Edgar Filing: GRAVITY Co., Ltd. - Form 6-K

Gravity Co., Ltd. announces the election of a new Chief Executive Officer(CEO) and the appointment of a Chief Strategy Officer(CSO) to lead its global operations

On March 29 2005, Gravity reshuffled its management through its 5th annual shareholders' meeting and its board of directors' meeting. Gravity's board of directors appointed Mr. Richard Hyonkook Kim, the former CEO and a member of board of directors, as Gravity's first-ever Chief Strategy Officer, or CSO, to be responsible for, and to focus on, Gravity's global operations. Mr. David Woong-Jin Yoon, another member of Gravity's board of directors and a financial expert with years of experience in managing IT businesses, has been elected to take Mr. Kim's place as a new CEO.

The appointment of Mr. Richard Kim as CSO comes as part of Gravity's bold move to reinforce and solidify the company-wide focus on Gravity's global including expanding the overseas market for Ragnarok Online as well as for online games, including the newly introduced R.O.S.E. Online. As Gravity's first CSO, Mr. Kim is dedicated to devote all of his energy to strengthening Gravity's global operations strategy, which includes developing a variety of content and new businesses for Gravity's overseas market. Mr. Richard Kim, in accepting his new post, stated that: "Gravity is making significant progress towards becoming a global corporation as evidenced by its Nasdaq-listed IPO and expansion of its online game operations into 23 countries. Based on a more focused and in-depth strategy, we will do our best to develop new markets for game publishing and strengthen our presence in the overseas markets."

On the other hand, Gravity was fortunate to find a CEO replacement in Mr. David Yoon, formerly Gravity's independent director. Mr. Yoon commands an expert comprehensive understanding of finance, business and strategic management through his years of experience in managing IT-related businesses. In his inaugural speech, Mr. Yoon stated that: "I will do my best to build on the successful Nasdaq-listed IPO of Gravity and to achieve Gravity's goal of becoming a 'Top Global Game Company'." Mr. Yoon holds an MBA from Wharton School of Business at University of Pennsylvania.
