Item 2.04. Triggering Events That Accelerate or Increase a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation Under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement.

On October 22, 2016, CoroWare, Inc. (“Coroware”) received a formal notice of default from YA Global Investments, LP (“YA Global”) with respect to various loan agreements (“Loan Agreements”). The formal notice of default is included as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

Coroware, in its Form 8-K filed on February 9, 2016, described its entry into a Forbearance Agreement dated February 5, 2016 with YA Global whereby YA Global and Coroware agreed to consolidate outstanding convertible notes previously in default totaling $2,829,690 (principal and interest) owed to YA Global into a new Amended, Restated and Consolidated Convertible Debenture (“Debenture”) of the same amount secured by Coroware intellectual property and other assets, and YA Global agreed to refrain from converting the new Debenture or exercising any rights or remedies that they may have as specified in the new Debenture over a period ending on April 30, 2016, unless a breach of the Forbearance Agreement or the new Debenture occurs. The conditions of the Forbearance Agreement have already been fulfilled by Coroware. The Forbearance Agreement and the Debenture comprise the Loan Agreements.

The Debenture, issued on February 9, 2016 in the principal amount of $2,829,690, bears annual interest of 6%, and has a Maturity Date of April 30, 2016, which may be extended at the option of YA Global provided no Event of Default (such as failure to timely pay any amount due, initiation of Coroware bankruptcy proceedings, cessation of quoting or listing of Coroware common stock for five (5) consecutive trading days, etc.) shall have occurred. Interest, in case of an Event of Default, at YA Global’s option, shall be increased to 18% per annum. The Debenture is secured by a pledge of Coroware assets, intellectual property and Coroware guaranties pursuant to an Amended and Restated Global Security Agreement, an Amended and Restated Intellectual Property Security Agreement) and a Global Guaranty Agreement. The Debenture is convertible at any time by YA Global, subject to a 9.99% limitation on the total amount of outstanding common shares owned by YA Global after a conversion; however this limitation may be waived by YA Global upon not less than 65 days prior notice to Coroware. The Conversion Price is the lesser of (a) $0.0003 or (b) fifty percent (50%) of the lowest daily Volume Weighted Average Price of the Common Stock during the twenty (20) consecutive trading days immediately preceding the date of conversion.

The foregoing description of the agreements referenced above is a general description only and does not purport to be a complete description of all terms of the agreements.

As a result of Coroware’s defaults on the Loan Agreements, including but not limited to failure to make payment in accordance with the Loan Agreements, YA Global has accelerated the amount to be immediately due and owing under the Loan Agreements to be a total of $2,885,607.98 ($2,769,990.00 principal and $115,617.98 interest (as of Oct. 18, 2016)). Interest accrues at the rate of $446.46 per day. According to the notice of default, YA Global will proceed with litigation unless Coroware has paid the full amount due and owing by October 28, 2016.

The notice of default notes that YA Global is the senior secured creditor with respect to all accounts receivable of Coroware (and its subsidiaries) and directs Coroware to inform all account debtors to remit all sums due Coroware to YA Global.
