NOTICE TO THE MARKET

BRASKEM S.A. (Braskem or Company) hereby announces to shareholders and the market that, with the aim of reducing, without compromising its financial solidity, the main judicial contingencies succeeded by Braskem at the merger of its subsidiaries, it has entered into a judicial agreement with the Union of Workers in the Petrochemical, Chemical, Plastics and Related Industries of the State of Bahia (Sindicato dos Trabalhadores nas Indústrias e Empresas Petroquímicas, Químicas, Plásticas e afins do Estado da Bahia) in the net amount of R$ 130 million, to resolve the dispute involving the clause providing for the wage indexation included in the collective labor agreement ("Clause 4"), in view of the public order rule instituted in 1990 that restricted wage adjustments.

In addition, in view of the conflicting media reports in recent weeks, Braskem clarifies that the Superior Court of Justice (STJ) confirmed, by a 3-to-1 vote, the decision of the 4th Regional Court in favor of the Company regarding the tax debits (income tax and social contribution) of the former Companhia Petroquímica do Sul Copesul (Law 8,200/91) that were succeeded by Braskem, in the approximate amount of R$ 550 million. Since this amount was not provisioned on the Company's balance sheet, the effect on Braskem's results and cash position will be null.
