Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On April 2, 2008, we received a notice from the Listing Qualifications staff of the Nasdaq Stock Market (the "Nasdaq Staff") indicating that our shares of common stock were subject to potential delisting from the Nasdaq Global Market for non-compliance with Marketplace Rule 4310(c)(14). This non-compliance resulted from our failure to timely file our Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007. On March 18, 2008, we filed Form 12b-25 Notification of Late Filing, indicating that we were unable to timely file our Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007 because we needed additional time to finalize the accounting for income taxes, including finalizing the valuation allowance against the deferred tax asset and determining how much associated tax benefit we should recognize in the 2007 period. Additionally, we had identified an issue with the 2006 tax-related balance sheet account presentation but needed additional time to determine its impact. We were still unable to file our Form 10-K within the time allowed after the filing of Form 12b-25.

The Nasdaq Staff stated in the notice that, unless we requested a hearing before a Nasdaq Listing Qualifications Panel by April 9, 2008, our securities would be delisted from the Nasdaq Global Market at the opening of business on April 11, 2008. We could also cure the failure to comply and avoid Nasdaq action by filing our Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007 before any of these dates.

On April 8, 2008, we issued a press release announcing the receipt of the notice of pending delisting and our intent to remedy this non-compliance by filing our Form 10-K as soon as possible. In the event the Form 10-K cannot be filed prior to 4:00 Eastern Time on April 9, 2008, we intend to request a hearing before a Nasdaq Listing Qualifications Panel to review the Staff Determination. A copy of our press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this report and is incorporated herein by reference.
