties; provided that no amendment of this Limited Guarantee shall relieve any Guarantor of, or reduce any Guarantor's liability for, any Guaranteed Obligation with respect to Parent's obligations under Section 7.06 of the Merger Agreement. CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION OF THE SURVIVING CORPORATION

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

[SURVIVING CORPORATION]

For the purposes of establishing a corporation for the transaction of the business and the promotion and conduct of the objects and purposes hereinafter stated under the provisions and subject to the requirements of the Oklahoma General Corporation Act, as it may be amended from time to time (hereinafter referred to as the "Act"), the undersigned does make and file this Certificate of Incorporation and does hereby certify as follows:

FIRST: The name of the Corporation is:

[Surviving Corporation]

SECOND: The duration of the Corporation is perpetual.

THIRD: The address of its registered office in the State of Oklahoma is 115 S.W. 89th Street, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma 731139-8511. The name of its registered agent at such address is Corporation Service Company.

FOURTH: The nature of the businesses or purposes to be conducted or promoted are:

To conduct any lawful business, to exercise any lawful purpose and power, and to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the Act, and in general, to possess and exercise all the powers and privileges granted by the Act or by any other law of Oklahoma or by this Certificate of Incorporation together with any powers incidental thereto, so far as such powers and privileges are necessary or convenient to the conduct, promotion or attainment of the businesses or purposes of the Corporation.

FIFTH: The total number of shares of stock which the Corporation shall have authority to issue is One Hundred (100) shares, all of which shall be Common Stock. The par value of each such share of Common Stock is One Cent ($.01), amounting in the aggregate to One Dollar ($1.00) of capital. Each share of Common Stock shall entitle the holder thereof to one vote, in person or by proxy, on any matter upon which holders of Common Stock are entitled to vote.

SIXTH: (1) Indemnity for Third Party Actions. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of the Corporation against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the person's conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that such person's conduct was unlawful.

(2) Indemnity for Action by or in right of Corporation. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of the Corporation against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such suit or action was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such court shall deem proper.

Any repeal or modification of this Article SIXTH shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

SEVENTH. (1) To the fullest extent that the Act as it existed on [INSERT DATE OF CLOSING OF MERGER] (the "Effective Date"), permits the limitation or elimination of the liability of directors, no director of this Corporation shall be liable to this Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director. No amendment to or repeal of this Article SEVENTH shall apply to or have any effect on the liability or alleged liability of any director of this Corporation for or with respect to any acts or omissions of such director occurring prior to the time of such amendment or repeal.

(2) If the Act is amended after the Effective Date to further limit or eliminate liability of this Corporation's directors for breach of fiduciary duty, then a director of this Corporation shall not be liable for any such breach to the fullest extent permitted by the Act as so amended. If the Act is amended after the Effective Date to increase or expand liability of this Corporation's directors for breach of fiduciary duty, no such amendment shall apply to or have any effect on the liability or alleged liability of any director of this Corporation for or with respect to any acts or omissions of such director occurring prior to the time of such amendment or otherwise adversely affect any right or protection of a director of this Corporation existing at the time of such amendment.

EIGHTH: The Corporation reserves the right to amend or repeal any provision contained herein, to add any additional provisions hereto, to increase or decrease the number of authorized shares of stock, or to restate this Certificate of Incorporation in its entirety in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by the Act.

Opinion of Berenson & Company, LLC

January 30, 2011

CONFIDENTIAL

The Special Committee of the Board of Directors
Pre-Paid Legal Services, Inc.
One Pre-Paid Way
Ada, OK 74820-5813

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Berenson & Company, LLC understands that Pre-Paid Legal Services, Inc. (the "Company"), MidOcean PPL Holdings Corp. ("Parent") and PPL Acquisition Corp., a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent ("Merger Sub"), intend to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Agreement") pursuant to which Merger Sub would be merged with and into the Company in a merger (the "Merger"), in which each issued and outstanding share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (the "Company Common Stock"), other than any shares of Company Common Stock that are owned by the Company or any Company Subsidiary (as defined in the Agreement) or Parent or any subsidiary of Parent, would be converted into the right to receive $66.50 per share in cash (the "Merger Consideration").

You have asked us to render our opinion to you as to whether the Merger Consideration to be received by the holders of the shares of the Company Common Stock pursuant to the Merger is fair from a financial point of view to such holders as of the date hereof (the "Opinion").

In arriving at our Opinion, we have, among other things:

- (i) reviewed the Agreement;
- (ii) reviewed, and discussed with members of management of the Company, certain publicly available business and financial information relating to the Company that we deemed to be relevant, including the Company's recent public filings and financial statements;
- (iii) reviewed, and discussed with members of management of the Company, certain information, including financial forecasts, relating to the business, earnings, cash flow, capital structure, assets, liabilities and prospects of the Company, furnished to us by the Company;
- (iv) participated in certain discussions and negotiations among representatives of the Company and Parent and their advisors; and
- (v) reviewed such other information, performed such other analyses and took into account such other factors we deemed relevant.

For purposes of rendering the Opinion, we have assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial, legal, regulatory, tax, accounting and other information provided or otherwise made available to us, discussed with or reviewed by or for us, or publicly available, and we have not assumed any responsibility for independent verification of such information or for any independent valuation or appraisal of any assets or liabilities (including any contingent, derivative or off-balance-sheet assets and liabilities) of the Company, nor were we furnished with any such valuations or appraisals, nor have we evaluated the solvency or fair value of the Company under any laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar matters. We did not assume any obligation to, and accordingly did not, conduct any physical inspection of the properties or facilities of the Company. With respect to the financial forecast information furnished to or discussed with us by the Company, we have assumed, and relied upon the fact, that they were reasonably prepared and reflect the best currently available estimates and good faith judgments of the Company's senior management as to the expected future financial performance of the Company. In addition, we have assumed that all governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the Merger will be obtained without the imposition of any delay, limitation, restriction, divestiture or condition that would have a materially adverse effect on the Company.

The Opinion is necessarily based upon economic, monetary, market and other conditions, and on information made available to us, as of the date hereof, and we assume no responsibility for updating, revising or reaffirming this Opinion based on circumstances, developments or events occurring after the date hereof. As you know, we are not legal, tax, accounting or regulatory experts and have relied on the assessments of other advisors to the Company and the Special Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company with respect to such issues.

The Opinion is provided at the request and solely for the use and benefit of the Special Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company. The Opinion does not address the merits of the underlying decision by the Company to engage in the Merger or the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any strategic alternatives that may be available to the Company. This Opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of the Company as to how such shareholder should vote on the proposed Merger. We do not express any view on, and the Opinion does not address, any term or aspect of the Agreement or Merger other than as described in the last paragraph of this letter. In addition, you have not asked us to address, and this Opinion does not address, the fairness to, or any other consideration of, the holders of any class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of the Company, other than the holders of the shares of Company Common Stock.

We are acting as financial advisor to the Special Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company in connection with the Merger and will receive a fee from the Company for our services, a portion of which will be payable upon delivery of this Opinion and a portion of which is contingent upon the consummation of the Merger, and the Company has agreed to reimburse our expenses and to indemnify us for certain liabilities arising out of our engagement. We also may provide investment banking and other financial services to the Company and Parent and their respective affiliates in the future for which we may receive compensation.

As used in this section, the word "shareholder" means a holder of record of stock in a stock corporation and also a member of record of a nonstock corporation; the words "stock" and "share" mean and include what is ordinarily meant by those words and also membership or membership interest of a member of a nonstock corporation; and "depository receipt" means an instrument issued by a depository representing an interest in one or more shares, or fractions thereof, solely of stock of a corporation, which stock is deposited with the depository. The provisions of this subsection shall be effective only with respect to mergers or consolidations consummated pursuant to an agreement of merger or consolidation entered into after November 1, 1988.
- B. 1. Except as otherwise provided for in this subsection, appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation in a merger or consolidation, or of the acquired corporation in a share acquisition, to be effected pursuant to the provisions of Section 1081, other than a merger effected pursuant to subsection G of Section 1081, and Section 1082, 1086, 1087, 1090.1 or 1090.2 of this title.
2. a. No appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock which stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the shareholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the meeting of shareholders to act upon the agreement of merger or consolidation, were either:
- (1) listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.; or
  - (2) held of record by more than two thousand holders.
- No appraisal rights shall be available for any shares of stock of the constituent corporation surviving a merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the shareholders of the surviving corporation as provided in subsection G of Section 1081 of this title.
- b. In addition, no appraisal rights shall be available for any shares of stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, of the constituent corporation surviving a merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the shareholders of the surviving corporation as provided for in subsection F of Section 1081 of this title.
3. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 2 of this subsection, appraisal rights provided for in this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation if the holders thereof are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation pursuant to the provisions of Section 1081, 1082, 1086, 1087, 1090.1 or 1090.2 of this title to accept for the stock anything except:
- a. shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from the merger or consolidation or depository receipts thereof, or
  - b. shares of stock of any other corporation, or depository receipts in respect thereof, which shares of stock or depository receipts at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be either listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or held of record by more

c. cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in subparagraphs a and b of this paragraph, or

d. any combination of the shares of stock, depository receipts, and cash in lieu of the fractional shares or depository receipts described in subparagraphs a, b, and c of this paragraph.

4. In the event all of the stock of a subsidiary Oklahoma corporation party to a merger effected pursuant to the provisions of Section 1083 of this title is not owned by the parent corporation immediately prior to the merger, appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of the subsidiary Oklahoma corporation.

C. Any corporation may provide in its certificate of incorporation that appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as a result of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, any merger or consolidation in which the corporation is a constituent corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation. If the certificate of incorporation contains such a provision, the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections D and E of this section, shall apply as nearly as is practicable.

D. Appraisal rights shall be perfected as follows:

1. If a proposed merger or consolidation for which appraisal rights are provided under this section is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of shareholders, the corporation, not less than twenty (20) days prior to the meeting, shall notify each of its shareholders entitled to appraisal rights that appraisal rights are available for any or all of the shares of the constituent corporations, and shall include in the notice a copy of this section. Each shareholder electing to demand the appraisal of the shares of the shareholder shall deliver to the corporation, before the taking of the vote on the merger or consolidation, a written demand for appraisal of the shares of the shareholder. The demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the shareholder and that the shareholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of the shares of the shareholder. A proxy or vote against the merger or consolidation shall not constitute such a demand. A shareholder electing to take such action must do so by a separate written demand as herein provided. Within ten (10) days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation shall notify each shareholder of each constituent corporation who has complied with the provisions of this subsection and has not voted in favor of or consented to the merger or consolidation as of the date that the merger or consolidation has become effective; or

2. If the merger or consolidation is approved pursuant to the provisions of Section 1073 or 1083 of this title, either a constituent corporation before the effective date of the merger or consolidation or the surviving or resulting corporation within ten (10) days thereafter shall notify each of the holders of any class or series of stock of the constituent corporation who are entitled to appraisal rights of the approval of the merger or consolidation and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of such class or series of stock of the constituent corporation, and shall include in the notice a copy of this section. The notice may, and, if given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, shall, also notify the shareholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation. Any shareholder entitled to appraisal rights may, within twenty (20) days after the date of mailing of the notice, demand in writing from the surviving or resulting corporation the appraisal of the holder's shares. The demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the shareholder and that the shareholder intends to demand the appraisal of the holder's shares. If the notice does not notify shareholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation either:

a. each constituent corporation shall send a second notice before the effective date of the merger or consolidation notifying each of the holders of any class or series of stock of the constituent corporation that are entitled to appraisal rights of the effective date of the merger or consolidation, or

b. the surviving or resulting corporation shall send a second notice to all holders on or within ten (10) days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation; provided, however, that if the second notice is sent more than twenty (20) days following the mailing of the first notice, the second notice need only be sent to each shareholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and who has demanded appraisal of the holder's shares in accordance with this subsection. An affidavit of the secretary or assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the corporation that is required to give either notice that the notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. For purposes of determining the shareholders entitled to receive either notice, each constituent corporation may fix, in advance, a record date that shall be not more than ten (10) days prior to the date the notice is given; provided, if the notice is given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the record date shall be the effective date. If no record date is fixed and the notice is given prior to the effective date, the record date shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the notice is given.

- E. Within one hundred twenty (120) days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation or any shareholder who has complied with the provisions of subsections A and D of this section and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may file a petition in district court demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such shareholders; provided, however, at any time within sixty (60) days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any shareholder shall have the right to withdraw the demand of the shareholder for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation. Within one hundred twenty (120) days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any shareholder who has complied with the requirements of subsections A and D of this section, upon written request, shall be entitled to receive from the corporation surviving the merger or resulting from the consolidation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger or consolidation and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of the shares. The written statement shall be mailed to the shareholder within ten (10) days after the shareholder's written request for a statement is received by the surviving or resulting corporation or within ten (10) days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal pursuant to the provisions of subsection D of this section, whichever is later.
- F. Upon the filing of any such petition by a shareholder, service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the surviving or resulting corporation, which, within twenty (20) days after service, shall file, in the office of the court clerk of the district court in which the petition was filed, a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all shareholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements regarding the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving or resulting corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the surviving or resulting corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such duly verified list. The court clerk, if so ordered by the court, shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing on the petition by registered or certified mail to the surviving or resulting corporation and to the shareholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated. Notice shall also be given by one or more publications at least one (1) week before the day of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, or other publication as the court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication shall be approved by the court, and the costs thereof shall be borne by the surviving or resulting corporation.
- G. At the hearing on the petition, the court shall determine the shareholders who have complied with the provisions of this section and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The court may require the shareholders who have demanded an appraisal of their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the court clerk for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any shareholder fails to comply with this direction, the court may dismiss the proceedings as to that shareholder.
- H. After determining the shareholders entitled to an appraisal, the court shall appraise the shares, determining their fair value exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger or consolidation, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. In determining the fair value, the court shall take into account all relevant factors. In determining the fair rate of interest, the court may consider all relevant factors, including the rate of interest which the surviving or resulting corporation would have to pay to borrow money during the pendency of the proceeding. Upon application by the surviving or resulting corporation or by any shareholder entitled to participate in the appraisal proceeding, the court may, in its discretion, permit discovery or other pretrial proceedings and may proceed to trial upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the shareholder entitled to an appraisal. Any shareholder whose name appears on the list filed by the surviving or resulting corporation pursuant to the provisions of subsection F of this section and who has submitted the certificates of stock of the shareholder to the court clerk, if required, may participate fully in all proceedings until it is finally determined that the shareholder is not entitled to appraisal rights pursuant to the provisions of this section.

- I. The court shall direct the payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving or resulting corporation to the shareholders entitled thereto. Interest may be simple or compound, as the court may direct. Payment shall be made to each shareholder, in the case of holders of uncertificated stock immediately, and in the case of holders of shares represented by certificates upon the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing the stock. The court's decree may be enforced as other decrees in the district court may be enforced, whether the surviving or resulting corporation be a corporation of this state or of any other state.
- J. The costs of the proceeding may be determined by the court and taxed upon the parties as the court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon application of a shareholder, the court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any shareholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all of the shares entitled to an appraisal.
- K. From and after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, no shareholder who has demanded appraisal rights as provided for in subsection D of this section shall be entitled to vote the stock for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on the stock, except dividends or other distributions payable to shareholders of record at a date which is prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation; provided, however, that if no petition for an appraisal shall be filed within the time provided for in subsection E of this section, or if the shareholder shall deliver to the surviving or resulting corporation a written withdrawal of the shareholder's demand for an appraisal and an acceptance of the merger or consolidation, either within sixty (60) days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation as provided for in subsection E of this section or thereafter with the written approval of the corporation, then the right of the shareholder to an appraisal shall cease; provided further, no appraisal proceeding in the district court shall be dismissed as to any shareholder without the approval of the court, and approval may be conditioned upon terms as the court deems just.
- L. The shares of the surviving or resulting corporation into which the shares of any objecting shareholders would have been converted had they assented to the merger or consolidation shall have the status of authorized and unissued shares of the surviving or resulting corporation.
