Partnership with ExxonMobil for exploration in Turkey

Rio de Janeiro, January 13, 2010 Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. - Petrobras announces its wholly-owned subsidiary Petrobras Oil & Gas B.V., signed an agreement with ExxonMobil Exploration and Production Turkey B.V., on January 11, to transfer 25% of its stakes in the farm-in agreement for Block 3922 (Sinop), located in deep Black Sea waters, in Turkey. With the signature of the agreement, ExxonMobil will now hold 25% equity stakes in the Block's concession license. Petrobras, which previously held 50% of the stakes, now holds 25% and continues as the operator for the project. Meanwhile, the Turkish national oil company, Turkish Petroleum Corporation (TPAO), holds the remaining 50% of the stakes.

The drilling rig to be used in this project - the Leiv Eiriksson - arrived in Turkey on December 31. Drilling operations are expected to begin in the first quarter of 2010 in the Sinop-1 well, located some 145 kilometers from the city of Sinop, nestled in ultra-deep Black Sea waters.

With this transaction, Petrobras seeks a new partnership to develop its exploratory activities in Turkey, but maintains its performance strategy in the country, which is part of the investments planned for the international segment.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (Securities Act), and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (Exchange Act) that are not based on historical facts and are not assurances of future results. These forward-looking statements are based on management's current view and estimates of future economic circumstances, industry conditions, company performance and financial results. The words "anticipates", "believes", "estimates", "expects", "plans" and similar expressions, as they relate to the company, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Statements regarding the declaration or payment of dividends, the implementation of principal operating and financing strategies and capital expenditure plans, the direction of future operations and the factors or trends affecting financial condition, liquidity or results of operations are examples of forward-looking statements. Such statements reflect the current views of management and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties. There is no guarantee that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. The statements are based on many assumptions and factors, including general economic and market conditions, industry conditions, and operating factors. Any changes in such assumptions or factors could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations.

All forward-looking statements are expressly qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement, and you should not place reliance on any forward-looking statement contained in this press release. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information or future events or for any other reason.
