Quarterly Information (ITR) at

March 31, 2012

and Report on the Review of Quarterly Information

Report on the review of the quarterly information

To the Board of Directors and Shareholders

Braskem S.A.

Introduction

We have reviewed the accompanying parent company and consolidated interim accounting information of Braskem S.A., included in the Quarterly Information Form (ITR) for the quarter ended March 31, 2012, comprising the balance sheet as at that date and the statements of operations, comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows for the quarter then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management is responsible for the preparation of the parent company interim accounting information in accordance with the accounting standard CPC 21 - Interim Financial Reporting, of the Brazilian Accounting Pronouncements Committee (CPC), and of the consolidated interim accounting information in accordance with CPC 21 and International Accounting Standard (IAS) 34 - Interim Financial Reporting issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB), as well as the presentation of this information in accordance with the standards issued by the Brazilian Securities Commission (CVM), applicable to the preparation of the Quarterly Information (ITR). Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on this interim accounting information based on our review.

Scope of review

We conducted our review in accordance with Brazilian and International Standards on Reviews of Interim Financial Information (NBC TR 2410 – Review of Interim Financial Information Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity and ISRE 2410 – Review of Interim Financial Information Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity, respectively). A review of interim information consists of making inquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with Brazilian and International Standards on Auditing and consequently does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

Conclusion on the parent company interim information

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the accompanying parent company interim accounting information included in the quarterly information referred to above has not been prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with CPC 21 applicable to the preparation of the Quarterly Information, and presented in accordance with the standards issued by the CVM.

Conclusion on the consolidated

interim information

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the accompanying consolidated interim accounting information included in the quarterly information referred to above has not been prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with CPC 21 and IAS 34 applicable to the preparation of the Quarterly Information, and presented in accordance with the standards issued by the CVM.

Report on the review of the quarterly information

Other matters

Statements of value added

We have also reviewed the parent company and consolidated statements of value added for the quarter ended March 31, 2012. These statements are the responsibility of the Company's management, and are required to be presented in accordance with standards issued by the CVM applicable to the preparation of Quarterly Information (ITR) and are considered supplementary information under IFRS, which do not require the presentation of the statement of value added. These statements have been submitted to the same review procedures described above and, based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that they have not been prepared, in all material respects, in a manner consistent with the parent company and consolidated interim accounting information taken as a whole.

1. Operations

Braskem S.A. (“Parent Company”) is a public corporation headquartered in Camaçari, State of Bahia, which, together with its subsidiaries and jointly-controlled subsidiaries (“Braskem” or “Company”) operates 35 industrial units. Braskem S.A. is controlled by Odebrecht S.A. (“Odebrecht”), which directly and indirectly holds interests of 50.11% and 38.11% in its voting and total capital, respectively.

(a) Relevant operating event

In December 2011, Sunoco Chemicals, Inc. (“Sunoco”) announced the definitive shutdown of its refinery responsible for supplying feedstocks to one of the five polypropylene (“PP”) plants of the subsidiary Braskem America in the United States.

In 2012, Sunoco formally informed Braskem America’s Management of its alternative plan for feedstock supply, as required under the supply agreement entered into between the parties in 2010.

Pursuant to the plan and notices communicated by Sunoco, the latter confirmed the definitive termination of the supply agreement as of June 9, 2012 and the payment of the damages provided for therein, to be made on the same date.

The amount of damages, as per the agreement, totals R$235,962 (US$129.5 million). The amount was recorded by Braskem in the first quarter of 2012 in “other accounts receivable” (Note 13) under current assets, and “other operating revenues (expenses)” (Note 30). Current income tax on this revenue, at the effective rate in the United States, was R$82,587 (Note 20).

Despite the termination of the supply agreement, the Management of Braskem America has been working to develop alternative supply and logistics solutions in order to continue operations at the unit and has already identified other sources to supply the feedstock required.

Furthermore, Management decided to test for impairment the Cash Generating Unit (“CGU”) formed by the PP plants in the United States and that comprise the International Business segment, as described in Note 15. No losses were identified in this test.

(b) Corporate events

(b.1) On January 27, 2012, the controlling shareholder of Braskem, BRK Investimentos Petroquímicos S.A. (“BRK”) was proportionally spun-off. As a result of this spin-off, part of the shares issued by Braskem that were held by BRK was delivered to Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. – Petrobras (“Petrobras”). BRK became a wholly-owned subsidiary of Odebrecht Serviços e Participações (“OSP”) and maintained ownership of shares corresponding to 50.11% and 28.23% of the voting and total capital of Braskem, respectively. On the same date, the merger of Petrobras Química S.A. – Petroquisa (“Petroquisa”) into Petrobras was approved and Petrobras became the holder of 47.03% and 35.95% of the voting and total capital of Braskem, respectively.

(b.2) On February 27, 2012, the company Braskem International GmbH (“Braskem Áustria”) was incorporated with the purpose of holding equity interests in other companies, in addition to performing financial and commercial operations. The capital stock was fully paid up by Braskem, a single partner, in the amount of R$81 (EUR 35 thousand) (Note 14(b)).

(b.3) On February 28, 2012, the Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting of Braskem approved the merger of the subsidiary Ideom Tecnologia Ltda., based on its net book value as of December 31, 2011, in the amount of R$20,762, pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in the protocol and justification dated February 6, 2012.

(c) Net working capital

On March 31, 2012, the Parent Company's net working capital was negative by R$445,804. On the other hand, consolidated net working capital was positive by R$516,761. Because the consolidated figures are used in the management of working capital, since the Company uses mechanisms to transfer funds between the companies efficiently without jeopardizing the fulfillment of the commitments of each of the entities forming the consolidated statements, any analysis of the parent company's working capital will not reflect the actual liquidity position of the consolidated group.

The Company also has two revolving credit lines that may be used at any time (Note 3.3).

(d) Effect of foreign exchange variation

The Company has balances and transactions recorded in U.S. dollars, such as financial investments, trade accounts receivable, trade payables and borrowings. The balances of assets and liabilities are translated based on the exchange rate at the end of each period, while transactions are based on the effective exchange rate on the date they occur, which are informed by the Central Bank of Brazil.

The following table shows the U.S. dollar period-end and average exchange rates for the periods in this report:

3. Risk management

Braskem is exposed to (i) market risks arising from variations in commodity prices, foreign exchange rates and interest rates; (ii) the credit risks of its counterparties in cash equivalents, financial investments and trade accounts receivable; and (iii) liquidity risks to meet its obligations related to financial liabilities.

Braskem adopts procedures for managing market, credit and liquidity risks that are in conformity with the financial policy approved by the Board of Directors on August 9, 2010. The purpose of risk management is to protect the cash flows of Braskem and reduce the threats to the financing of its operating working capital and investment programs.

3.1. Market risk

Braskem prepares a sensitivity analysis for the main types of market risk to which it is exposed, which is presented in Note 18.4.

(a) Exposure to commodity risks

Braskem is exposed to fluctuations in the prices of many petrochemical commodities, in particular its main raw material, naphtha. Braskem seeks to pass through the fluctuations in the prices of these commodities caused by fluctuations in international prices and also enters into derivatives contracts to protect against exposure to commodity risks. On March 31, 2012, the Company held swap operations for naphtha and ethanol (Note 18.2.1). Additionally, an immaterial part of sales is performed based on fixed-price contracts or contracts with a maximum and/or minimum fluctuation range. These contracts can be commercial agreements or derivative contracts associated with future sales.

Braskem S.A.

Notes to the financial statements

at March 31, 2012

All amounts in thousands of reais unless otherwise stated

(b) Exposure to foreign exchange risk

Braskem has commercial operations denominated or indexed in foreign currencies. Braskem's inputs and products have prices denominated in or strongly influenced by international prices of commodities, which are usually denominated in U.S. dollar. Additionally, Braskem has long-term loans in foreign currencies that expose it to variations in the foreign exchange rate between the real and the foreign currency, in particular the U.S. dollar. Braskem manages its exposure to foreign exchange risk through a combination of debts in foreign currencies, investments in foreign currencies and derivatives. Braskem's financial policy to manage foreign exchange risks provides for the maximum and minimum coverage limits that should be followed and which are continuously monitored by its Management.

On March 31, 2012, Braskem prepared a sensitivity analysis for the exposure to U.S. dollar risk (Note 18.4(c)).

(c) Exposure to interest rate risk

Braskem is exposed to the risk that a variation in floating interest rates causes an increase in its financial expense due to payments of future interest. Debt denominated in foreign currency subject to floating rates is mainly subject to fluctuations in LIBOR. Debt denominated in local currency is mainly subject to the variation in the Long-Term Interest Rate ("TJLP"), in fixed rates in Brazilian real and in the Interbank Certificate of Deposit ("daily CDI") rate. Braskem has swap contracts designated as hedge accounting with asset positions subject to floating LIBOR and liability positions subject to fixed rates.

On March 31, 2012, Braskem prepared a sensitivity analysis for exposure to the risk of floating interest rates based on LIBOR (Note 18.4(d)).

3.2. Exposure to credit risk

The transactions that subject Braskem to the concentration of credit risks are mainly in current accounts with banks, financial investments and trade accounts receivable in which Braskem is exposed to the risk of the financial institution or customer involved. In order to manage this risk, Braskem maintains bank current accounts and financial investments with large financial institutions, weighting concentrations in accordance with the credit rating and the daily prices observed in the Credit Default Swap market for the institutions, as well as netting contracts that minimize the total credit risk arising from the many financial transactions entered into by the parties.

On March 31, 2012, Braskem held netting contracts with Banco Citibank S.A. HSBC Bank Brasil S.A. – Banco Múltiplo, Banco Itaú BBA S.A. Banco Safra S.A. Banco Santander (Brasil) S.A. Banco Votorantim S.A. Banco West LB do Brasil S.A. Banco Caixa Geral – Brasil S.A. and Banco Bradesco S.A., which seek to mitigate credit and liquidity risks in the event of the insolvency of the parties involved. Approximately 41% of the amounts held in cash and cash equivalents (Note 5) and financial investments (Note 6) are contemplated by these agreements, whose related liabilities are recorded under “borrowings” (Note 17).

With respect to the credit risk of customers, Braskem protects itself by performing a rigorous analysis before granting credit and obtaining secured and unsecured guarantees when considered necessary.

The maximum exposure to credit risk of non-derivative financial instruments on the reporting date is their carrying amounts less any impairment losses. On March 31, 2012, the balance of trade accounts receivable was net of allowance for doubtful accounts of R$267,267 (R$253,607 on December 31, 2011).

3.3. Liquidity risk and capital management

Braskem has a calculation methodology to determine operating cash and minimum cash for the purpose of, respectively: (i) ensuring the liquidity of short-term obligations, calculated based on the expectation of operating disbursements for the following month; and (ii) ensuring that the Company maintains liquidity in possible moments of crisis, calculated based on the expectation of operating cash generation, less short-term debts, working capital needs, among other items.

In some borrowing agreements, Braskem has financial covenants that link net debt and the payment of interest to its consolidated EBITDA (Earnings before interests, taxes, depreciation and amortization) (Note 17). The Company's Management monitors these indicators on quarterly basis in U.S. dollar, as established in the borrowing agreements.

Additionally, Braskem has two revolving credit lines amounting to: (i) US$350 million, which may be used without restriction for a period of three years as from September 2010; and (ii) US$250 million, which may be used without restriction for a period of five years as from August 2011. These credit facilities allow for reducing the cash held by Braskem. On March 31, 2012, Braskem had not drawn any credit from these lines.

4. Business combination

On September 30, 2011, Braskem, through its subsidiaries Braskem America and Braskem Alemanha, acquired the PP business from Dow Chemical for R$607.6 million (US$323 million). On the same date, the amount of R$312.3 million (US$166 million) was paid, which corresponds to the portion of trade payables that were assumed in the transaction.

The agreement also provided for adjustments to the amount paid based on the variation in trade accounts receivable and inventory, for which the final amount was a receivable of approximately R$23.7 million (US$12.3 million) by the acquirers.

On February 8, 2012, the transaction was approved by the Brazilian antitrust agency Conselho Administrativo de Defesa Econômica (“CADE”).

Independent appraisers were contracted to determine the assets acquired and liabilities assumed at fair value. This work is expected to be completed by the end of the first half of 2012, when any adjustments will be recognized.

The information related to business combinations formed by the Company was presented in the Company's 2011 annual financial statements, in Note 5.

This table was presented in the Company's 2011 annual financial statements, in Note 16.

The projects in progress mainly relate to operating improvements to increase the economic useful life of machinery and equipment and to the expansion projects, particularly the expansion of the PVC plant in the state of Alagoas and the construction of a new butadiene plant in the state of Rio Grande do Sul. In addition, the balance includes the Company's investment (project finance) in Mexico called Ethylene XXI, for the construction of an ethylene and polyethylene plant through the subsidiary Braskem Idesa.

Impairment test for property, plant and equipment

With the announcement of the shutdown of the refinery of Sunoco scheduled for June 9, 2012 (Note 1(a)), the Company's Management decided to conduct impairment testing for the CGU composed of the PP plants in the United States, which is part of the International Business operating segment, in accordance with the guidelines in CPC 1. The test indicated that there is no need to provision for impairment loss of this CGU.

The assumptions used to determine the discounted cash flow include: cash flows for five years based on the Business Plan, discount rates based on the Weighted Average Cost of Capital (WACC) of 8.1% a year and growth rates to determine the perpetuity based on annual inflation rate according to the CPI (Consumer Price Index – rate available in the USA) of 2.3% per year.

Braskem S.A.Notes to the financial statementsat March 31, 2012*All amounts in thousands of reais unless otherwise stated

Considering the impact of the “discount rate” and “growth rate for perpetuity” on the potential cash flows, it was performed a sensitivity analysis with changes in these variables which also indicated that there is no need to record a provision. This sensitivity analysis considered two scenarios, of which (i) +0.5% in the discount rate, and (ii) - 0.5% growth rate in perpetuity.

There were no significant events or circumstances in the period ended March 31, 2012 that indicate the need for impairment testing on property, plant and equipment of other CGUs and/or operating segments of the Company.

This table was presented in the Company’s 2011 annual financial statements, in Note 17.

Impairment testing of intangible assets with indefinite useful life

In December 2011, the Company tested intangible assets for impairment and did not identify any losses. The projection of cash flows used was 5 years as from December 2011. The assumptions used to determine the amount using the discounted cash flow method include: projections of cash flows based on estimates of business for future cash flows, discounted rates based on the Weighted Average Cost of Capital (WACC) and growth rates to determine perpetuity based on annual inflation measured by the IPCA consumer price index (Índice Nacional de Preços ao Consumidor Amplo).

There were no significant events or circumstances in the period ended March 31, 2012 that indicate the need for impairment testing of the intangible assets with indefinite useful life.

(i) Braskem contracted hedge transactions for certain export prepayment contracts in order to offset the variation in LIBOR (Note 18.2.1(b.i)). On March 31, 2012, the breakdown of the charges on these contracts already shows the nominal rate applied taking into consideration these transactions.

(ii) On March 31, 2012, the balance of financial investments of Braskem Holanda was irrevocably offset in the consolidated financial statements using the balance of EPP of the Parent Company, in accordance with the credit assignment contract entered into between those companies and Banco Bradesco (Note 6). Such offsetting is allowed under CPC 39 when there is intent to realize a financial asset and to settle a financial liability simultaneously.

Braskem S.A.Notes to the financial statements*at March 31, 2012*All amounts in thousands of reais unless otherwise stated

(iii) On March 29, 2012, this borrowing was completely settled in advance.

(iv) The operation establishes formal financial covenants between the Company and the financial institution (Note 17(i)).

(i) Financial covenants

Some of the borrowing agreements of the Company (Note 17 (b.iv) and 17e)) establish limits for certain indicators related to the capacity to contract debt and pay interest.

The first indicator establishes a limit for the indebtedness of the Company based on its EBITDA generating capacity.

The second indicator stipulated in the agreements of the Company is the division of consolidated EBITDA by net interest, which corresponds to the difference between interest paid and interest received.

On March 31, 2012, the Company was in compliance with all commitments undertaken.

The information related to borrowings was presented in the Company's 2011 annual financial statements, in Note 19.

Fair value hierarchy

Level 1 – fair value obtained through prices quoted (without adjustments) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities, such as the stock exchange.

Level 2 - Fair value obtained from discounted cash flow models, when the instrument is a forward purchase or sale or a swap contract, or valuation models of option contracts, such as the Black-Scholes model, when the derivative has the characteristics of an option; and Level 3 - techniques that use data that have a significant effect on fair value and that are not based on observable market data, that is, unobservable inputs. The Company did not apply this technique on its financial instruments.

Total				(1,095)	(833)

The purpose of these swap operations is to offset the interest rate risk arising from the borrowings mentioned in Note 17(d).

(c) Effectiveness test of transactions designated for hedge accounting

The effectiveness test at March 31, 2012, showed that the derivatives were effective in offsetting the changes in the hedged item from the time the derivatives were contracted until the end of the reporting period, and that all other conditions for qualifying these instruments for hedge accounting were met. Consequently, the effective portion of the changes in the fair value of the derivatives, amounting to R$359 (Note 18.2.2), was recorded as "other comprehensive income".

(d) Estimated maximum loss

The amount at risk of the derivatives held by Braskem on March 31, 2012, which is defined as the highest loss that could result in one month and in 95% of the cases under normal market conditions, was estimated by the Company at US$47,940 for the EPP swaps, US$75,700 for NCE swap and R$26,950 for the NEXI swaps.

Braskem S.A.Notes to the financial statements*at March 31, 2012*All amounts in thousands of reais unless otherwise stated*18.2.2. Hedge operations presented under “other comprehensive income”
in shareholders' equity

The derivatives indicated in item 18.2.1 (b) were designated as cash flow hedge, resulting in closing balances under “other comprehensive income”. The appropriations of interest are allocated to interest expenses in the financial expenses group. The summary of changes in the account is as follows:

	Dec/2011	Appropriation of interest	Change in fair value	Mar/2012
Swaps EPP	(17,071)	15,972	(621)	(1,720)
Swap NCE	833		262	1,095
	(16,238)	15,972	(359)	(625)

On March 31, 2012, the appropriation of accrued interest and change in the fair value of derivatives designated as “cash flow hedge” was R$15,613, which, with the effect of income tax and social contribution of R$5,309, amounts to R$10,304 and is presented in “other comprehensive income” under shareholders' equity.

18.3. Credit quality of financial assets(a) Trade accounts receivable

Edgar Filing: BRASKEM SA - Form 6-K

Only a few of the Company's customers have risk ratings assigned by credit rating agencies. For this reason, the Company developed its own credit rating system for all accounts receivable from domestic customers and part of the accounts receivable from foreign customers. The Company does not apply this rating to all of its foreign customers because most accounts receivable from them are covered by an insurance policy or letters of credit issued by banks. As of March 31, 2012, the credit ratings were as follows:

		Percentage
1	Minimum risk	21.05
2	Low risk	30.19
3	Moderate risk	35.48
4	High risk	4.60
5	Very high risk (i)	8.69

(i) Most customers in this group are inactive and the respective accounts are in the process of collection actions in the courts. Customers in this group that are still active purchase from Braskem and pay in advance.

Delinquency indicators:

- Mar/2012: 0.36%
- Dec/2011: 0.18%
- Dec/2010: 0.13%

(i) Financial assets with no internal or external ratings.

(ii) Risk-free financial assets

Braskem's financial policy determines "A-" as the minimum rating for financial investments. On March 31, 2012, Braskem has balances rated at "B+" and "BB+" related to the jointly controlled companies Propilsur and Polimerica, in the amount of R$2,594 (R$3,590 on December 31, 2011) and Time Deposits with Special Guarantee (DPGE) in the amount of R$14,922 (R$19,028 on December 31, 2011), respectively. The DPGEs are guaranteed by the Credit Guarantee Fund – FGC, which makes these investments appropriate to Braskem's policy.

18.4. Sensitivity analysis

The financial instruments, including derivatives, may be subject to changes in their fair value as a result of the variation in commodity prices, foreign exchange rates, interest rates, shares and share indexes, price indexes and other variables. The sensitivity of the derivative and non-derivative financial instruments to these variables are presented below:

(a) Selection of risks

On March 31, 2012, the two main risks that can affect the value of the Company's financial instruments are:

- Brazilian real-U.S. dollar exchange rate;
- LIBOR floating interest rate.

For the purposes of the risk sensitivity analysis, the Company presents the exposures to currencies as if they were independent, that is, without reflecting in the exposure to a foreign exchange rate the risks of the variation in other foreign exchange rates that could be directly influenced by it.

(b) Selection of scenarios

In accordance with CVM Instruction No. 475/08, the Company included three scenarios in the sensitivity analysis, with one that is probable and two that may represent adverse effects to the Company. In the preparation of the adverse scenarios, only the impact of the variables on the financial instruments, including derivatives, and on the items covered by hedge transactions, was considered. The overall impacts on the Company's operations, such as those arising from the revaluation of inventories and revenue and future costs, were not considered. Since the Company manages its exposure to foreign exchange rate risk on a net basis, adverse effects from depreciation in the Brazilian real in relation to the U.S. dollar can be offset by opposing effects on Braskem's operating results.

The Market Readout published by the Central Bank of Brazil on March 30, 2012 was used to create the probable scenario for the reference date December 31, 2012. The Market Readout presents a consensus of market expectations based on a survey of the forecasts made by various financial and non-financial institutions.

For the interest rate variables not considered in the Market Readout, the probable scenario considered was the percentage variation in the Interbank Certificate of Deposit (CDI) rate. For the exchange rate variables not included in the Market Readout survey, the probable scenario considered was the percentage variation in the U.S. dollar-Brazilian real exchange rate.

For the Brazilian real-U.S. dollar exchange rate, an increase of 25% was considered for the possible adverse scenario and of 50% for the extreme scenario based on the exchange rate on March 31, 2012.

For the LIBOR interest rate, a decrease of 25% was considered for the possible adverse scenario and of 50% for the extreme scenario based on the LIBOR rate on March 31, 2012.

The sensitivity amounts in the table below are the changes in the value of the financial instruments in each scenario, except for table (e), which shows the changes in future cash flows.

(i) On March 31, 2012, the net income for the period of R$153,558 was insufficient for the distribution of dividends to the common shares, for which reason this class of shares was removed from the weighted average used to calculate earnings per share.

(ii) In the calculation of the weighted average, the Company's shares repurchased by a financial institution that are not yet recorded as "treasury shares" were excluded from the base (Note 26 (c)).

The information related to the Company's earnings per share was presented in its 2011 annual financial statements, in Note 30.
