NOTICE TO THE MARKET

Companhia Brasileira de Distribuição ("CBD" or "Company"), pursuant to CVM Instruction 358/02 and considering the news published in both Brazilian and French press about negotiations with Carrefour, informs its shareholders and the market that the Company is not involved in any negotiation with Carrefour and did not mandate any financial advisor for this purpose.

The shareholder Casino Guichard Perrachon informed CBD that it was unaware of any negotiations until disclosed by the press and it did not authorize any third party to represent its interests in such negotiations. The shareholder Abilio Diniz informed that he is always looking for the Company's growth opportunities and there is no fact that could justify market disclosure.

The Company reiterates its commitment to full transparency in communications with its shareholders and will keep the market and its shareholders properly informed about any transaction, under applicable law.

The Company's Investor Relations Department is at the shareholders' disposal to clarify any matters relating to the purpose of this Notice through telephone number +55 11 3886-0421 or e-mail gpa.ri@grupopaodeacucar.com.br.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release may contain forward-looking statements. These statements are statements that are not historical facts, and are based on management's current view and estimates of future economic circumstances, industry conditions, company performance and financial results. The words "anticipates", "believes", "estimates", "expects", "plans" and similar expressions, as they relate to the company, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Statements regarding the declaration or payment of dividends, the implementation of principal operating and financing strategies and capital expenditure plans, the direction of future operations and the factors or trends affecting financial condition, liquidity or results of operations are examples of forward-looking statements. Such statements reflect the current views of management and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties. There is no guarantee that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. The statements are based on many assumptions and factors, including general economic and market conditions, industry conditions, and operating factors. Any changes in such assumptions or factors could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations.
